P E T I T I O N .

Your petitioner, James T. Leard, of Milton, Indian Territory, respectfully requests the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes to place his name upon the final roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior, rendered December 8, 1905, in the Choctaw enrollment case of Loula West, et al., in support of this petition the following is submitted as a true and correct statement of facts:

Your petitioner was lawfully married in accordance with the then existing customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, on June 10, 1874, to Cora Leard (nee McCarty) a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears opposite number 7704 upon the final roll of citizens by blood of said nation, approved by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903. The marriage ceremony uniting said parties in marriage, as above stated, was performed by Singleton Smith, a minister of the Gospel, at his home in Skullyville County Choctaw Nation, and from the date of said marriage, on June 10, 1874, up to and including September 25, 1902 your petitioner and the said Cora Leard have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife. Your petitioner has, from the date of said marriage, been recognized in every way by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation and has possessed and exercised all the rights of such citizen. The name of your petitioner will be found, it is believed, upon the 1885 census roll of the Choctaw Nation for Skullyville County, and also upon the 1896

P E T I T I O N .

Your petitioner, James T. Leard, of Milton, Indian Territory, respectfully requests the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes to place his name upon the final roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior, rendered December 8, 1905, in the Choctaw enrollment case of Loula West, et al., in support of this petition the following is submitted as a true and correct statement of facts:

Your petitioner was lawfully married in accordance with the then existing customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, on June 10, 1874, to Cora Leard (nee McCarty) a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears opposite number 7704 upon the final roll of citizens by blood of said nation, approved by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903. The marriage ceremony uniting said parties in marriage, as above stated, was performed by Singleton Smith, a minister of the Gospel, at his home in Skullyville County Choctaw Nation, and from the date of said marriage, on June 10, 1874, up to and including September 25, 1902 your petitioner and the said Cora Leard have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife. Your petitioner has, from the date of said marriage, been recognized in every way by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation and has possessed and exercised all the rights of such citizen. The name of your petitioner will be found, it is believed, upon the 1885 census roll of the Choctaw Nation for Skullyville County, and also upon the 1896

Choctaw census roll, Skullyville County, number 14743 (as Jas. T. Leard), enrolled on said rolls as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation. Your petitioner has been election judge and road overseer in the Choctaw nation and has sat as a juror in the Choctaw Tribal courts.

The attention of the Commissioner is respectfully called to the decisions of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the Choctaw enrollment cases of Perry Russell, number 225, and Thomas J. West, number 27, which cases are analogous to the case of your petitioner. Perry Russell was lawfully married on July 20, 1874 to Margaret W. Russell (nee Wright), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and claiming through such marriage the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes held that the said Perry Russell should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation and he has been so enrolled. The case of Thomas J. West is a similar one and there are numerous instances where said Commission enrolled applicants occupying an analogous status to that of your petitioner.

Under the Act of June 10, 1896 your petitioner applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for admission to citizenship as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, which application was subsequently denied by said Commission. An appeal was taken from said decision of the Commission to the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory and said court reversed said decision of the Commission and admitted your petitioner to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage thereof. By the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641) the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court was created and said Court, on December 17, 1902, "set aside, annulled, vacated and held for naught" the aforesaid judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory. Said cause was subsequently appealed and certified to said Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court for a trial de novo and said court thereafter rendered a decision denying your petitioner admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage thereof.

Your petitioner respectfully states that he has at all times, since his marriage with his said Choctaw Indian wife in 1874, been recognized by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation as a citizen of said nation; that his name has been borne upon the tribal rolls of said nation, as above set forth, and that under the law, as interpreted by the Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior in his opinion in the Choctaw enrollment case of Loula West, et al., rendered on December 8, 1905, above referred to, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes had no jurisdiction under the Act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321) to deny your petitioner citizenship in the Choctaw Nation. "The United States Court, under the Act of 1896, supra, had in citizenship cases no other jurisdiction than an appellate one and from the very nature of such jurisdiction obtained no jurisdiction by an attempted appeal of a matter wherein the original tribunal had no jurisdiction. . . ." It follows that the attempted appeal of the United States Court in the case here under consideration vested no jurisdiction in said court and its judgment being essentially and necessarily a nullity, "the citizenship court itself obtained no jurisdiction in the case by going through the form of annulling a judgment that for total want of original jurisdiction had never any validity or operation".

WHEREFORE, your petitioner respectfully prays that he be granted an opportunity to introduce before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes testimony and written evidence tending to establish the truth of the allegations and statements herein made; that a day be set when such testimony and evidence, relative to the right of your petitioner to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, may be taken; and that if such a hearing

(Signed) James T. Leard, Petitioner.

James T. Teard, being first duly sworn, on oath states that he has read the foregoing petition, by him subscribed, knows the contents thereof and that the same is true in substance and in fact.

on oath state that the above and foregoing petition is a full, true and correct copy of a petition forwarded to Mansfield, McMurray Cornish on the 15th day of January, 1906, by registered mail, as shown by the receipt of post master therefor which is hereto attached the same being number 282.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 26, 1906.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of James T. Leard as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Under the regulations adopted by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes January 2, 1906, there was filed on January 16, 1906, by Apple & Franklin, attorneys for the petitioner, the petition praying for the enrollment of James T. Leard as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, by reason of his marriage to Cora McCarty, whose name appears upon the final roll of citizens of the Choctaw Nation, approved by the Secretary of the Interior, opposite No. 7504.

On February 6, 1906, the petitioner, James T. Leard, Wilton, Indian Territory, Apple & Franklin, attorneys for the petitioner, Muskogee, Indian Territory, and Messrs.
Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, South McAlester, Indian Territory, were advised that the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes would at his office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on Monday, February 26 1906, at ten o'clock A.M. hear such testimony and receive such other evidence as might be submitted in support of the petition for the enrollment of James T. Leard as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Now on this 26th day of February, 1906, ten o'clock A.M., the case being called for hearing, in conformity with the notices to the petitioner and attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, the following appearances were entered and proceedings had.

APPEARANCES:

The petitioner, James T. Leard,
Wirt Franklin, of Apple & Franklin, Muskogee, Indian Territory, appearing as attorney for the petitioner,
G. Rosenwinkel, of Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, appearing on behalf of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

The Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations object to any proceedings in this case, for the reason that the right of the applicant as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation has been fully determined by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, and the decree of the Citizenship Court being final, there is no power being vested in the Secretary of the Interior or any other tribunal to review this decree of the Citizenship Court.

JAMES T. LEARD, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commissioner:

- Q What is your name? A James T. Leard.
Q What is your post-office address? A Milton, Indian Territory.
Q In what nation is that? A Choctaw Nation.
Q How old are you? A I am 53 years of age.
Q Are you a married man? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Cora.
Q When were you married to her? A June 10, 1874.
Q Is your wife living? A Yes sir.
Q She is living with you, is she? A Yes sir.
Q Do you claim any Indian blood? A No sir.
Q The only right which you claim is by reason of your marriage to Cora McCarty? A Yes sir.
Q Is Cora McCarty a citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

The name of Cora Leard appears on the final roll of citizens of the Choctaw Nation, approved by the Secretary of the Interior, opposite No. 7704.

- Q When did you make application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation? A Why, at first, I made application when everybody, every white man that had married an Indian, made application to the Dawes Commission.
Q What time was that? A I don't remember the exact time, when they first came to this country, when they opened up the office, I believe in this town.
Q What did the Commission do with your application? A Why they turned it down.
Q What further steps did you take? A I went before Judge Clayton, and they reversed the decision.

- Q What steps were then taken? A Why after the Citizenship Court came up, why my case like the balance was out, then I went before this citizenship court.

Application was filed with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on September 8, 1896, praying for the enrollment of James T. Leard as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, said James T. Leard claiming his rights as an intermarried citizen by his marriage with Cora McCarty, a citizen of the Choctaw Nation by blood.

December 8, 1896, the Commission denied this application, from which decision appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, which Court on July 13, 1897, reversed the decision of the Commission.

On December 17, 1902 it was decreed by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court that the above judgment of the United States Court be set aside, annulled and held for naught.

On March 30, 1904, the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court rendered a decree in the case of James T. Leard vs. the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, in which it was ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiff be denied, and that he be not deemed a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

By Mr. Franklin:

- Q Mr. Leard, what is your father's name? A John R. Leard.
- Q What is your mother's name? A Precilla T. Leard.
- Q Are they living? A No sir, both dead.
- Q You testified a few minutes ago that you were married to Cora McCarty June 10, 1874? A Yes sir.
- Q Were you ever married prior to that marriage? A No sir.
- Q Was your wife, Cora, ever married prior to that time? A No sir.
- Q McCarty was her maiden name? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was Cora McCarty living at the time of this marriage and prior thereto, that is, with respect to what nation? A Choctaw Nation, Skullyville County.
- Q Where was your residence prior to this marriage? A I was frequently in the Choctaw Nation.
- Q For how long had you been a resident of the Choctaw Nation prior to your marriage on June 10, 1874? A We came to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory, in 1868, fall of 1868, and my father lived in the Territory for, I believe three years, and about that time he bought a place in the state of Arkansas, and I was occasionally at his home; was principally in the Choctaw Nation.
- Q And you did not go to Arkansas with your father to live when he bought this place, but remained in the Choctaw Nation as your home? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you and Cora Leard lived together continuously as husband and wife since this marriage on June 10, 1874? A Yes sir.

- Q Where have you lived during this time? A We lived in the Choctaw Nation, Skullyville County.
- Q Mr. Leard, have you ever had any recognition by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q In what way? A Why I have been allowed to vote, I have been commissioned road-overseer, I served in the Choctaw militia and I have been election judge.

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

We move that all of the answers to the last preceding questions be stricken from the record, for the reason that it is incompetent, our contention being that passing over the other legal questions in the case, that the only two issues in the case are, whether the woman through whom he claims was in fact a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and whether his marriage to her was in accordance with the Choctaw laws. All other testimony is irrelevant and incompetent.

By Mr. Franklin:

- Q Mr. Leard, does your name appear on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Roll of 1885 Choctaw Census roll? A Yes sir.
- Q What roll? A Skullyville County.
- Q 1896 roll? A Yes sir.
- Q What county? A Skullyville County.
- Q Was your citizenship ever disputed in any way until your denial in 1896?

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

We move to exclude all testimony tending to prove that the name of this man appears on any tribal roll, for the reason that the Department and the Commission have uniformly held that the name of the intermarried person on the tribal roll is not conclusive as to this right.

Submit that it is not conclusive then it is evident his recognition as a citizen and recognition as a citizen prior to 1896 and the appearance of this man's name on the tribal rolls have no bearing on this case, and it was out of the jurisdiction of the Commission to order and determine his case in 1896.

By Mr. Franklin:

- Q Mr. Leard, at the time of your marriage on June 10, 1874, was there any provision in the Choctaw law for the issuance of licenses, in other words, was it the custom at that time for a white man to procure a license from the Choctaw Tribal authorities to marry a Choctaw woman?

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

We object to that. Choctaw laws are the best evidence; don't think it is competent for this witness to testify what the Choctaw laws were at the time of this marriage.

By Mr. Franklin:

Think the testimony of this witness, who lived in the Choctaw Nation, is good and sufficient evidence as to what were the customs and usages in regard to marriages.

Further, stating right here, I would like to show that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes has held uniformly that prior to November 9, 1875, any lawful marriage of a white man to a Choctaw citizen, both persons being residents of the Choctaw Nation, conferred citizenship upon the white man; referring to specific cases, call attention to the cases of Perry Russell, Choctaw case No. 225 and Thomas J. West, Choctaw case No. 27.

(Stenographer is requested to read the last preceding question, as follows:

Q Mr. Leard, at the time of your marriage on June 10, 1874, was there any provision in the Choctaw law for the issuance of the licenses, in other words, was it the custom at that time for a white man to procure a license from the Choctaw Tribal authorities to marry Choctaw women?

By the Commissioner:

The Commission will hold that that is not a competent question. The best evidence would be the laws of the nation.

By Mr. Franklin:

Q Mr. Leard, was it the custom and usage prior to November 9, 1875, so far as your personal knowledge goes, for white men marrying Choctaw women by blood to procure licenses from the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation in order to have conferred upon them the rights of citizenship by marriage?

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

Object to that for the same reason, the presumption is that the people complied with the laws of the nation.

By the Commissioner:

Objection is sustained.

By Mr. Franklin:

The witness not being permitted to answer the above question I call attention of the Commissioner to its rulings in matters of this kind, and to the further fact that I believe the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes has found upon investigation, and its rulings bear out this statement that under the Choctaw Law, which I think was passed in 1840, providing for a license, there was no officer of the Choctaw Nation authorized to issue said license, and the requiring of this applicant to obtain a tribal license to marry his wife imposed upon him an obligation impossible of performance. This applicant is married to Cora McCarty under a lawful marriage and under the treaty of 1866. That was all that was required between the year of 1866 and 1875.

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

In response to that we want to say that the law of 1840, among other things, states that he, meaning the intermarried person, be required to procure license from some judge or district clerk and be lawfully married by some minister of the Gospel, or any other authorized person.

By Mr. Franklin:

Q Mr. Leard have you considered the Choctaw Nation as your home, your place of residence from the year 1868 up until the present time? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

Q You said, Mr. Leard, that you resided in the Choctaw Nation at the time of your marriage? A Yes sir. I was in Arkansas at my father's home frequently. I stated before that I was in Arkansas.

By Mr. Franklin:

I object to the attorneys for the nations using the record, and having the record before him, used in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court. I believe under its order and the rules of the Commission attorneys for the applicants are not allowed to see those records, and that this hearing is to be taken without any reference to any action heretofore taken by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, the United States Court and the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court. The attorneys for the nations have apparently been furnished with the records before the Citizenship Court.

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

We are not introducing this record in evidence.

By Mr. Rosenwinkel to the witness:

Q When you appeared before the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court on the 22nd of May, 1903, you were asked this question:

"Q Did you afterwards reside in the Choctaw Nation up to the time of your marriage?"

You answered:

"I think there was two years just before I married that I resided in Arkansas; just over the line."

A Yes sir.

Q Why did you say just now that you were living in the Choctaw Nation? A I was in school and lived at home previous to that time.

Q Where did you actually reside, in Arkansas or the Choctaw Nation, for two years immediately preceding this marriage? A In Arkansas, went to school.

Q You did not procure a tribal license? A No sir.

By Mr. Franklin:

Q Mr. Leard, you stated a while ago that your residence was in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir, I had some property in the Choctaw Nation, and I was only in Arkansas in my school time.

Q Your lawful residence was in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q As I understand you, you were only in Arkansas for the purpose of completing your education for this two years immediately preceding your marriage? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

Q What kind of property did you have in the Choctaw Nation?

A Some stock.

Q How did you hold that stock? A Why I just held it there.

Q As an intruder? A Possibly so.

- Q You had no lawful rights? A My father lived in the Choctaw Nation for three years and we acquired this property at that time; they were there on the range, I lived at the same place.
- Q Were you a minor at that time? A Yes sir, I was.
- Q You were a minor? A Yes sir.
- Q Your father's residence was in the state of Arkansas? A Yes sir.
- Q He had no rights in the Choctaw Nation? A No sir.
- Q You had none? A No sir.
- Q Why do you say that your lawful residence was in the Choctaw Nation? A Because I made my home there.
- Q Thought you just said you lived with your father in Arkansas? A No sir, I didnt say that, I said I was over there two years when I was at school, about two years; I was at my father's and it was only a short distance.
- Q You didnt know at that time that no white man had lawful residence in the Choctaw Nation only as he acquired right in some manner? A I lived in the Territory and called it home.

By Mr. Franklin:

- Q How far from the line was your father's place? A I suppose his land ran down against the line, suppose the house was 150 yards or 100 yards from the line.
- Q You often visited your parents, of course? A Yes sir.
- Q I believe you stated, in answer to a question of Mr. Rosenwinkel, that your father had emancipated you and you were at that time free to go where you wished, although not 21 years of age? A Yes sir.

By the Commissioner:

- Q Were you married to Cora McCarty under a license? A No sir.
- Q Had no license whatever? A No sir.

By Mr. Franklin:

I desire to offer in evidence the certificate of Rev. Singleton Smith, as to the marriage on June 10, 1874 of James T. Leard to Cora McCarty, and also the affidavits of L.C. Smith and Judy J. Smith, eye witnesses to said marriage, which evidence shows that said marriage was performed in Skullyville County, Choctaw Nation.

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

- Q Were you married in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

By the Commissioner:

(Examines certificates relating to marriage of the petitioner).

Q These affiants are living? A Yes, sir. That is the wife and son of the minister (Judy J. Smith and L.C. Smith); married at the home of the minister.

By Mr. Rosenwinkel:

I We object to the certificate, for the reason that it is merely a certificate of the man that married them.

By the Commissioner:

Certificate will be made a part of the record. Affidavits of Judy J. Smith and L.C. Smith will not be made a part of the record.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of JAMES T. LEARD as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein and from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by James T. Leard at Red Oak, Indian Territory, in June, 1899, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on September 8, 1896 for the admission of James T. Leard as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321) (1896 Choctaw Citizenship case No. 1223); that said application was denied by the Commission on December 8, 1896.

From this decision an appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, which Court on July 13, 1897, rendered a judgment reversing the decision of the Commission and admitting the said James T. Leard as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

This judgment was subsequently vacated, set aside and held for naught by a decree of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court on December 17, 1902, in the test case of "Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations or Tribes vs. J. T. Riddle, et al".

Said cause was subsequently certified to the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court created under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) for a trial de novo and on March 30, 1904, in the case entitled "James T. Leard vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations (Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court case No. 16, South McAlester docket), said Court rendered a judgment therein wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiff, James T. Leard, be denied and that he be not deemed a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation and that he is not entitled to enrollment as such or to any right whatever flowing therefrom".

The record herein further shows that under the regulations adopted by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes January 2, 1906, there was filed on January 16, 1906, by Apple & Franklin, attorneys for the petitioners, a petition praying for the enrollment of James T. Leard as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Said petitioner is identical with the person for whose enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in June, 1899.

The record herein shows that the applicant, James T. Leard was lawfully married on June 10, 1874, to Cora McCarty, whose name appears as Cora Leard on the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation opposite No. 7704 and that they have continuously resided together in the Choctaw Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage to the present time.

The name of James T. Leard appears upon the 1896 Choctaw Census roll opposite No. 14743 as a citizen by intermarriage.

The Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior in an approved opinion of April 24, 1906, in the case of Mary Elizabeth Martin (I.T.D. 4048-1906) stated:

"The foregoing provision (Par. 3, Sec. 21) in the Act of June 28, 1898, was pursuant to Article XXXVIII of the Treaty of 1866 supra, and made proof of marriage to a recognized and enrolled Choctaw or Chickasaw citizen in conformity with Indian law sufficient proof of the right of the intermarried citizen. The intermarried citizen is regarded as enrolled at the date of and by virtue of the intermarriage".

I am, therefore, of the opinion that by reason of his marriage to Cora McCarty on June 10, 1874, said James T. Leard became a member of the Choctaw tribe and that he occupied such a status in 1896 as entitled him to enrollment in the Choctaw Nation; that following the ruling of the Department of December 8, 1905 (I.T.D. 6380-16856-1905) in the case of Loula West, et al, the action of the Commission in 1896 denying the application of James T. Leard and the subsequent action of the United States Court and the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court was without jurisdiction and of no effect; that the said James T. Leard should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith the record of proceedings in the matter of the application of James T. Leard for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, together with my decision of January 10, 1907, granting said application.

James T. Leard was denied as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, March 30, 1904, in case number 16 on the South McAlester docket.

A petition was filed January 16, 1906, under the regulations adopted by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes January 2, 1906, praying for the enrollment of James T. Leard as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, and following the ruling of the Department of December 8, 1905 (I T D 6380, 16858-1905), in the case of Loula West, et al., a decision was rendered enrolling this applicant.

January 15, 1907 (I T D 25868-1906; 818-1907) this office was directed by the Department to suspend action relative to claimants in the case of Mattie Shockley, et al. (Loula West case, until further advised, as the case has been submitted to the Attorney General for his opinion.

There is accordingly transmitted herewith a schedule of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation No. 1626 containing the name of James T. Leard. This schedule is forwarded subject to the action of the Attorney General and Department in the case of Mattie Shockley et al., and in the event the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General in the case of Mattie Shockley et al., is affirmed and my decision of January 10, 1907 in the case of James T. Leard is affirmed, I have the honor to request Departmental approval of the schedule transmitted herewith.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902(32 Stat.,641), the person enumerated in this schedule has been enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The tribal roll from which the person named in the schedule is identified, and such other data as will properly identify him here follows in the same order as in schedule:

No.	Name	Roll	County	Remarks.
1626	Leard, James T.	1896	Skullyville	Husband of Cora Leard, Choctaw roll number 7704.

Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of Indian Office telegram of February 16, 1907, as follows:

"In your report of Jany. thirtieth transmitting schedule you say record relative to application of James T. Leard forwarded it has not been received."

and on February 18, 1907, the following telegram was forwarded:

"Replying telegram sixteenth instant, record in case of James T. Leard was overlooked in mailing schedule. Same is forwarded today."

January 30, 1907, this office addressed a letter to the Secretary of the Interior transmitting a schedule of Choctaws by marriage containing the name of James T. Leard, and the record and decision enrolling the said James T. Leard, but the record was inadvertently omitted from said letter.

The record in the case is herewith transmitted for consideration in connection with this case.

Sir:

On February 28, 1907 (Land 18371-07), the Indian Office transmitted your report, dated January 30, 1907, forwarding the record of proceedings in the matter of the application of James T. Leard for enrolment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, together with your decision of January 10, 1906, granting said application. The Indian Office <sup>also</sup> transmitted a schedule of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation containing the name of James T. Leard, which you recommend, in view of your decision of January 10, 1907, be approved.

The Indian Office does not consider this applicant entitled to enrolment and recommends the disapproval of the schedule transmitted. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

In view of the opinion of the Attorney General, dated February 19, 1907, in the Loula West and analogous cases, your decision of January 10, 1907, is hereby reversed.

The schedule transmitted is disapproved.

The papers in the case, together with a copy hereof and the original schedule, have been sent to the Indian Office, and three copies of said schedule are inclosed for appropriate disposition.

One copy of the schedule is retained in this office.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from Commissioner Bixby dated January 30, 1907, transmitting a schedule containing the name only of James T. Leard, who, Mr. Bixby found by decision of January 10, 1907, was entitled to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

It did not appear from the records of the Office that the record relative to this application had been received and under date of February 16 the Office wired the Commissioner concerning the matter, to which he replied on the 18th saying that the record had been forwarded on that date. The report of the Commissioner dated February 18, transmitting the record, is also enclosed.

The record in the case shows that the applicant comes within the purview of the decision in the Loula West case and under the opinion of the Attorney General of February 19, 1907, he is not entitled to enrollment and the disapproval of the schedule is recommended.

Very respectfully,

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Sir:

January 25, 1909, you were advised that the names of certain persons were inadvertently included in Departmental letter of January 19, 1909 (File 5-51); that such mistake was due to the fact that it was supposed they were enrolled upon schedules approved by the Department, when in fact, the only schedules upon which their names appear were disapproved, and that no action should be taken under the circumstances looking to the erasure of interlineations or notations, if any, from the disapproved schedules, in connection with their names.

The names of the persons referred to in said letter of January 25, 1909, are as follows:

Choctaws by Blood.

Roll No.

16103	Elizabeth Allen.
16112	George A. Bungarner.
16110	Leutitia Crutchfield.
16106	Everett Crutchfield.

16111	George W. Crutchfield.
16 05	Ida Crutchfield.
16107	Ima Crutchfield.
16108	Louvinia Crutchfield.
16109	William Crutchfield.
921	Josephine Laflere Long.
922	Jake Laflere Long.
16104	David Ritter.

It now appears from the records of the Secretary's Office that there was a schedule approved May 21, 1904, by the Secretary of the Interior, and that the approval then given was cancelled by said Secretary at a later date, to-wit, June 28, 1904.

The name of Elizabeth Allen appears upon the schedule which was approved May 21, 1904, opposite the number 15551. Ida Crutchfield's name appears opposite No. 15553, while the other members of the Crutchfield family were given the numbers immediately following that assigned to her.

You are requested to cause a report to be prepared showing whether the records of your office also show that an earlier schedule containing the names of said persons was approved May 21, 1904; also whether such approval was cancelled June 28, 1904. Please report also the reason for the attempted cancellation, and whether prior notice was given thereof.

It appears further that, in connection with the names of Elizabeth Allen and the Crutchfield family on the roll approved May 21, 1904, the names of Ardella Nickman, Ida W. Southard and Grover Randall are also to be found.

In connection with said names, it is desired that you will report what action, in your opinion, should be taken concerning the first of said persons; and also whether the said Ida W. Southard and Grover Randall, respectively, are identical with the Ida W. Southard whose name appears opposite No. 15880 in the printed rolls of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and the Grover Randall whose name appears on page 8 of Departmental letter of January 19, 1908 (File 5-51), opposite No. 15928.

As appears from the above list, there were other persons besides the said Allen and Crutchfields whose names were enrolled on schedules which were finally disapproved by the Department; for example, George A. Tungarner, Josephine Laflere Long and Jake Laflere Long.

Please report where the names of these persons appear upon any prior approved schedule; also why it was that the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes enrolled them upon the schedule which was disapproved by the Department, showing whether the Commissioner enrolled them thereon, of his own motion, or under decision or instructions from the Department.

By comparison of the roll approved May 21, 1904, with the printed rolls of Choctaws by blood, the Department finds that the numbers appearing there on opposite the names of said persons were subsequently assigned to other citizens of the Choctaw Nation; thereby the series of roll numbers was kept perfect, but a material portion of the rolls was evidently sacrificed upon the supposition that it had become worthless. Inquiry arises in this connection as to whether there were other approved schedules which were subsequently disapproved and thrown aside. Accordingly, it is desired that you also cause a report to be prepared covering this feature of the matter, showing all persons embraced in similar cases, with recommendation as to what action should be taken as to them. This will necessitate a statement as to why their names were stricken or cancelled from the rolls, and whether such action was taken without prior notice.

There is still another matter concerning which the Department desires report to be made. It is observed that the words "No person enrolled at this number" are to be found not infrequently opposite consecutive numbers on the pages of the printed rolls; and you are requested to advise the Department whether such words were substituted for the names of individuals appearing on disapproved schedules, and if such is the case, whether such disapproved schedules were approved at any time by the Department; and so whether favorable decisions were ever rendered by the Department as to such persons prior to their enrollment upon such disapproved schedules.

For the sake of expedition, a partial report should be rendered at once concerning the said Elizabeth Allen and the various members of the Crutchfield family named above. The other matters referred to herein can be disposed of by subsequent reports.

Very respectfully,

Jesse H. Wilson

Assistant Secretary.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, May 6, 1909.

Subject:

Report on Departmental letter of March 1, 1909, in case of James T. Leard.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

I have the honor to refer to Departmental letter of March 1, 1909 (File 5-31) in which, among other things, the Department requests reports as to all persons whose names were placed upon disapproved schedules and opposite whose numbers on the printed rolls appears the notation "No person enrolled at this number".

Reports have heretofore been made to the Department as to certain of these cases and I now have the honor to state that the case of James T. Leard, which is the subject of this report, is the only one of this class which has not been reported, and to report therein as follows:

It appears from the records of this office that James T. Leard, on June 22, 1899, made application to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1898 (30 Stat., 495).

Secretary 2

It also appears that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on September 8, 1896, for the admission of James T. Leard as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), 1896 Choctaw Citizenship Case Number 1223, and that this application was denied by said Commission on December 8, 1906.

From this decision an appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, which, on July 13, 1897, rendered a judgment reversing the decision of the Commission and admitting the said James T. Leard as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

December 17, 1903, the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, created under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), rendered a decision in the case of The Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations or Tribes versus J. T. Riddle, et al., commonly known as the test case, vacating, setting aside and holding for naught the judgment of the United States Court above referred to.

This cause was subsequently certified to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court for a trial de novo and on March 30, 1904, in the case entitled James T. Leard versus the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, Case Number 16 on the South McAlester Docket, said court rendered a judgment wherein it was ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiff, James T. Leard, be denied and that he be not deemed a citizen of the Choctaw Nation by intermarriage and not entitled to enrollment as such or to any right whatever flowing therefrom.

Under the regulations adopted by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes January 2, 1906, there was filed on January 16, 1906, by Apple & Franklin, attorneys for the petitioners, a petition praying for the enrollment of James T. Leard as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The name of James T. Leard is found on the 1896 Census Roll of the Choctaw Nation, Skullyville County, as an intermarried citizen.

January 10, 1907, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision holding that by reason of his marriage to Cora McCarty on June 10, 1874, James T. Leard became a member of the Choctaw tribe and that he occupied such a status in 1896 as entitled him to enrollment; that following the ruling of the Department of December 8, 1905 (I T D 6380, 16856-1905) in the case of Loula West, et al. the action of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in 1896 denying the application of James T. Leard and the subsequent action of the United States Court and the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court was without jurisdiction and of no effect, and that the said James T. Leard should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902.

January 30, 1907, the record in this case, together with the decision of the Commissioner of January 10, 1907 and copies of a schedule of Choctaws by Marriage upon which had been placed the name of James T. Leard at Number 1626, was transmitted to the Department.

This case was analogous to the case of Mattie Shockley, et al. in which this office had been directed to suspend action until the Attorney General had passed upon the questions involved in that case, but inasmuch as the time within which persons could be enrolled and their enrollment approved by the Secretary of the Interior, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, was becoming very short, the schedule above described was prepared by this office and forwarded subject to the action of the Attorney General and the Department in the case of Mattie Shockley, and this office requested, in the event the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of December 8, 1905, in that case was affirmed by the Attorney General, that the Department approve the decision of January 10, 1907, and the schedule transmitted with office letter of January 30, 1907.

February 16, 1907, the Indian Office telegraphed this office that the record in the case of James T. Leard had not been received with office letter of January 30, 1907 and on February 18, 1907 the same was forwarded with the information that it had been inadvertently omitted from the letter of the Commissioner of January 30, 1907.

February 28, 1907 (Land 15758, 17208, 18731-1907) the Indian Office held that James T. Leard was not entitled to enrollment under the opinion of the Attorney General of February 19, 1907, in the Loula West case and recommended the disapproval of the schedule bearing his name.

March 2, 1907 (I T D 6008-1907) the Secretary of the Interior reversed the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of January 10, 1907, and disapproved the schedule bearing the name of James T. Leard.

This office has no record of any favorable action ever having been taken by the Department in this case.

Inasmuch as the name of James T. Leard was never upon an approved roll of citizens of the Choctaw Nation no formal allotment was made to him and it does not appear that application for land of the Choctaw-Chickasaw country for the purpose of instituting contest was made by him or in his behalf.

Secretary 6

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Sir:

Referring to a report of May 6, 1909 from the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, relative to the Choctaw enrollment case of James T. Leard, you are advised that on June 2, 1909, the Department held that the case mentioned is not analogous to that of John E. Goldsby (211 U. S. 249), and therefore declined to take any action looking to the enrollment of James T. Leard as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. A copy of approved Office letter of June 1, 1909, is inclosed for your further information.

You are requested to notify the applicant of this action of the Department.

Enrollment case of James T. Leard.

Jun 1 1909

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Department letter of March 1, 1909 (File 5-51) there is transmitted herewith a report of May 6, 1909, from the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, relative to Choctaw enrollment case of James T. Leard. Other papers are also enclosed.

The Acting Commissioner reports that his office has no record of any favorable action ever having been taken by the Department in the above named case. From his report it does not appear that the name of James T. Leard was ever placed on the final approved roll of Choctaw citizens.

The Office is of the opinion that the case of James T. Leard is not analogous to that of John E. Goldsby (211 U. S. 249), and therefore recommends that the Department take no action looking to his enrollment.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 28, 1907 (Land 18371-07), the Indian Office transmitted your report, dated January 30, 1907, forwarding the record of proceedings in the matter of the application of James T. Leard for enrolment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, together with your decision of January 10, 1906, granting said application. The Indian Office <sup>also</sup> transmitted a schedule of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation containing the name of James T. Leard, which you recommend, in view of your decision of January 10, 1907, be approved.

The Indian Office does not consider this applicant entitled to enrolment and recommends the disapproval of the schedule transmitted. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

In view of the opinion of the Attorney General, dated February 19, 1907, in the Loula West and analogous cases, your decision of January 10, 1907, is hereby reversed.

February 28, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from Commissioner Bixby dated January 30, 1907, transmitting a schedule containing the name only of James T. Leard, who, Mr. Bixby found by decision of January 10, 1907, was entitled to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

It did not appear from the records of the Office that the record relative to this application had been received and under date of February 16 the Office wired the Commissioner concerning the matter, to which he replied on the 18th saying that the record had been forwarded on that date. The report of the Commissioner dated February 18, transmitting the record, is also enclosed.

The record in the case shows that the applicant comes within the purview of the decision in the Loula West case and under the opinion of the Attorney General of February 19, 1907, he is not entitled to enrollment and the disapproval of the schedule is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 18, 1907, asking if before the disapproval of the enrollment of James T. Leard his enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation had been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the name of James T. Leard was placed upon a schedule of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation which was forwarded for Departmental action and on March 2, 1907 the Secretary of the Interior disapproved the schedule upon which the name of this person was placed.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George S. Cowan as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that George S. Cowan, on September 4, 1893, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Sarah Cowan (nee Overstreet), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 7714 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 5, 1896, in the case entitled "Geo. S. Cowan, et al., vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 750), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage to the said Sarah Cowan, and on December 3, 1896, the said George S. Cowan (as Geo. S. Cowan) was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that George S. Cowan should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 5th instant, in which you state that you are a Choctaw by blood and have married a non citizen and that you wish to have your wife listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. You desire to be informed when and where she may appear before the Commission as an applicant for such enrollment.

Replying to your letter you are informed that the rules and regulations of the Department of the Interior and of this Commission require that each and every applicant for enrollment must appear in person before the Commission for the purpose of an examination under oath. If your wife desires to make such appearance she can do so at any time prior to the forwarding of the final rolls of citizens of the Choctaw Nation to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval. Such appearance must be made at the office of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman:

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 14, 1901.

E. B. Harlow,

Bonanza, Arkansas.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 2nd instant in which you state that your wife, Mary M. Harlow, is dead and that she was enrolled by this Commission as a Choctaw citizen. That her rights to citizenship are as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw nation by reason of her marriage to John Lyes a Choctaw Indian and that after his death she was married to you, a white man. That you have a farm well improved in the Choctaw nation and have invested a considerable sum of money on this farm in good faith.

You now desire to be informed that as your wife is dead, if you will be allowed to hold this place.

Replying to your letter you are informed that the records of this Commission show that Mary M. Harlow, was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as an intermarried citizen thereof by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10th, 1896, in Choctaw case No. 1266. If she is now dead, the Commission has to request that the enclosed affidavits as to her death be properly executed and returned to the Commission so that the same may be made a matter of record.

As to your right to hold the land which would have been your wife's prospective allotment of the lands of the Choctaw Nation, you are informed that the allotment of the lands of the Choctaw-

K B N 2

Chickasaw country will be made to the citizens of these two Nations whose names appear upon the final rolls as approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

An agreement has recently been entered into between the Choctaw and Chickasaw Tribes of Indians and the United States closing the rolls of citizenship of these two Nations September 1st, 1901. This agreement will become effective upon its ratification by the United States and by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. As such rolls of citizenship will be made as of the first of September, 1901, and your wife now being dead, her name could not be included upon said final roll as a participant in the allotment of the lands thereof and as you could not be recognized in any manner as a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Tribe of Indians, the Commission is of the opinion that you could not participate in the allotment of the lands of these two Nations.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:-

On February 2, 1901, you informed the Commission that your wife, Mary M. Harlow had died since the time she was listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

On February 14, 1901, you were requested to supply the Commission with proof of death of your said wife and a blank for that purpose was enclosed you.

For the purpose of making her death a matter of record there is enclosed you herewith a blank for proof of death which you should immediately fill out and have properly executed and return to the Commission. You will notice that there is a blank for the affidavit of a relative and an acquaintance of the deceased.

In having the same executed be careful to see that all blank spaces are properly filled, all names written in full, and that the notary public, before whom the affidavits are acknowledged, attaches his name and seal to each separate affidavit. In case any signature is by mark, it must be attested by two dis-

J. D. Cooper,

South McAlester, Indian Territory. ( United States Jail)

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 9th instant, relative to a controversy existing between you and certain persons as to the possession of a particular tract of land in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission cannot at this time take any cognizance of controversies arising between citizens as to the possession of any certain tract of land in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country. Matters of this character will receive the attention of the Commission upon the establishment of land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

James Sockey,

Iron Bridge, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation there is no record of the amount of Choctaw blood which you possess. It will be necessary that you furnish the Commission with an affidavit setting this forth. This matter should receive your immediate attention as nothing further can be done in the matter of your enrollment until this affidavit is received.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 5, 1902.

James Socken,

Ironbridge, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your affidavit in which you state that you are a full blood Choctaw Indian.

You are advised that this information has been made a matter of record with the Commission.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ophelia Watkins as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Ophelia Watkins, on January 1, 1880, was lawfully married to Isam E. Watkins, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 7741 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Ophelia Watkins should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Mr. James Bower,

Oak Lodge, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of March 13, inclosing an application for the enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Rena Darneal, the infant daughter of James and Sallie Darneal, and the same is returned to you herewith for the reason that the signature of Sallie Darneal being by mark, it will be necessary to have it attested by two disinterested parties as witnesses, before it can be accepted. Upon the return of this affidavit with the omission corrected, the matter of the enrollment of Rena Darneal will receive further attention.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lizzie Ross as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

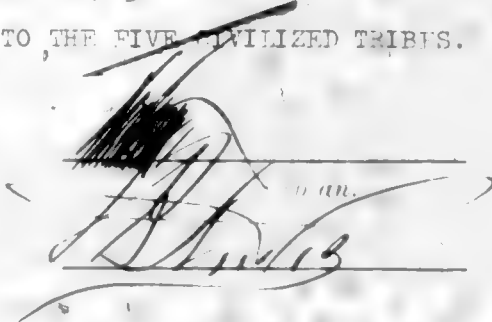

It appears from the census card record in this case that Lizzie Ross appeared before the Commission at Spiro, Indian Territory, on June 14, 1899, and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, on November 6, 1902.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in the case entitled, "Lizzie Ross, et al., vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 660), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage with William T. Ross, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on December 2, 1896, the said Lizzie Ross was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that her status as an intermarried citizen has remained unchanged from the date of her said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Lizzie Ross should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Gentlemen:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of May 7th, in which you desire to be informed if Mr. A. Frank Ross, formerly of Hartshorne, and now of Durant, is on the rolls as a Choctaw citizen. You are informed that the records of this Commission show that A. Frank Ross, Jr. sixteen years of age, the son of William Ross, was duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Choctaw June 14th, 1899, at which time his post office was given as Cartersville, Indian Territory. The members of this family were admitted to Choctaw citizenship by an act of the Choctaw Council of November 7th, 1888. This is the only party by the name of Frank Ross, listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Choctaw, and is supposed to be the person concerning whom you inquire.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 17th instant in which you state that you live in the Choctaw Nation and wish to remove to the Chickasaw Nation to take your allotment and desire to be informed if such a change will necessitate a change in your enrollment.

Replying to your letter you are informed that the records of this Commission show that you are duly listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Your attention is invited to Article 5 of the Treaty of June 22nd, 1855 between the Choctaws and Chickasaws and the United States, which is as follows:

"The members of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Tribe shall have the right, freely, to settle within the jurisdiction of the other, and shall thereupon be entitled to all the rights, privileges, and immunities thereof."

William T. Ross,

Grantham, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the twenty sixth instant to the United States Indian Inspector, Muskogee, Indian Territory, and which has been by him referred to this Commission for appropriate action. Therein you state that you and your family are citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation who have recently removed to the Chickasaw Nation and desire to take your allotment in the Chickasaw Nation. You complain that you are unable to obtain allotments for yourself and your family in the Chickasaw Nation as nearly all the lands are held by a few citizens; and in conclusion you desire to be informed as to what action you should take to secure your pro rata share of the lands of the Chickasaw Nation.

Replying to your communication you are advised that the Commission cannot at this time receive, consider or make any record of controversies arising between citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations relative to the possession of any tracts of land in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country. Matters of this character will receive the attention of the Commission upon the establishment of an allotment.

If you have knowledge of any citizens of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation who are holding more than their pro rata share of the lands to which they would be entitled in final allotment, the matter should be brought to the attention of the United States District Attorney for the district in which such lands are located, for such action as he may deem advisable under the following sections of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898:

"Sec. 17. That it shall be unlawful for any citizen of any one of said tribes to inclose or in any manner, by himself or through another, directly or indirectly, to hold possession of any greater amount of lands or other property belonging to any such nation or tribe than that which would be his approximate share of the lands belonging to such nation or tribe and that of his wife and his minor children as per allotment herein provided; and any person found in such possession of lands or other property in excess of his share and that of his family, as aforesaid, or having the same in any manner inclosed, at the expiration of nine months after the passage of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 18. That any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of sections sixteen and seventeen of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and shall stand committed until such fine and costs are paid (such commitment not to exceed one day for every two dollars of said fine and costs), and shall forfeit possession of any property in question, and each day on which such offense is committed or continues to exist shall be deemed a separate offense. And the United States district attorneys in said Territory are required to see that the provisions of said sections are strictly enforced and they shall at once proceed to dispossess all persons of such excessive holding of lands and to prosecute them for so unlawfully holding the same."

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lou Daniels as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that Lou Daniels (nee Allen) on or about August 27, 1892, was lawfully married to Turner Daniels, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 7771 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that Lou Daniels should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations April 1, 1903.

The act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides as follows:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at said place on one of the above dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

S. W. Janger,

Attorney at Law,

Bokoshe, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 22nd instant enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Josephene Johnico, infant daughter of John and Lucy Johnico, born May 23, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Receipt is also acknowledged of a certified copy of the divorce proceedings between Lucy and James Kelly; also statement as to the marriage of Lucy Kelly to John Johnico, and the same have been duly filed with the records of the Commission in the matter of the application for enrollment of the above named child.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

7-2673

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 20, 1903.

Lucy Jannecco,

Shady Point, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 16, asking the status of the enrollment of Gilbert Wade Kelley, son of James Kelley and Lucy Kelley, now Jannecco.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Gilbert Kelly, son of James Kelly and Lucy Johnico, has been enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on January 17, 1903, his enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskege, Indian Territory, July 22, 1904.

John Johnice,

Pawnee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 22, advising of the death of your wife, Lucy Johnice, and her son, Gilbert Kelly, and asking for blanks for the purpose of obtaining proof of their death.

In compliance with your request, there are enclosed herewith two blanks for proof of death. In having the same executed, be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full, and that the Notary Public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged affixes his name and seal to each affidavit. Signatures by mark must be attested by two witnesses.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 12, 1904.

John Johnico,

Panama, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir :-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your affidavits relative to the death of your wife, Lucy Johnico, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, which occurred July 24, 1900; also, of your affidavits relative to the death of your step-son, Gilbert Kelly, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, which occurred November 19, 1900; and the same have been duly filed with our records as evidence of the death of the above named persons.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Mary Bohanan.

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the marriage license and certificate of Caleb Cox and Mary Bohanan dated May 31, 1902. No letter accompanied the certificate of marriage, but it is presumed that the same has been forwarded to this office for the purpose of having your name changed upon our records from Mary Bohanan to Mary Cox.

Under the authority vested by the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641) the Commission on November 18, 1902, enrolled Mary Bohanan as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, which enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903.

The approval of the enrollment of Mary Bohanan is final, and the Commission cannot now make any change in her name; and allotment of land and distribution of other tribal property will be made to her under the name of Mary Bohanan.

M B 2

The certificate of marriage is therefore returned to you herewith.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Cale Cox,

Poteau, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 28, relative to the enrollment of your wife, Mary Bohanan, and you are informed that the information contained therein has enabled the Commission to identify her upon its records as Mary Bohanan, daughter of Lyman and Sarah Bohanan and half sister of Dennis, Luther and Lyman Bohanan.

It further appears from our records that she has been enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and on January 17, 1903 her enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 8, 1905.

Caleb Cox,

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the affidavits of Mary Cox and Elizabeth Franklin to the birth of Roland Cox, son of Caleb and Mary Cox, July 21, 1903, and the same have been filed with our records as an application for the enrollment of said child.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary E. Smith as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

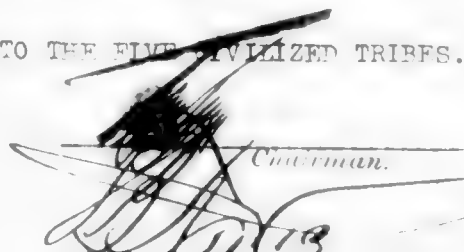

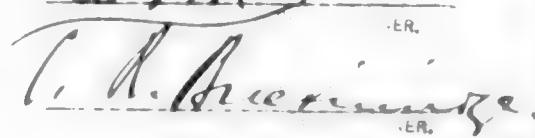

It appears from the census card record in this case that Mary E. Smith (nee Alexander) appeared before the Commission at Spiro, Indian Territory, June 14, 1899, and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Wister, Indian Territory, December 13, 1902.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 5, 1896, in the case entitled, "Mary E. Smith, et al., vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 840), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage with George L. Smith, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on December 4, 1896, the said Mary E. Smith was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that her status as an intermarried citizen has remained unchanged from the date of her said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Mary E. Smith should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Choctaw 2876.
Intermarried.

In the matter of the application of Fannie Riddle for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Fannie Riddle, having been first ~~ex~~ duly sworn, upon her oath testifies as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A Fannie Riddle.
Q How old are you? A Fifty seven.
Q What is your post office address? A Cameron, Indian Territory.
Q Is that in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been a resident of the Choctaw Nation? A I have been a resident of the Choctaw Nation---I have lived in the Choctaw Nation ever since peace was made in 1867.
Q Never made your home anywhere else since that time? A No sir, I was in the Chickasaw Nation a little while, but made my home always in the Choctaw Nation.
Q Do you claim intermarried rights in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw husband through whom you claim these rights? A Jesse Riddle.
Q Is he a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have his rights as such ever been disputed? A Never.
Q When were you married to Jesse Riddle? A I disremember just the date, we have been married now about twenty five years; we was married on June 15, as well as I remember.
Q Where was the marriage ceremony performed? A Down close to the old Fort Smith road we were first married.
Q In the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Who married you? A It was a man by the name of Baker he was said to be a preacher.
Q Did you obtain a marriage license A No sir, we married before these marriage licenses came in.
Q Were you ever married previous to your marriage to Jesse Riddle? A Yes sir, I was, but I was not lawfully married; I was married but I was married before the law to recognize after peace was made.
Q Who were you married to the first time? A Franklin.
Q A white man? A No sir, Cherokee.
Q Where did you marry him? A In the Cherokee Nation.
Q Who married you to him? A I don't know the man's name; he was a stranger to me; Franklin died.
Q When did Franklin die? A In 1867.
Q He died before your marriage to Mr Riddle? A Yes sir.
Q Was Jesse Riddle ever married before his marriage to you? A Yes sir, I suppose he was.
Q Do you know the name of his former wife? A I don't know that I do, he has told me her name, but I don't remember.
Q Was she dead at the time of your marriage to him? A No she was not dead.
Q They were separated? A Yes sir.
Q Had they ever been divorced? A I couldn't tell you about that; I suppose they were.
Q You don't know anything about that? A No sir, I was not acquainted with him when he lived with her.

Fannie Riddle-----.

Q Did you remarry Jesse Riddle? A Yes sir.
Q What was the date of your second marriage to him? A I couldn't tell you, we was married over about Skullyville the time of the registration by Mr Garland.
Q Who is Mr Garland? A He was a judge.
Q Were you married under a license the second time? A Yes sir
Q Choctaw license? A Yes sir, I suppose so.
Q Was there any separation between you and your husband between the first and sedons marriages? A No sir.
Q Since your first marriage to Jesse Riddle have you lived together continuously as husband and wife up to the present time? A Yes sir
Q There has been no separation of any kind whatsoever? A No sir
Q Are you at present living together as actual and bona fide residents of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What was the reason of this second marriage between Mr Riddle and yourself? A The reason was they said that was the law. We had no certificate and we just thought that marrying over would be more lawful, and the people who had seen us married were all dead and the preacher was dead, and we couldn't get no papers, and we had lost the certificate.

Jesse Riddle, called as a witness, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath testifies as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

Q What is your name? A Jesse Riddle.
Q How old are you? A Going on fifty eight.
Q What is your post office address? A Cameron, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Choctaw Nation? A I have been living here ever since I have been born right in the Choctaw Nation.
Q What is the name of your present wife? A Fannie George.
Q When were you married to her the first time? A About twenty four years ago or twenty five, somewhere along there.
Q Where was the marriage ceremony performed? A Right there close to the line of Arkansas.
Q Were you ever married before your marriage to her? A Yes sir married to a girl by name of Narcisse Charley--a Choctaw girl.
Q When were you married to this Choctaw girl? A In 1866.
Q How long did you live with her? A I lived with her five or six years.
Q At the end of that time did you separate or did she die? A We separated.
Q Were you divorced? A No sir, never got no divorce, she did though.
Q Where did she get this divorce? A At Skullyville county at the court house there.
Q How long did this woman live? A She lived I reckon ten or fifteen years after that.
Q Do you know when she died? A No I don't, she married a man by the name of Frazier.
Q You don't know how long ago her death occurred? A No sir.
Q Do you know whether she is dead now? A Yes sir, she is dead.
Q About how long has she been dead? A I think she has been dead ten or fifteen years, may be longer.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Fannie Riddle as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

It appears from the record herein that Fannie Riddle, (nee George), on June 13, 1899, was lawfully married to Jesse Riddle, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 7790 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Fannie Riddle should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Martha A. Ainsworth as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Martha A. Ainsworth (formerly McCurtain) on December 26, 1875, was lawfully married to Thomas D. Ainsworth, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 7791 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 28, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Martha A. Ainsworth should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 498) and

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

At a special election held in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, September 25, 1902, there was ratified by the citizens of these two tribes an Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, and entitled, "An Act to ratify and confirm an agreement with the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes of Indians, and for other purposes."

This agreement as so ratified and now effective, provides that the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and Choctaw and Chickasaw freedmen shall be made as of the date of the final ratification of such agreement.

Section 34 of said agreement provides as follows:

"During the ninety days first following the date of the final ratification of this agreement, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment only of persons whose names are on the tribal rolls, but who have not heretofore been enrolled by said Commission, commonly known as 'delinquents,' and such intermarried white persons as may have married recognized citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in accordance with the tribal laws, customs and usages on or before the date of the passage of this Act by Congress, and such infant children as may have been born to recognized and enrolled citizens on or before the date of the final ratification of this agreement; but the application of no person whomsoever for enrollment shall be received after the expiration of the said ninety days."

For the purpose of the enrollment of those classes of persons as provided by section 34 above quoted, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will be in session at the following designated places on the dates given:

*Chickasha, Chickasaw Nation,
Pauls Valley, Chickasaw Nation,
Ardmore, Chickasaw Nation,
Tishomingo, Chickasaw Nation,
Ada, Chickasaw Nation,
Atoka, Choctaw Nation,
Kullikuklo, Choctaw Nation,
Antlers, Choctaw Nation,
Tushkahomma, Choctaw Nation,
Wister, Choctaw Nation,
South McAlester, Choctaw Nation,*

*October 15th to 17th, inclusive.
October 20th to 24th, inclusive.
October 27th to 31st, inclusive.
November 3rd to 7th, inclusive.
November 10th to 14th, inclusive.
November 17th to 21st, inclusive.
November 24th to 28th, inclusive.
December 1st to 5th, inclusive.
December 8th to 12th, inclusive.
December 15th to 19th, inclusive.
December 22d to 24th, inclusive.*

After December 24th, 1902, the Commission will be without authority to receive the application of any person whomsoever for enrollment as a citizen or freedman of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations.

The appointments above designated will be the last opportunity afforded citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations to present their applications.

It is necessary that the status of all intermarried citizens on September 25, 1902, be determined and citizens by intermarriage should avail themselves of this opportunity to present testimony showing their status on that date.

The Commission will also at these appointments receive applications for the enrollment of infant children born prior to September 25, 1902, and proofs of death of citizens and freedmen previously listed for enrollment but who died prior to said date.

No original applications for the enrollment of persons whose names are not on the tribal rolls or applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws will be heard at these appointments.

Dear Madam:

Information has been received at this office that your husband, Wilburn Cass, has died since the time he was listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

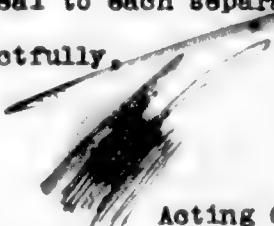

For the purpose of making his death a matter of record there is enclosed herewith a blank for proof of death, which you are requested to have correctly executed and return in the enclosed envelope at your earliest convenience.

You will note there is an affidavit for a relative and an acquaintance. In having same executed, be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full, and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write, and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures are attested by two disinterested parties, witnesses thereto.

John W. Benedict,

Superintendent of Schools,

Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 2, asking relative to the enrollment as Choctaws by blood of the following named children:

Everett Crutchfield,
Ira Crutchfield,
Louvinia Crutchfield,
William Crutchfield,
Louticia Crutchfield.

Russell Simpson,
William Simpson,
Brandon Berryberry,
Frank Wilson,
Clayton Wilson,

Minnie Wilson,
Walter Wilson.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that on June 13, 1899, Everett, Ira, Louvinia, William and Louticia Crutchfield, children of Ida Crutchfield and G. W. Crutchfield, were listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, pursuant to a judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory, rendered August 20, 1897, in court case, citizenship docket, Number 132.

It also appear from our records that Edward R. Simpson, nine years old, and William N. Simpson, seven years old, children of Nettie R. Simpson, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and W. M. Simpson, a noncitizen, were, June 15, 1899, listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, being numbers 11,152 and 11,153 thereon.

It further appears that Brandon W. Derryberry, son of Emma R. Derryberry, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and Garrison E. Derryberry, a noncitizen, was, June 15, 1899, listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1896 Census Roll of the Choctaw Nation, being number 3240 thereon.

It also appears that Frank Wilson, twelve years old, Clayton Wilson, ten years old, Winnie Wilson, eight years old and Walter Wilson, seven years old, children of J. B. Wilson and Alice McClary, were on June 14, 1899, listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, as numbers 12830, 12831, 12832, and 12833 thereon.

It is believed that these are the children concerning whom your inquiry is made.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jackson W. King as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Jackson W. King, on April 13, 1899, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Letitia King (formerly Overstreet), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 9892 upon the 1896 Choctaw census roll, Skullyville County; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to August, 1902, the date of the decease of the said Letitia King; and that since that time the applicant has not remarried and has resided continuously in the Choctaw Nation up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Jackson W. King should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Thomas G. Overstreet as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the census card record in this case that Thomas G. Overstreet appeared before the Commission at Spiro, Indian Territory, on June 14, 1899, and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.
Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Wister, Indian Territory, on December 16, 1902.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 7, 1896, in the case entitled "Thomas G. Overstreet, et al., vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 244, the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved
June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with Margaret Overstreet (nee Victor), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on December 2, 1896, the said Thomas G. Overstreet was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of the Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that his status as an intermarried citizen has remained unchanged from the date of his said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Thomas G. Overstreet should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 3rd instant in which you desire to be advised if Thomas Overstreet has made application to this Commission for enrollment as a member of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Tribe of Indians and if so what action was taken upon the application, if the same was appealed to the United States Court in Indian Territory and if such court rendered judgment for or against the claimant:

Replying to your inquiry you are advised that Thomas G. Overstreet, 42 years of age, of Cowlington, Indian Territory, with his wife Elizabeth and his children Clayton W., Charles A., Dora F., John P., Minnie, Lela, Maggie M. and Russell Overstreet were on June 14, 1899, duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens of the Choctaw Nation having been identified by the Commission from the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation as residents of Skullyville County.

It does not appear that any question has ever been raised as to the citizenship of these persons and that they have always resided in the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. Thomas G. Overstreet, the head of the family above referred to, is an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation having been admitted to such intermarried citizenship by an act of the Choctaw Council Five Civilized Tribes as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896.

It further appears from our records that on July 17, 1900, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, Thomas J. Overstreet, 59 years of age, of Purcell, Indian Territory, made application for the identification of himself and his six minor children, Minnie, ~~Ware~~, Mattie, Hattie, Wilmoth and Coleman Overstreet as Mississippi Choctaws entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of the fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830.

The names of these persons are not found upon any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of the Commission nor does it appear that they have ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the tribal authorities thereof, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or by a decree of the United States Court in the Indian Territory.

Their status is that of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws whose rights have in no manner been determined by the Commission.

It is probable that a decision will be rendered in the near future relative to the rights of this family to share in the lands of the Choctaw Nation, of which decision they will be duly advised.

If neither of the Thomas Overstreets above referred to is the person concerning whom you desire the information requested in your letter of the 3rd instant, your request will receive further consideration if you will more fully advise us as to the full name and age of the person concerning whom you inquire, and the time and place he made application for enrollment.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

At a special election held in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, September 25, 1902, there was ratified by the citizens of these two tribes an Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, and entitled, "An Act to ratify and confirm an agreement with the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes of Indians, and for other purposes."

This agreement as so ratified and now effective, provides that the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and Choctaw and Chickasaw freedmen shall be made as of the date of the final ratification of such agreement.

Section 34 of said agreement provides as follows:

"During the ninety days first following the date of the final ratification of this agreement, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment only of persons whose names are on the tribal rolls, but who have not heretofore been enrolled by said Commission, commonly known as 'delinquents,' and such intermarried white persons as may have married recognized citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in accordance with the tribal laws, customs and usages on or before the date of the passage of this Act by Congress, and such infant children as may have been born to recognized and enrolled citizens on or before the date of the final ratification of this agreement; but the application of no person whomsoever for enrollment shall be received after the expiration of the said ninety days."

For the purpose of the enrollment of those classes of persons as provided by section 34 above quoted, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will be in session at the following designated places on the dates given:

*Chickasha, Chickasaw Nation,
Pauls Valley, Chickasaw Nation,
Ardmore, Chickasaw Nation,
Tishomingo, Chickasaw Nation,
Ada, Chickasaw Nation,
Atoka, Choctaw Nation,
Kullituklo, Choctaw Nation,
Antlers, Choctaw Nation,
Tushkahomma, Choctaw Nation,
Wister, Choctaw Nation,
South McAlester, Choctaw Nation,*

*October 15th to 17th, inclusive.
October 20th to 24th, inclusive.
October 27th to 31st, inclusive.
November 3rd to 7th, inclusive.
November 10th to 14th, inclusive.
November 17th to 21st, inclusive.
November 24th to 28th, inclusive.
December 1st to 5th, inclusive.
December 8th to 12th, inclusive.
December 15th to 19th, inclusive.
December 22d to 24th, inclusive.*

After December 24th, 1902, the Commission will be without authority to receive the application of any person whomsoever for enrollment as a citizen or freedman of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations.

The appointments above designated will be the last opportunity afforded citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations to present their applications.

It is necessary that the status of all intermarried citizens on September 25, 1902, be determined and citizens by intermarriage should avail themselves of this opportunity to present testimony showing their status on that date.

The Commission will also at these appointments receive applications for the enrollment of infant children born prior to September 25, 1902, and proofs of death of citizens and freedmen previously listed for enrollment but who died prior to said date.

No original applications for the enrollment of persons whose names are not on the tribal rolls or applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws will be heard at these appointments.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

-----
The record in the matter of the application for the enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation of-- Lizzie Y. McCarty ----- 7 D-715.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 5, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Lizzie Y. McCarty for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Lizzie Y. McCarty, having been first duly sworn, upon her oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Lizzie Y. McCarty.
Q How old are you? A Twenty one.
Q What's your post office address? A Spiro, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you resided in the Indian Territory? A I don't know just how long I have. I was about seven or eight years old,
I reckon, when I come to the Territory.
Q Have you lived here ever since that time? A Yes, sir.
Q In the Choctaw Nation? A No, sir.
Q Where have you lived? A I have lived in the Creek Nation, Choctaw Nation, and Cherokee Nation.
Q How long have you lived in the Choctaw Nation? A Ever since January.
Q This present year? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your father's name? A Richard Young.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A Harriet.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q Your parents both white persons? A Yes, sir.
Q Citizens of the United States? A Yes, sir.
Q Have either one of them ever made any claim to citizenship in any tribe of Indians? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever made any claim to citizenship by blood in any tribe of Indians? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever drawn or received any benefits as a member of any tribe of Indians? A No, sir.
Q You are an applicant at this time for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What's the name of your Choctaw husband? A R. L. McCarty.
Q What's his full given name? A Robert L. McCarty. That's all I know
Q Is he a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Has he always been recognized by the tribal authorities as such citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is he? A Thirty eight years old.

By Commission:

The name of the applicant's husband, Robert L. McCarty, is found upon the records of the Commission on Choctaw Roll Card, field Number 2685, as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been duly identified on the 1896
Census Roll of the Choctaw Nation, as a resident of Skullyville County.

Lizzie Y. McCarty, 2.

- Q When did you marry Robert L. McCarty? A January first.
Q What year? A 1902.
Q Where did you marry him? A In Eufaula.
Q Who married you? A A. Lee Boyd.
Q Married to him under a United States license? A Yes, sir.

By Commission:

There is offered in evidence, identified as Exhibit "A", filed, and made a part of the record in this case, the marriage license and certificate of R. L. McCarty and Miss Lizzie Young, the license having been issued by the Clerk of the United States Court for the Northern District of Indian Territory, December 31, 1901, the marriage having been performed by A. Lee Boyd, January 1, 1902.

- Q Were you ever married to any other person before you married Mr. McCarty? A No, sir.
Q Was he ever married to any other woman? A Yes, sir.
Q To whom? A Nannie Casson.
Q Is she living? A No, sir.
Q When did she die? A About five years ago.
Q Is the marriage between you and Mr. McCarty under this United States license the only marriage that has ever been performed?
A Yes, sir.
Q Are you still living with your husband? A Yes, sir.
Q Been no separation or divorce since this marriage? A No, sir.

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the fifth day of May, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

In the matter of the application of Lizzie Y. McCarty for enrollment as an inter married citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Lizzie Y. McCarty being sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A Lizzie Y. McCarty.
Q How old are you? A Twenty two.
Q What is your post office address? A Spiro, I.T.
Q How long have you been a resident of the Choctaw Nation? A Twelve years.
Q Have you lived here continuously for the past 12 years? A Yes sir.
Q Never made your home anywhere else during that time? A No sir.
Q Do you claim inter married rights in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw wife husband through whom you claim these rights? A Robert L. McCarty.
Q Is he a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Have his rights as such ever been disputed? A No sir.
Q When were you married to Robert McCarty? A January 1, 1902.
Q Where was this marriage ceremony performed? A Near Eufala.
Q In the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q At that time were you living in the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You stated just before that you had lived here for 12 years in the Choctaw Nation? A Well, I never lived in the Creek Nation but one year; I lived in the Choctaw Nation before.
Q Is that one year you were in the Creek Nation the only time you were outside of the Choctaw Nation during the 12 years? A Yes sir.
Q What year was that you were in the Creek Nation? A 1902.
Q This present year? A No sir, 1901.
Q It was the year before you were married? A Yes sir.
Q Who performed the marriage ceremony? A A. Lee Boyd.
Q A minister of the gospel? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married under a license? A Yes sir, United States.
Q Were you ever married prior to your marriage to Robert L. McCarty?
A No sir.
Q Was he ever married before he married you? A Yes, once.
Q What was the name of his former wife? A Nannie Casely.
Q Was she dead at the time of your marriage to him? A Yes sir.
Q Since that marriage to Robert L. McCarty have you lived together continuously as husband and wife up to the present time? A Yes sir.
Q There has been no separation, abandonment or divorce? A No sir.
Q Are you at present living together as actual and bona fide residents of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Henry G. Hains being sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on December 17, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in same.

In the latter of the application for the enrollment of Lizzie Y. McCarty as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that Lizzie Y. McCarty (nee Young), on January 1, 1902 was lawfully married to Robert L. McCarty, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 7825 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage the said Robert L. McCarty was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and the applicant herein was a resident of the Creek Nation and the said parties have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1903.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Lizzie Y. McCarty should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

In the enrollment of Claude A. & Lloyd S. McCarty as Choctaws by blood. Isam Watkins being sworn and examined by Com'r McKennon testifies:

Name is Isam Watkins, forty-five years old.

Q Are you acquainted with Robert McCarty? A Yes sir.

Q He is a Choctaw citizen? A I think so, he is recognized as such.

Q His wife is a white woman? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know anything about their marriage? A I was at their wedding, I saw them married.

Q Who solemnized the right? A A preacher by the name of Lowery.

Q Where? A In the Choctaw Nation, Sans Bois County.

Q About when was that? A It was in '90. I think July, 1890.

Department of the Interior,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the deposition of Isam Watkins, taken at Spiro, Indian Territory, on the 1st day of July, 1890, before me, a Notary Public for the Territory of Oklahoma.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary A. McCarty as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, Choctaw Roll Card, Field Number 2685.

Robert L. McCarty, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Robert L. McCarty.
Q You are a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Always been recognized and enrolled by the tribal authorities as such citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q How many times have you been married? A Twice.
Q What was the name of your first wife? A Nannie Keithly.
Q Did you have any children by her? A Have two living.
Q What are their names? A Claude A. and Lloyd S.
Q Did you have a child by your wife, Nannie, named Mary?
A No, sir.
Q Did you ever have a child named Mary? A It is so said. That's the illegitimate child you speak of.
Q When were you married to Nannie McCarty? A In 1890.
Q Did you ever live with any other woman before you married her?
A No, sir, never lived with any.
Q Did you ever have a child by the name of Mary A McCarty? A I can't answer any more than what you know about it; the child's mother said it was my child.
Q Mary A. McCarty was the illegitimate child of a white woman with whom you never lived? A No, sir.
Q Who was the mother of this child? A Lucy Beaty.
Q Was Lucy Beaty living with any other man at the time this child was born? A No, sir.
Q What do you know about her? A Well, pretty nice girl, I thought; married since; she's a married woman now.
Q Where was she living at the time this child was born? A In Skullyville County.
Q Were you living with her? A No, sir.
Q Did you ever live with her? A No, sir, never did live with her as man and wife.
Q Did you ever acknowledge this child as your child? A Yes, sir.
Q Ever legally adopt this child? A No, sir, I don't know as there was any legal form to adopt it in the Choctaw Nation; I inquired about it, and they said there wasn't any; they said me being a white man couldn't recognize her as a citizen at that time.
Q I am not talking about the citizenship rights of the child. Did you ever adopt the child, and acknowledge that this child was your child? A Yes, sir, but not in any court.
Q Where is this Mary A. McCarty now? A I don't know; I understood she was dead.

Mary A. McCarty, 2.

Q Where did you get that information? A I got it from a family in the State.

Q This child is living in Arkansas now? A Yes, sir.

Q Has she ever lived in the Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.

Q When? A She lived in the Territory up until about three years ago - or three and a half, somewhere along there.

Q Well, your best information, then, is that Mary A. McCarty is dead? A Yes, sir; of course, I couldn't swear positively that she is. I never saw her dead, and never saw anybody that did see her dead.

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the fifth day of May, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

Dear Sir:

On May 5, 1902 you testified that to the best of your knowledge and belief Mary A. McCarty, your daughter, was dead. This office has not been furnished with proof of her death.

For the purpose of making her death a matter of record there is inclosed herewith a blank which you are requested to have filled out, properly executed and return with as little delay as possible.

You will note that there is a blank for the affidavit of a relative and of an acquaintance of the deceased. In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and that the notary public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged attaches his name and seal to each separate affidavit. In case any signature is by mark it must be attested by two disinterested persons witnesses thereto.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary A. McCarty as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

- - : D E C I S I O N . - -

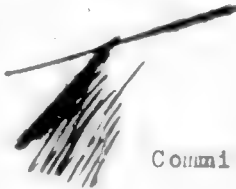

It appears from the census card record in this case that on June 14, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Mary A. McCarty as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the record herein, and from the census card record in this case, that said applicant was born in the Indian Territory in 1889, and is the illegitimate daughter of Robert L. McCarty, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 7825 upon the lists prepared by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903, and Lucy Beaty, a non-citizen white woman.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of this office, it appears that Mary A. McCarty is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Skulleyville County, No. 9063.

It further appears from the record herein that said applicant was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898.

I am therefore of the opinion that Mary A. McCarty should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

ADDED ONLY TO
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 18, 1904.

Robert L. McCarty,
Spiro, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of your daughter, Mary A. McCarty, as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary, before her rights as such citizen can be determined, for you to appear in person before the Commission in order that you may be examined under oath relative to the rights of your said daughter.

You are, therefore, requested to appear before the Commission at its general office, Muskogee, Indian Territory at any time; or you may appear at the Choctaw Land Office, Atoka, Indian Territory on September 6-7, 1904; or at the Chickasaw Land Office, Tishomingo, Indian Territory, September 8-9, 1904.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw 2685

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 29, 1902.

R. L. McCarty,

Spiro, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 25th instant, in which you state that you are a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and have recently married a white woman whom you wish to have enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, and desire to be informed if the Commission will enroll your wife upon the making of an application before some notary public and the forwarding of her marriage license and certificate to the Commission.

You are advised that if you have since the time you were listed for enrollment by this Commission, married a white woman, citizen of the United States whom you now desire to have listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary for your wife to personally appear before the Commission at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, for the purpose of examination under oath, at which time the Commission will accept for its consideration any evidence of her marriage to a citizen of the Choctaw Nation as may be presented.

Until this personal appearance no record can be made or consideration given the application of your wife for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It is advisable in view of the possibility of some early date being fixed or agreed upon for the termination of the time within which the Commission can receive applications for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, that if your wife anticipates making such application that she do so as early as practicable.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 9, 1903.

Lizzie Y. McCarty,

Spire, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

It appears from the records of the Commission that you are an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming your rights thereto by virtue of your marriage to Robert L. McCarty, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, but there does not appear to be any evidence on file showing the residence of your husband at the time of his marriage to you.

You are advised that it will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with a sworn statement, showing the residence of your husband, Robert L. McCarty, at the time of his marriage to you.

This matter should receive your immediate attention, as no further consideration can be given your application as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation until such sworn statement is furnished.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lawrence Q. Hickman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that Lawrence Q. Hickman on November 29, 1896, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, to Lizzie A. Hickman (nee Lewis), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 7834 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Lawrence Q. Hickman should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 26, 1908.

Judge E. D. Lanier,

Spiro, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 18, in which you ask relative to certain improvements, which were purchased by you and are now being claimed by John Herryman. You inclose a plat of the land in controversy and ask if you will be permitted to file on the same.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Edward Lanier, his wife Rebecca Lanier, and their children, Edward Jr., Susan and Jane Lanier have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on January 17, 1908, their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

If you desire to select the land referred to by you in allotment you should appear before the Commission at the land office for the nation in which the land is situated. You will then be permitted to make formal application therefor.

You are further advised that the Commission cannot render any opinion relative to the rights of individual citizens to particular tracts of the land of the Choctaw and Chickasaw country until application has been made therefor and in the event the same land is claimed by any other citizen until contest proceedings have been instituted.

The plat inclosed by you is herewith returned.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary Bohanan as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Mary Bohanan, on or about May 7, 1893, was lawfully married to Lyman Bohanan, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears upon the 1893 Choctaw Leased District Payment-roll, Skullyville County, page 5, number 48; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage until the death of the said Lyman Bohanan, on July 30, 1896, since which time, up to and including September 25, 1902, the applicant herein has continued to reside in the Choctaw Nation, and has not remarried.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 7, 1896, in the case entitled "Mary Bohannon, et al., vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 859), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage to the said Lyman Bohanan, and on December 4, 1896, the said Mary Bohanan was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Mary Bohanan should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

REPORT ON THE INTER-
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Nannie M. Parke for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record in this case that on June 10, 1897, the applicant herein, Nannie M. Parke (formerly Lanier), was lawfully married to Joseph Lanier, a recognized citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that at the time of said marriage both parties above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife until the death of the said Joseph Lanier on September 23, 1881; that in the year 1881, the applicant herein was married to Frank A. Parke, a white man having no rights of Choctaw citizenship or blood.

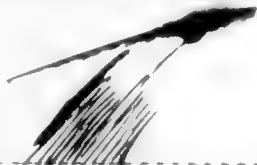

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in the case entitled "Nannie M. Parke et al. vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 223), the applicant herein made original application to the Commission, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1897 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage to the said Joseph Lanier, and on December 2, 1896, the applicant was, by this Commission, admitted to citizenship as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, from which decision of the Commission an appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory, and on June 11, 1897, said appeal was dismissed by said United States Court, for the reason that said appeal had not been perfected within the time prescribed by law.

It further appears that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation on June 21, 1896, and her status as an intermarried citizen of said Nation remained unchanged from the date of her admission, in 1896, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Wennie H. Parke should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 25, 1898 (30 Stat., 425) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

BEFORE THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Dora Moore as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, Choctaw Field No. D-760.

We hereby request, on behalf of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, that final decision in this case be postponed until final decision by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the case of Preston Early, et al., vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, No. 64 on the South McAlester Packet, in which the said court will decide the question of the citizenship rights by intermarriage, if any, of those white persons who intermarried with citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation not in accordance with the tribal laws, which question is involved in the case to which this communication refers.

This request is filed under authority granted by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior in his communication to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes upon the subject, dated November 18, 1903.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Dora Moore as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-. D E C I S I O N :-

It appears from the record herein that on March 28, 1901, the applicant, Dora Moore (nee McDvitt), was lawfully married to Louis O. Moore, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, who is identified upon the 1893 Choctaw leased District Payment Roll, Skullyville County, page 44, number 438, and upon the 1893 Choctaw Census Roll, Skullyville County, number 8465, enrolled on said rolls as a citizen by blood of said nation; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage until the death of the said Louis O. Moore on July 24, 1902, and that the applicant had continued to reside in the Chickasaw Nation and had not remarried up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones (I.T.D. 6818-1904) Dora Moore should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Mr. L. O. Moore,
Purcell, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 14th instant in which you request that you be supplied with the necessary blanks and papers for the purpose of making application for the enrollment of your wife as an inter-married citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that the rules of this Commission require that applicants for enrollment as inter-married citizens must in every instance present themselves in person before the Commission for examination under oath.

You will therefore understand that if you desire to have your wife make application for enrollment as an inter-married citizen of the Choctaw Nation that it will be necessary that she appear before the Commission in person. Such application may be made at the office of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory at any time prior to the closing of the final rolls of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations but if it is your intention that she shall make application, it is suggested that it be done at her earliest convenience.

Yours truly,

7-2952.

Commissioner in charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 22, 1903.

Dora Moore,

Purcell, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 5, in which you ask relative to your enrollment in the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that you have been listed among the doubtful claimants to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and that your final right to such enrollment has not yet been determined. As soon as a decision is reached in your case you will be notified of the action of the Commission.

It may be added that lands upon which doubtful claimants to enrollment in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have improvements, not in excess of lawful allotments, will not be allotted to any citizen until the rights of the said doubtful citizens are finally determined.

Respectfully,

Choctaw 2692

H. M. Morse,

Kintah, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter without date requesting ticket of admission to the land office for yourself and wife for the purpose of making selection of your allotments.

In reply to your letter you are advised that ticket of admission to the land office will be furnished upon request made therefor to the land office for the nation in which the land you desire to select in allotment is located.

The matter of the classification of the land described by you has been made the subject of another communication.

Respectfully,

Lyman R. Moore,

Spiro, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 21st instant, requesting to be advised relative to the enrollment of Fannie E., Eleanor B., Napolian B., Ida N. and Lyman R. Moore.

You are informed it appears from our records that Fannie E. Moore and her children, Lyman R., Herbert K., Napoleon B. and Lena B. Moore have been enrolled as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation by this Commission and their enrollment as such approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903.

It further appears from our records that Ida N. McCurtain has been duly enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation by this Commission and her enrollment as such approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 16, 1903.

It also appears from our records that Lena B. Moore is on the 1896 Choctaw census roll as Eleanor B. Moore.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 17, asking for a copy of the testimony taken in the case of Dora Moore versus the Choctaw Nation, including copy of marriage license and certificate and a copy of the protest filed by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of January 23, 1904.

In compliance with your request there are inclosed you herewith copies of the testimony of Dora Moore of July 16, 1902 and October 23, 1902, in the matter of her application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, together with receipt therefor, which please sign and return to this office. A copy of the protest of the attorneys for the nations of January 23, 1904, which was filed with the Commission February 6, 1904, is also inclosed herewith. There is not in our files an extra copy of the marriage license and certificate of Louise O. In the matter of the alleged application of Amanda Le Flore for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Jess W. Watts, Salisaw, Indian Territory, appearing as attorney for the applicant.

Amanda Le Flore being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

Q What is your name? A Amanda Le Flore.

Q How old are you? A Twenty-two years old.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Blaine, Indian Territory

Q You claim that you have made application to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q When do you claim that that application was made? A

A October, 1902.

Examination by Mr. Watts:

Q When were you married? A September 4, 1902.

Q Where? A Skulleyville, Indian Territory.

Q Is that your marriage certificate (Handing witness paper)

A Yes sir.

Offered in evidence, marked Exhibit A., and made a part of this record, marriage certificate of the marriage between William LeFlore and Amanda Shoers.

Q You were married according to the laws of the Choctaw Nation
A Yes sir.

Q By whom? A Judge E. A. Moore.

Q County Judge of Skullyville county? A Yes sir.

Q Did you sometime after your marriage, -within a short time after your marriage- make application in writing to this Commission to be enrolled as a citizen? A Yes, I wrote a letter and sent in my marriage certificate.

Q When you say you made application by sending in this certificate to the Commission--you say you made application by sending this? A Yes sir.

Q Did the Commission acknowledge receipt of that application?

A Yes sir.

Offered in evidence, marked Exhibit B., and made a part of this record, letter written to the husband of the applicant by the Commission on September 18, 1902.

Q Why did you not apply in person? A My husband was sick and unable to leave home.

Offered in evidence, marked Exhibit C., and made a part of this record, affidavit of Dr. J. R. Butler.

continuously with him? A Yes sir.

Q And in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Near Blaine? A Yes sir.

Q And you are living with him now? A Yes sir.

Q Was your not appearing before this Commission in person through any fault of yours or your husbands? A No sir.

Q Simply caused by the sickness of your husband? A Yes sir.
Offered in evidence, marked Exhibit D., and made a part of this record, affidavit of Amanda LaFlore.

Examination by the Commission:

Q You stated that you made personal application in October, 1902? A Yes, we came here in October, 1902.

Q You came before the "Commission? A Yes, we were here in the office.

Q At what place? Here in Muskogee? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know what was said to you at that time?--Who did you see at that time? A I saw several, but I didn't know them.

Q Did you see any of the members of the Commission, so far as you know? A No.

Q What did you state to the person whom you did see at that time? A I told him when I was married,--they asked the question and who by, and all those questions, and one gentleman said that I was married too late, and one told us that we didn't get there in time; that was all the satisfaction they would give us; we didn't stay here very long; we went back home.

Q Had you ever, previous to your appearance in October, 1902, made any personal application? A No, I had forwarded the marriage certificate.

Q Do you remember when you forwarded that certificate? A I don't exactly remember the date; it seems like the 11th.

Q How soon after you were married was it that you forwarded it?

A Just a few days after we were married.

Q At the time you married William LeFlore, where were you living? A Living at Blaine, Choctaw Nation.

Q Was his home in the Choctaw Nation at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Had you ever been married prior to your marriage to him?

A No sir.

Q Had he ever been married prior to his marriage to you? A No.

Q Where have you lived since you were married? A Blaine-Five miles west of Blaine.

Q You have always lived in the Choctaw Nation since you were married to him? A Yes sir.

Q Did you take any further action looking towards your enrollment from the time you were here in October, 1902 until the present time? Have you done anything at all in that connection? A No, I have written three letters to the Commission, and employed Mr. Watts.

Q Have you received replies from the Commission? A Yes, I have the letters; I received answers.

Q You are a white woman, are you? A Yes sir.

Q You have no Indian blood at all? A No sir.

Q What is the name of your father? A Samuel Shoers.

Q He is a white man? A Yes sir.

Q What is the name of your mother? A Fannie E. Shoers.

Q They are both white people? A Yes sir.

Witness excused.

3-Amanda LeFlore.

William LeFlore being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

Q What is your name? A William LeFlore.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Blaine, Indian Territory.

Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir. Witness is identified on Choctaw Field Card No. 2693, and is 7849 on the lists prepared by this Commission and approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903.

Q Are you the husband of Amanda LeFlore, who has just testified? A Yes sir.

Q She claims to have appeared before this Commission in October 1902 and sought to have made application, personally, for her enrollment. Can you tell us anything about that? A Yes sir.

Q What can you tell about it? A We appeared here before the Commission, and the reply that they gave us was that we had married too late; he didn't try to take my wife up, but he only said that we were married too late, and I kept on talking to him and he walked off; that is all the answer I could get out of him.

Q That appearance was made here in Muskogee? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know before whom it was? Was it before one of the Commissioners? A Yes, one of the Commissioners; an old gentleman.

Q Do you know what his name is? A No, I don't. I think it was Needles.

Q You think it was Mr. Needles? A I think so.

Q Had you, prior to that time, made any effort to secure your wife's enrollment? A No, only by sending the marriage certificate.

Q When was that sent in? A Sent in the 11th of September, 1902.

Q The certificate that has been introduced in evidence here shows that you were married the 4th day of September, 1902. Is that correct? A Yes sir.

Q At that time where were you living? A Blaine.

Q How long have you lived at Blaine? A Lived there about six years.

Q Where has your wife been living during that time? A Been living at Blaine.

Q Had you ever been married prior to your marriage to her?

A No sir.

Q Where have you lived since the time of your marriage?

A Five miles west of Blaine.

Q Always in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q You have never been separated from your wife at all?

A No sir.

Memo-86.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the alleged application for the enrollment of Amanda LeFlore as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It appears from the record herein that on June 7, 1905, Amanda LeFlore appeared in person before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and presented testimony relative to an application alleged to have been made for her enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641).

The applicant testifies that she, with her husband, appeared in person before said Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, in October, 1902, and sought to make application for her enrollment; that she told the Commission at that time when she had been married, and was told by one person (she does not know who it was), that she had been married too late. Her testimony on this point is fully corroborated by the testimony of her husband, William LeFlore.

The applicant also testifies that prior to her said personal appearance, her husband had forwarded to the Commission her certificate of marriage, accompanied by a letter stating that he desired to have his wife listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. There is attached hereto and made a part of the record herein an original letter of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes to William LeFlore, bearing date September 18, 1902, acknowledging receipt of his letter bearing date September 11, 1902, and of the certificate of marriage between himself and the present applicant, and in said letter he is advised that the rules of the Commission require that applicants for citizenship by intermarriage shall make personal appearance before the Commission.

I am of opinion that the letter written by said William LeFlore to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under date of September 11, 1902, constitutes a sufficient application for the enrollment of said Amanda LeFlore as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation made as of that date, and that said application should now be heard and determined upon its merits, and it is so ordered.

Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

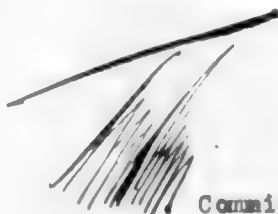

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Amanda LeFlore as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

- - : D E C I S I O N : - -

It appears from the record herein that application for the enrollment of Amanda LeFlore as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation was duly made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641).

It appears from the record herein that on September 4, 1902, Amanda LeFlore, the applicant herein, was lawfully married to William LeFlore, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 7849 upon the lists prepared by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have resided together continuously as husband and wife in said Nation from the date of their marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

I am therefore of the opinion that Amanda LeFlore should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 10, 1903.

Edgar L. Shores,

Blaine, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 15, 1903, requesting to be advised whether the name of your wife, formerly Maggie LeFlore, has been changed upon our records from her former name to her present married name of Shores; and requesting the return of your marriage license and certificate.

You are advised that the name of your wife appears upon the final rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation as approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903, as Margaret LeFlore; therefore no change in her name can be made.

You are further advised that it appears from our records that on January 19, 1903, the marriage license and certificate of Edgar L. Shores and Maggie LeFlore was received at this office, and that a certified copy thereof was prepared and filed with our records in the matter of the application for enrollment of Maggie LeFlore as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; and the original returned to you at Blaine, Indian Territory, on the above mentioned date.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 12, 1904.

Edgar Shores,

Wilburton, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir :-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 13, 1904, addressed to the Choctaw Land Office, at Atoka, Indian Territory, and by that office referred to this Commission for consideration and appropriate action. Therein you state that you made application at Wister, Indian Territory, December 12, 1902, and you request to be advised relative thereto, stating that your wife was Margaret Leflore, daughter of William Leflore. You also request information relative to the enrollment of your baby, Maggie Lee Shores.

You are advised it does not appear from our records that any application has ever been made to this Commission for the enrollment of Edgar Shores as an inter-married citizen of the Choctaw Nation, or for the enrollment of your infant child, Maggie Lee Shores, as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 19, 1905.

Amanda LeFlore,

Blain, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 9, 1905, giving information relative to your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation; you state that you forwarded your marriage license to the Commission in September 1902 and receipt thereof was acknowledged to you September 18, 1902, and you were notified to appear in person before the Commission for the purpose of presenting your application for enrollment, but were prevented from doing so on account of your husband's illness.

In reply to your letter you are advised that if it is insisted that application has been made for your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation prior to December 25, 1902, it will be necessary for you to appear in person before the Commission at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, accompanied by the person by whom the application was made and witnesses who have knowledge of the facts, at which time your testimony will be taken relative thereto.

Respectfully,

7-2693.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 26, 1905.

Chief Clerk,
Choctaw Land Office,
Atoka, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Referring to Choctaw roll card No. 2693 Margaret LeFlore, et al., there is inclosed herewith copy of name and information this day placed at No. 3 on said card, Amanda LeFlore.

You are therefore directed to make duplicate Choctaw card No. 2693 in the possession of your office conform to the information thereon and add the name of this applicant to the list of undetermined applicants for enrollment in the Choctaw Nation.

Dear Sir:-

A letter of recent date addressed by this Commission to your son David R. Ward, Hilton, Indian Territory and been returned marked "deceased."

If it is a fact that said David R. Ward is dead, proof of his death should be immediately furnished the Commission and blanks for that purpose are enclosed herewith together with an envelope for return of same when properly executed.

Please give this matter immediate attention.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 31, 1905.

Flaurah B. Long,

Brasil, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your affidavit and the affidavit of F. C. Parrott relative to the birth of Jewell V. Long, son of William I. and Flaurah B. Long February 11, 1904, which it is presumed have been forwarded as an application for the enrollment of said child.

You are advised that under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, no children born to citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations subsequent to September 25, 1902, the date of the ratification of said act, are entitled to enrollment and allotment in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 16, 1905.

Nealie Ward,

Bokoshe, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 9, 1905, stating that you are the lawful wife of C. B. Ward, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and have not yet been enrolled, you therefore ask to be enrolled as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation; you also state that you have already forwarded your marriage license and certificate.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the marriage license and certificate between C. B. Ward and Nealie Whalen under date of May 6, 1903, has been filed in this office in support of the application for the enrollment of your child, Lena Ola Ward.

You are further advised that under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, no person who is married to an enrolled citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation subsequent to September 25, 1902, the date of the ratification of said act, is entitled to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letters of March 10 and 16, 1906, asking the ages of Cyrus D. Ward, Allie Ward, Jerry D. Ward, Campbell L. Ward and Lena Ola Ward as they appear upon the rolls; you state that you are legal guardian for these children and cannot file your inventory of property until you know the ages of said children.

In reply to your letter you are advised that Jerry D. Ward, Campbell L. Ward, Allie Ward and Cyrus D. Ward have been enrolled as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and their names appear upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of said nation, which was made as of September 25, 1902, as sixteen, ten, seven and four years respectively.

You are further advised that it does not appear from the records of this office that there is a child in this family named Lena Ola Ward. It does appear, however, that Bulah Olena Long, child of Flaurah B. Long has been enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and her age appears upon the approved roll of citizens of said nation as one year, she having been born No-

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Henrietta Darneal as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that Henrietta Darneal (nee Webb) on May 9, 1887, was lawfully married to Silas Darneal, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 7861 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Henrietta Darneal should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On November 18, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes transmitted for consideration of the Department a schedule constituting a part of the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation numbers 7007 to 7995 inclusive which was approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903.

I have the honor to report that the card number "2698" appearing opposite the name of Ida M. Darneal at No. 7864 upon said schedule should be "2696" and has been changed upon the copies in the possession of this office from 2698 to 2696 and I have the honor to recommend that the same change be made upon the copies of the approved roll in the Department and the Indian Office.

Respectfully,

Through the

Mr. Robert Kincaid,
Lena, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 6th inst., requesting that you be furnished with two birth certificates for the enrollment of infant children.

There is enclosed you herewith two blanks of such description. In having the same executed, be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and in the event that either the mother, the attending physician or nurse making affidavit to the birth of the child, are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures are attested by two disinterested parties as witnesses thereto. The notary public taking the acknowledgments of the mother and attending physician or nurse, must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 19th instant, requesting to be advised whether or not Mary and Rena Josephine Kincaide, twin children of Robert and Addie Kincaide are entitled to an allotment of land in the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation. You also request to be advised relative to the status of the application for enrollment of Amatha Trahern.

You are advised it appears from our records that Rena Josephine Kincaide died November 25, 1901, and that Mary Kincaide died August 16, 1902.

The act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 which was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902 among other things provides that no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation whose death occurred prior to the date of said ratification.

You are further informed that the Commission has not yet passed upon the application for enrollment of Amatha Trahern, now Amatha Brown as an inter-married citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Department letter of July 8, 1904, I. T. D. 5336, there is enclosed a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in which it is stated that the Commission erred in reporting that Loren Trahern, No. 7872, approved Choctaw rolls, died in September, 1898. The Commission says that the affidavits of death mentioned in their letter referred to a person other than Loren Trahern, and recommends that the action of July 8th last be rescinded and that the name of the citizen be reinstated upon the roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation at No. 7872. In view of the Commission's statements, their recommendation is concurred in.

Very respectfully,

Malcolm E. Rosser,
Poteau, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 24, 1905, inclosing an application for the enrollment of Ida Walker, daughter of Robert Kincaid, as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and stating that you will forward additional proof in a short time.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the application inclosed with your letter is herewith returned, and if no application has heretofore been made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for her enrollment this office is now without authority to receive or consider the same. It is stated in the application that Ida May Walker is about sixteen years of age and married and that she is the daughter of Robert Kincaid, but her mother's name is not given.

It appears from the records of this office that Ida Tecumseh, niece of Robert Kincaid and Selina Kincaid, both deceased, and now the wife of Houston Tecumseh, has been enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and her enrollment as such has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior. If Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 1905, asking what proof will be necessary in the matter of the enrollment of James Kincade to show that he died subsequent to September 25, 1902, and is entitled to an allotment.

In reply to your letter you are advised that evidence has already been forwarded showing the death of James Kincade prior to September 25, 1902, and an investigation will be made by this office to ascertain the correct date of the death of James Kincade before the selection of an allotment can be permitted.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 29, 1906.

C. T. Mitchell,
Attorney at Law,
McCurtain, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 23, 1906, in which you state that Ida May Walker in whose behalf you filed petition June 25, 1906, is the child of Robert Kincaid and Mollie Kincaid now Mollie Livingston; that Mollie Livingston also has an application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation by reason of her marriage to Robert Kincaid pending before this office; this child being a minor and petition having been filed by you on June 25, 1906, for her enrollment, you contend that this claim comes within the meaning of the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906.

If you contend that the petition filed by you is an application for the enrollment of Ida May Walker, formerly Kincaid, within the meaning of the provision of the act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 you are advised that it will be necessary for Ida May Walker to appear at this office accompanied by persons who have knowledge of her parentage for the purpose of testifying relative to her right to enrollment.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

15563-1909
Choctaw 2697
Choctaw 6047

Muskogee, Oklahoma, July 2, 1909.

Mr. Guy A. Curry,
Quinton, Oklahoma,

Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 25, in which you ask to be advised what the records of this office show as to any and all husbands of Mollie Livingston, roll number 1633, their names and places of marriage; what, if any, children were born, their names, ages, and under whose testimony they were enrolled.

You state that you are trying more particularly to discover whether Mollie Livingston was at any time the wife of one Robert Kincaide, a Choctaw by blood, and if so, what children, if any, were born to them. You represent Ernest Kincaide who is well known and until recently supposed to be the only living child of Robert Kincaide; but you are now informed that a child of Mollie Livingston claims to be the child of Robert Kincaide.

In reply you are advised that it appears from the records of this office that in May 1877 one Mollie Sheppard, daughter of Jim and Lithie Sheppard, was married to Robert Kincaide by Simon Peters, a Choctaw minister, at his home near Wister, Indian Territory.

Subsequently Robert Kincaide abandoned Mollie Kincaide but is alleged to have had one child by her, named Ida [redacted] now Walker, but the date of her birth is not given, and it does not appear that any application was made for her enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation within the time provided by law.

However there was forwarded by C. T. Mitchell, an attorney of McCurtain, Oklahoma, and received at this office on June 25, 1906, a petition for the enrollment of Ida May Walker, formerly Ida May Kincaide, who alleges that her father is an enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. The names of her parents do not appear in the petition, but in a subsequent letter Mr. Mitchell gives them as Robert Kincaide, an enrolled Choctaw by blood and Mollie Livingston, an applicant for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

No personal appearance was made by or on behalf of this applicant to sustain the contention in the petition submitted, that application for her enrollment had been made prior to December 1, 1905, as provided by the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, and no action was taken by this office looking to her enrollment.

It further appears from the testimony in this case that subsequent to her abandonment by Robert Kincaide, Mollie Kincaide was married, some time about the year 1892, under a United States license, in the town of Muskogee, Indian Territory, to a white man named William Livingston.

Mollie Livingston states in her testimony in the matter of her enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, that she was never married prior to her marriage to Robert Kincaide and that subsequent to her marriage to him she married the said

G A C 3

William Livingston with whom she was still living at the date of her last testimony January 14, 1907.

It appears from the records of this office that Robert Kincaid, his wife, Addie Kincaid, formerly Trahern, and their children, George and Emerine F. Kincaid, were enrolled as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation. Applications were also made for the enrollment of their children, Rena Josephine and Mary Kincaid, but these children died prior to September 25, 1902, the date of the ratification by the Choctaws and Chickasaws of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, commonly known as the Choctaw and Chickasaw Agreement.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Sansbois, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 1st instant, enclosing marriage license and certificate between Jason A. Adams and Miss Margaret Trahern, and the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of C. H. Adams, the infant son of J. A. and Margaret Adams, born June 3, 1900.

The evidence of marriage enclosed in your letter is returned to you herewith for the reason that it appears that your wife is listed for enrollment under her married name of Margaret Adams.

The application for the enrollment of C. H. Adams being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of this office and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Margaret Adams,

McCurtain, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your affidavit of March 9, 1903, designating the numbers of certain land which you desire to select in allotment, and the same is returned to you herewith for the reason that the Commission has, at this time, no means of recording the selections of citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. Matters of this character will receive its consideration upon the establishment of land offices, which will be April 15, 1903, at which time the citizens of these two tribes may appear at the land office for the nation in which their land is located and make formal application for their allotments.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

-----0-----

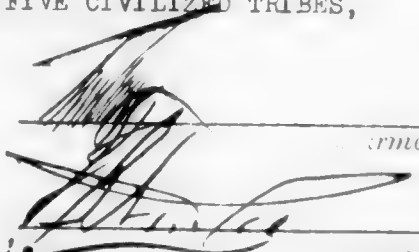

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ruth Merryman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that Ruth Merryman (nee Howell), on July 28, 1898, was lawfully married to James F. Merryman, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 7895 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Ruth Merryman should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of THOMAS P. LEWIS, et al, as citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Calvin, Indian Territory, August 7, 1899, by Thomas P. Lewis for the enrollment of himself, his children, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Antha L. Lewis, and Oscar Lewis as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and for the enrollment of his wife, Augusta M. Lewis, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; the census card record shows that on the same date application was made by Zora P. Lewis for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on the same date application was made by Edward M. Lewis for the enrollment of himself and children, Gail B. Lewis, Edward H. Lewis and Zora A. Guyer as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and for the enrollment of his wife, Sarah E. Lewis, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; that on July 16, 1900, written application was filed for the enrollment of Lindly Blaine Guyer and on June 7, 1901, application was filed for the enrollment of Edith May Guyer; on September 24, 1902, application was filed for the enrollment of Fielding Lewis Guyer, minor child of William H. Guyer and Zora A. Guyer, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 7, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Edward M. Lewis for the enrollment of Sarah J. McKibben and her children, George L. McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claude McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben and Grant McKibben as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on the same date application was made by Lydia Clark to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on the same date application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Virgil Cowart for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and for the enrollment of his wife, Anna Cowart, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 2, 1898, application was made by Marshall Cowart for the enrollment of himself and his brothers, Samuel P. Cowart and George V. Cowart, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Calvin, Indian Territory, during the month of August, 1899, by Lucy Adams for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Mabel Adams and Ernest P. Adams, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on February 24, 1902, written application was filed for the enrollment of Ida Vadis Adams, minor child of said Lucy Adams and A. M. Adams as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 7, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Zora S. Early for the enrollment of herself and her daughter, Nellie Early, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on June 14, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Albert Clarence Goodwin, minor child of Nellie Goodwin, nee Early, and John Goodwin as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 2, 1898, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Joseph H. Leard for the enrollment of himself, Madison Leard, Jack Leard, Maud Early and Hugh Early as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and for the enrollment of his wife, Belle Leard, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; that on February 28, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Frank David Leard, minor child of Madison Leard and Eliza Leard as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 29, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Elihu Venable, minor child of John Venable and Maud Venable as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on June 14, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Spiro, Indian Territory, by Olivia Pryor for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor and Sallie O. Pryor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 18, 1900, written applications were filed for the enrollment of Vernon Pryor and Earl Pryor, minor children of said Olivia Pryor and S. V. Pryor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 2, 1898, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Calvin, Indian Territory, by Angeline Tabor for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Willie Tabor, Ben Tabor and Herschel L. Tabor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on March 1, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Ruthe Adams, minor child of Angeline Tabor, (now Adams) and J. J. Adams, and on August 7, 1902, written application was filed for the enrollment of Leona Tabor, minor child of Angeline Tabor and Sherman Tabor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 29, 1898, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, by Julius M. Leard for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard and Nannie Leard as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 6, 1900, written application was filed for the enrollment of Barney Edward Leard and on November 1, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of David Leard, minor children of Sudie Leard and Julius M. Leard as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on June 14, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Spiro, Indian Territory, by Ophelia S. Edwards for the enrollment of herself and children, Charles Edwards, Lula J. Edwards, Martha J. Edwards, David L. Edwards and Luther W.

Edwards as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 5, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Hartshorne, Indian Territory, by Joseph M. Edwards for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that application was made on September 9, 1896, for the admission of certain of the applicants as citizens of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), the names of the applicants herein appearing in said application as follows: Zora P. Lewis, Edward M. Lewis, Sarah E. Lewis, Gail B. Lewis, Zora A. Lewis, Edward H. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Laura A. Lewis, Antha Lewis, Lawrence Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Lydia Clark, Olivia Pryor, Kyle Dougless, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Annie Cowart, Samuel P. Cowart, George W. Cowart, Herschel Cowart, Angeline Tabor, Willie L. Tabor, Benny H. Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Julius M. Leard, Frank A. Leard, Sudie E. Leard, Maud E. Leard, Hugh H. Early, Joseph H. Leard, Bell Leard, Madison L. Leard, Jackson A. Leard, Sarah Jane McKibben, George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claud T. McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Zora S. Early, nee Lewis, Lucy Adams, nee Early, Nelly O. Early, Mable Adams, Ephelia S. Edwards, Joseph M. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Edwards, Martha J. Edwards and David L. Edwards. The names of George W. McKibben and Preston Early were also included in said application.

On December 4, 1896, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes denied the above application from which decision appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, which Court on January 19, 1898, reversed the decision as to the above applicants and admitted said applicants to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation.

Said judgment was subsequently vacated, set aside and held for naught by a decree of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 17, 1902, in the test case of "Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations or Tribes vs. J. T. Riddle, et al".

Said cause as to all the applicants herein except Sarah J. McKibben and Edward M. Lewis was subsequently certified to the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court created under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), for a trial de novo and on December 3, 1904, in the case entitled "Zora P. Lewis, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations", said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment wherein it was "ordered adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Zora S. Early, Olivia Pryor, Gale B. Wooding or Gale B. Lewis or Gail B. Lewis, Marshal Cowart, Virgil Cowart, Angeline Adams or Angalina Tabor, or Angeline Tabor, Julius M. Leard, Madison Leard or Madison L. Leard, Jack Leard, Maude Early, Hugh Early, Olivia Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Lucy Adams, Nellie Goodwin or Nellie Early, George L. McKibben or George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben or McKibben, Claud McKibbin or McKibben, Thomas P. McKibbin or McKibben, Frank A. Leard, Mabel Adams ... Zora A. Lewis, Edward H. Lewis, Sudie Leard, Mammie Leard, Ben Tabor, Herschel Tabor, Kyle Douglass or Douglas, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor or Mary E. Pryor ... Antha L. Lewis or Antha L. Lewis, Oscar Lewis ... Joseph H. Leard, Sarah E. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Samuel P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Anna Cowart and Belle Leard be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On the same date said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment in the case of "Preston Early, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations" wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Preston Early, Joseph M. Edwards, George W. McKibben or McKibben . . . be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On the same date said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment in the case entitled "Ophelia S. Edwards, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations" wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Ophelia S. Edwards, David L. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Hayes or Lula Edwards and Martha J. Smith or Martha J. Edwards be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On January 19, 1905, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes issued orders dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Earnest P. Adams, Ida Vada Adams, Frank David Leard, Elihu Venable, Sallie O. Pryor, Earl Pryor, Ruthe Adams, Vernon Pryor, and Leona Tabor. January 21, 1905, said Commission issued orders dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Lindly Blaine Guyer, Edith May Guyer, yielding Lewis Guyer, Albert Clarence Goodwin and Luther W. Edwards. On January 24, 1905, said Commission issued an order dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Barney Edward Leard and David Leard. Said orders were based on the fact that the rights of the persons through whom the above applicants claim the right to enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation have been adversely determined by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

On January 26, 1905, said Commission issued an order dismissing the application for the enrollment of Grant McKibben for the reason that the rights of said applicant's brothers and sisters whose status as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation was identical with the status of said applicant had been adversely determined by said Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

On the same date said Commission issued orders dismissing the application for the enrollment of Sarah J. McKibben and Edward M. Lewis as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation for the reason that the judgment of the United States Court of January 19, 1898, favorable to said applicants had been set aside by a decree of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court on December 17, 1902, and said cause as to said applicants was not certified to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court for a trial denovo.

On June 26, 1906, there was received at the office of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes a petition praying for the enrollment of the following persons as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation: Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Lydia Clark, George Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Frank Davis, Antha Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Rhoda Cowart, Olivia Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, George V. Cowart, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordin,

Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Olivia Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Earle Pryor, Emmett Pryor, Josie Pryor, William Early, William E. Hays, Cera Bailey, Samuel Douglas, Ethel Douglas, Henry Munn, Tula Munn, Zora S. Early, Preston Early, Lucy Adams, A. M. Adams, Nellie Goodwin, John Goodwin, Mabel Adams, Ernest Adams, Vadice Adams, Alvey Adams, Clarence Goodwin, Theodore Goodwin, Susan Early, Angeline Adams, John Adams, Julius Leard, Ludie Leard, Madison L. Leard, Eliza Leard, Jack Leard, Susie Leard, Joseph H. Leard, Belle Leard, Hugh Early, Maude Venable, John Venable, Willie Tabor, Benjamin Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Ruth Adams, Rufus Adams, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, Barnie Leard, Dave Leard, Frank Leard, Roy Leard, Oma Leard, Elihu Venable, Alice Venable, Jewell Venable, Edward M. Lewis, Sarah E. Lewis, Gail Wooding, John L. Wooding, Zora A. Guyer, William H. Guyer, Edward H. Lewis, Clinton L. Wooding, Lindley B. Guyer, Fielding L. Guyer, Edith Guyer, Jesse Lee Guyer, Rosa F. Guyer, Sarah J. McKibben, G. W. McKibben, George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claud McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Ophelia Edwards, J. M. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Ratteree, Eugene Ratteree, Martha J. Smith, Oscar Smith, David Self, ___ Self and Loeta Ratteree.

It is alleged in the petition that the petitioners are entitled to enrollment under the supervisory authority of the Honorable Secretary of the Interior as members of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of their Choctaw descent and their residence with said tribe.

The following persons mentioned in the petition are identical with the persons for whose enrollment as citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495): Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Lydia Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Antha Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Olivia Pryor, Earl Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, George V. Cowart, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Edward H. Lewis, Sarah E. Lewis, Joseph E. Leard, Belle Leard, Olivia Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Zora S. Early, Lucy Adams, Nellie Goodwin, Mabel Adams, Earnest Adams, Vadice Adams, Clarence Goodwin, Angeline Adams, Julius Leard, Madison L. Leard, Jack Leard, Hugh Early, Maud Venable, Willie Tabor, Benjamin Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Ruth Adams, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, Barnie Leard, Dave Leard, Frank Leard, Elihu Venable, Gail Wooding, Zora A. Guyer, Edward H. Lewis, Lindley B. Guyer, Fielding L. Guyer, Edith Guyer, Sarah J. McKibben, George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claud McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Ophelia S. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Ratteree, Martha J. Smith and J. M. Edwards.

Application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137) for the enrollment of the following persons as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation: July 20, 1906, Alva Adams, born January 5, 1905, minor daughter of A. M. Adams and Lucy Adams;

July 23, 1906, Theodore Early Goodwin, born January 31, 1905, minor son of John T. Goodwin and Nellie Goodwin;

July 24, 1906, Clinton L. Wooding born June 23, 1905, minor son of John L. Wooding and Gail B. Wooding.

July 20, 1906, Jessie Fay Guyer and Rosa Lee Guyer, born January 4, 1904 and March 22, 1905, respectively, children of J. W. Guyer and Zora A. Guyer.

It is not alleged in the petition that any of the petitioners herein ever occupied such a status as would entitle them to enrollment as citizens by blood or intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; neither can any of the petitioners be identified with any of the persons whose names appear on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of this office.

Section one of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), provides in part as follows:

"No motion to reopen or reconsider any citizenship case in any of said tribes shall be entertained unless filed with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes within sixty days after the date of the order or decision sought to be reconsidered except as to decisions made prior to the passage of this Act, in which cases such motion shall be made within sixty days after the passage of this Act".

I am of the opinion that inasmuch as the petition herein was not filed within sixty days after the passage of the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), I am without authority to receive or consider said petition in so far as same applies to those applicants for whose enrollment application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495).

I am, therefore, of the opinion that inasmuch as it does not appear from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that any of the applicants ever occupied such a status as would entitle them to enrollment as citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, the decisions of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 3, 1904, are final and that the applications for the enrollment of Zora P. Lewis, Zora S. Early, Nellie Early, Thomas P. Lewis, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Antha L. Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Lydia Clark, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, Samuel P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Julius M. Leard, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, George L. McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claude McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Joseph H. Leard, Madison Leard, Jack Leard, Maud Early, now Maud Venable, Hugh Early, Olivia Pryor, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Angeline Adams, formerly Tabor, Willie Tabor, Ben Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Zora A. Guyer, Lucy Adams, Mabel Adams, Gail B. Lewis, now Gail B. Wooding, Edward H. Lewis, Zora Jordan, Ophelia S. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula J. Ratterree, nee Edwards, Martha J. Smith, nee Edwards and David L. Edwards as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation should be denied under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641) and that the petition herein, in so far as it applies to said applicants, should be dismissed and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the application for the enrollment of Augusta M. Lewis, Anna Cowart, Sarah E. Lewis, Belle Leard and Joseph M. Edwards as citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation should be denied under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) and that the petition herein in so far as same applies to said petitioners should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners Edward M. Lewis, Sarah J. McKibben, Ruth Adams, Leona Tabor, Sallie O. Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Earl Pryor, Frank David Leard, Elihu Venable, Grant McKibben, Barnie Edward Leard, David Leard, Albert Clarence Goodwin, Lindly Blaine Guyer, Edith May Guyer, Elding Lewis Guyer, Earnest R. Adams and Ida Vada Adams, whose applications for enrollment have heretofore been dismissed, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners G. W. McKibben, John L.

Wooding, William Early, William H. Guyer, John Adams, Lodie Leard, wife of Julius Leard, Eliza Leard, Essie Leard, John Venable, Frank Davis, George Clark, A. M. Adams, Preston Early, John Goodwin, Eugene Ratteree, Oscar Smith, Rhoda Cowart, Davie Self and ___ Self, husband of Davie Self, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners, Emmett Fryer, Jenie Fryer, Cera Bailey, Samuel Douglass, Ethel Douglass, Henry Munn, Lula Munn, Jesse Lee Guyer, Rosa P. Guyer, Rufus Taber, Roy Leard, Oma Leard, Allie Venable, Jewell Venable, Leeta Ratteree and William E. Hays should be considered as an application for the enrollment of said persons as citizens by blood of the Cheetaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), and that inasmuch as said applications were not filed within the time limited by the provisions of said Act, the same should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the application filed July 23, 1906 and July 24, 1906, for the enrollment of Alva Adams, Theodore Early Goodwin, Clinton L. Wooding, Jessie Fay Guyer and Rosa Lee Guyer and the petition herein in so far as same applies to said applicants should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 17, 1901.

Honorable John D. Benedict, Superintendent of Schools in Indian Territory,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 15th instant requesting to be advised whether certain children named therein have been listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and if so whether by order of the United States Court or otherwise.

You are informed that the records of this office show that Olivia Pryor, 36 years of age, of Stuart, Indian Territory and her minor children, Kyle Douglass, 17 years of age, Henry Jordan 14 years of age, Rhoda Jordan, 12 years of age, Zora Jordan, 10 years of age, George Pryor, 8 years of age, James Pryor 6 years of age and Mary E. Pryor, 3 years of age, were listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, June 14, 1899 having been admitted to citizenship by a judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory at South McAlester, Indian Territory, January 1, 1898.

It does not appear from the records that any persons of Nabel Jordan or Edgar Pryor have been listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation. The records show that the father of the Pryor children, listed for enrollment, is Samuel V. Pryor.

The records further show that Susan Newton, 21 years of age, Joseph Newton, 19 years of age, Lucinda Newton, 17 years of age, Mada Newton, 11 years of age, Ernest Newton, 9 years of age and Bessie Newton, 6 years of age, children of Robert and Katie Newton, of Stuart, Indian Territory were listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, September 14, 1899, having been identified from the 1896 Choctaw roll. None of the members of this family were admitted to citizenship by a judgment of the United States Court. While the given names of the Newton children are not precisely the same as stated in your letter, it is believed by this office that they are the children concerning whom your inquiry is made. If not, a further communication from you relative to the matter will receive prompt attention.

The records further show that Jas. M. Downun, 40 years of age, whose post office address was given as Springdale, Arkansas, appeared before the Commission, February 24, 1900, and made application for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Wiley, and his minor children, Lula Downun, 11 years of age, Gertie Downun, 5 years of age, Ellen Downun, 8 years of age, and Harva Downun, 3 years of age. The records of this office show that the application of these parties for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 2, 1902.

Douglas Kyle,

Stuart, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 25, 1902, in which you state that you are a Choctaw by blood and have married a non citizen and desire to be informed if she is entitled to enrollment and if so that you be furnished with a blank.

You are advised that the Commission cannot render opinions upon hypothetical questions of enrollment but can only determine the rights of an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, after an application for such enrollment has been made.

The Commission has no blanks for the purpose of making application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, the rules and regulations of the Commission and of the Department of the Interior requiring that all applicants for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation must appear in person before the Commission for the purpose of examination under oath.

If your wife desires to make application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation she will be heard upon her personal appearance at the office of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time prior to some date to be fixed or agreed upon terminating the time within which the Commission can receive applications of this character.

In view of the probability of some such date being early fixed or agreed upon, it is advisable if your wife anticipates making such application that she do so as early as practicable.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 10, 1903.

Olivia Price,

Stewart, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter without date in which you state that you are a Court citizen, and have your selection of land fenced, and you wish to know if you will be protected in your possession thereof until your right is finally determined.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that you and your ten minor children were admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by a judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory, rendered at South McAlester January 1, 1898, in citizenship case No. 101.

On December 17, 1902, the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court, created under the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902, vacated and set aside all judgments of the United States Courts in Indian Territory admitting persons to citizenship in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

It may be added, however, that lands upon which so-called Court claimants have improvements not in excess of lawful allotments will not be allotted to any citizen until the rights of said Court claimants are finally determined.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

S. V. Pryor,

Stuart, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 10, stating that your wife and family are court citizens and asking if there is any way by which you can keep citizens from filing on their land until their case is decided.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission will not allot lands on which so-called court claimants have improvements, not in excess of lawful allotments, without notice to them of application having been made therefor, and they will be permitted to institute contest for their improvements.

Respectfully,

Rules for allotment.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation of Luther Ward Edwards, minor son of Joseph M. Edwards and Ophelia S. Edwards.

. . . . .
D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the records in this case that on September 9th, 1896, Ophelia S. Edwards, the mother of Luther Ward Edwards, applicant herein, made application for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, acting under the act of Congress of June 10th, 1896, on September 9th, 1896; that on December 4th, 1896, said Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes denied the application for citizenship of the said Ophelia S. Edwards, and the case was then appealed to the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory, at South McAlester, which court reversed the decision of the Commission and admitted Ophelia S. Edwards, the mother of the applicant herein, to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation. On June 14th, 1899, Ophelia S. Edwards was listed for enrollment, pursuant to the judgment of said court, rendered January 19th, 1898.

It appears from the evidence in this case that Luther Ward Edwards, son of Ophelia S. Edwards, was alive at the date of the filing of the original application for citizenship with this Commission and that his name was not included therein; that his name does not appear in the decree of the United States Court in the Indian Territory, Central District, at South McAlester, by which his mother was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation.

It is, therefore, the judgment of this Commission, that the application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation of Luther Ward Edwards be, and the same is hereby refused.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of THOMAS P. LEWIS, et al, as citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Calvin, Indian Territory, August 7, 1899, by Thomas P. Lewis for the enrollment of Himself, his children, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Antha L. Lewis, and Oscar Lewis as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and for the enrollment of his wife, Augusta M. Lewis, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; the census card record shows that on the same date application was made by Zora P. Lewis for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on the same date application was made by Edward M. Lewis for the enrollment of himself and children, Gail B. Lewis, Edward H. Lewis and Zora A. Guyer as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and for the enrollment of his wife, Sarah E. Lewis, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; that on July 16, 1900, written application was filed for the enrollment of Lindly Blaine Guyer and on June 7, 1901, application was filed for the enrollment of Edith May Guyer; on September 24, 1902, application was filed for the enrollment of Fielding Lewis Guyer, minor child of William H. Guyer and Zora A. Guyer, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 7, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Edward M. Lewis for the enrollment of Sarah J. McKibben and her children, George L. McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claude McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben and Grant McKibben as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on the same date application was made by Lydia Clark to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on the same date application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Virgil Cowart for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and for the enrollment of his wife, Anna Cowart, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 2, 1898, application was made by Marshall Cowart for the enrollment of himself and his brothers, Samuel P. Cowart and George V. Cowart, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Calvin, Indian Territory, during the month of August, 1899, by Lucy Adams for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Mabel Adams and Earnest P. Adams, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on February 24, 1902, written application was filed for the enrollment of Ida Vadis Adams, minor child of said Lucy Adams and A. M. Adams as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 7, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Zora S. Early for the enrollment of herself and her daughter, Nellie Early, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on June 14, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Albert Clarence Goodwin, minor child of Nellie Goodwin, nee Early, and John Goodwin as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 2, 1898, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Joseph H. Leard for the enrollment of himself, Madison Leard, Jack Leard, Maud Early and Hugh Early as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and for the enrollment of his wife, Belle Leard, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; that on February 28, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Frank David Leard, minor child of Madison Leard and Eliza Leard as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 29, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Elihu Venable, minor child of John Venable and Maud Venable as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on June 14, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Spiro, Indian Territory, by Olivia Pryor for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor and Sallie O. Pryor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 18, 1900, written applications were filed for the enrollment of Vernon Pryor and Earl Pryor, minor children of said Olivia Pryor and S. V. Pryor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 2, 1898, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Calvin, Indian Territory, by Angeline Tabor for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Willie Tabor, Ben Tabor and Herschel L. Tabor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on March 1, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Ruthe Adams, minor child of Angeline Tabor, (now Adams) and J. J. Adams, and on August 7, 1902, written application was filed for the enrollment of Leona Tabor, minor child of Angeline Tabor and Sherman Tabor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 29, 1898, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, by Julius M. Leard for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard and Nannie Leard as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 6, 1900, written application was filed for the enrollment of Barney Edward Leard and on November 1, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of David Leard, minor children of Sudie Leard and Julius M. Leard as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on June 14, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Spiro, Indian Territory, by Ophelia S. Edwards for the enrollment of herself and children, Charles Edwards, Lula J. Edwards, Martha J. Edwards, David L. Edwards and Luther W.

Edwards as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 5, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Hartshorne, Indian Territory, by Joseph M. Edwards for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that application was made on September 9, 1896, for the admission of certain of the applicants as citizens of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), the names of the applicants herein appearing in said application as follows: Zora P. Lewis, Edward M. Lewis, Sarah E. Lewis, Gail B. Lewis, Zora A. Lewis, Edward H. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Laura A. Lewis, Antha Lewis, Lawrence Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Lydia Clark, Olivia Pryor, Kyle Dougless, Henry Jordan, Thoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Annie Cowart, Samuel P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Marshall Cowart, Angeline Tabor, Willie L. Tabor, Benny H. Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Julius M. Leard, Frank A. Leard, Sudie E. Leard, Nannie E. Leard, Maud Early, Hugh H. Early, Joseph H. Leard, Bell Leard, Madison L. Leard, Jackson A. Leard, Sarah Jane McKibben, George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claud T. McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Zora S. Early, nee Lewis, Lucy Adams, nee Early, Nelly O. Early, Mable Adams, Ephelia S. Edwards, Joseph M. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Edwards, Martha J. Edwards and David L. Edwards. The names of George W. McKibben and Preston Early were also included in said application.

On December 4, 1896, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes denied the above application from which decision appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, which Court on January 19, 1898, reversed the decision as to the above applicants and admitted said applicants to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation.

Said judgment was subsequently vacated, set aside and held for naught by a decree of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 17, 1902, in the test case of "Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations or Tribes vs. J. T. Riddle, et al".

Said cause as to all the applicants herein except Sarah J. McKibben and Edward M. Lewis was subsequently certified to the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court created under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), for a trial de novo and on December 3, 1904, in the case entitled "Zora P. Lewis, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations", said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment wherein it was "ordered adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Zora S. Early, Olivia Pryor, Gale B. Wooding or Gale B. Lewis or Gail B. Lewis, Marshal Cowart, Virgil Cowart, Angeline Adams or Angeline Tabor, or Angeline Tabor, Julius M. Leard, Madison Leard or Madison L. Leard, Jack Leard, Maude Early, Hugh Early, Olivia Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Lucy Adams, Nellie Goodwin or Nellie Early, George L. McKibben or George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben or McKibben, Claud McKibbin or McKibben, Thomas P. McKibbin or McKibben, Frank A. Leard, Mabel Adams ... Zora A. Lewis, Edward H. Lewis, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, Ben Tabor, Herschel Tabor, Kyle Douglass or Douglas, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor or Mary E. Pryor ... Antha L. Lewis or Antha L. Lewis, Oscar Lewis ... Joseph H. Leard, Sarah E. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Samuel P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Anna Cowart and Belle Leard be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On the same date said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment in the case of "Preston Early, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations" wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Preston Early, Joseph M. Edwards, George W. McKibben or McKibben . . . be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On the same date said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment in the case entitled "Ophelia S. Edwards, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations" wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Ophelia S. Edwards, David L. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Hayes or Lula Edwards and Martha J. Smith or Martha J. Edwards be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On January 19, 1905, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes issued orders dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Earnest P. Adams, Ida Vadis Adams, Frank David Leard, Elihu Venable, Sallie O. Pryor, Earl Pryor, Ruthe Adams, Vernon Pryor, and Leona Tabor. January 21, 1905, said Commission issued orders dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Lindly Blaine Guyer, Edith May Guyer, Fielding Lewis Guyer, Albert Clarence Goodwin and Luther W. Edwards. On January 24, 1905, said Commission issued an order dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Barney Edward Leard and David Leard. Said orders were based on the fact that the rights of the persons through whom the above applicants claim the right to enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation have been adversely determined by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

On January 26, 1905, said Commission issued an order dismissing the application for the enrollment of Grant McKibben for the reason that the rights of said applicant's brothers and sisters whose status as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation was identical with the status of said applicant had been adversely determined by said Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

On the same date said Commission issued orders dismissing the application for the enrollment of Sarah J. McKibben and Edward M. Lewis as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation for the reason that the judgment of the United States Court of January 19, 1898, favorable to said applicants had been set aside by a decree of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court on December 17, 1902, and said cause as to said applicants was not certified to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court for a trial denovo.

On June 26, 1906, there was received at the office of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes a petition praying for the enrollment of the following persons as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation: Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Lydia Clark, George Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Frank Davis, Antha Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Rhoda Cowart, Olivia Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, George V. Cowart, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordin,

It is alleged in the petition that the petitioners are entitled to enrollment under the supervisory authority of the Honorable Secretary of the Interior as members of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of their Choctaw descent and their residence with said tribe.

The following persons mentioned in the petition are identical with the persons for whose enrollment as citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495): Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Lydia Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Antha Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Olivia Pryor, Earl Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, George V. Edwards.

Application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137) for the enrollment of the following persons as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation: July 20, 1906, Alva Adams, born January 5, 1905, minor daughter of A. M. Adams and Lucy Adams;

July 23, 1906, Theodore Early Goodwin, born January 31, 1905, minor son of John T. Goodwin and Nellie Goodwin;

July 24, 1906, Clinton L. Wooding born June 23, 1905, minor son of John L. Wooding and Gail B. Wooding.

July 20, 1906, Jessie Fay Guyer and Rosa Lee Guyer, born January 4, 1904 and March 22, 1905, respectively, children of J. W. Guyer and Zora A. Guyer.

It is not alleged in the petition that any of the petitioners herein ever occupied such a status as would entitle them to enrollment as citizens by blood or intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; neither can any of the petitioners be identified with any of the persons whose names appear on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of this office.

Section one of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), provides in part as follows:

"No motion to reopen or reconsider any citizenship case in any of said tribes shall be entertained unless filed with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes within sixty days after the date of the order or decision sought to be reconsidered except as to decisions made prior to the passage of this Act, in which cases such motion shall be made within sixty days after the passage of this Act".

I am of the opinion that inasmuch as the petition herein was not filed within sixty days after the passage of the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), I am without authority to receive or consider said petition in so far as same applies to those applicants for whose enrollment application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495).

I am, therefore, of the opinion that inasmuch as it does not appear from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that any of the applicants ever occupied such a status as would entitle them to enrollment as citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, the decisions of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 3, 1904, are final and that the applications for the enrollment of Zora P. Lewis, Zora S. Early, Nellie Early, Thomas P. Lewis, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Antha L. Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Lydia Clark, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, Samuel P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Julius M. Leard, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, George L. McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claude McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Joseph H. Leard, Madison Leard, Jack Leard, Maud Early, now Maud Venable, Hugh Early, Olivia Pryor, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Angeline Adams, formerly Tabor, Willie Tabor, Ben Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Zora A. Guyer, Lucy Adams, Mabel Adams, Gail B. Lewis, now Gail B. Wooding, Edward H. Lewis, Zora Jordan, Ophelia S. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Eula J. Ratteree, nee Edwards, Martha J. Smith, nee Edwards and David L. Edwards as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation should be denied under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641) and that the petition herein, in so far as it applies to said applicants, should be dismissed and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the application for the enrollment of Augusta M. Lewis, Anna Cowart, Sarah E. Lewis, Belle Leard and Joseph M. Edwards as citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation should be denied under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) and that the petition herein in so far as same applies to said petitioners should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners Edward M. Lewis, Sarah J. McKibben, Ruth Adams, Leona Tabor, Sallie O. Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Earl Pryor, Frank David Leard, Elinu Venable, Grant McKibben, Bernie Edward Leard, David Leard, Albert Clarence Goodwin, Lindly Blaine Guyer, Edith May Guyer, Fielding Lewis Guyer, Earnest R. Adams and Ida Vadis Adams, whose applications for enrollment have heretofore been dismissed, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners G. W. McKibben, John L.

Wooding, William Early, William H. Guyer, John Adams, Ludie Leard, wife of Julius Leard, Eliza Leard, Susie Leard, John Venable, Frank Davis, George Clark, A. M. Adams, Preston Early, John Goodwin, Eugene Ratteree, Oscar Smith, Rhoda Cowart, Davie Self and      Self, husband of Davie Self, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners, Emmett Pryor, Josie Pryor, Cora Bailey, Samuel Douglass, Ethel Douglass, Henry Funn, Lula Funn, Jesse Lee Guyer, Rosa F. Guyer, Rufus Tabor, Roy Leard, Oma Leard, Alice Venable, Jewell Venable, Leta Ratteree and William E. Hays should be considered as an application for the enrollment of said persons as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), and that inasmuch as said applications were not filed within the time limited by the provisions of said Act, the same should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the application filed July 23, 1906 and July 24, 1906, for the enrollment of Alva Adams, Theodore Early Goodwin, Clinton L. Wooding, Jessie Fay Guyer and Rosa Lee Guyer and the petition herein in so far as same applies to said applicants should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 13th, in which you state that the case of the application of your wife for citizenship was closed by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court on February 4, 1904; but that no decision has yet been handed down.

In reply to your letter, you are informed that it appears from our records that the application of yourself and family for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation is pending before the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court and for information relative thereto, you should address the Clerk of that Court at Tishomingo, Indian Territory. Under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 the Commission is without authority to enroll or to make allotment to any person whose citizenship in the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation is dependent upon judgments of United States Courts in the Indian Territory, until their right to such citizenship is finally determined.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 15th instant addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, has by him been referred to this Commission for consideration and appropriate action.

In your letter you make inquiry relative to the submission of affidavits in support of the claim of S. P. Hicks as an inter-married citizens of the Choctaw Nation and desire to be informed that if affidavits submitted in behalf of S. P. Hicks to this Commission will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for his consideration.

Replying to your inquiry, you are informed that it appears from the records of this office, that on June 14, 1899, Elric Z. Hicks, 23 years of age, of Shady Point, Indian Territory, was listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been admitted to such citizenship by a judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory, rendered at South McAlester, I. T., January 19, 1899, in court case No. 101.

The father of Ulris Z. Hicks appears upon our records as Stephen .P. Hicks, a non citizen white man and it is presumed that this is the person concerning whom you desire the information requested.

It does not appear that any person by the name of S. P. Hicks has ever been enrolled by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage of that nation nor is there any record of any application having been made by S . P. Hicks to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

If Mr. Hicks is desirous of making application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, he will be heard upon his personal appearance at the office of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Warick Z. Hicks,

Monroe, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 10th instant, in which you request a birth certificate and desire to be advised how to have your wife enrolled.

There is enclosed you herewith a blank application for the enrollment of an infant child. In having the same executed, be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and in the event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures be attested by two disinterested parties, witnesses thereto.

The notary public before whom the acknowledgments of the mother and the attending physician or nurse are made, must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

The rules and regulations of this Commission require that applicants for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation must present themselves in person before the Commission for the purpose of examination. If you have since the

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 11, 1905, stating that you have read the ruling of the Secretary of the Interior in regard to court claimants holding their land until a final decision therein, and you state that you are connected with the ~~Mora~~ P. Lewis case and you wish to know if each one comes in individually, or, if one of the family gets a right, if all will be entitled.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from the records of this office that you were denied citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court on December 3, 1904, in case No. 58 on the South McAlester docket.

You are further advised that it does not appear from the records of this office that you were ever enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities and from the record in this case it is not believed that you come within the class referred to in Departmental

E. H.
In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John W. Wyers as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that John W. Wyers on May 13, 1899, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, to Irene Wyers (nee Brashears), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 7908, upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that John W. Wyers should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 23, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John W. Dodson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

It appears from the census-card record in this case that John W. Dodson appeared before the Commission at Spiro, Indian Territory, June 14, 1899, and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Atoka, Indian Territory, May 19, 1903.

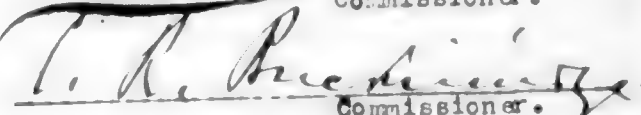

It further appears from the record herein that John W. Dodson, on October 5, 1885, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Emma Dodson, (nee Stark) a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 7930 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that John W. Dodson should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 17th instant, in which you desire to be advised if Mr. John Dotson's wife has been taken from the Choctaw roll.

The Commission is unable to understand the purpose of your inquiry or as to the character of information that you desire.

You are advised, however, that it appears from our record that Emma Dodson, 31 years of age, and the wife of John W. Dodson of Stigler, Indian Territory, has been duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the Choctaw tribal rolls and there is no objection or any protest entered on the part of the Choctaw Nation as to her final enrollment as a citizen of that tribe.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw 2717

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 24, 1902.

Frank Webster,

Matoy, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 19th instant, in which you ask if Emma Dodson, wife of John Dodson, is a Choctaw citizen.

You are advised that it appears from the records of this office that on June 14, 1899, Emma Dodson, 31 years of age, and the wife of John W. Dodson of Stigler, Indian Territory, was listed for enrollment by the Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1896 census roll of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation as a resident of Skullyville County.

Yours truly,

Choctaw 2717

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 18, 1902.

J. W. Dodson,

Pennington, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 15th instant, acknowledging receipt of the circular letter of the Commission of October 41, 1902, and stating that your postoffice address is now Pennington, Indian Territory, and that you will meet the Commission at Atoka.

The change of your postoffice address has been made a matter of record with this office.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Choctaw - 2717.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 27, 1903.

John W. Dodson,

Bennington, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations April 1, 1903.

The act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides as follows:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as her in provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at said place on one of the above dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

2717
Choctaw 6823.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 27, 1903.

J. W. Dodson,

Bennington, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 13, stating that it was impossible for you to appear before the Commission on account of illness, and asking that interrogatories be furnished you.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that J. W. Dodson was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by a judgment of the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory, rendered at Ardmore, December 21, 1897, in court case, citizenship docket, Number 88. Subsequently the name of J. W. Dodson was stricken from the judgment by order of the court for the reason that it did not appear that he was an applicant to this Commission under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896.

The Commission has, therefore, no jurisdiction over this case and cannot receive additional testimony therein.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Choctaw 2717

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 15, 1903.

John W. Dodson,

Bennington, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 4, stating that the Commission's letter of March 27, 1903, must have referred to some other person as you are not a court citizen.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the information contained in our letter of March 27 refers to a J. W. Dodson, who was admitted to citizenship by a judgment of the United States Court in Indian Territory, and whose name was subsequently stricken from the judgment by order of the court.

It appears from our records that your wife and children, Emma, Sudie, Willie E., Elisha Thomas and Charlie Dodson, have been enrolled by this commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and on January 17, 1903, their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

It further appears that you have been listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, but before your application can receive further consideration it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commission to testify relative to your intermarried status on September 25, 1902, the date of the final ratification of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. This matter should receive your prompt attention.

For your information there is inclosed you herewith a copy of the rules and regulations governing the selection of allotments and the designation of homesteads in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Rules for allotment.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 20, 1903.

John W. Dodson,

Bennington, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 27, in which you state that up to this time you have been physically unable to appear before the Commission, but that your health has been improving slowly and you think that you may be able to reach Atoka in a short time if you would be permitted to meet the Commission there.

In reply to your letter you are advised that you will be permitted to appear before the Commission at Atoka, Indian Territory May 26, 1903, if your health is such that you can travel.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Bertha W. McKinney for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation

-----:-----:-----

It appears from the record herein, that on July 25, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, the applicant, Bertha W. McKinney, made original application to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

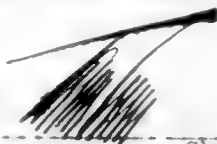

Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application, at Wister, Indian Territory, on December 15, 1902.

It further appears from the record herein that on July 25, 1902, the applicant was lawfully married to Adam McKinney, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 7935 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, January 17, 1903. That at the time of said marriage both the persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and lived together as husband and wife until about the first day of August, 1902, when they separated but were not divorced. That the applicant has been a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation since the date of her marriage on July 23, 1902, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton D. Pearce (I.T.D. 4060-1904), relative to the question of forfeiture, Bertha W. McKinney should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 641), and it is so ordered.

SECRETARY

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 24, 1902.

C. J. Prudhomme,

Goodwater, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 20th instant, in which you ask to be advised if a Choctaw Indian marries a white woman outside the Choctaw country, is the marriage legal and can the wife be enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are advised that the Commission cannot render opinions upon hypothetical questions of enrollment, but can only determine the rights of an individual to enrollment upon personal appearance before the Commission for the purpose of examination under oath, and a consideration of such testimony as may be offered.

If the person in whose behalf you desire this information, wishes to make application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, she will be heard upon her personal appearance at the office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, prior to the date to be fixed or agreed upon terminating the time within which the Commission can receive applications of this character. If she anticipates making such

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 29, 1902, enclosing a copy of a letter from your husband, Adam McKinney under date of August 4, 1902.

In accordance with your request the copy of the letter submitted by you is returned herewith, a copy thereof having been made and placed in our records.

The Commission cannot render you any upon upon your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation at this time but when your case is taken up for final decision you will be advised of the action taken by the Commission and of the forwarding of the record in the case to the Secretary of the Interior for his review.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 29, 1902, relative to circular letter of the Commission of October 4, 1902, received by you and in which you desire to be advised if it is necessary for you to again appear before the Commission.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that on July 25, 1902, Bertha W. McKinney, appeared before this Commission and made application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

There was ratified on September 25, 1902, by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, an agreement closing the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on that date.

The rolls as now being made by this Commission of the citizens of these two tribes will be as of September 25, 1902 and it will be necessary that the Commission ascertain the status of all applicants for enrollment as intermarried citizens on the date of the final ratification of such agreement.

B W McK 2

It will therefore be necessary that you personally present yourself before the Commission at one of the appointments specified in the circular referred to by you in order that your status as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation on September 25, 1902, may be determined.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of November 11, 1904, asking the status of the application of Bertha McKinney, wife of Thompson McKinney, for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it does not appear from our records that any person by the name of Thompson McKinney is an applicant for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. It does appear, however, that Bertha W. McKinney, wife of Adam McKinney, and daughter of George E. and Ann M. Whitehead is an applicant to the Commission for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, but the Commission has not yet passed upon her case.

If this is not the Bertha McKinney referred to by you and you will furnish further information as to Thompson McKinney which will enable us to identify him upon our records the matter of your inquiry will receive further consideration.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Rebecca A. Cox as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the census card record in this case that on June 19, 1899, the applicant herein appeared before the Commission and made application for her enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of this application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on July 26, 1904.

It further appears from the record herein that on August 12, 1894, the applicant was lawfully married to Joseph R. Cox, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 7939 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both parties above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; that they lived together continuously as husband and wife from the date of their marriage up to and including September 23, 1902, as bona fide residents of the Choctaw Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Rebecca A. Cox should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Mary Nelsona Cox, infant daughter of Joseph R. and Rebecca A. Cox, born April 26, 1902; and the same is returned to you herewith.

You are informed that it will be necessary that the Commission be supplied with the affidavit of the person who attended on Rebecca A. Cox at the birth of this child, the affidavit of Bud Cox not being such as is required by the rules of this Commission in matters of this kind.

In order to assist in this matter, a blank for the purpose of making a new application for the enrollment of this child is enclosed you herewith. Upon return of the same properly executed, the matter will receive further consideration.

Yours truly,

Enc. B.I. 143.

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 27, 1903.

Rebecca A. Cox,

Panther, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations April 1, 1903.

The act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides as follows:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at said place on one of the above dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Dear Madam:

In the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, you were advised on February 27, 1903 that it would be necessary for you to appear in person before the Commission to testify relative to your status as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation on September 25, 1902.

You are again informed that before further consideration can be given to your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear in person before the Commission at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, there to give testimony concerning your intermarried status.

This matter should receive your immediate attention.

Respectfully,

Spire, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 23rd inst., requesting to be advised relative to the enrollment of Mrs. J. P. Cox who claims to be an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are advised that Rebecca A. Cox wife of Joseph K. Cox of Milton, Indian Territory has been listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, but her name has not yet been placed upon a schedule of intermarried citizens of the Choctaw Nation to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior.

If this is not the person concerning whom your inquiry is made a further communication from you relative to the matter will receive attention.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 8th instant, in which you state that you are a Choctaw Indian and relative to a Chickasaw freedman who is holding more than his share of the land of the Choctaw-Chickasaw country and desire to be advised if you can lawfully move your fence out in his pasture.

In reply to your letter your attention is invited to the following provision of the Choctaw-Chickasaw agreement, ratified September 25, 1902:

"It shall be unlawful after ninety days after the date of the final ratification of this agreement for any Choctaw or Chickasaw freedman to enclose or hold possession of in any manner, by himself or through another, directly or indirectly, more than so much land as shall be equal in value to forty acres of the average allottable lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes as provided by the terms of this agreement, either for himself or for his wife, or for each of his minor children, if they be Choctaw or Chickasaw freedmen; and any freedman found in possession of lands, or having the same in any manner enclosed after the expiration of ninety days after the date of the final ratification of this agreement, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor."

Also the following provision of the same agreement:

"Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of sections 19 and 20 (Section 20 above quoted) of this agreement shall be punished by a fine not less than one hundred dollars, and shall stand committed until such fine and costs are paid (such commitment not to exceed one day for every two dollars of said fine and costs) and shall forfeit possession of any property in question, and each day on which such offense is committed or continues to exist, shall be deemed a separate offense. And the United States district attorneys for the districts in which said nations are situated, are required to see that the provisions of said sections are strictly enforced, and they shall immediately after the expiration of ninety days after the date of the final ratification of this agreement proceed to dispossess all persons of such excessive holdings of lands, and to prosecute them for so unlawfully holding the same."

J T 2

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Choctaw 2722

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 7, 1903.

John Taylor,

Spiro, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 4, asking whether your daughter, Ida McGinty, will be permitted to select in allotment the land adjoining her enclosures, or if other persons will be permitted to file thereon.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission cannot at this time render any opinion relative to the rights of individuals to particular tracts of the Choctaw-Chickasaw country. Matters of this character will receive its consideration upon the establishment of land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, at which time the citizens of these two tribes may appear at the land office for the nation in which their land is located and make formal application for their allotments.

No date has been definitely determined for the establishment of the land offices in these nations but the same will probably be opened the first of April.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Choctaw 2722

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 26, 1904.

John Taylor,

Spiro, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 20, stating that your grand daughter, Lois Lucile McGinty, daughter of Ida McGinty, died January 19, 1904, and you ask if it is necessary for the mother to take out letters of administration before she can select land for this child's estate. You also request that blank for proof of death be furnished if it is necessary that the same be forwarded.

In reply to your letter your attention is invited to the following provision of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902:

"If any person whose name appears upon the rolls, prepared as herein provided, shall have died subsequent to the ratification of this agreement and before receiving his allotment of land the lands to which such person would have been entitled if living shall be allotted in his name, and shall, together with his proportionate share of other tribal property, descend to his heirs according to the laws of descent and distribution as provided in chapter forty-nine of Mansfield's Digest of the Statutes of Arkansas: Provided, That the allotment thus to be made shall be selected by a duly appointed administrator or executor. If, however, such administrator or executor be not duly and expeditiously appointed, or fails to act promptly when appointed, or for any other cause such selection be not so made within a reasonable and practicable time, the Commission to the five Civilized Tribes shall designate the lands thus to be allotted."

J T 2

Your attention is further invited to section thirteen of the rules and regulations governing the selection of allotments and the designation of homesteads in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations, copy of which is herewith inclosed.

You are further informed that there is inclosed herewith a blank for proof of death which should be executed and presented at the land office by the administrator of the estate of Lois Lucile McGinty, when said administrator appears at the land office for the purpose of selecting allotment for this estate.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith a communication dated July 6, 1916, together with other papers, from the Acting Superintendent for the Five Civilized Tribes, relating to the enrollment case of Burney . McGinty, whose name appears at No. 14337 on the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

It appears from the affidavits transmitted herewith and the birth affidavits filed in the office of the Superintendent in connection with the application for the enrollment of the said Burney McGinty that this person is a female instead of a male as shown on the approved Choctaw by blood roll at No. 14337.

The Office therefore recommends that the letter "M" in the sex column opposite the name of the aforesaid Burney McGinty at No. 14337 on the above-mentioned roll be cancelled and that the letter "F" be substituted therefor.

It is further recommended that this Office and the office of the Superintendent for the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar correction in all copies of the final rolls in their possession.

-----oOo-----

In the matter of the application of Isaac Norman for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Isaac Norman being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Isaac Norman.
Q How old are you? A About forty-four.
Q What is your post office address? A Stigler, at the present time.
Q That is in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been a resident of the Choctaw Nation? A Well that's another question. I can't tell exactly. Somewhere about sixteen years I think.
Q Have you lived here continuously for the past sixteen years? A Yes sir, with the exception of the time I have been at Hot Springs; I was there last winter.
Q Did you make your home there? A No sir, made my home at Stigler and Tamaha.
Q Do you claim intermarried rights in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir, I was enrolled by the Dawes Commission.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw wife through whom you claim? A Ara Byrd.
Q Was she a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Were her rights as such ever disputed? A No sir, not that I ever heard of.
Q When were you married to Ara Byrd? A As well as I remember it was the 26th day of March, nine years ago to the best of my recollection.
Q Where was this marriage ceremony performed? A Near Tamaha.
Q At that time were both you and your wife bona fide residents of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married in accordance with the Choctaw tribal law? A No sir.
Q Under what law were you married? A United States law.
Q Is that the only time you ever married this woman? A Yes sir.
Q Who performed the marriage ceremony? A Old man Tyler.
Q A minister of the gospel? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married previous to your marriage to Ara Byrd? A No sir.
Q Was she ever married before her marriage to you? A Yes sir.
Q How many times? A Once.
Q What was the name of her former husband? A Leflore.

Isaac Norman-----2

- It was one of the Leflore boys.
- Q Was he dead at the time of your marriage to her? A No sir.
- Q Had they been divorced? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was this divorce granted them? A In the Choctaw courts.
- Q Have you any evidence of that divorce? A Well, yes; Mrs. Welch is her niece. She knows of that fact.
- Q Have you got the original or certified copy of the decree of divorce? A I don't know whether I have or not. I did have it.
- Q After your marriage to this woman how long did you live with her as her husband? A About six years I think.
- Q What happened at the end of that time? A She died.
- Q Did you live with her continuously as her husband up until her death? A Yes sir.
- Q There was no separation of any kind whatsoever? A No sir.
- Q Since her death have you remarried? A No sir, never remarried.
- Q Were you an applicant before this Commission in 1896 for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you then apply as an intermarried citizen? A Yes sir.
- Q What action was taken upon your application at that time? A Well sir I couldn't tell you. Lawyer Wilkinson put it there.
- Q Do you know what the Commission did with your application? A No sir.
- Q Was your case ever appealed to the United States Court to your knowledge? A No sir, not that I know of.

ex. 10
In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Isaac M. Norman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the census card record in this case that Isaac M. Norman appeared before the Commission at Spiro, Indian Territory, June 14, 1899, and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Wister, Indian Territory, December 15, 1902.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 7, 1896, in the case entitled, "Isaac M. Norman, vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 1143), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with Ara Byrd, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on December 7, 1896, the said Isaac M. Norman was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that his status as an intermarried citizen has remained unchanged from the date of his said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Isaac M. Norman should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

TO THE HONORABLE.

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR:

Your petitioner, Isaac M. Norman, respectfully states that he is an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and his enrollment as such was finally approved by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior on June 13, 1903.

Your petitioner further represents that on January 23, 1904, the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations filed a special protest against any allotment being made to your petitioner until certain cases pending in the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court were decided.

Your petitioner would respectfully ask that said special protest be overruled and that he be allowed to select his allotment.

Respectfully submitted,

Lizzie Evans,

Cartersville, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 14, asking if the name of Edmond Evans has been corrected upon the approved roll.

In reply you are advised that on November 30, 1903, the Secretary of the Interior approved the recommendation of the Commission that the name of Edna Evans be changed upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation to Edmond Evans. Selection of allotment can therefore now be made in his behalf.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 4, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On November 18, 1902, the Commission transmitted for Departmental approval a schedule constituting part of the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, numbers 7007 to 7998, inclusive, copies of which have heretofore been returned approved by the Secretary of the Interior, January 17, 1903.

The Commission has now to advise that number 7947, Edna Evans, upon said schedules is erroneous in so far as it pertains to the given name and sex of this citizen and should be corrected.

At the Choctaw Land Office of the Commission at Atoka, Indian Territory, on August 5, 1903, Lizzie Evans, mother of Edna Evans, whose name appears upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation at number 7946, testified that she had never had a daughter named Edna Evans, but that she has a son, Edmond Evans, who is now about fifteen or sixteen years of age.

For the information of the Department there is enclosed herewith a copy of the testimony of Lizzie Evans, of August 5, 1903.

In view of this error, as the same appears upon the schedules heretofore transmitted and the letter of transmittal, the Commission has respectfully to recommend that the name appearing opposite number 7947 upon the approved roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation be corrected to read "Edmond Evans," and that the sex of this citizen be changed from "Female" to "Male," and that the Commission be further authorized to make such changes upon the copies of the letters and schedules above referred to.

Secretary 2

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 29, in which you ask if allotment may now be selected for number 7947 upon the approved roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation in the name of Edmond Evans.

In reply to your letter you are informed that from information received at this office it appears that the name and sex of number 7947 upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation (Choctaw enrollment card field number 2724), are erroneous and that the same should read Edmond Evans, a male.

You are further informed that the Commission has this day recommended the change of name and sex of this citizen upon the approved roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of the Department and the Indian Office and has requested authority to make like changes upon the schedules in its possession.

For your information there is enclosed you herewith copy of a letter addressed this day to the Department in this matter.

C.L.O. 2

You are, therefore, requested to with-hold the issuance of a citizenship certificate, or the making of any allotment to number 7947 upon the approved roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, Edna Evans, until otherwise advised.

As soon as the Commission is authorized to make the necessary changes relative to the enrollment of Edna Evans, you will be notified and will be furnished copy of Departmental letter.

Dear Sir:

Referring to Choctaw Enrollment Card, field number 2724 to the name Edna Evans which appears as number three on said card and also upon the approved roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation opposite number 7947, you are advised that from information received at this office it appears that the name and sex of this citizen are erroneous and the Commission has this day addressed a letter to the Secretary of the Interior recommending that the name of this citizen be changed to Edmond Evans and the sex be changed from "Female" to "Male."

For your information there is enclosed you herewith copy of such letter of recommendation and you are requested to withhold the issuance of a citizenship certificate, or the making of any allotment to Edna Evans number 7947 upon the approved roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation until otherwise advised.

WASHINGTON, November 30, 1903.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T.

Gentlemen:

November 4, 1903, you recommended that the schedule of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation approved by the Department January 17, 1903, be corrected so that the name opposite No. 7947 will appear thereon as Edmond Evans, in lieu of Edna Evans, and the sex of this citizen as male instead of female, inasmuch as the mother of Edmond Evans testified before you August 5, 1903, that she never had a daughter named Edna Evans, and that she has a son named Edmond Evans.

Reporting November 21 the Commissioner of Indian Affairs concurs in your recommendation. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The copy of said schedule in this office has been corrected accordingly, and you are directed to correct in the same respect the copies returned to you. The Commissioner has been requested to correct the copy in his office.

WASHINGTON, November 21, 1903.

Land.
74560-1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is submitted herewith, for your consideration, letter of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, of the 4th instant, reporting that on November 18, 1902, the Commission transmitted, for Departmental action, a schedule ~~constituting part~~ of the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, Nos. 7007 to 7995, inclusive, which was approved by the Department January 17, 1903.

The Commission now states that No. 7947, Edna Evans, upon the schedule referred to, is erroneous, in so far as it pertains to the given name and sex of this citizen, and should be corrected.

At the Choctaw Land Office of the Commission at Atoka, Indian Territory, on August 5, 1903, Lizzie Evans, mother of No. 7947-- her name appearing at No. 7946-- testified that she had never had a daughter named Edna Evans, but that she has a son, Edmond Evans, who is now about 15 or 16 years of age. For the information of the Department the Commission incloses a copy of the testimony of Lizzie Evans of August 5th.

In view of this error, as the same appears upon the schedule heretofore transmitted, and the letter of transmittal, the Commission recommends that the name appearing opposite No. 7947 upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation be corrected to read "Edmond Evans"; that the sex of this citizen be changed from female to male, and that the Commission be further authorized to make such changes upon the copies of letters and schedules above referred to.

An examination of the approved schedule on file in this office with reference to the names referred to by the Commission discloses the fact that the statements made are correct, and it being shown now that the name of No. 7947, as it appears upon the schedule is erroneous, I concur in the recommendation of the Commission that it be corrected in the manner suggested.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,

Commissioner.

-----o-----

The record herein is in the matter of the application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation of
ELIZABETH H. KAYSER. 7-2725.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Spiro, Indian Territory.

In the enrollment of Elizabeth H. Kayser as intermarried
Choctaw; being sworn and examined by Com'r McKennon she testifies:

Name is Elizabeth H. Kayser, thirty-two years old.

Q You were married on the 20th day of July, 1893? A Yes sir.

Q To Henry J. Kayser a citizen of the Choctaw Nation?

A Yes sir.

Q Where have you been residing since your marriage to him?

A We lived in Fort Smith until after his death, then I have lived in the Nation.

Q You lived in Fort Smith up to what time? A Nearly two years ago.

Q What was the date of his death? A Last November.

Q You lived in Fort Smith until after his death? A Yes sir.

Q Then you came to the Territory? A Yes sir.

Q And have been living here since? A Yes sir. Mr. Kayser always had his business in the Nation, across the line. Mr. Kayser died in November, 1897.

Q How long after his death until you moved into the Territory?

A A month or two afterwards.

-----
William G. Kayser being sworn and examined testifies

Q What is your name? A William G. Kayser.

Q Are you acquainted with Mrs. Elizabeth H. Kayser? A Yessir.

Q She is the widow of your brother Henry J.? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember the date of the death of your brother?

A November, 1898.

Q Do you know how long after that it was she came to the Choctaw Nation, moved to the Choctaw Nation?

(Elizabeth H. Kayser, W.G. Kayser witness #2)

A Not exactly, but I think something about six months. She moved- I think she saw a notice in the paper that the Dawes Commission said that had to be residents in the Choctaw Nation, and my brother owned property in Fort Smith and moved to the Nation and left it; Henry had two places down in the bottom and he said he intended to live down there sometime as his home, and she moved into that place with her family about six months after his death.

Q Is there no way in which you can get the exact date of her removal? A I suppose I could by the people that lived there, and by her I guess.

Q Had she resided in the Territory since her marriage at any time before that? A No sir. My brother just boarded in Fort Smith, he never did have no home there. Had his business down at the bridge that was the place where he boarded and did his business.

Q You know the exact day of November that your brother died?

A No sir, I have forgotten.

Q Do you know whether it was after the passage of the Curtis Bill or before? A I don't - and she told me she got information from Mr. Ainsworth -

Q Was that after his return from Washington? A I think it was; I think it was after the passage of the Curtis Bill, but I don't remember the date.

Q (By Judge Shackelford)

Mrs. Kayser never lived in the Choctaw Nation until after her husband's death? A No sir.

Q Never lived here prior to marriage? A No sir, they lived in Fort Smith.

Q Didn't they marry in Texas? A I think they did, but they was living in Fort Smith.

(Elizabeth H. Kayser, W.G. Kayser witness #3)

Q You say Mrs. Kayser never lived in the Territory until after his death? A No sir.

In the enrollment of Elizabeth H. Kayser as intermarried Choctaw. John F. Collins being sworn and examined by Com'r McKennon testifies:

Name is John F. Collins, twenty-four years old.

Q You are a citizen of the Choctaw Nation by blood? A Yessir

Q Do you know Mrs. Elizabeth H. Kayser, widow of Henry J.

Kayser? A No, I don't know her name; I know the widow of Henry Kayser.

Q Do you know what time she came from Fort Smith over into the Choctaw Nation? A No sir I don't.

Q Do you know whether it was before or after the flood in the spring of 1898? A To the best of my knowledge it was after the flood, I believe.

Q About how long? A Something like a month or month and a half.

Q Can you remember anything about how large the crops were at the time when she came over? A The water washed most of them down, and they had to plant over.

Q They had been planted when she came in I suppose? A Yessir

Q Do you know how large they were? A I know how large some of them was that the water never washed down.

Q Was it after or before the corn was laid by? A It was before the corn was laid by.

Q About how high was the corn? A Some of it ~~over~~ a knee high to hip high.

Q That is about as nearly as you can state it is it?

A Yes sir.

Q (By T.D.Ainsworth) Were you in there when the floods come?

A Yes sir, I staid there during the flood.

Q (Capt.McK) You know what time the flood went away, what time it came and what time it went away? A It was in May, I believe the water was at its highest the 14th of May.

(Elizabeth H. Kayser, John P. Collins witness #2)

Q How long did it take it to go away? A XSomething like a week,- that is for most of it; some of it is there yet in holes.

Q (By Ainsworth) It was about the first of June when you began to plant over wasn't it? A Yes sir, some of them planted along the first of May and some of them the first of June, and some couldn't plant.

Q Who was living in this house of Henry Kayser's on the road, making a crop on the place during the flood?

A A white man.

Q What was his name? A Jim Barnett

Q Is he there now? A Yes sir

Q How far is he from here? A About two miles this side of Fort Smith.

Q Com'r McK) Do you know whether she moved over there after the passage of the Curtis Bill or not? A No sir, I don't.

Napolean B. Ainsworth being sworn and examined by Com'r McKennon testifies:

Napolean B. Ainsworth,

Q You are acquainted with Mrs. Kayser? A Yes sir

Q She advised with you about coming to the Choctaw Nation?

A Yes sir, she asked me if I would keep her posted, and I said you just moved over into the Nation; and I was in Fort Smith pretty soon after, and she had moved.

Q That was after the passage of the Curtis Bill? A Yes sir

Q She was then residing in Fort Smith? A Yes sir.

Q And she immediately moved over? A Yes sir. I came immediately after the passage of the Bill, and I have written to her since and she has advised with me, and the question come up about how much land she would hold and she asked me and told me she had

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T. Oct. 25, 1900.

In the matter of the application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Elizabeth H. Kizer, Choctaw roll card, field No. 2725. James B. McDonough being duly sworn by the Commission testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q The question in the matter of Mrs. Kizer's enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation is the question of non-residence I believe? A Yes sir.

Q You desire to make a statement as to her residence in the state of Arkansas? A Yes sir.

Q All right sir. A I was the attorney for Mr. Henry A. Kizer, the husband of Elizabeth H. Kizer for a number of years before his death. During all of that time he did business in the Choctaw Nation just across the live from Fort Smith. He was for two or three years in failing health just before his death. He died of consumption. He owned property both in the Choctaw Nation and in the city of Fort Smith in the state of Arkansas. His physician had advised him that it was dangerous for him to remain all the time in the Choctaw Nation in the bottom or swamp between the Poteau and the Arkansas rivers. He consulted me, asking if it would lose him his citizenship if he should have a temporary residence in Fort Smith. Upon an investigation of the law it was my conclusion and I so advised him, that if his residence in Fort Smith was only temporary and if he continued to maintain his citizenship in the Indian Territory and maintained his rights as a Choctaw citizen he would not lose his Choctaw citizenship. Acting upon my advice, he lived out of Fort Smith with his wife for some months before his death but also made several trips to San Antonio and other points for the benefit of his health. During the whole of the time that he was temporarily residing out of Fort Smith he exercised the rights of a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. He voted in the Choctaw Nation and never at any time exercised any right as a citizen of Arkansas. I have no interest in this matter in any way. I am the attorney of Mrs. Kizer in other matters and felt it my duty to make this statement as I probably know more of Mr. Kizer's intentions than any other person as I was his confidential adviser as well as his attorney.

Q How long has Mr. Kizer been dead? A He died either in 1897 or 1898. I could not state in which.

Q Where has Mrs. Kizer resided since then? A Soon after his death she took up her actual residence on his farm in the Indian Territory and has from that time to this resided there where she now resides.

Q Was she a resident of the Indian Territory and maintained her home there prior to the 28th day of June, 1898? A Yes sir within a few weeks after his death, in less than two months I will say, she took up her residence in the Indian Territory at all times not having given it up in my judgment as I construed they were still citizens of the Choctaw Nation. They had no residence in Fort Smith. No legal residence.

Q Since Mr. Kizer's death Mrs. Kizer has been an actual bona fide resident of the Indian Territory in the Choctaw Nation?

A She has.

Q Was she even maintained a temporary residence in Fort Smith? A No sir. Immediately after his death she took up her actual residence in the Indian Territory.

James B. McDonough 2

Myra Young, having been first duly sworn, upon her oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 25th day of October, 1900 and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes of said proceedings on said date.

Q What is your post office address? A Fort Smith.
Q Do you live in Fort Smith? A No sir, I live in the Choctaw Nation.
Q How long have you been a resident of the Choctaw Nation? A
Why it's always been our home except when I traveled with my husband for his health. His business was there.
Q Do you claim intermarried rights in the Choctaw Nation? A I do.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw husband through whom you claim these rights? A Henry Kayser.
Q Was he a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q When were you married to Henry Kayser? A '93.
Q Where was this marriage ceremony performed? A Houston, Texas.
Q At that time were you living in the state of Texas? A Yes.
Q What was your husband's home at that time? A The Nation.

A Yes sir.
Q After this marriage did you remove to the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q Immediately? A Yes sir, his business was always there.
Q Since that time you have lived in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Who performed this marriage ceremony? A Rev. Ragen, Houston, Texas.
Q Were you ever married prior to your marriage to this man?
A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of your former husband? A Sims.
Q Was he a white man? A Yes sir.
Q Was he dead at the time of your marriage to Mr. Kayser? A Yes sir.
Q Was your Indian husband ever married before his marriage to you?
A No sir.
Q After this marriage how long did you live together continuously as husband and wife? A Four years.
Q What happened at the end of that time? A He died four years after we was married.
Q You lived together as husband and wife up until his death?
A Yes sir.
Q Since his death have you remarried? A No sir.
Q You are at present an actual and bona fide resident of the Choctaw Nation? A I am.

Elizabeth H. Kayser-----2

- Q Have you a home in Fort Smith? A No sir, I have no home there at all. I have my mail sent there.
- Q All your interests are in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

-----0-----

1860

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Elizabeth H. Kayser as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-----
D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record herein that Elizabeth H. Kayser, formerly Simms, on July 20, 1893, was lawfully married to H. J. Kayser, now deceased, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears upon the 1893 Choctaw Leased District Payment Roll, Skullyville County, page 32, No. 306, and also upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll (as Henry J. Kayser), Skullyville County, No. 7463. From an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission it is found that the name of Elizabeth H. Kayser (as Elizabeth Kayser) appears upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll of intermarried persons, Skullyville County, No. 14716.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that at the time of said marriage the applicant herein was a resident of the State of Texas, and that the said H. J. Kayser was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; that after said marriage they lived together continuously as husband and wife, residing temporarily in the State of Arkansas, but always keeping a legal residence in the Choctaw Nation, until 1897, the date of the decease of said H. J. Kayser, since which time the applicant herein has not remarried and resided continuously in the Choctaw Nation up to and including September 25, 1902, with the exception of about two months immediately following the decease of her said husband.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Elizabeth H. Kayser should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 [30 Stat., 495], and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

Enclosed herewith you will find a copy of the decision of the Commission, rendered March 2, 1904, granting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chootaw Nation.

The attorneys for the Chootaw and Chickasaw Nations have been furnished a copy of this decision and have been allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file protest against the action of the commission in enrolling you as a citizen of the Chootaw Nation. If at the expiration of that time no protest has been filed, your name will be placed upon the final rolls of the citizens of the Chootaw Nation to be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby notified that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, on March 2, 1904, rendered a decision granting the application of Elizabeth H. Kayser for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been furnished a copy of this decision and have been allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file protest against the action of the Commission in enrolling said Elizabeth H. Kayser as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. If at the expiration of that time no protest has been filed, her name will be placed upon the final rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation to be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

James Bower,

Tuskahoma, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 20, asking the status of the applications of Mrs. Elizabeth Kayser and John E. Foster for enrollment as intermarried citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the Commission has not yet passed upon the applications of the above named persons for enrollment as intermarried citizens of the Choctaw Nation. As soon as decisions are reached they will be informed of the action of the Commission.

In the event further evidence is necessary to enable the Commission to pass upon their applications they will be duly notified.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Read & McDonough,

Attorneys at Law,

Fort Smith, Arkansas,

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 19, asking if the Chootaw or Chickasaw Nation took an appeal from the decision of the Commission granting her citizenship.

In reply to your letter you are advised that no protest having been entered by the attorneys for the Chootaw and Chickasaw Nation to the enrollment of Elizabeth H. Kayser as an intermarried citizen of the Chootaw Nation, within the fifteen days allowed for that purpose, her name has been placed upon a schedule of intermarried citizens of said nation which has been forwarded the Department but the Commission has not been advised of any action thereon by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 17, 1902.

Read & McDonough,

Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 13th instant, in which you state that Mrs. Elizabeth Kayser has received a notice of the Commission of October 4, 1902, and calling especial attention to the clause relative to intermarried citizens.

You state that Mrs. Kayser is an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and desire to be advised if it is necessary for her to again appear before the Commission.

In reply to your letter you are advised that on September 25, 1902, there was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, an agreement closing the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on that date. The rolls as now being made by this Commission of the citizens of these two tribes will be as of September 25, 1902, and it is necessary that the Commission ascertain the status of all applicants for enrollment as intermarried citizens on the date of the final ratification of such agreement.

It will therefore be necessary that Elizabeth Kayser personally present herself before the Commission at one of the appointments specified in the circular referred to by you in order that her status as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation on September 25, 1902, may be determined.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for the enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Susie Ann Jackson, the infant daughter of Ben and Lueannie or Lorena Jackson, and the same is returned to you herewith for further information regarding the mother of this child.

It is stated in the application for the enrollment of Susie Ann Jackson that the name of the mother is Lueannie Jackson while she signs her name to her affidavit as Lorena Jackson. You are requested to state the correct name of your wife, her maiden name, the time and place application was made to the Commission and such other information regarding her enrollment as will enable us to identify her upon our records. If you have been married to her since the time she was listed for enrollment, you are requested to forward either the original or certified copy of the marriage certificate between you as authority for the changing of her name upon our records from her maiden name to her present married name.

Upon receipt of the information requested above and the return of the application for enrollment of Susie Ann Jackson, the

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Claudie L. Collins as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that on April 3, 1895, the applicant herein, Claudie L. Collins, nee Kersh, was lawfully married to A. J. Collins, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears (as Andrew Collins) No. 7972 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Claudie L. Collins should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Mr. W. T. Ward,

Superintendent Public Instruction,

Tishomingo, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Your letter of February 12 is received by the Commission, in which you desire information in regard to one Nellie Collins and as to whether she was enrolled as a Chickasaw or Choctaw. You are informed that the records of this Commission disclose the name of Nellie Collins, the daughter of Andrew J. Collins of Tucker, Indian Territory, who is duly listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. This girl was seven years of age when she was listed for enrollment June 16, 1899. If this is not the party of whom you inquire, if you will furnish the name of other members of the family with whom she was enrolled, her age, and any other information that may lead to her identification, the Commission will give the matter further attention.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

In replying to this letter,
please refer to Choctaw 2752.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 2, 1901.

Hon. John D. Benedict,

Superintendent of Schools in Indian Territory,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 23th ultimo, requesting that you be informed if Rosie Buck, 14 years old, daughter of G. F. Buck and Nellie Collins, 12 years old, daughter of Mr. Hattie Moore, are listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and if so, whether by order of the United States Court or otherwise.

Replying to your inquiry you are informed that it appears from our records that on October 4, 1892, Rosa Buck, 11 years old, the daughter of George Fifer Buck and Cynda Buck, of Willis, Indian Territory, was listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. The name of this child does not appear upon any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of the Commission but her rights to citizenship are by a judgment of the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory.

It also appears from our records that on June 15, 1899, Nellie Collins, 7 years old, the daughter of Andrew Collins and Hattie Duncan, of Tucker, Indian Territory, was listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. The name of this child was identified from the 1893 leased district payment roll of the Choctaw Nation as a resident of the Chickasaw District.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw 2732

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 8, 1902.

G. D. Rodgers,

Clerk in Charge Choctaw-Chickasaw Enrollment Party, Ada, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of letter of Philip B. Hopkins, of November 5, 1902, referring to Nannie McGee, nee Duncan, formerly Nannie Collins, and her right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation.

In the letter it is stated that she claims to have been listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation by her husband, Archie McGee on September 28, 1898, at the time he submitted his application for the enrollment of himself and his two children, Winnie and Isaac McGee ( Chickasaw card 736).

It is further stated that Nannie McGee was formerly the wife of Andrew Collins, on Choctaw card 2732 and that she is entered on the latter card as the mother of Nannie and Thomas Hugh Collins, the entry indicating that her name appears upon the 1896 roll.

In conclusion it is desired that your party be informed whether the name of this woman in fact appears upon the tribal rolls of 1896 of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations.

G D R 2

In reply to your letter you are advised that it does not appear from an examination of the records of this office that any person by the name of Nannie Duncan, Nannie Collins or Nannie McGee has been listed for enrollment by the Commission as a citizen by intermarriage of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations nor are we able to find her name upon the tribal rolls of 1896 of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations.

There is nothing on file with the records of the Commission either in Chickasaw case No. 736 or Choctaw case No. 2732 in any manner indicating that Nannie McGee was ever married in accordance with the tribal laws of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations to a citizen by blood of either of said tribes.

The statement in the letter of the 5th instant that this woman appears upon Choctaw card No. 2732 as the mother of Nellie and Thomas Hugh Collins is evidently in error. You will note that on Choctaw card No/ 2732, No. 5, Nellie Collins, that the mother appears as Nannie Duncan who is evidently the Nannie McGee referred to in your letter. The mother of Thomas Hugh Collins listed on Choctaw card No. 2732 is Claudie L. Collins, who is apparently the present wife of Andrew Collins.

It is suggested that Nannie McGee be personally advised if she desires to submit an application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations/that she do so at one of the appointments in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. If, however, you are unable to personally advise her of this fact, if you will so advise this office a letter to that effect will be addressed to her at her present post-office address.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

7-2732.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 23, 1903.

A.J. Collins,

Tucker, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 27, 1902, also of your letter of the 6th inst., stating that at the time of your appearance before the Commission at Wister, Indian Territory, you were informed that it would be necessary for you to furnish evidence of the divorce between yourself and your former wife. You also state that a divorce was granted at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, but that the copy of the same which you had has become misplaced.

You are advised that it will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with a certified copy of the divorce proceedings between yourself and your former wife in the matter of the application for the enrollment of your present wife as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and that the same should be forwarded to the Commission with as little delay as possible.

Respectfully,

COMMISSION OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Dora Russell as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that the applicant, Dora Russell (nee Harris), was on July 10, 1900, lawfully married to Robert Russell, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8012 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1900 (32 Stat., 841), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1901; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; and that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Dora Russell should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1900 (32 Stat., 841), and it is so ordered.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Mr. R. H. Russell,

Spire, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of yours of the 18th instant, enclosing the marriage certificate between Robert H. Russell and Dora Harris and requesting that the Commission register your wife as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that the rules and regulations of this Commission and of the Department of the Interior require that each and every applicant for enrollment in any one of the Five Tribes in the Indian Territory, must present himself in person before the Commission for examination, so that a statement under oath may be taken upon which this Commission can base its decision, and also for forwarding to the Honorable Secretary of the Interior when the final rolls of the citizens of any of these Nations are sent to him for approval. There is an exception made in the case of heads of families, duly recognized citizens of any tribe who may appear in behalf of his wife and minor children.

You will therefore understand, that in the matter of the application for enrollment of your wife, it will be necessary for one of you to present yourself in person before the Commission for the purpose of this examination. This may be done at any time at the office of the Commission in Muskogee.

R. H. M. 2--

The marriage certificate is herewith returned to you.

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 26, 1904, in which you state that you married Phena Surrat on the 26th day of August 1902, under the laws of the United States; that said Phena Surrat, now Phena Dill is a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and you desire to be informed if you are entitled to any right as an intermarried Choctaw.

In reply to your letter you are informed that Phena Surrat has been enrolled by the Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and her enrollment as such approved by the Secretary of the Interior. It does not appear, however, that application had been made by you or on your behalf for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of said Nation, and under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, the Commission is now without authority to receive or consider the original application for enrollment of any person whomsoever as a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation.

Mr. Martin Whistler,

Brazil, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Etta Whistler, the infant daughter of Martin and Nancy Whistler, born September 14, 1901, and the same is returned to you herewith for the reason that the affidavit of Nancy Whistler has not been duly sworn to before a notary public or other authorized officer.

The Commission has a blank form in use for the purpose of receiving applications for the enrollment of infant children whose parents are listed for enrollment, one of which is enclosed herewith, and thereon may be stated all the information necessary in the matter of the enrollment of your child. Upon the proper execution of the same, and its return to this office, the matter will receive further consideration.

Yours truly,

Dear Madam:

Your letter of March 30, 1906, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior has been by him referred to this office for consideration and appropriate action. Therein you ask why it is that intermarried persons must give their surplus allotments to lawyers in order to be enrolled; you state that you have a husband and two sons in law who desire to be enrolled as intermarried citizens.

In reply to your letter you are advised that you do not mention the names of the persons referred to in your letter and it is therefore impracticable to advise you whether or not application has been made for their enrollment as intermarried citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed, however, that if no such application was made prior to December 25, 1902, there is now no authority for the reception of original applications for enrollment in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

You are further advised that the matter of the employment of attorneys is one which is entirely within the discretion of

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Sarah Johnson, the infant daughter of J. P. and Maude Johnson, born February 18th, 1901, and the same is returned to you herewith for the reason the same is not in proper form.

It appears that the signatures of the mother and attending nurse and the Notary Public are all in the same handwriting, and if the mother and attending nurse making affidavit to the birth of this child are unable to write, it will be necessary that they sign such affidavits by mark and there must be two witnesses to such marks.

There is enclosed you herewith a new blank application for the enrollment of an infant child and upon the return of the same in proper form and with the signatures of the mother and attending nurse attested by two disinterested parties as witnesses thereto, if such signatures are by mark, the matter of the application for the enrollment of this child will be given further consideration.

Muskegee, Indian Territory, April 24, 1901.

Mr. J. P. Johnson,

Oaklodge, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment, as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, of Sarah Johnson, the infant daughter of J. P. and Maud Johnson, born February 18, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of this Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In the affidavit of the mother, it is stated that she is 20 years of age and a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, that she is the lawful wife of J. P. Johnson who is a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. If this statement be true, that you are a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, you are requested to inform the Commission when and where you appeared for enrollment, together with the names of other members of your family with whom you were enrolled and such other information as you may have that will enable the Commission to identify you as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. You are further informed that the records of the Commission show that you are a non-citizen. You are requested to give this matter your early attention.

Yours truly,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 24, 1901.

Mr. J. P. Johnson,

Oaklodge, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Referring to the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Sarah Johnson, the infant daughter of J. P. and Maud Johnson, receipt of which was acknowledged by the Commission April 4, 1901, and alluding to the statement contained in the application as well as in the affidavit of the mother to the birth of the child that you were a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, you were requested to inform the Commission when and where you appeared for enrollment as such. In your letter of the 20th inst., which is hereby acknowledged you say that you are a citizen by intermarriage.

You are informed that the records of the Commission do not show that you ever have made application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, but, on the contrary the records do show that you are a non-citizen, and the statement contained in the affidavit of the mother to the birth of the child is incorrect, and you are advised that the same has been corrected to conform to the records of the Commission.

Yours truly,

Y-2544.

Acting Chairman.

7-2744.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

D. D. Brunson,

Coalgate, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 25, 1907, wherein you state that J. P. Johnson was married about ten years ago in the State of Arkansas to Maud Johnson, an enrolled Choctaw, whose post office is now Non, I. T., and request the status of his claim as an intermarried Choctaw.

In reply you are advised that it does not appear from the records of this office that application has been made by or on behalf of J. P. Johnson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, and in this connection your attention is invited to the following provision of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906:

"That after the approval of this Act no person shall be enrolled as a citizen or freedman of the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, Creek, or Seminole tribes of Indians in the Indian Territory, except as herein otherwise provided, unless application for enrollment was made prior to December first, nineteen hundred and five, and the records in charge of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes shall be conclusive evidence as to the fact of such application; . . . . ."

You are further advised that under said Act the Secretary of the Interior is without authority to approve the enrollment of any person subsequent to March 4, 1907.

Mr. Simeon Tom,

Ironbridge, Ind. Ter.

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of an application for the enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Genny Tom, the infant daughter of Simeon and Isabel Tom, born March 16, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 23, 1901.

Mr. Simeon Tom,

Ironbridge, Ind. Ter.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to the application for the enrollment of your child Genoy Tom, receipt of which was acknowledged this day by the Commission, it is noted by the Commission that your wife Isabel Tom is dead. For the purpose of making her death a matter of record, there is enclosed you herewith a blank for making proof of her death.

In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full. You will observe that there is an affidavit for a relative and an acquaintance and in event that either the relative, or the acquaintance are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures are attested by two disinterested parties, witnesses thereto.

The notary public acknowledging the affidavits, must affix his notarial seal and jurat to each separate affidavit. There is enclosed an envelope for your reply. ~~Attention~~ attention is requested to this matter.

Yours truly,

7-2746.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of the affidavits of yourself and Forbes Leflore relative to the death of your wife Isabell Tom, on the 4th day of April, 1901.

The same has been duly filed and made a part of the records of the Commission. You have our thanks for your attention to this matter.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 4, 1902.

Simeon Tom,

Ironbridge, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

It does not appear from the records of the Commission that any proof of the birth of your child, Esias Tom, has been furnished in the matter of his enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. It is necessary that the same be supplied.

In order to assist you in this matter a blank for that purpose is inclosed you herewith. In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full, and in the event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write, and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures be attested by two disinterested parties witnesses thereto.

The notary public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

This matter should receive prompt attention as the affidavits are essential in the matter of the enrollment of your child.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 15, enclosing a certified copy of the letters of adoption, issued June 1, 1903, to your wife, Cillin Lockley, in behalf of Jincy Lockley, who you state was formerly Jincy Tom. You ask to be informed what steps are necessary in order to have the name of this child changed upon the rolls from Jincy Tom to Jincy Lockley.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the Commission is making the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations as of September 25, 1902, the date of the final ratification by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, and the names by which the citizens of these two Nations were known and to which they were entitled on that date are the names under which they have been enrolled and will receive allotment of lands.

You are further informed that it appears from our records that Gency Tom has been enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and on January 17, 1903, her enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior. It is not seen, therefore, how your request to have the name of this child changed upon the rolls from Gency Tom to Jincy Lookley can be granted.

The certified copy of the letters of adoption forwarded with your letter is herewith returned.

Respectfully,

Dear sir:

The inclosed birth certificate in the matter of the application for enrollment of your child, Leona May, as a Choctaw citizen, is returned for the reason that notarial seal is lacking on the mother's affidavit. This must be supplied and the certificate returned to this office.

The field records of this Commission do not show your wife, Lizzie Rockman, to be an enrolled citizen of the Choctaw nation. Advise at once whether she has ever been enrolled and if so, when, where, and under what name? This is of paramount importance as the child cannot be enrolled if the mother is not.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 26, 1900.

Mr. Joseph Rockman,

Garland, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of January 16, the name of Lizzie Rockman does not appear upon the records of this Commission as having been listed for enrollment, neither is there any evidence on file showing her to have been refused. Under the circumstances the matter may rest in abeyance until the return from Washington of Commissioner McKennon, and you will be advised later as to the proper course to pursue.

Yours truly ,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 5, 1902.

Joseph E. Rockmon,

Quinton, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of November 27, asking if you should appear again before the Commission at South McAlester for the purpose of enrolling your family. You also state that you were married to Lizzie Brown under a United States license and you wish to be advised if you can marry again under Choctaw law and be entitled to allotment of lands and distribution of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it would be well for you to appear before the Commission at South McAlester for the purpose of checking up the names of your family, in the preparation of the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations for submission to the Secretary of the Interior.

Relative to that part of your letter in which you ask if you could procure a Choctaw license and marry your wife and be entitled to share in the distribution of tribal property, your attention is invited to the following provision of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902:

J.E.R. 2

"During the ninety days first following the date of the final ratification of this agreement, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment only of persons whose names are on the tribal rolls, but who have not heretofore been enrolled by said Commission, commonly known as 'delinquents', and such intermarried white persons as may have married recognized citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in accordance with the tribal laws, customs and usages on or before the date of the passage of this Act by Congress, and such infant children as may have been born to recognized and enrolled citizens on or before the date of the final ratification of this agreement; but the application of no person whatsoever for enrollment shall be received after the expiration of the said ninety days."

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Choctaw 2747.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 24, 1904.

J. E. Rockman,

Garland, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 14, in which you state that you have a son born October 15, 1903, and wish to know if he is entitled to enrollment.

In reply to your letter, your attention is invited to the following provision of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902:

"The names of all persons living on the date of the final ratification of this agreement entitled to be enrolled as provided in section 27 hereof shall be placed upon the rolls made by said Commission; and no child born thereafter to a citizen or freedman and no person intermarried thereafter to a citizen shall be entitled to enrollment or to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws."

Under the above provision, the Commission is without authority to enroll children born to recognized citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations subsequent to September 25, 1902.

Respectfully,

In the matter of the application of Sarah E. Williams for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Sarah E. Williams being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Sarah E. Williams.
Q How old are you? A Twenty years old.
Q What is your post office address? A Cowlington.
Q Is that in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been a resident of the Choctaw Nation? A Three years.
Q Have you lived here continuously for the past three years? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you live prior to that? A Panama.
Q Well, that's in the Choctaw Nation isn't it? A Yes sir.
Q Well, my question was "How long have you lived in the Choctaw Nation?" A All my life.
Q Have you never made your home anywhere else? A No sir.
Q Do you claim intermarried rights in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw husband through whom you claim these rights? A Senora W. Williams.
Q Is he a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have his rights as such ever been disputed? A No sir.
Q When were you married to this man? A Four years ago.
Q Where was this marriage ceremony performed? A Farmers, in the Choctaw Nation.
Q Is Farmers a post office? A Yes sir.
Q Who married you; who performed the marriage ceremony? A McGee.
Q Is he a minister of the gospel? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married before your marriage to Senora W. Williams? A No sir.
Q Was he ever married before his marriage to you? A Yes sir, once.
Q Do you know the name of his former wife? A Emma Perkins.
Q Was she dead at the time of your marriage to him? A Yes I don't know whether she was or not.
Q Had they been separated? A Yes sir.
Q Had they been divorced? A Yes sir.
Q Since your marriage to Senora W. Williams have you lived together continuously as husband and wife up to the present time? A Yes sir.

Sarah E. Williams-----2

- Q There has been no separation of any kind whatsoever? A No sir.
Q Are you at present living together as actual and bona fide residents of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

S. W. Williams being called as a witness and duly sworn, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A S. W. Williams.
Q How old are you? A Thirty-five.
Q What is your post office address? A Cowlington.
Q Are you a Choctaw Indian by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Are you the husband of this woman, Sarah E. Williams? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married before your marriage to her? A Yes sir.
Q How many times before? A Twice.
Q What was the name of the first one? A Mary Hoover. The maiden name of the second one was Perkins, but she was the widow Rush when I married her.

By Simon Lewis:

- Q She was a widow when you married her? A Yes sir.

By the Commission:

- Q Were you separated from these women or did they die? A Yes sir, separated from both of them.
Q From both of them? A One of them went--I was off on business--the second one got my brother-in-law to move her to her father's in the States while I was off tending to some business. I wouldn't go back in the States for the Nation was my home.

By Simon Lewis:

- Q But you separated from both of them? A Yes sir.

By the Commission:

- Q Were you divorced from each one of these women? A Yes sir.
Q Where were you divorced from Mary Hoover? A Choctaw Nation.
Q In the Choctaw tribal courts? A Yes sir.
Q When was that divorce granted you? A Well, I will just explain the whole thing and you can count it just as you please. I will tell it just like it is, let it be all for the better or all for the worse. She was a widow and she told me she had a divorce from her husband and I married her.
Q That's your first wife? A Yes sir; and just a short time after we married, her husband came into the settlement and they were never divorced, and as quick as I found that out I said to myself I am living in adultery and I will just quit and I went to South

Canadian before a notary public and had witnesses to the effect that she stated to me wrong.

- Q Were you divorced from this woman? A That marriage has never been recorded on any records. I was going on to have the certificate recorded but as quick as I found that out I quit.
- Q You were not formally divorced from this woman? A No sir, I was informed that there was no need of it; that I was in adultery and I quit before I went to tie myself further.
- Q You understood that this woman had a former husband from whom she had not been divorced? A Yes sir, and to keep from going further I quit.
- Q How about your divorce from your second wife? A She sued me for a divorce and I granted to her in Ozark, Franklin County, Arkansas.

By Simon Lewis:

- Q Was she living there at that time? A Yes sir.
- Q She procured it while she was living in Arkansas? A Yes sir.
- Q How about the children you had? A The one I had by the Perkins woman is dead and buried on the old Alex Burns place.
- Q But there's another woman bobbed up here that says her child is yours? A This first woman?
- Q What year did you separate from her in? A I was twenty-one year old when we separated; it has been fourteen years ago.
- Q You separated at that time? A Yes sir.
- Q And you have never been with that woman since? A No sir, I haven't seen her since.

 COMMISSION TO THE NATIONAL ANTHROPOLOGICAL ARCHIVES
 WASHINGTON, D. C.

Euna Williams,

Plaintiff.

vs. : Decree for Diverce.

S.W.Williams,

Defendant.

This cause is submitted to the Court upon the Complaint, and the proof here adduced, and the Court being fully advised finds that plaintiff and defendant were married on the 5th day of November, 1893, in Franklin County, Ark.: that plaintiff Euna Williams has resided in the Ozark District of Franklin County, for more than one year next before the filing of her complaint herein; that said defendant S.W.Williams, willfully and maliciously abandoned and absented himself from said plaintiff in March 1895, and that they have not resided together as husband and wife since that time; that said defendant was guilty of such cruel and barbarous treatment as to endanger the life of said plaintiff; and offered such indignities to her person as to render her condition intolerable.

It is therefore considered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between said plaintiff and defendant be dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that plaintiff be granted all the rights and privileges of feme sole.

State of Arkansas,

County of Franklin.

I, John E. Bryan, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County and State aforesaid, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and perfect copy <sup>of the</sup> decree rendered in the Franklin Circuit Court for the Ozark District, in the above entitled cause, at its September, term 1896, on the 24th day of September, 1896, as appears of record in my office in Chancery Record, Book "D", at page 339.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, on this the 23rd. day of December, 1902.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sarah E. Williams as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that Sarah E. Williams (nee Carter), was, on August 28, 1898, lawfully married to Senora W. Williams, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8052 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife in said Nation from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Sarah E. Williams should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Sarah E. Williams,

Panama, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:-

Inclosed herewith you will find a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, rendered June 10, 1904, granting your application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation by intermarriage.

The attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nation have been furnished a copy of this decision and have been allowed fifteen days from this date within which to file protest against the action of the Commission in enrolling you as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. If at the expiration of that time no protest has been filed your name will be placed upon the final rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation to be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

Respectfully,

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 6, 1905.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary Posey (7-D-468) as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation,

A n d

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sarah E. Williams (7-D-469) as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

APPEARANCES: (For the applicant, Mary Posey, V. Hicks, appearing for J. G. Ralls, of Atoka, Indian Territory
(For the applicant, Sarah E. Williams, Thomas
R. Dean, appearing for the firm of McKennon &
Dean, of South McAlester, Indian Territory.

-----
On June 10, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision enrolling Sarah E. Williams as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, it appearing from the record in said case that the applicant
Sarah E. Williams was lawfully married on August 28, 1898, to Senora W. Williams, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation whose name appears as No. 8052 upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, approved by the Secretary of the Interior

On June 15, 1905, Mary Posey, an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, testified that she claimed her right as such citizen by reason of her marriage to said Senora W. Williams in November, 1889.

In the matter of the application of Sarah E. Williams for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation her husband, Senora W. Williams, testified that Mary Posey was living at the time of his marriage to Sarah E. Williams, but that his marriage to the applicant Mary Posey, was a nullity for the reason that she had a living husband from whom she had not been legally divorced at the time of his alleged marriage to her in November, 1889.

The record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary Posey as an intermarried citizen of the

2-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

Choctaw Nation shows that she had no living husband at the time of her marriage to Senora W. Williams in November, 1889.

Mary Posey being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commissioner.

Q What is your name? A My name at the present time is Mary Posey.

Q How old are you, and what is your postoffice address?

A My postoffice address now is Kiowa. My age I don't exactly know for I got it burned up when the house got burned up.

Q You are the same Mary Posey who has heretofore made application to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for enrollment as an intermarried Choctaw, claiming your right by reason of your marriage to a Choctaw Indian named Senora W. Williams, in November, 1889? A Yes sir.

Examination by Mr. Hicks:

Q Mrs. Posey, do you remember how long ago it was that you married "Watt" Williams (meaning Senora W. Williams)?

A I don't exactly know. I can't keep up with dates because I can't read nor write.

Q I will ask you whether or not you had heard that Marion Hoover was dead before you married Senora Williams? A Yes, he was dead; if he hadn't a been I wouldn't married again.

Q How did you learn that fact? A It was wrote to me.

Q And you got that letter before you married Williams? A Yes, before I married him.

Examination by Mr. Dean.

Q When did you marry Marion Hoover? A I don't know sir, how long ago its been; its been about sixteen year. I don't know when I married him now, to tell the truth. I don't--I married him--it was close to, about, somewhere along--I don't remember. I never tried to keep up with it.

Q How long did you live with him? A I lived with him three or four months, somewhere along there.

Q Where did you marry him? A I married him in Sans Bois bottoms.

Q Choctaw Nation? A Yes, Choctaw Nation.

Q Did you leave him or did he leave you? A He left me--we both left. He left me and I left too.

Q You both left each other? A Yes.

Q Did you get a divorce from him? A From Marion Hoover?

Q Yes. A No, I didn't need one after he was dead; he died I tell you.

Q How long did you live single before you married Williams?

A After I got that letter that he was dead and I knew he was dead, the best I can remember--I can't say. The best I can remember though, it was three or four months, it might have been a little longer I married Watt.

Q How long had you been living separate from Hoover when you received this letter telling you that he was dead? A We had been separated a good little bit. I don't know exactly how long.

Q About how long? A Well, I can't tell you about how long for I don't remember.

Q You havn't any idea? A No, I don't because I might make it a little longer than it was and I might make it shorter.

Q Had it been a year? A I don't think it had been quite a year.

3-Mary Posey & Sarah W. Williams

Q You think it had been six months? A Might have been somewhere along there the best I remember.

Q You think it might have been less than six months? A I don't know; might have been; I don't think it was.

Q Might have been less than six months? (No answer)

Q You don't know where he went when he left you? A Went to Arkansas; at least, that's where he told me he was going.

Q He left the Territory, did he? A Yes, he left the Territory

Q And you haven't seen him since? A No, I haven't heard anything till I heard he was dead; never laid eyes on him.

Q Who wrote you this letter telling you that he was dead?

A Edmonson, I think was his name; I had his letter and I got my kitchen burned up and I got his letter burned up with it.

Q When was that? A That's been a long time, when I was living at Atoka.

Q The kitchen burned up before or after you married Williams?

A After I married him; after I and him was separated, but I had this letter all right.

Q Where did Edmonson live? A He lived in Arkansas where he went.

Q Whereabouts in Arkansas? A Let me see if I can think of the place--Garland county I think.

Q Do you remember the name of the town or postoffice? A No, I don't remember nothing about that.

Q How did he happen to write you this? A I can't tell you how come him to do it, nothing about that unless he got him to write me he was going to die or did die, or something. I don't know how he come to.

Q You don't know unless he got Edmonson to write you that he was going to die? A I don't know how; he wrote it to me like anybody else would.

Q Did you know this man Edmonson? A I wasn't well acquainted with him.

Q Did you know him at all? A Yes, I knowed him; I wasn't well acquainted with him.

Q Where did you know Edmonson? A I got acquainted with Edmonson in Sans Bois bottoms.

Q Did he live in the Choctaw Nation? A He did once and then when he left here he went to Arkansas I suppose; that was where he was going.

Q That was where he said he was going? A Yes, that was where I got that letter from anyway.

Q You hadn't written to him? A No, I didn't know--no, I hadn't written to him.

Q Did you make any reply to that letter? A No, I never answered it. I cared so little about it I never answered it. I never cared enough about it to answer it.

Q Did he tell you about the date, or what time he died?

A No, just wrote he was dead, and then I think Pink Nelson come along and told me he was dead. But where he is now, I can't tell you that.

Q Did Pink Nelson say he was dead? A Yes sir.

Q Who is Pink Nelson? A Pink Nelson, all I know.

Q Was he an Indian citizen? A No, his wife used to be though till she died. She used to be widow Parish, but she is dead now.

Q He was denied citizenship wasn't he? A I don't know a thing about him.

Q Did he know your husband, Hoover? A Yes, he knowed him.

Q Did he say that he knew that he was dead, or that he heard he was dead? A He said he knew he was dead. He said, "Did you know he was dead?" and I said, yes I got a letter. He says,

4-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

"He's sure dead". That's the words what he used.

Q Did he have any property, Hoover? A Not at that time, when I lived with him.

Q Had he any since? A I don't know; I don't know what he did after he left me; I never did see him any more.

Q Had you ever married before you married Hoover? A Yes, I was married before I married him.

Q To whom? A Bill Stidham; some calls him Will.

Q When did you marry him? A I don't know when I married him.

Q Where did you marry him? A Married him in the Choctaw Nation some place.

Q Some place in the Choctaw Nation? You don't know where?

A No, they called it first one place and then another. They called that place where me and him was married Tallyville. I can't read and I don't know anything about it.

Q How long did you live with Will Stidham? A Lived with him a good bit. I got two children by him.

Q Well, how long? A I don't know.

Q Was it five years? A Yes, I guess it was.

Q Lived with him about five years? A Yes, might have been longer. Know I have got two children by him

Q What became of him? Did he die? A He died.

Q Were you living with him when he died? A Yes sir.

Q You had not separated from him? A No, I lived with him.

Q Where did you live when he died? A Sans Bois bottoms, when he died.

Q What was your postoffice there? Tanaha? A I don't know I never write no letters and don't pay no attention to any post-office and I don't bother after no postoffices at all; if I was to get a letter today I couldn't read it.

Q Are those two children living now? A Yes sir.

Q What are their names? A My oldest son is Mell Stidham and my oldest daughter is Viola Stidham.

Q Where does Mell Stidham live? A At home three miles from Kiowa.

Q How old is he? A He will be twenty if I aint mistaken the 23rd day of this coming January. I had the ages all set down and they got destroyed.

Q Is Kiowa his postoffice? A Yes sir.

Q Were you married to anyone else before you were married to Will Stidham? A No sir.

Q Never? A No sir.

Q How many husbands have you had? A Well, my first husband was Will Stidham and the next husband was Marion Hoover and the next husband was Watt Williams.

Q This man that is present now? A Guess that's his name; looks like him

Q Also called Senora Williams? A I don't know; I only know what he told me his name was.

Q Wasn't you married to a man by the name of Will Blankinship? A No. Can he find a marriage between me and Will Blankinship? No. If he can I would like to see a marriage between me and Blankinship. I was staying at Liah Blankinships when me and him (meaning Williams) was married; his wife was living at that time and I was living there with them.

Q When you and---

A When me and Watt was married right there; he was staying with an old gentleman by the name of McCall; there was a little space between the houses, and I got acquainted with him.

Q Were Liah Blankinship and Will Blankinship related?

A I guess they was.

Q What relation? A Will and Liah I suppose was brothers; at least they claimed to be, and Gilbert--but I wasn't married to him; he can't find any marriage between us either.

5-Mary Posey and Sarah E. Williams.

Q How long had you been living there at Blankinships?

A Before I married Watt?

Q Yes.

A I don't suppose two months. I come there to pick cotton and Watt and I picked cotton at the same place.

Q How long had you known Will Blankinship at that time?

A I don't know; I got acquainted with him just passing around. I wasn't to say acquainted with him; I just knew him when I seen him.

Q At that time you were the widow of Will Stidham were you, at the time you were living at Blankinships? A No, I had been married to Hoover, now mind you, and then I got acquainted with Watt and married him right there.

Q You were widow Hoover at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Did you go to Blankinships immediately after you and Hoover separated. A No, I went to my dady-in-law; my first husband's parents and staid there off and on along a good long while. Whenever I took a notion to go back home I would go, ; when I got ready I just come to my dady-in-laws, and I had just gone from there to Lisha's to pick cotton, and I got acquainted with Watt; they was principally keeping my oldest child when I would hire out; when I would be hired out his grandmother would keep him a good many times.

Q Did you ever write over there to this place in Arkansas or any other place, to ascertain whether or not Marion Hoover was dead? A No, I don't write

Q Did you ever have anyone write for you? A No. The most writing I have ever had done is since I commenced to work at this here right. I don't ever write to my sisters because I can't write myself and I don't bother nobody with it.

Q You never wrote to any person, or had anyone write, to ascertain whether or not he was dead? A No.

Q Did you inquire of anyone or get anyone to ascertain whether or not he was dead or living? A No.

Q Did you receive this letter before or after you and Watt Williams were married? A I received this letter before we was married, and could have showed it to Williams then if I had wanted to, but I didn't think it was any of his business about the letter.

Q You didn't think it was any of his business whether Hoover was living? A I knew Hoover was dead, and if he aint, I would love to see him.

Q You knew he was dead? A Yes.

Q And the only way you knew was that you received a letter saying that he was dead? A I received a letter, and I knew it was a fact or he wouldn't wrote it, and more than that, Pink told me he was dead, and I knew he was dead.

Q Had Pink Nelson been over in Arkansas? A I don't know where he was; he traveled all the time.

Q Pink Nelson was living in the Territory at that time? Wasn't he living at Tanaha? A I don't know.

Q Wasn't he living at Sans Bois Bottoms on the widow Parrish farm? A I don't know. She had some children that was going to take that farm from him; I don't know where he was living. She had some children they said took the place away from him.

Q How long had you known Watt Williams when you married him?

A I hadn't been acquainted with him more than two months, like I told you, if I was acquainted with him that long.

Q If that long? A Yes.

Q Did you tell him that you and Hoover had been married and 6-Mary Posey and Sarah E. Williams.

Separated? A No, I don't think I ever told him about Hoover. I don't know whether I did or not.

Q And you didn't tell him that Hoover was dead? A If ever I told anything to him I don't know. I don't know whether I did or not. I never told him he was living, I can tell you that.

Q Did you tell him anything about receiving this letter:-

A I don't know.

Q Informing you that Hoover was dead? A I couldn't say I did or didn't because I don't know whether I did. I don't think I said anything about it.

Q You don't think you said anything about it or showed him the letter? A He couldn't have read it if I had showed it to him.

Q Do you know that he couldn't read? A No, I don't know. I don't suppose he can, can he? If he couldn't read and I showed it to him he wouldn't know whether it was that or not, if he was like me to have someone read it for him.

Q Didn't you know that it was an important question to know whether or not Hoover was dead if you and Watt were going to marry? A I knew he was dead, I tell you, or I wouldn't have married him.

Q You said a minute ago that it was none of his business.

A Of course, I said that; I don't know whether I told him or not.

Q But you said a minute ago that it was none of his business.

A I said I didn't think it was; he was dead and that was enough.

Q You received a letter from a man that you didn't hardly know, saying that he was dead? A I knew that I got a letter, and then I knew one come along saying that he was dead. I knew that too.

Q Was that before you received the letter or after that Pink Nelson told you this? A It wasn't far from the time.

Q Well, was it before or after? A I couldn't be certain but I believe he told me before I got the letter that he was dead. I wouldn't be certain about it.

Q You think it was before? A I think he told me before I got the letter but I wouldn't be certain but I think I knew then that he was dead.

Q How long before you got the letter? A I don't know just how long after I got the letter he told me that he was dead.

Q Isn't it a fact, Mrs. Posey, that you told Watt Williams that you had been married to two or three other men, but that you had been divorced from them? Divorced from each one of them?

A I never told him that.

Q And that you could show the decrees of divorce? A Did I tell him that?

Q Yes. A No, I never.

Q Was it a fact? A I don't know I tell you, what I told him

Q You don't know what you told him? A No, I never paid no attention to what I did tell him, but I know I didn't need any divorce from him because he was dead, and I know they was both dead. How would I need any divorce to marry him.

Q And didn't he, a short time after you and he were married, demand of you copies of the decrees of divorce? A What? Watt, do you mean? I can't understand anything like that, like you spoke.

7-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

Q Didn't he ask you, a little while after he and you were married, to show him the decrees of divorce, or copies?

A No, he never asked me to show him nothing.

Q The papers showing that you had been divorced from these men?

A No, never did.

Q Was that the reason why he left you, because you wouldn't show them? A No sir, I know what he left me for.

Q What was it? A I will have that writ down and handed to you before I leave here, and I can prove it.

Q It was of such a nature that you don't care to answer?

A That's right.

Q Was it a charge he made against you? Was it something with which he charged you that he left you? A No. You shall know what it was before I leave.

Q He said nothing about your being unable to show divorces from these men? A He never said anything to me about divorces in any way.

Q Did your former husband, Marion Hoover, have any brothers or sisters? A No, I never seen any of his connections nowhere. I don't know nothing about his connection. If there was anybody but himself I never seen them.

Q Do you know when he came to the Territory? A No, I don't

Q He was a white man wasn't he? A Yes, he is a white man.

Q How long had you known him when you married him? A Well, I hadn't known him long.

Q Thirty days? A Yes, I guess it was thirty days.

Q Longer? A Might have been longer. I don't know.

Q Do you know whether or not he had a wife living when you married him? A I don't know nothing about whether he had another wife or not.

Q Did you ever ask him? A No, I did not.

Q You didn't care much did you? A Well, I just never asked him anything about it. I thought if he had another one he would tell me about it. I don't know anything about whether he had another wife or not.

Examination by the Commissioner:

Q How long did you live with Williams? A Oh, I don't remember how long I lived with Williams. I didn't keep up with the time I lived with him or when we separated or nothing about it exactly, because I couldn't.

Q You were married to him in November, 1889, wasn't you?

A I reckon I was; I don't know. Married in the fall I know, about cotton picking time.

Q Did you live with him a year? A No, I didn't live with him no year.

Q How long did you live with Williams all together, as man and wife? A Well, I don't know how long it was.

Q None of your other husbands except Williams were Choctaw Indians, were they? A No, the other two was white men.

Q Do you know where Pink Williams lives now? A No, I don't

Examination by Mr. Dean.

Q Did you leave Williams or did he leave you? A He left me right at Lish Blankinship's. Right in the house of Lish Blankinship.

8-Mary Hoesy and Sarah E. Williams.

Q You didn't both of you agree to it like Hoover and you?

A No, he just naturally left me. I married him to live with him, and he left me.

Q The fact is you didn't live with him more than six weeks?

A I think it was longer than that. Seemed to me like it was.

Witness excused.

Senora W. Williams, being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commissioner.

Q What is your name? A Senora W. Williams.

Q Your age? A Thirty-five

Q Where do you live? A Panama.

Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

A Yes sir.

The witness is identified upon the records of this office on Choctaw Roll Card Field No. 2748, and upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, approved by the Secretary of the Interior as Senora W. Williams, opposite No. 8052.

Examination by Mr. Dean.

Q You were at one time married to Mary Hoover, were you not?

A Yes sir.

Q Where were you married to her? A I was married at Cowlington, Indian Territory.

Q Did you have a license? A No sir.

Q No license at all? A No sir.

Q According to what law did you marry?

A Well, I don't know whether it was called law; just went to a parson.

Q Just took her and went to a parson? Preacher, you mean?

A Yes sir.

Q Who married you? A R. L. Townley.

Q Where did you go from to Cowlington to be married?

A Went to Blain bottoms.

Q How did you travel to get there? A I went horseback.

Q You and your wife on the same horse? A Yes sir.

Q How long had you known Mary Hoover at that time? A About four or six weeks, somewhere along there; just a short time.

Q Did you have any information that she had any other husbands before you were married? A I knew she had had husbands. I was told so.

Q Did you make any inquiry of her as to whether or not they were dead or she had been divorced from them? A No, I never made any inquiry.

Q Did she tell you whether or not she had been divorced from them? A She told me she was.

Q Did she tell you the names of them? A Yes sir.

Q She said she was divorced from each of them? A She said she was, yes.

Q Did you ask her anything about being able to show that she was divorced from them? A Not until after her and I was married.

Q Not until after you were married? A Yes.

Q What did you say to her about it then? A I asked her. and told her I would like to see copies of them.

Q Copies of the decrees of divorce? A Yes sir.

Q Did she show them to you? A No, she didn't 9-Mary Posey & Sarah M. Williams.

Q What reason did she give you for not doing it? A Didn't have them I suppose.

Q Why did you ask her for them? A Because I looked at it this way: If she had been married and not divorced we would be living together in adultery, and also be punished together and I tried to abide by the law. I was raised to abide by the law and the reason I quit her I didn't think I was living right to live in adultery.

Q Did you have any information after you had been married to her that she had not been divorced from these men? A Lish Blankinship said something to that effect; something about not being divorced.

By Mr. Hicks. We object to this testimony as being hearsay evidence.

Q Did anyone else say anything to you about it? A No, not that I know of.

Q What husbands did you understand she had had before she married you? A Will Blankinship, Will Stidham and Hoover. I don't call his given name; never heard his given name spoken until this morning; if I did, I don't recollect it, and I have got a pretty good recollection now.

Q How did you hear that Will Blankinship was her husband?

A Talking with Lish Blankinship, Will's brother.

Q Did he say that Will Blankinship and Mary Hoover had been married? A Yes sir.

Q Where did Lish Blankinship live? A Lived in Blain bottoms at that time.

Q Near Will Blankinship? A No, I don't think Will was living there at all, at that time.

Q Where is Lish Blankinship now? A I don't know; I heard he was dead; I couldn't be sure that he is.

Q How long since you have seen him? A I can soon tell you; about 12 years ago.

Q Where did you last see him? A Seen him at South Canadian.

Q Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Have you heard of him since? A I have heard since that he was dead.

Q Do you know what became of Will Blankinship? A No, I don't.

Q Did you ever hear of his being dead? A No, I haven't heard that he was dead or living, not since I seen Lish Blankinship.

Q Do you know what became of Will Stidham? A No, I don't.

Q Do you know whether he is dead or living? A I can't say whether he is dead or living.

Q Do you know whether or not he was living at the time you married Mary Hoover? A I seen a man that they called Will Stidham in Blain bottoms; talked with him.

Q Was he the Will Stidham that said to be her former husband? A Yes sir.

Q Did you see him after you were married? A I seen him just before, and I couldn't be sure but I think I seen him afterwards. He was staying at Blaine bottoms himself at the present time.

Q At that time you mean? A Yes sir.

Q Did he have a wife at that time? A No, he was a widower.

Q And you understood that he had been divorced? A Yes.

Q That is, before or after you were married to Mary Hoover?

A Afterwards.

Q You say you lived with Mary Hoover about six weeks? A Somewhere right in the neighborhood of four or six weeks.

10-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

- Q Did you leave her or did she leave you? A I left her.
- Q Why. A I didn't feel right living in adultery if all reports was true. I didn't want to be punished by any law for adultery.
- Q Did you investigate the question as to whether or not she had been divorced from her former husbands. Did you inquire into that question
- A Not after I left there I didn't.
- Q Before? A Nothing only what I stated just now. The questions I asked her.
- Q Did you ever make any other effort before or after that time to find out whether or not she had been divorced from these men?
- A Well, I went to an old lady we all knew by the name of Sarah Tyler, but that wasn't her name.
- Q What was her name? A Birchfield. Sarah Birchfield.
- Q For what purpose did you go to her?
- A To see if she had any divorce or if she ever had any divorce from them men.
- Q What information did she give you? A I disremember what the copy reads. I had a copy here in the land office.
- Q You mean here with the Dawes Commission, copy of her affidavit? A Yes, before a Notary Public. I wouldn't try to quote her affidavit. I just received a copy of it and sent it on at their request.
- Q Did you file them on behalf of the application of your wife, Sarah E. Williams? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever know a man by the name of E. B. Blankinship?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Is that the man you spoke awhile ago of as Lish Blankinship?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Did you see him to make inquiry in this matter of Mary Hoover's former marriages? A Yes sir.
- Q What information, if any, did you receive from him? A After he made that statement he said that he wouldn't say that she was not divorced from Will Blankinship on account of getting him into trouble.
- Q Getting whom into trouble? A Will Blankinship, his brother.
- Q Is this an affidavit that he made to that effect? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Dean: We offer in evidence the affidavit of E. B. Blankinship in behalf of the applicant, Sarah E. Williams. Said affidavit is marked Exhibit A. and made a part of this record.

Mr. Hicks, on behalf of the applicant, Mary Hoover, objects to the filing of the affidavit of E. B. Blankinship in this case for the reasons, first: It is signed by mark and there are no witnesses to the mark; second, that there is no proof of the execution of the affidavit; third, that it is not admissible for the purpose for which it is offered; fourth, it is not the best evidence as the marriage license and certificate should be introduced if marriage is attempted to be proved between Will Blankinship and Mary Hoover.

- Q Then you left this woman, Mary Hoover, upon learning that she had not been divorced?

Mr. Hicks objects to the form of the question as leading.

- Q Have you married since that time? A Yes sir.
- Q How long after that before you married?
- A I think I married this other one and lived with her something near ten years before I married Sarah E. Williams.

11-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

Q Had you married some other woman before that time? A Yes.

Q Who was that? A Her maiden name was Emma Perkins, but she married a fellow by the name of Rush.

Q You married Emma Rush? A Yes sir.

Q How long after you were separated from Mary Hoover before you married Emma Rush? A Something like five years.

Q Do you know what became of Mary Hoover in the meantime?

A No, I didn't know where she was at.

Q Had you heard anything from her? A No sir.

Q Did you know where she went to live after you left her?

Q In blain bottoms, in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q When did you next see her? A This morning, right here.

Q The first time? A Yes sir.

Q Had you heard of her in the meantime? A I have heard of her I think in the past two or three years.

Q Up to that time you had not heard of her since you left her?

A No sir.

Q How long did you live with Emma Rush?

A About 18 months.

Q What became of her? A She went back to her folks in Ark.

Q Were you and she ever divorced? A Yes, the Dawes Commission had got a copy of it right here in the house.

Q Copy of the decree of divorce? A Yes sir.

Q How long after that before you married Sarah E. Williams?

A Must have been something near five years; been married ten years from the time of my marriage to her until I was married to Sarah E. Williams.

Q You mean ten years between the time you married Mary Hoover and Sarah E. Williams, your present wife? A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever seen Marion Hoover to know him? A No sir.

Q You were not personally acquainted with him? A No, if that wasn't him that Lish Blankinship showed me I never seen him.

If it was, I have seen him but not to speak to him.

Q When did Lish Blankinship point him out to you? A The same fall her and I was married; couple of three weeks afterwards.

Q Couple or three weeks after you and she were married?

A Yes sir.

Q Whereabouts? A Down in the Blain bottoms; Blankinship and I was walking down to the race tracks where they was fixing to run some races.

Q Was anyone else along with you and heard? A Just him and I.

Q Was that anybody along with the man that was pointed out to you as Marion Hoover? A Yes, another fellow walking along with him.

Q Do you know who he was? A No sir.

Q Was he a stranger to you? A Yes sir.

Q How close were you to them? A Must have been thirty or forty yards.

Q What did he say about this man in directing your attention to him? A He said, there went Hoover, the woman's husband I was living with.

Q Anything else said about him? A No, never had no more conversation about that.

Q Which way did he go? A Going up towards the store.

Q What store? A In Blain bottoms; I just don't remember who was running it then.

Q Where were you and Lish Blankinship going? A Going down to the race tracks to watch a couple of pees come through.

12-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

Q Do you remember what kind of a looking man he was? A No, I don't; I never paid much attention.
Q About how far did you say you were from him? A About thirty or forty yards
Q Did that circumstance lead you to investigate this question of her divorce from him, or not? A Yes. I didn't know what his intention was if that was him that Blankinship showed me.
Q Was it then that you made this demand upon her for papers of divorce from him? A Yes. I wanted to know that I was living lawfully was what I was after, and if I wasn't living lawfully I was uneasy; if I was, I wasn't uneasy of no man hurting me and I had as much of the law to back me as he did.
Q What reply did she make when you asked this proof from her? A She didn't have it.
Q Said she didn't have it? A Yes sir.
Q Did she say anything to you about having a letter? A No sir.
Q Said nothing about having a letter informing her that Hoover was dead? A No, never said a word to me about it.
Q Did she ever at any time before or after you were married show you a letter to that effect? A No sir.
Q You heard her testify regarding that letter; when did you first hear of that letter? A That Hoover was dead?
Q Yes. A This morning.
Q That was the first time? A Yes sir.
Q Never heard of that letter before? A Not till this morning.
Q Did you know Pink Nelson? A I personally knew him but I wasn't really acquainted with him.
Q What do you mean by that? A I knew him when I met him.
Q You knew him when you saw him? A Yes sir.
Q That is Pink Nelson? A Yes.
Q You wasn't personally acquainted with him? A No, not in one sense of the word, I wasn't.
Q Do you know where he is now? A No, I don't

Examination by Mr. Hicks:

Q I think you said Mr. Williams, that you never saw Marion Hoover but one time? A One time was all.
Q About thirty or forty yards from him then? A Yes sir.
Q You don't know of your own knowledge that you ever saw him at all? A I just got that man's word for it.
Q What Mr. Blankinship told you? A Yes sir.
Q This man Blankinship also told you that she had married his brother, Will, at the same time? A Yes sir.
Q I believe you said that you didn't remember what kind of a looking man Hoover was? A No, I don't remember.
Q You don't remember whether he was an old man or a young man do you? A I don't remember what kind of a looking man he was.
Q You don't know whether he was a large or small man? A No.
Q You say that when Blankinship told you that that was Marion Hoover you then went home to your wife and asked her about the divorce? A Yes sir.
Q And she told you that she couldn't show you any divorce? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ask for a divorce from Hoover or Blankinship or Stidham? A Asked her a copy from them all.
Q I think you said that you never did see this man, Will Blankinship? A I seen him.
Q You saw him? A Yes.
Q Did you ever see Stidham? A Yes.
Q Where did you see him? A Saw him in Blain bottoms.

13-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

Q How long ago? A Since the fall her and I was married.
Q Who was with you at that time. A I seen him several times.
Q I believe you stated that you never saw him but one time.
A Hoover?
Q Yes. Didn't you also state that you saw Stidham but one time? A No sir.
Q You saw him several times? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know where he is now? A No, I don't.
Q Was anyone with you when you saw him? A There was several of them with me.
Q Do you remember any of their names? A Jack Moore.
Q Do you remember what kind of a looking man Stidham was?
A I do not.
Q Don't remember whether he was an old man? A Wasn't so old, I wouldn't think.
Q Was he forty years old? A I couldn't tell you.
Q You couldn't estimate that, over or under forty?
A No sir.
Q Do you remember whether he was a large or small man? To the best of your recollection? (No answer)
Q Was he a fat man or a lean man, what is your recollection?
A I don't know which.
Q Do you remember the color of his hair? A No sir.
Q Do you remember whether he wore a beard or was close shaven?
A No.
Q This Will Blankinship, did you say whether you had seen him or not? A Yes, I have seen him.
Q How many times? A Several times. He had been in my mothers house when I was a small boy.
Q Was he a brother of Liah Blankinship? A Yes sir.
Q Liah and E. B. Blankinship, the one who has made an affidavit, are one and the same person? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember how old Will Blankinship was? A No sir.
Q Would you guess he was forty years old? A I don't suppose he would be over thirty-five.
Q About thirty-five? A I don't know just how old he was.
Q That was when you were a small boy? A No; when I was a small boy he was just a little larger than I was; grown up just close in he same settlement.
Q How long has it been since you saw Will Blankinship?
A I guess about 18 years.
Q Then you have naturally forgot a good deal, about how he looked? A Yes sir.
Q You couldn't state whether he was a large or small man?
A To the best of my recollection he was a tolerable large man; between what you call a middle sized man and a large man.
Q Do you remember whether he had dark hair? or light hair?
A Dark hair I believe.
Q Are you positive about that? A No sir.
Q You couldn't be positive? Now, when you say that Liah Blankinship pointed out to you a man who he said was Marion Hoover at the race tract, what did you do then relative to your marriage with Mary Hoover? I mean, what action did you take then? A Well, sir, I don't know, hardly; it just felt to me like I was living with another man's wife and I had better begin to see around and get out of the trouble, if I was in trouble.
Q What action did you take to see around and get out of trouble?
A After I went back home I asked her about them papers.
Q And she couldn't show them? A No.

14-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

Q Then what did you do? A In a short time I got on my horse and pulled out for home.

Q How long? A I don't know.

Q Did you say it was a month you were married? A Didn't look to be over four or six weeks.

Q How long did you say you staid after you learned this?

A I wouldn't be positive just how long.

Q Was it as much as five days? A It was long enough for me to sell a yoke of steers and get another horse and saddle.

Q You think it was 2-3-4-5- days? A Yes.

Q Then what did you do? A I got a wagon traded off for a horse and saddle and went home.

Q Did you take any other steps? A No, not until after I struck Blankinship up here and he made that statement.

Q That was about four or five years later, wasn't it?

A Something near that time.

Q You went in and she didn't have or couldn't show the papers, the copies of the decree of divorce and you left, and then about four or five years later you got Blankinship to make this statement? A Yes sir.

Q You didn't apply for any divorce or anything of that kind, did you? A I talked with one or two Indian lawyers and stated the case to them like I have here, and they said that I didn't need it.

Q And you didn't do anything else? A No sir.

Q Didn't make application for divorce? A No sir.

Q You didn't go before a Notary Public and attempt to do anything of the kind? A Just them statements you see.

Q Just these affidavits is all you did besides leaving?

A Yes sir.

Q That woman named Birchfield that you speak of; you said that that wasn't her right name? A I said I knew her by the name of Sarah Tyler, but Tyler was not her right name.

Q Is she living now? A I don't know; suppose so.

Q Were you acquainted with that Mrs. Birchfield? A Yes, I seen her a few times.

Q You wasn't personally acquainted with her then? A No.

Q You knew her by sight? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know how old a woman she was? A No sir.

Q You wouldn't undertake to state then, how old she was?

A No, I wouldn't undertake at all.

Q Would you guess she was as much as fifty years old? A She was an old like woman

Q Do you remember whether her hair was black or red or what color it was? A No, I don't.

Q You don't remember that? A No sir.

Q Do you remember whether she was a large or small woman?

A I disremember whether she was a large or small woman.

Q Do you remember whether she was a tall, or a low, heavy set woman? A I don't remember that.

Q Where did you say you had seen her last? A Saw her in Blain Bottoms.

Q Do you know her postoffice address? A The last time I saw her her postoffice was Blain, but she is living now at Sailor. Sailor is her postoffice now; I guess its been 10 or 15 years since I saw her myself.

Q I believe you stated that you were not personally acquainted with Marion Hoover; don't remember seeing him but one time?

A That's all.

Q That was when Lish Blankinship pointed him out to you? A Yes.

15-Mary Hoover & Sarah E. Williams.

Q Was that while you and this woman, Mary Hoover were living together? A Yes sir.

Q You state that the last time you ever saw Will Blankinship was over 18 years ago? A Its been somewhere along there.

Q That was before you were married?--You don't know whether he is living now or not? A No, I don't know.

Q I believe you stated that when Liah Blankinship pointed out Marion Hoover to you that soon after that you left Mrs. Posey? A Yes sir.

Q And that was all you did for four or five years towards separation or divorce, before you took any further action? (No answer)

Q After you married Mary Hoover you then married another woman? A Yes sir.

Q How long was it after you married Mary Hoover? A Something like four or five years.

Q Then you had taken no steps towards securing a divorce from Mary Hoover, except leaving her. A I spoke to a couple of men

Q Yes, I believe you said that; and that was all? A Yes sir.

Examination by Mr. Dean.

Q To whom did you speak about his matter of your marriage and of your divorce? A Judge Taylor of Skullyville county, and Silas James.

Q What is Taylor's first name? A John Taylor.

Q Was he judge of Skullyville county at that time? A Yes sir.

Q And what is the name of the other man? A Silas James.

Q What is his business? A He was a lawyer.

Q A Choctaw lawyer? A Yes sir.

Q Practicing in the Choctaw courts? A Yes sir.

Q How old a man was he then, about? A Must have been 35 or 40 years old.

Q Why did you go to this man? A Well, I wanted to see if I was living right, living in adultery, or would I be safe in marrying again.

Q See whether or not you could lawfully marry this woman, Mary Hoover? A No, that was before. That was after we separated. Emma Rush.

Q What did you tell him your situation was? A I told him that my understanding was that I had been married to a woman who had three living men and no divorce, just like I stated here this morning.

Q What did they advise you? A That I didn't need it.

Q Did you talk to these men together or were they separate? A Separate.

Q You went first to one and then to the other? A Yes sir.

Q Did you advise with any other lawyer or official about the matter? A No sir.

Q You then went ahead and married Emma Rush. A Yes; they called on me for a copy of divorce from her and I wrote to Franklin county and got it.

Q You mean they, the Dawes Commission, called for it? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't this Sarah Birchfield, formerly widow Tyler? A Yes, thats the name I knew her by, was Sarah Tyler.

Q She married a man in recent years by the name of Birchfield? A I don't know.

16-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

Examination by Mr. Hicks:

Q Of your own knowledge, what you know yourself, you don't know whether Mary Posey was ever married before she married you, do you? A Well, no, I don't.

Examination by the Commissioner:

Q At the time you testified before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in reference to the right of the enrollment of your wife Sarah E. Williams, you stated that you were divorced from Mary Hoover in the Choctaw courts, the Choctaw tribal courts. How do you explain that statement in view of your testimony heretoday? A Well, the way I testified then, if I understand it right was what I have said here today. I testified that she had three living men, just like I have here today.

Q I will read your testimony to you:

"Q Were you divorced from each one of these women?

"A Yes sir.

"Q Where were you divorced from Mary Hoover? A Choctaw Nation.

"Q In the Choctaw tribal courts? A Yes sir. "

And you follow that by making this statement:

" " and as quick as I found out (referring to the fact that Mary Hoover had a previous husband) I said to myself

"I am living in adultery and I will just quit, and I went " to South Canadian before a Notary Public and had witnesses to the effect that she stated to me wrong. "

How do you reconcile that with your statements here today that you took no steps to get a divorce from Mary Hoover?

A Well, it was something over five years before I took a notion to marry again.

Q Your statement heretofore says that just as soon as you found it out you went to South Canadian. Now, I understand from your statement today that you did nothing for five years.

A They didn't ask me where I registered at how long I had been--

Q It is your voluntary statement Mr. Williams. What witnesses do you refer to Mr. Williams in your testimony taken on December 17, 1902, that you took before a Notary Public and had them testify that this woman told you wrong? A Jim McCall and Lish Blankenship.

Q That wasn't until five years subsequent to your separation from this woman, Mary Posey? Is that correct? A That was taken before.

Witness excused.

Mary Posey being recalled, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commissioner.

Q How many times were you married before you married Senora Williams, or Watt Williams? A Twice.

Q What was the name of your first husband? A Will Stidham.

Q And your second husband? A His name was Marion Hoover.

Q Were you ever married to a man by the name of Blankenship?

A No sir.

Q Did you ever live with such a man? A No.

17-Mary Posey & Sarah EL Williams.

Q Did you know such a man? A I knew he had been there; I lived with his brother's wife. I staid at his brother Lisha's when we was married and he used to come around to my first husband's fathers.

Q Was there ever any kind of a ceremony performed between you and Will Blankinship? A No sir.

Q In your testimony this morning you stated that you were living with Stidham at the time he died? A Yes sir.

Q Where did he die? A At Sans Bois bottoms at his fathers.

Q Were you actually in the room when he died? A Yes, I was right at his fathers.

Q Where was he buried? A There is a bluff there. I don't remember the name of the bluff.

Q How long was it that he was dead and buried before you married Watt Williams? A It was a good while before. I married Hoover and he died before I married Watt.

Q Do you know where Stidham is buried? A It is some kind of a bluff, but I don't remember the name of the bluff.

Q Near what town? A I don't know whether it was near a town or not.

Q Was it near where you lived in Blain bottoms? A Yes, not far from there.

Q How long had Stidham been dead when you married Hoover?

A I declare, I don't remember how long he had been dead.

Q Now, state just as plainly as you can without any reference to any other of your testimony, as to what happened in reference to your marriage to Williams and your separation from him?

A How's that?

Q Tell me in your own language as to what took place in reference to your marriage and separation from Senora (or Watt) Williams? A I don't know--you mean what he quit me for?

Q Tell me the whole thing. What caused the separation.

A I couldn't tell what caused the separation; I will leave that for others to do; you will find it out; he left me--we lived together--me and Watt lived together six months as well as I can tell, to tell the truth about it, and then he left me, and in about four or five months--I won't be certain--after he left me, this child of his'n was born, and I had to work to raise it, and I worked myself blind to do it.

Q Why did he leave you? A I don't want to tell that.

Q You have heard him testify that he left you on account of your having a living husband? A That aint it. I can tell you, the way women is once in awhile, he didn't have sense enough to know what it was. That's what he left me for, if you don't know.

Q Did he charge you before he left you, with having a living husband? A No, he never said nothing to me about any living husband.

Q Did he ever demand from you any papers to show that you had been divorced from Stidham and Hoover? A No.

Q Did he ever ask you with reference to a man named Blankinship? A I never heard him mention that until today--this Will. I never heard him mention him until today.

Q You never had married or went through any marriage ceremony of any kind with Will Blankinship? A No I never.

Q You state that you were present at the death of your husband Stidham and saw him buried? A Yes sir.

Q And that you knew Hoover was dead before you married Watt Williams? A I knew he was dead before I married Watt, because if he hadn't been dead I never would have married him, and I happened to find out that me and him was never divorced, and I will have a divorce from him if I live.

18-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

Q What is your present name? A Now?

Q Yes. A Well, of course I married after he died. I thought I was divorced. Posey would be my name.

Q When were you married to Posey? A I couldn't exactly tell you that; you can find it out at Sherman where we was married.

Q Before you married Posey did you apply to any court for a divorce from Williams? A No, I never married till after he did.

Q Were you ever served with any papers for divorce from Williams? A No. Since I found out I wasn't, I'll quit till I get a divorce. I thought I was divorced.

Examination by Mr. Dean:

Q You testified this morning that that letter was burned up in a fire at Atoka, near Atoka? A Yes, ten miles below Atoka; I was living there when the house burned that burned that letter.

Q Where did you keep that letter? A Among the things in the house.

Q What things? A My boxes.

Q Wooden boxes? A Yes, wooden boxes.

Q You are sure that that letter burned up in that fire? A I am sure that that letter burned in that fire.

Q Do you remember what you testified to before when you were asked what became of this letter? A I don't know anything about it.

Q Well, your answer was as follows: "Why, law knows its been so long, of course, it is lost, traveling around all the time". A Well, I know, but after I got to thinking and studying to know where it had been I knew what become of it, because I knew where I had it last.

Q When did you know that? When did you decide what became of this letter? A After I was here and went home then I began to study where I had been with it, and then I knew right where it had got destroyed.

Q Was there anything to enable you to know that that was what became of the letter except your general memory? A Nothing any more than that man I married this last time knows it got burned up.

Q How did he know? A He was there and seen it burned. He seen the letter in the box and see the house burn up over it.

Q Did he ever read the letter too? A No, he couldn't read.

Q Did he ever read the letter? A No, he had it read. He couldn't read either.

Q Who read the letter to him? A I can't remember now who read the letter; there's so many going and coming and being around, I don't remember who did the reading.

Q Well, do you remember that anyone read the letter? A Of course.

Q I mean to you and your present husband. A This one now?

Q Yes. A Yes, he heard the letter read.

Q I will ask you if you ever heard anyone read that letter to him? A Why, yes.

Q But you don't know who it was read it to him? A I don't remember now. Anything will pass that way and go plum out of my remembrance until after I get studying and thinking about it, it will come back again.

19-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

Q Do you think that if you studied about this a little while you could remember who read that letter to your present husband? A I don't know.

Q Where was it read? A One time there below Atoka before it got burned up. Miss Moran read it once.

Q Where is she now? A I couldn't tell you where she is. She read it to me and him; she read several letters he got from Arkansas.

Q And you got this old letter out that you had had about fifteen years and had her read it? A She read it.

Q To you and your husband? A To me and my husband.

Q How did you happen to have that read? A Happened to be there reading these letters.

Q Why did you want to read this one fifteen years old? A Because I wanted to hear it read; something in it I wanted-I wanted him to hear it.

Q Who? A My man.

Q Had he ever heard it read before that? A I don't know.

Q Didn't you state that it had been read by a number of people to you and your husband? Didn't you state a moment ago that it had been read to you and him by several people? A Yes, I know she read it--you asked me if I remember anyone that read it. I remember her.

Q Do you mean by this statement that he had never heard that letter read up to that time? A I don't guess he had; I don't know.

Q The fact is, you don't know whether he had ever heard it read? A Yes, I know he had.

Q This was a short time before the letter was burned? A Yes, we was living right there by Miss Moran when the letter got burned.

Q Did she read it to him after that time? A I don't know whether she did or not.

Q The only time you can swear he ever heard the letter read was that one time? A Yes, I know he heard it. I got Annie Moore (Moran?) to read it.

Q Did he want to hear the letter? A I don't know whether he did or not. I got her to read it.

Q Did you have any other letters? A Yes, we got letters to this day; none of us can read; we get people to read them to us.

Q You have letters today fifteen years old that you have people read to you? A I don't know how old they are.

Q But you just have them read? A Yes, have the names called.

Q Didn't you testify once formerly before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that you didn't know why Williams left you? A That I didn't know?

Q Yes. A Not that I remember about, I didn't. I know the reason he left me.

Q But didn't you testify once before before this Commission that you didn't know any reason for his leaving? A I don't remember whether I did or not.

Q If you did make that statement, was it true or false?

A I know the reason he left.

Q Well, answer the question. A I said I know the reason he left; without that I don't know no other cause that could make him quit me.

Q How long did you say you had been separated from Hoover before you married Williams? A I don't remember just exactly.

Q About how long? A Well, I don't remember how long it was.

20- Mary Posey & Sarah K. Williams.

Q Four months? A Might have been that long; might have been longer.

Q It might not have been so long as that? A I don't know exactly how long it was; it might have been that long and it might have been longer; I don't know exactly how long.

Q The fact is, you don't remember distinctly anything about as to the length of time? A No, not exactly I don't.

Q Were you ever in Arkansas? A No, I never was.

Q Did you ever hear you husband, Marion Hoover, say anything about being from Mount Ida in Arkansas; about having resided or lived at Mount Ida, in the state of Arkansas? A Yes, I have heard him speak of that place; talked about Arkansas.

Q Where was he from when you married him? A He was from Arkansas he said.

Q Didn't you testify this forenoon that you didn't know where he was from? A That's what he said.

Q Then you don't believe everything you hear? A No, that I don't, believe everything I hear. I couldn't swear to anything I hear.

Q You wouldn't swear to a statement that he was in Arkansas-- that he came from Arkansas, although he told you that he did.

A He told me; that is all I know.

Q But you wouldn't swear to it as being true? A No.

Q Havn't you just now sworn to a statement that Marion Hoover is dead? A Well, he is dead---

Q Just a minute; do you swear to the statement that your husband, Marion Hoover was dead when you married Watt Williams, although you had only heard it through a letter that he was dead? You believe everything you hear by letter? A Its just according to who tells it; that's it.

Q Then did you have greater confidence in this man Edmonson than you did in your former husband, Marion Hoover? A I sure did.

Q Did you ever meet Mr. Edmonson? A I have seen him, yes. I never knowed much about him.

Q Did you ever meet him? Did you have an introduction to him?

A Yes, I have seen him.

Q Did you ever talk with him? A Yes, I have talked with him.

Q Whereabouts? A Right here in the Territory.

Q Whereabouts in the Territory? A In Sans Bois bottoms.

Q What was he doing over here in the Territory? A I don't know what he was doing.

Q How often did you see him in the Territory? A I seen him about twice and then when he left he said he was going to Arkansas; I don't know where he went; I suppose he went to Arkansas; he was there when he wrote the letter anyhow.

Q He lived over here then? A I reckon he was living here. I never did visit his house at all; I wasn't acquainted with the family of his.

Q Do you know that he had a house and family? A I don't know a thing about it; never was at his house, I say.

Q But you know that Maren Hoover was dead because you heard it?

A I know he was dead.

Q Because you heard it? A Yes, because Edmonson said he was dead, and I know he was dead.

Q You know that this man Edmonson was a truthful man? A As far as I know; I couldn't give him any other name but that.

21-Mary Posey & Sarah E. Williams.

Q Do you know what reputations for truth these men about the community where you lived had? A I don't know anything about their reputations.

Witness excused.

Sarah E. Williams being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commissioner:

Q What is your name? A Sarah E. Williams.

Q How old are you? A Twenty-three years.

Q Where do you live? Your postoffice address? A Panama.

Q Are you the present wife of Senora W. Williams? A Yes sir.

The witness is identified as Sarah E. Williams, wife of Senora W. Williams, Choctaw Roll Card, Field No. 2748, and opposite No. 913 on the final roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation as approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Examination by Mr. Dean.

Q Have you taken your allotment? A Yes sir.

Q Received both your homestead and allotment certificates? A Yes sir.

A Yes sir.

Q You are enrolled as an intermarried citizen? A Yes sir.

Q Have you sold any part of your surplus land? A Yes.

Objected to by Mr. Hicks as immaterial.

Q To whom have you sold it?

By the Commissioner: We will have to sustain the objection as to any purchase.

Q Did you know any of these persons about whom we have been talking here, Marion Hoover, Will Blankinship or Will Stidham? A Don't know any of them, no.

Q How old were you when you married Williams? A Sixteen years old.

Examination by the Commissioner.

Q How long had you known Williams when you married him? A About a year.

A About a year.

Q When were you married? A August.

Q Of what year? A I don't know; I have forgotten.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of a certified copy of the divorce proceedings between Emma and S.W. Williams; and the same has been duly filed with the records of the Commission in the matter of the application for enrollment of Sarah E. Williams as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 12, 1903.

Senora W. Williams,

Cowlington, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of the application of your wife, Sarah E. Williams, for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, it appears from your testimony taken before the Commission in support of her application, at Wister, Indian Territory, December 17, 1902, that your first wife was a woman named Mary Hoover and that you were never divorced from her. You say in your testimony that your first wife, Mary Hoover, was not divorced from her former husband at the time of her marriage to you, and that as soon as you found that out you left her.

Before further consideration can be given to the application of your wife, Sarah E. Williams, for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission further evidence of the fact that your first wife, Mary Hoover, had a husband living at the time of your marriage to her.

You are informed that it will be necessary for you to forward to the Commission the sworn statement of at least two disinterested parties, who are actually cognizant of the fact that said Mary Hoover had a living husband at the time of her marriage to you, and also have them state how they became possessed of this knowledge.

These matters should receive your immediate attention.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

S. W. Williams,

Cowlington, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 17, 1903, inclosing the affidavits of James McCall and E. B. Blankenship, which show that they knew that your first wife, Mary Hoover, was married prior to her marriage to you, but they do not show that the former husband or husbands of Mary Hoover were living at the time of your marriage to her.

In your evidence, taken at Wister, Indian Territory, December 17, 1902, you testified that Mary Hoover had a husband living from whom she had not been divorced at the time of her marriage to you. Inasmuch as the right of your wife, Sarah E. Williams, to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, is dependent upon a lawful marriage to you, it will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission further evidence of the fact that Mary Hoover had a husband living, from whom she had not been divorced, at the time of your alleged marriage to her.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 10, 1904.

S. W. Williams,

Panama, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 3, asking if your wife, Sarah E. Williams, has been recognized and enrolled as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation as you would like to file on her land. You also desire to be informed if you can select allotment for her or if it will be necessary for her to go to the land office herself.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission has not yet passed upon the application of Sarah E. Williams for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. As soon as a decision is reached in this case she will be notified of the action taken therein.

Relative to the selection of allotment in her behalf your attention is invited to section six of the rules and regulations governing the selection of allotments and the designation of homesteads in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, copy of which is herewith inclosed.

The classification of the land requested by you has been made the subject of another communication.

Respectfully,

Senora W. Williams,
Panama, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

It appears from the records of this office that at the time of your marriage to your wife Sarah E. Williams you had a wife, Mary Williams, now Posey, from whom you had not been divorced, but you allege in the matter of the enrollment of your wife Sarah E. Williams as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw nation that Mary Posey, formerly Hoover, had a living husband at the time of your marriage to her and that it was not therefore necessary for you to secure a divorce from her in order to marry your present wife Sarah E. Williams.

On June 15, 1905, Mary Posey appeared at this office and attempted to show that her former husband Marion Hoover was dead at the time of her marriage to you. She has been notified to appear at this office on Tuesday, October 31, 1905, at nine o'clock a. m. to testify further in this matter.

You are therefore hereby notified to appear at this office in company with your wife Sarah E. Williams on

7-D-468

7--2748

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 21, 1905.

Senora W. Williams,

Farmer, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

It appears from the records of this office that on September 9, 1899, Mary Posey appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at South McAlester, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage to you in November, 1889.

On December 17, 1902, you appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Wister, Indian Territory, and gave testimony relative to the right of your wife, Sarah E. Williams, to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. At that time you stated that Mary Posey, formerly Hoover, had a living husband at the time of your marriage to her, and that therefore it was not necessary for you to secure a divorce from her in order to legally marry your present wife, Sarah E. Williams.

On June 15, 1905, Mary Posey appeared at this office and gave further testimony relative to her right to enrollment and attempted to show that her former husband, Mr. Hoover, was dead at the time of her marriage to you.

Inasmuch as this involves the right of your present wife, Sarah E. Williams, to be enrolled as a citizen by inter-marriage of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear at the office of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Indian Territory, with such witnesses as you desire to testify in your present wife's behalf and give testimony showing that Mr. Hoover, to whom Mary Posey was married prior to her marriage to you, was living at the time you married her.

This matter should receive your immediate attention.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

McKENNON & DEAN
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
SOUTH McALESTER, IND. TER.

South McAlester, Indian Territory,

March 16, 1906.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

We enclose herewith affidavits of T. L. Pound and T. M. Scott, to be filed in behalf of Sarah E. Williams (7-2748) in the matter of the contention against her by one Mary Posey, who, also, claims to be the intermarried wife of Senora W. Williams.

As we understand the record of this matter before the Commissioner, the only evidence on behalf of Mary Posey consists of the testimony of herself and Ransom Posey, her present husband, and the affidavit of one W. L. LeFors. These affidavits are directed to this affidavit of LeFors. The affiants are evidently of such character and standing, one being an attorney and mayor of Danville, a man personally known to us to be of unquestioned integrity, the other being sheriff of Montgomery County, which office he has held since 1902, and the statements of the affidavits are such as to raise very grave doubt as to the truth and genuineness of the LeFors affidavit, and to such degree as that we believe Mary Posey should be required either to present LeFors in person to testify before the Commission or to take his deposition upon notice to us as attorneys of Sarah E. Williams. And if LeFors is to appear in person we desire to have notice of the time, that we may be present for the purpose of cross-examination.

You will note, also, that these affidavits, and particularly the one made by T. M. Scott, make the testimony of Mary Posey and Ransom Posey very doubtful as to the death, place and time of burial, of Marion Hoover. We think, and respectfully submit, that by these two affidavits, about whose truth there can be no doubt, together with other testimony in the record, the burden should be, and is, shifted to Mary Posey, and that she should be required to take the course above suggested, and that upon her failure to comply, after a reasonable time, judgment should be rendered against her. You will please keep us informed of further action in the matter.

Respectfully,

McKennon & Dean.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 23, 1906.

McKennon & Dean,

Attorneys at Law,

South McAlester, Indian Territory,

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 16, 1906, inclosing affidavits of T. L. Pound and T. M. Scott, which you offer in support of the application of Sarah E. Williams, for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, to controvert the evidence heretofore filed by Mary Posey, who also claims right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of said nation, through Senora W. Williams, the husband of said Sarah E. Williams, and the same have been filed with the record in this case.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 14, 1906.

J. C. Ralls,

Attorney at Law,
Atoka, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 7, 1906, requesting copy of the affidavits of T. M. Scott and T. L. Pound relative to the affidavits of W. L. Lefors which was filed by you in support of the application of Mary Posey for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and asking if the hearing in this case on May 21, 1906, is in the matter of the enrollment of Sarah E. Williams or in the matter of the application of Mary Posey for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Dora M. Moore as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Dora M. Moore (nee Rabon), on December 22, 1896, was lawfully married to David A. Moore, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 8055 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in the case entitled "Dora M. Moore vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 393), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage with the said David M. Moore, and on December 2, 1896, the said Dora M. Moore was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Dora M. Moore should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1896 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 28, 1903, stating that you have an infant child, and desire to be advised whether the same can now be placed upon the roll, requesting that a blank application for its enrollment be sent you.

A blank of such description is enclosed herewith. Your attention, however, is invited to the following provision of section 54 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902:

"During the ninety days first following the date of the final ratification of this agreement, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment only of persons whose names are on the tribal rolls, but who have not heretofore been enrolled by said Commission, commonly known as 'delinquents,' and such intermarried white persons as may have married recognized citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in accordance with the tribal laws, customs and usages on or before the date of the passage of this Act by Congress, and such infant children as may have been born to recognized and enrolled citizens on or before the date of the final ratification of this agreement; but the application of no person 'whosoever' for enrollment shall be received after the expiration of the said ninety days."

Dear Sir:

There is returned to you herewith birth certificate in the matter of the application for enrollment of Frank Gouger. The affidavit of the mother and attending physician were executed before you. You will note that you neglected to attach your seal to the certificate of the physician.

Furthermore, it appears that the signature of the mother is written by some person other than Estelle Gouger; if it was intended to make her signature by mark, the same should be attested by two witnesses and you should so state.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Stigler, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Julia Gouger, the infant daughter of J. J. and Stella Gouger, born July 21, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that the records of this office show that your surname is spelled "Gougher." In the affidavit of the mother to the birth of the child the surname is spelled "Gouger." You are kindly requested to inform this office which is the correct way of spelling your name. Please give this matter your prompt attention.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 29th instant, in which you state that the correct spelling of your name is Gouger instead of Gougher, under which latter name your wife and children were listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

J. J. Gouger,

Sansbois, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 20th instant, in which you state that you are married to a Choctaw woman by the name of Estelle Cooper, under United States license and you now desire to be advised what course to pursue in order to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Replying to your letter, you are advised that the Commission cannot give advice upon questions of this character nor can the Commission render decisions upon hypothetical questions of enrollment.

The Commission can only determine the rights of individuals to be enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation upon the evidence submitted in support of such applications.

It does not appear from our records that any application has ever been made by or on behalf of J. J. Gouger for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

J J G 2

If you are desirous of making such an application, it will be necessary for you to personally present yourself before the Commission for the purpose of examination under oath so that a sufficient record can be made upon which your rights to such enrollment may be determined. At that time the Commission will accept for consideration, evidence of your marriage to a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation as may be presented.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw 2751

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 16, 1904.

Honorable Green McCurtain, Kinta, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of November 13, asking the names and ages of the persons who are enrolled by the Commission as members of the family of Stella Gaugher who resides near Sans Bois, Indian Territory.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it does not appear from our records that any person by the name of Stella Gaugher is enrolled by the Commission as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. It does appear, however, that Estelle Gouger, twenty one years of age in 1902, whose last known post office address was Sans Bois, Indian Territory, has been enrolled by the Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and with her have been enrolled her children, Frank and Julia Gouger, three and one year old respectively in 1902.

It is believed that this is the person referred to in your letter.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Choctaw 2751.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 25, 1905.

J.J. Gouger,

Sans Bois, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the affidavits of Estelle Gouger and J.D. Murphy to the birth of Tokio Gouger, daughter of J.J. and Estelle Gouger, December 6, 1904, and the same have been filed with our records as an application for the enrollment of said child.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 30, 1905.

J. J. Gouger,

Stidler, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 25th, requesting to be advised as to what steps will be necessary for you to take to procure your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from the records of this office that you are the husband of Estelle Gouger, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, but that you have never been married to her in conformity with the tribal laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation or ever personally made application to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

You are further advised that this office is now without jurisdiction to receive or consider any original application for enrollment in the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Dear Madam:

The Commission has information of the death of your husband Milton Perry, subsequent to the time application was made for his enrollment, June 15th, 1899.

For the purpose of making the fact of his death a matter of record, there is enclosed you herewith a blank proof of death, which you will kindly have executed and return to the Commission.

In having the same executed, you will notice that there is a blank for the affidavit of a relative and an acquaintance. Both of these blanks should be filled out, all names written in full and the affidavits sworn to before a Notary Public. Should the relative or acquaintance making the affidavits be unable to write and their signatures are by mark, it will be necessary to have such signatures attested by two disinterested parties as witnesses thereto.

The Notary Public acknowledging the affidavits must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit. The Commission will appreciate your prompt attention to this matter.

An envelope for reply is enclosed you herewith.

Yours truly,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 23, 1901.

Mrs. Wiley Perry;

Ironbridge, Ind. Ter.

Dear Madam:-

The Commission is in receipt of your affidavit, and that of Simeon Tom, relative to the death of your husband, Milton Perry, which occurred October 12, 1899, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission.

You have the thanks of the Commission for your attention to this matter.

Yours truly,

Annie Bohanan being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q Is your name Annie Bohanan? A Yes sir.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-four.
Q What is your post office address? A Poteau.
Q How long have you been a resident of the Choctaw Nation?
A Six years.
Q Have you lived here continuously for the past six years?
A Yes sir.
Q Never made your home anywhere else during that time? A No sir.
Q Do you claim intermarried rights in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw husband through whom you claim these rights? A James Bohanan.
Q Is he a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Have his rights as such ever been disputed? A No sir, not that I know of.
Q When were you married to James Bohanan? A 1899.
Q Where was this marriage ceremony performed? A Performed at his house about three miles from Poteau.
Q At that time were both you and your husband bona fide residents of the Choctaw nation? A Yes sir.
Q Who performed the marriage ceremony? A Myers--preacher Myers.
Q Were you married under a license? A Yes sir.
Q What kind of a license, United States or tribal? A (The applicant here produces paper)
Q This paper which you have in your possession is a certified copy of your marriage certificate? A Yes sir.
Q You didn't have a license did you? A No sir, I didn't have any.
Q Were you ever married previous to your marriage to James Bohanan?
A No sir.
Q Was he ever married before his marriage to you? A No sir.
Q Since that marriage have you lived together continuously as husband and wife up to the present time? A No sir.
Q Have you separated? A Yes sir.
Q When did this separation take place? A About three years ago.
Q How long did you live with him as his wife? A Five months.
Q What was the cause of this separation? A I don't know; he just left me.

Annie Bohanan-----2

- Q Didn't he give you any reason for leaving you? A No sir.
Q Where did you live during those five months? A We lived out there in Skullyville county.
Q In the house that he furnished for you? A Yes sir.
Q Did he leave you in that house? A Why he left me, but wouldn't stay with me and of course I had to go home to my people.
Q Have you got any idea of the cause of that separation?
A He never did give me any reason for leaving.
Q Didn't you inquire of him what the trouble was? A Yes sir, but he wouldn't tell me anything about it.
Q Did you have any trouble during those five months which would lead you to believe that he was going to separate from you? A No sir, we had no bad troubles at all.
Q Have you ever heard from him since that time? A Yes sir.
Q Has he tried to get you to return to him? A No sir.
Q Have you ever tried to get him to return to you? A No sir.
Q Has there been any divorce? A No sir.
Q Are you still husband and wife? A Yes sir.
Q You have never lived with him since that time? A No sir.
Q Are you at present an actual and bona fide resident of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

We hereby request, on behalf of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, that final decision in this case be postponed until final decision by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the case of B. F. Thompson vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, No. 38 on the South McAlester Docket, in which the said court will decide the question of the validity of that portion of the intermarriage laws of the Choctaw Nation providing for the forfeiture of citizenship of white persons who separate from their Indian spouses, which question is involved in the case to which this communication refers.

This request is filed under authority granted by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior in his communication to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes upon the subject, dated November 18, 1903.

COMMISSION TO THE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

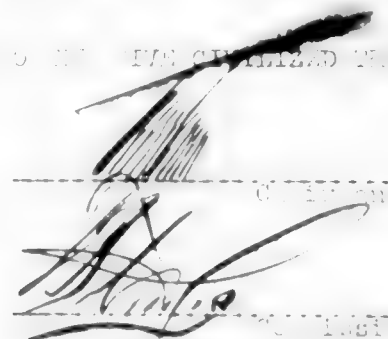

In the matter of the application of Annie Bohanan for enrollment as a citizen of intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

---: DECISION :---

It appears from the record in this case that on June 13, 1893, the applicant herein was lawfully married to James L. Bohanan, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 3079 upon the list prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 3, 1902 (32 Stat., 841), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, January 18, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both parties above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; that they lived together continuously as husband and wife for about five months, when they separated; and that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation from the date of her marriage to the said James L. Bohanan up to and including September 23, 1902, and no divorce was obtained.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the policy of the Department in the case of Thornton
D. Pearce (I.C.C. 4030-1904), relative to the question of forfeiture, Annie Bohanan should be enrolled as a citizen of intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 25, 1896 (30 Stat., 124) and July 3, 1902 (32 Stat., 841), and it is so ordered.

Poteau Has Good Schools and Churches

Recorded in the Records of POTEAU, INDIAN TERR., is situated thirty miles south-west of Fort Smith, Ark., at the junction of the St. Louis & San Francisco and the Kansas City, Pittsburg & Gulf railroads, two of the greatest North and South Trunk Lines in the world. The city lies along the southeast foot of the great Cavanah Mountain and is surrounded by the finest farming country in the Indian Territory. The Indian Coal & Railway Co. has a line of railroad running from Poteau to their mines, three miles from town, where they have a mining plant worth many thousands of dollars. The coal is of the Pennsylvania quality and is unsurpassed by any coal mined in the west. Other companies are on the ground ready to begin operation as soon as titles to land can be secured.

The mercantile interests are extensive and rapidly growing, more business being done here than at all other points in the Territory on the Frisco Line between Fort Smith, Ark., and Paris, Tex.

Poteau lies within 15 miles of the Poteau River, whose rich alluvial bottom lands contain the finest and best farms in the Territory. Thousands of acres of these rich lands are under cultivation and thousands yet uncultivated only await the hand of the industrious farmer to become the equals of any farms in the sunny South. Abundant crops of everything are assured in this favored locality.

On account of the abundance of fuel, good water and transportation facilities Poteau is the best site for manufactures in the Southwest. Poteau has adopted the free school system, and has a $5,000 stone school building; has a Board of Public Affairs, of which Ed. McKenna is president and G. H. White is secretary. Inquiries concerning Poteau and surrounding country addressed to either of them or THE POTEAU NEWS will receive prompt attention. Population, 2,000.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 20th instant, in which you desire to be informed if Elmer W. Bohannon, the infant son of James and Annie Bohannon has been listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Replying to your letter you are informed that the records of this Commission do not show that any child by this name has ever been listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

For the purpose of applications for enrollment of infant children, the Commission uses a blank, one of which is enclosed you herewith, upon which may be stated all the information necessary to the enrollment of an infant child. In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and in the event either the mother or attending physician or nurse making affidavit to the birth of the child, are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures are attested by two disinterested parties as witnesses thereto.

The Notary Public taking the acknowledgements of the mother and attending physician or nurse must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

Upon receipt of this application in proper form, the matter will receive proper attention.

Yours truly,

Asting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 6, 1901.

Mr. James Bohannon,

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Elmer Wear Bohannon, infant son of James and Annie Bohannon, born April 10, 1899, and the same being in proper form, has been duly filed with the records of this Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Commission to the five tribes,
Muskogee, Ind. T.

In Re, the enrollment of Almer Wear Bohannon,
Gentlemen:

Some time in April of the present Year, Mrs Annie Bohannon, sent you an application for the enrollment of her infant son, XXX a choctaw by blood named Almer Wear Bohannon, ~~AND WHOSE BIRTH DATE SHOULD BE JULY 10TH 1900, INSTEAD OF APRIL 10TH 1900.~~ and his age should read July 10th 1900. instead of April 10th 1900.
If this makes any material difference please advise me and we will make a new application.

Yours very truly.

C. A. Welch

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 20, 1901.

Mr. C. A. Welch,
District Attorney,
Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 26th instant, in which you state that some time in April of the present year Mrs. Annie Bohannon sent to this office an application for the enrollment of her infant son, Almer Wear Bohannon. You further state that the date of the child's birth should have been placed in the proper blank in the application as of July 10, 1900, instead of April 10, 1900.

You are informed that an examination of the application for the enrollment of the infant child, Almer W. Bohannon, shows that it appears in the affidavit of the mother, as well as in the affidavit of the attending physician, that this child was born July 10, 1899. If these affidavits incorrectly state the date of the birth of this child, a new application for its enrollment should be made, for which purpose there is enclosed you herewith a blank, and upon its return, properly executed, the matter will receive proper consideration.

Yours truly,

72754
Enclosure.

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 29, 1903.

Annie Bohanan,

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 21st instant, requesting information relative to the enrollment of James W. Bohanan and his wife, Annie, and their minor son, Elmer W. Bohanan.

You are informed it appears from our records that James W. Bohanan and his minor son, Elmer Wear Bohanan, have been duly enrolled as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation by this Commission and their enrollment as such approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903.

It further appears from our records that Annie Bohanan is an applicant to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, but no decision relative to her right to final enrollment as such has yet been rendered by the Commission. As soon as a decision is rendered in your case notice of the action taken therein by the Commission will be forwarded to your present post office address.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

7-2754.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 10, 1903.

Annie Bohanan,

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

In the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, it appears from your testimony taken before the Commission at its session at Wister, Indian Territory, on December 18, 1902, that you claim your intermarried rights in the Choctaw Nation by virtue of your marriage to James Bohanan in 1899, and that you and he were separated five months after your marriage.

You are advised that before further consideration can be given your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with further evidence as to the circumstances attending your separation from your said husband, James Bohanan.

You are informed that it would be well for you to appear in person before the Commission at its office at Muskogee Indian Territory, together with such witnesses as you may be able to produce, who are conversant with the facts attending your separation from your husband.

This matter should receive your immediate attention.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Choctaw 2754

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 10, 1904.

Annie Bohanan,

Poteau, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that under direction of the Secretary of the Interior of November 18, 1903, and upon a protest filed with the Commission by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations dated January 23, 1904, no further action will be taken relative to your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation until the Commission is further instructed by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw-2754

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 28, 1903.

James W. Bohanan,

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 19, 1903, asking the status of the enrollment of your wife as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the Commission has not yet passed upon the application of Annie Bohanan, wife of James W. Bohanan, for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

As soon as a decision is reached in this case she will be notified of the action taken therein.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Choctaw 2754

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 15, 1904.

Mrs. Anna Bohannon,
Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 5, in which you state that you and your husband were living together at the time of his death, and that neither of you had instituted divorce proceedings. You state that as he was a member of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians by blood, it seems to you that you should also be enrolled and that if there is anything lacking in the proof you state that you will procure the same.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the Commission has not yet passed upon your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, but as soon as a decision is reached you will be notified of the action taken therein. If further evidence is necessary to enable the Commission to pass upon your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation you will be duly notified.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 16, 1904.

W. H. Harrison,

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 12th instant, requesting information relative to the status of the application for enrollment of Annie Bohanan as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that the application for the enrollment of Annie Bohanan as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation is now under consideration by the Commission and as soon as a decision is reached in her case you and the applicant will be notified of the action taken therein.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Choctaw 2754

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 31, 1904.

Mrs. Anna Bohannon,

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 26, asking the status of your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and stating that you are the wife of James W. Bohannon, who was recently killed, and that you desire to look after your son's allotment.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the Commission has not passed upon your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and, on February 6, 1904, there was filed with the record in your case, the protest of the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, dated January 23, 1904, in which they request that final decision in your case be postponed until final decision by the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the case of B. F. Thompson, vs. Choctaw Nation, No. 38 on the South McAlester docket, in which the said court will decide the question of the validity of that portion of the intermarriage laws of the Choctaw Nation providing for the forfeiture of citizenship of white persons who separated from their indian spouses, which question, they allege, is involved in your case.

A B 2

Under the instructions of the Secretary of the Interior of November 18, 1903, the Commission is estopped from further action in cases of this character wherein protests have been filed by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations until further directed by the Department.

You are advised that your son, Elmer Wear Bohannon has been enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and his enrollment as such approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Virginia P. Trahern as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the census card record in this case that Virginia P. Trahern (nee Closson), appeared before the Commission at Spiro, Indian Territory, on June 18, 1898, and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Wister, Indian Territory, December 17, 1902.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 8, 1896, in the case entitled "Mrs. V. P. Trahern vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 53), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 311), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage with James N. Trahern, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on December 1, 1896, the said Virginia P. Trahern was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1896, and that her status as an intermarried citizen has remained unchanged from the date of her said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Virginia P. Trahern should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1896 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902
(32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mollie J. Davis as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that the applicant Mollie J. Davis, on December 29, 1881, was married to Davis James, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name (as David James) appears upon the 1885 Choctaw Census Roll, Skullyville County, number 596; that at the time of said marriage both the applicant herein and her said husband were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and they lived together in said Nation as husband and wife until the death of said Davis James in the year 1889; that thereafter in 1890, the applicant herein married William Davis, a white man claiming no rights of Choctaw citizenship by blood, who died in 1899.

The name of the applicant (as Mary James) appears on the 1885 Choctaw Census Roll, Skullyville County, number 596.

It further appears that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation from the time of her marriage on December 29, 1881, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton B. Pearce (I. T. B. 4060-1904) relative to the question of forfeiture, Mollie J. Davis should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

BEFORE THE HONORABLE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES OF INDIANS.

MARY J. DAVIS, ELMER DAVIS, ELVIN DAVIS,
HARMON F. DAVIS AND CLEVELAND DAVIS,                      Plaintiffs,
Vs
THE CHOCTAW NATION,                      Defendant.

1st.                      This defendant, answering for the bona fide citizens of the Choctaw Nation, says that the object and purpose of petitioners is to have themselves enrolled as Choctaw citizens, that they may thereby acquire a right and interest in the lands of the Choctaw people, and they ought not to have or prosecute their said petition before this Honorable Commission, because the purpose and effect thereof, if their said petition should be granted, will be to deprive the Choctaw people of their lands and property, without the due process of law provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and without a trial by jury, as guaranteed by the Constitution and laws of the United States, and because the Choctaw Nation is the true and only judge of its own citizens.

2nd.                      Defendant, further answering, says that petitioner Mary J. Davis is not a Choctaw Indian by blood, but is a white person, who claims to have been married to Davis James, a Choctaw Indian. Defendant says that under the laws of the Choctaw Nation in force at the time of the marriage of Mary J. Davis to Davis James, all the rights to Choctaw citizenship which were acquired by said Mary J. Davis through her marriage to said David James were forfeited by her subsequent marriage with Wm. M. Davis, a white person and not a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. That the other petitioners, Elmer Davis, Elvin Davis, Harmon F. Davis and Cleveland Davis, are each the issue of the marriage between said Mary J. Davis and Wm. M. Davis, both white persons and neither Choctaw Indians by blood or adoption. That being white persons and not Choctaw citizens, they could not impart citizenship to their children, the petitioners.

Mollie J. Davis,
Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations April 1, 1903. The act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at this place on one of the above dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muscookee, Indian Territory,

August 13th, 1900.

Mollie J. Davis,

Moteau, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

You are hereby notified that the Choctaw Nation, through its attorneys, Messrs McKennon, Mansfield, Murray, & Warrish, has filed with this Commission a notice of protest to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

The Commission, commencing December 3rd, 1900, will hold a session at Atoka, Indian Territory. At that time both you and the Choctaw Nation will be permitted to offer additional testimony and written arguments in this case, and this hearing will be final.

Yours truly,

Notary Chairman.

Mollie J. Davis
vs. Plaintiff.
The Choctaw Nation
Defendant.

- Statement of facts -

The claimant Mollie J. Davis a white woman is 35 years of age.
And has resided all her life time in the Choctaw Nation, Ind. Ter. her Post Office Address being Potham, I.T.

See her Affidavit p. 1.

On December 29th 1881 she was married to Davis James a Choctaw Indian.

See pp. 1-2-5-6-7-10.

On Sept. 8th 1889 Davis James died.

See pp. 2-7.

Claimant has four children, the issue of a subsequent marriage with William
M. Davis whose names and ages are:

Elmer Davis and Elvin Davis twins	Aged 6 years
Harmon F. Davis	Aged 4 years
Cleveland Davis	Aged 2 years

Argument.

The facts in this case show that the claimant a white woman was married to a Choctaw Citizen, thereby becoming a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians and entitled to the same rights as a citizen by blood. There being no provision in the Choctaw laws requiring a license to be issued for the marriage of a Choctaw Man to a white woman, All that is required is that the marriage be solemnized by a Minister of the Gospel or Officer, and while the Certificate of marriage in this case does not show the party performing the marriage ceremony to be a Minister other Affidavits herewith do show him to have been such.

The first marriage to an Indian being established and there being no question about residence the only question, and the one on which the Choctaw Enrolling Commissioners refused her claim is, did she forfeit her right to Citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by afterwards marrying a white man; and as this question was decided in the negative by His Honor Judge Clayton in an exhaustive review of the law governing Intermarriage in the case of V. R. Robinson against the Choctaw Nation we think there is but one conclusion to be reached in this case, and that is that the Claimant herein

Mollie J. Davis and her four children are entitled to be enrolled as Citizens of the Choctaw tribe of Indians in the Indian Territory, and we accordingly ask such order at your hands. Respectfully Submitted,

Plaintiffs.

Vs

THE CHOCTAW NATION,

Defendant.

1st. This defendant, answering for the bona fide citizens of the Choctaw Nation, says that the object and purpose of petitioners is to have themselves enrolled as Choctaw citizens, that they may thereby acquire a right and interest in the lands of the Choctaw people, and they ought not to have or prosecute their said petition before this Honorable Commission, because the purpose and effect thereof, if their said petition should be granted, will be to deprive the Choctaw people of their lands and property, without the due process of law provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and without a trial by jury, as guaranteed by the Constitution and laws of the United States, and because the Choctaw Nation is the true and only judge of its own citizens.

2nd. Defendant, further answering, says that petitioner Mary J. Davis is not a Choctaw Indian by blood, but is a white person, who claims to have been married to David James, a Choctaw Indian. Defendant says that under the laws of the Choctaw Nation in force at the time of the marriage of Mary J. Davis to David James, all the rights to Choctaw citizenship which were acquired by said Mary J. Davis through her marriage to said David James were forfeited by her subsequent marriage with Wm. M. Attys for Choctaw Nation

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 18, 1900.

Mollie J. Davis,

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:-

Since notifying you on August 18, 1900, of the protest filed by the Choctaw Nation to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, the Commission has been furnished by the Nation with the grounds upon which objection is made to your enrollment. The protest against you is, that you have married out of the Nation.

The Commission is in possession of a sufficient statement of facts upon which a decision may be rendered and in your case it will not be necessary for you to appear at the appointment at Atoka beginning December 3rd, 1900.

The Commission will accept and consider any written arguments on questions of law submitted on behalf of the Choctaw Nation at any time prior to February 1st, 1901, and on your behalf at any time prior to March 1st, 1901.

As soon thereafter as practicable the Commission will consider and finally determine your right to enrollment and the decision of the Commission, stating fully its reasons for any action that may be taken, will be mailed to you.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

7-2757.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 5, 1903.

Warner & Buckley,

Attorneys at Law,

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 24th ultimo, enclosing marriage license and certificate of Arthur Doshier and Etha James, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; and the same are returned to you herewith, certified copies thereof having been prepared and filed with the records of the Commission in the matter of the application for enrollment of Etha M. James as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 15, 1904.

Mollie J. Davis,

Potsom, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

You are hereby notified that before further consideration can be given your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear in person before the Commission to testify as to your intermarried status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose you are requested to appear at Muskogee, Indian Territory, as soon as possible, or at the Land Office at Atoka, Indian Territory, on September the 6th or 7th, 1904, or at the Land Office, at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, on September the 8th or 9th, 1904.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 19, 1903.

Mrs. Mollie J. Davis,

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 14, asking the status of your enrollment.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that you have been listed among the doubtful claimants to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and your final right to such enrollment has not yet been determined.

You are advised that before any further consideration can be given your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear in person before the Commission at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, for the purpose of testifying relative to your status as an intermarried citizen on September 25, 1902, the date of the final ratification of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902. It is suggested that you make such personal appearance at the earliest practicable date.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 23, 1904.

Commissioner in Charge,
Choctaw Land Office,
Atoka, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the following notation has this day been made upon original Choctaw enrollment card No. 2757:

"No. 2 is husband of Henrietta James on Choctaw card D. No. 943"

You are therefore, requested to make like notation upon the duplicate card in your possession.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 25, 1904.

Commissioner in Charge,
Choctaw Land Office,
Atoka, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the notation transmitted to your office under date of January 23, 1904, relative to No. 2 on original Choctaw enrollment card No. 2757, which reads as follows:

"No. 2 is husband of Henrietta James on Choctaw card D. 978"

is in error and has been erased from said card. You are therefore, requested to erase the same from the duplicate card in your possession.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 12, 1904.

Day & Buckley,

Attorneys at Law.

Poteau, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 7, 1904, in which you state that Mary J. Davis desires to know as nearly as possible the exact status of her enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the Commission is now considering the application of Mollie J. Davis for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and as soon as a decision is reached in this case she will be notified of the action taken therein.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

-----oOo-----

In the matter of the application of Garrison W. Derryberry for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Garrison W. Derryberry being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Garrison W. Derryberry.
Q How old are you? A Born in '69; thirty-three last June.
Q What is your post office address? A Ward.
Q Is that in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been a resident of the Choctaw Nation?
A Well, I have been - - I have been living here constantly since the spring of '97.
Q Never made your home anywhere else during that time? A No sir.
Q Where did you live prior to that? A I lived one year after I married at Bokoshe in the Choctaw Nation, and went to Tennessee and stayed there something like sixteen months and came back to the Choctaw Nation and been here ever since.
Q Do you claim intermarried rights in the Choctaw Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw wife through whom you claim these rights? A Derryberry.
Q What was her maiden name? A Emma Russell.
Q Is she a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Have her rights as such ever been disputed? A No sir, not that I know of.
Q When were you married to Emma Russell? A I was married to Emma Russell according to the United States law in '95.
Q Where was this marriage ceremony performed? A Fort Smith.
Q At that time were you living in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Was she also a resident of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q This first marriage was under the laws of the state of Arkansas?
A Yes sir.
Q Afterwards did you remarry the same woman? A Yes sir.
Q What was the date of your second marriage? A You have the testimony; I think August 10, '97, if I mistake not.
Q Where was this second marriage ceremony performed? A Near Ward.
Q Did you obtain a tribal license the second time? A Yes sir.
Q From whom did you get that license? A Elijah Culberson, county clerk, Skullyville county, Choctaw Nation.
Q How much did you pay for the license? A $100.
Q Who performed the marriage ceremony? A Mr. Pope, a Methodist minister; I have forgot his name--his first name. The papers that

Garrison W. Derryberry-----2

I had, minister's certificate and all, I sent to Green McCurtain and he wrote me that Robert Murray was one of the committee on Indian registration and he told me that he would see to my case before the Indian committee--registration committee--at the Council. After the Council adjourned he said I was placed on the roll that's just his word for it.

Q Were you ever married prior to your marriage to this woman?

A No sir.

Q Was she ever married before her marriage to you? A She was not.

Q Since your first marriage to her have you lived together continuously as husband and wife up to the present time? A Yes sir.

Q There has been no separation, abandonment or divorce? A None whatever.

Q Are you at present living together as actual and bona fide residents of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q What was the purpose of your second marriage to her? A Well, one purpose was to comply with the Choctaw law and be a recognized citizen.

-----

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Garrison W. Derryberry as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that Garrison W. Derryberry, on August 10, 1897, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Emma R. Derryberry (nee Russell), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 8077 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Garrison W. Derryberry should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Mr. Garrison Derryberry,

Ward, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 5th, in which you desire to be informed as to the action of the Commission relative to your rights to enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that the Commission has not up to this time reached any decision or rendered any opinion relative to your rights to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

In the absence of the operation of any agreement or ruling closing the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation, it is probable that no action will be taken upon these doubtful claims of persons, applicants for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

When a decision is reached in your case you will be notified of the action of the Commission.

Relative to your recovering from the Choctaw Nation the money expended by you for the procurement of a license to marry a Choctaw woman, you are advised that this is a matter over which this Commission has no jurisdiction and can render no opinion.

Yours truly,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 29, 1902.

G. W. Derryberry,

Ward, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 26th instant, in which you desire to be advised if the citizenship case of Garrison W. Derryberry has been decided and if not, has any other case of a similar character been passed upon.

You are advised that it appears from our records that Garrison W. Derryberry, 30 years of age, of Ward, Indian Territory, is an applicant to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The Commission has not up to this time rendered any decision relative to the rights of this applicant to be finally enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation and it is probable that no final action will be taken until some date is fixed or agreed upon closing the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

We cannot advise you upon general questions of enrollment and especially if any cases similar to yours have been decided by the Commission, the decisions of the Commission being rendered in each individual case upon such testimony as is submitted in support thereof.

Relative to your inquiry if the 320 acre clause in the recent act of Congress means that the citizens of the Choctaw Nation may select as their preliminary allotments, 320 acres of the public domain, you are advised that the act of Congress, approved May 27, 1902, defining the amount of land each citizen of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations is entitled to hold until allotment, is as follows:

"That the just and reasonable share of each member of the Chickasaw and Choctaw nations of Indians, in the lands belonging to the said tribes, which each member is entitled to hold in his possession until allotments are made, as provided in the Act entitled "An Act for the protection of the people of the Indian Territory, and for other purposes", approved June twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, be, and the same is hereby, declared to be three hundred and twenty acres for each member of the Chickasaw Nation and three hundred and twenty acres for each member of the Choctaw Nation."

This clause of the act above referred to does not relate in any manner to the final allotments of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation but merely specifies an amount of land, irrespective of value, which each citizen may hold until final allotment and citizens of these two tribes holding as their individual rights, land in excess of 320 acres are subject to prosecution under the seventeenth and eighteenth sections of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898.

Replying to your question relative to the rights of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation to remove from the territorial limits of the Indian territory for the benefit of health, schools, etc., you are advised that we can render you no further information in this question than to call your attention to the following provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898:

"No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed and in good faith settled in the nation in which he claims citizenship."

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 6, 1902.

John D. Benedict,

Superintendent of Schools,

Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 2, asking relative to the enrollment as Choctaws by blood of the following named children:

Everett Crutchfield,
Ina Crutchfield,
Louvina Crutchfield,
William Crutchfield,
Louticia Crutchfield.

Russell Simpson,
William Simpson.
Brandon Derryberry,
Frank Wilson,
Clayton Wilson,

Minnie Wilson,
Walter Wilson.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that on June 13, 1899, Everett, Ina, Louvina, William and Louticia Crutchfield, children of Ida Crutchfield and G. W. Crutchfield, were listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, pursuant to a judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory, rendered August 25, 1897, in court case, citizenship docket, Number 132.

It also appear from our records that Edward R. Simpson, nine years old, and William W. Simpson, seven years old, children of Nettie K. Simpson, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and W. W. Simpson, a noncitizen, were, June 15, 1899, listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1898 Choctaw Census Roll, being numbers 11,152 and 11,153 thereon.

J.D. 2

It further appears that Brandon B. Deryberry, son of Rosa R. Deryberry, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and Garrison W. Deryberry, a noncitizen, was, June 15, 1899, listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1898 Census Roll of the Choctaw Nation, being number 8240 thereon.

It also appears that Frank Wilson, twelve years old, Clayton Wilson, ten years old, Fannie Wilson, eight years old and Walter Wilson, seven years old, children of J. D. Wilson and Alice McClary, were, June 15, 1899, listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1898 Choctaw Census Roll, as numbers 12830, 12831, 12832, and 12833 thereon.

It is believed that these are the children concerning whom your inquiry is made.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 11, 1902.

Garrison W. Derryberry,

Ward, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of September 29, 1902, in which you state that you made application in 1898 for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and desire to make application for final enrollment and request that you be informed as to the necessary procedure.

In reply to your letter you are advised that on September 25, 1902, there was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, an agreement closing the rolls of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on that date and the rolls as now being made by this Commission of the citizens of these two tribes will be as of September 25, 1902 and it is necessary that the Commission ascertain the status of all applicants for enrollment as intermarried citizens on the date of the final ratification of such agreement.

It will therefore be necessary that you personally present yourself before the Commission at one of the appointments specified in the circular enclosed you herewith, in order that your status as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation on September 25, 1902, may be determined.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 26, 1903.

Garrison W. Derryberry,

Ward, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 18, stating that you have received the notice of the decision of the Commission as to your enrollment, and asking if you may appear at the Land Office on April 15, to file on land for yourself and your family.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Emma R. Derryberry and Brandon B. Derryberry, wife and child of Garrison Derryberry, have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw nation and on January 17, 1903, their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

It, further appears that you have been enrolled by this Commission as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, but your enrollment has not yet been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, and your attention is invited to the following provision of the Rules and Regulations of the Commission Governing the Selection of Allotments and the Designation of Homesteads in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations:

G W D 2

"Selections of allotments may be made only by citizens and freedmen whose enrollment has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, and by persons duly identified by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes as Mississippi Choctaws, and by none others."

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Choctaw 2756

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 21, 1903.

Garrison W. Derryberry,

Ward, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 13, asking if your enrollment has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

In reply to your letter you are advised that your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation was granted by the Commission on March 4, 1903, and no protest to your enrollment as such was filed by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, within the fifteen days allowed for that purpose. Your name, however, has not yet been placed upon a schedule of intermarried citizens of the Choctaw Nation for forwarding to the Secretary of the Interior for approval, but will be placed upon the first schedule of intermarried citizens of the Choctaw Nation so prepared by this Commission.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 8, 1903.

Wansfield, McMurray & Cornish,
Attorneys at Law,
South McAlester, Indian Territory.

Dear Sirs:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 24, asking that Mr. John Taylor, of Spiro, Indian Territory, be advised with reference to the date of the marriage license filed by G. W. Derryberry in support of his application for enrollment as an inter-married citizen of the Choctaw Nation and the name and title of the officer by whom it was issued.

In compliance with your request a letter has this day been addressed to Mr. Taylor giving him the required information.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

7-2758.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 11, 1903.

Garrison W. Derryberry,

Ward, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 4, 1903, asking if your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, and if you can now file for your wife and child.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that you have been enrolled as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and that on June 13, 1903, your enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior. You will therefore be permitted to make application for allotments for yourself, your wife and your child, in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of the rules and regulations governing the selection of allotments and the designation of homesteads in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, a copy of which is herewith enclosed.

Respectfully,

Enc. Rules for allotment.

Commissioner in Charge.

Muscoogee, Indian Territory,

August 18th, 1900.

Garrison W. Derryberry,

Ward, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that the Choctaw Nation, through its attorneys, Messrs McKennon, Mansfield, McMurray, & Jordan, has filed with this Commission a notice of protest to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

The Commission, commencing December 3rd, 1900, will hold a session at Atoka, Indian Territory. At that time both you and the Choctaw Nation will be permitted to offer additional testimony and written arguments in this case, and this hearing will be final.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

7-D-246.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 16, 1900.

Garrison W. Derryberry,

Ward, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 12th instant in the matter of the protest filed to your enrollment by the Choctaw Nation.

You request to be informed what other testimony must be presented by you and if such testimony will have to be oral or whether the Commission will accept certified affidavits and depositions taken in accordance with law and whether you will be allowed to send written arguments without your personal appearance or to make oral argument in support of your application.

You are informed that the Commission at its session in Atoka, beginning December 3rd next, will only hear oral testimony offered in support of the claim of any applicant or by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and that written affidavits and depositions will not be considered by the Commission in the disposition of these cases. Neither will the Nations or applicants be permitted to make oral arguments, but written argument and brief submitted by the Nations prior to February 1st, 1901 and by the applicant prior to March 1st, 1901, will be accepted by the Commission.

Since notifying you of the protest filed by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations as to your enrollment, the Commission has been furnished by the Nations with the grounds upon which your enrollment is protested. The question of your enrollment is as to your second marriage, you having been married first in accordance with the laws of the state of Arkansas in 1865 and remarried in accordance with the laws of the Choctaw Nation in 1897.

The Commission is in possession of a sufficient statement of the facts upon which a decision may be rendered in your case and it will not be necessary for you to appear before the Commission at its session at Atoka, beginning December 3rd next. The Commission will accept and consider any written argument on questions of law submitted on behalf of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations prior to February 1st, 1901 and on your behalf at any time prior to March 1st 1901.

As soon thereafter as practicable the Commission will consider and finally determine your right to enrollment and the decision of the Commission, stating fully therein its reason for any action that may be taken, will be mailed to you.

The question as to the allotment of land in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country is one that will properly come before a land office when such office is established for the purpose of allotting to the citizens of these two Nations, the lands thereof. Just when such an office will be opened, the Commission cannot at this time determine. The anticipated opening at Atoka September 1st, having been indefinitely postponed.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

In reply please refer to 7-D-246

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 18, 1900.

Garrison W. Derryberry,

Ward, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

Since notifying you on August 18, 1900, of the protest filed by the Choctaw Nation to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, the Commission has been furnished by the Nation with the grounds upon which objection is made to your enrollment. The question raised is to your right to enrollment under your second marriage.

The Commission is in possession of a sufficient statement of facts upon which a decision may be rendered and in your case it will not be necessary for you to appear at the appointment at Atoka beginning December 3rd, 1900.

The Commission will accept and consider any written arguments on questions of law submitted on behalf of the Choctaw Nation at any time prior to February 1st, 1901, and on your behalf at any time prior to March 1st, 1901.

As soon thereafter as practicable the Commission will consider and finally determine your right to enrollment and the decision of the Commission, stating fully its reasons for any action that may be taken, will be mailed to you.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Kully Brake as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

---o---

The applicant, Kully Brake, claims his right to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation through his mother Amanda T. Brake. The right of the applicant's mother, Amanda T.
Brake, to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation having been adversely determined by a decree of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, April 18, 1904, in case No. 65, upon the South McAlester docket of said court, it is hereby ordered that the application of Kully Brake for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation be dismissed. .

On October 4, 1966, the following information was received from the Bureau of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, New York City, New York, in connection with the above-captioned case:

[illegible]

On May 19, 1901, the application for the enrollment of Alice Johnson as a citizen by the marriage of the Choctaw Nation was dismissed by the Commission. The Five Civilized Tribes for the reason that her husband, through whom she claimed her Indian rights, had been exiled by a decree of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Civil Service Court.

On February 1, 1964, the Commission to the 150 Civilized Indians dismissed the application for the removal of Manuel . He later in accordance with the opinion of the Acting Attorney General dated April 1, 1964 (I.I.C. 44-1964), and the decision of the Assistant Attorney General dated July 1, 1964 (I.I.C. 44-1964).

On the order of the Commission of March 31, 1961, the applicants for the enrollment of Clark Cassergriff, Jr. and Annie C. Cassergriff were dismissed, said applicants having died prior to September 30, 1961.

[illegible]

Samuel Windfield, Martha Parish, Nellie T. Baggett (nee Parish), Elias Johnson, Alvin Johnson, William C. Johnson, Susan Johnson,
 Sae Johnson, Delilah Johnson, Laura E. Wonderslice, Samuel
 C. Willison, Samuel J. McAnley, Joseph C. McAnley, John Leo Co-Miner, George Smith, Benjamin Smith, Tobias Smith, Mary Lutterbell, Alice Johnson, Virgel Johnson, Sarah Garity, Aranda I.
 Thomas, (nee Vandergriff), Atrus Thomas, Alton G. Garity, Burr Garity and Emma T. Thomas, are identical with the persons for whose enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation applications were made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 18, 1898 (30 Stat., 491).

This office has no record of any application ever having been made for the enrollment of the petitioners, Susan Benight, Jessie T. Benight, Willard Benight, Eva T. Benight, Samuel Snyder, Sillar Elizabeth Sorrels, Lucinda Snyder, Mildred Shady, John
 Shady, Georgia A. Bottoms or George Bottom, James Bottom, Lennie Bottom, Alice Bottom or Rebecca Cain, Frankie Beard (nee Cain), Earnest Johnson, Samuel Sorrels, Emma C. Sorrels and Mrs. Mary A.
 Brown at any time prior to December 1, 1906.

Applications were received for the enrollment of the following persons as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 187):

June 11, 1900, Emma Vandergriff, born September 10,
 1890, minor child of James A. Vandergriff, and Cleo Vandergriff;
 June 1, 1900, David A. Vandergriff, born March 1, 1904, first son of William A. Vandergriff and Willie Vandergriff;
 June 18, 1900, Annie Myrtle Webb, born September 10,
 1890, minor daughter of James Webb and Emma A. Webb;
 June 11, 1900, Dry Eugene Rogers, born March 11, 1900,
 Samuel Leslie Rogers and John Lester Rogers, born September 1, 1900, minor children of Warren Rogers and Lena A. Rogers.

It is alleged in the petition filed June 18, 1906, that the petitioners, as well as the birth of the petitioners, in the Choctaw Nation entitled them under the laws and treaties, usages and customs and decisions of the Attorney General to be enrolled as members of the Choctaw tribe of Indians; that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, the United States Court and the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court had no jurisdiction over said petitioners.

It does not appear from the records in the possession of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that the petitioners have ever been recognized or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation by the tribal authorities. The names of none of said petitioners appear upon any of the tribal rolls in the possession of this office.

I am, therefore, of the opinion that the petitioners have never occupied such a status as to entitle them to enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation; that the action of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court of April 10, 1904, is final and that the applications for enrollment of Richard T. Benight, Sarah Benight, John Benight, Eva T. Benight, Laura E. Wonderslice, Tobias Smith (or Tobias S.) Smith, John Leo Co-miner, Mary

A. T. Vandergriff, Junior . Vandergriff, William . Vandergriff, Laura T. Vandergriff, Lewis . Vandergriff, James . Johnson, Alvin Johnson, William C. Johnson, James . Johnson, Sues Johnson, John C. Johnson, Sarah . Johnson, Wesley . Johnson, Fodie V. (or Fodie H.), Frank W. Allaminta, Gordon, Ella Fraeden, L. and S. Williams, Samuel W. Williams, Artus Parish, Miller J. Walsh, Samantha Stencipher, James . Stencipher, Arthur L. Stencipher, Annie . Stencipher, George Stencipher, Will Johnson, Sarah Clark, Eliza M. Clark, Sam Clark, Amanda L. Clark and Artus Stencipher are all of the Cherokee Nation, and the petition herein for and on behalf of said applicants, should be granted under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1906 (34 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the application for the enrollment of William John and Anna Leight as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the petition herein in so far as same applies to said applicants, should be denied, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1906 (34 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that following the ruling of the Department of April 15, 1906 (U.S.D. 9114-12-0), in the case of Laura A. Akin, the application for the admission of Susan S. Knight, William Knight, Rev. S. Knight, Sam Snyder and James T. Knight as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1906 (34 Stats., 641), were not continuing applications, and inasmuch as no application was filed for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation prior to December 1, 1906, the petition herein in so far as it applies to said petitioners, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners, Samuel . Stencipher, Ella (or Ella) Stencipher, Annie (or Annie L.) Johnson, Elmer (or Elmer) Johnson, Annie . Vandergriff, Alice Johnson, Annie (or Annie) Johnson and Sarah L. Brown, whose applications for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation have heretofore been dismissed, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners, Annera Smith, Benjamin Smith, William Smith, Mary Battershell, Dr. Windfield, and Dr. Windfield, and Samuel H. Windfield, whose applications for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation have heretofore been refused, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein, in so far as it applies to the petitioners, Fannie Elizabeth Serrels, John Serrels, Georgia Serrels, Rebecca Serrels, Mrs. David L. Serrels, Battershell, Frank Serrels (now dead) and Mrs. . Vandergriff, for whose enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation a petition was made prior to December 1, 1906, should be dismissed and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners, James Stencipher, William Shandy, James Bottom, Minnie Bottom, Earnest Johnson, Samuel Sorrels and Manda C. Sorrels, should be considered as an application for the enrollment of said petitioners as citizens of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), that said application should be denied, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the applications filed June 1, 1906, June 11, 1906, and June 18, 1906, for the enrollment of Carl R. Vandergriff, Rosena Vandergriff, Ury Eugene Boggs, Samuel Leslie Boggs, John Lester Boggs and Annie Myrtle Manly as citizens of the Choctaw Nation should be denied, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 3, 1900.

Amanda J. Brake,

Pocola, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of February 26th in which you desire to know if you can make an application for the enrollment as a Choctaw citizen of your infant child, born February 9th, 1900, and there is enclosed you herewith a blank birth affidavit for the application for the enrollment of an infant child. It will be necessary to have this filled out, and the mother and attending physician, or nurse, must make affidavit as to the fact of the birth of the child. The notary public who takes these acknowledgements must affix his notarial seal to each affidavit, and in case that any signature is by mark, same must be attested to by two disinterested persons as witnesses.

Yours truly,

In replying please refer to Choctaw #2759.

-----

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William T. Rabon as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the records herein that William T. Rabon, on June 25, 1902, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, to Ora Rabon (nee Moore), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8081 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903: that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have continued to live together in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 15, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that William T. Rabon should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 16, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Albert Rennie,

Attorney at Law,

Pauls Valley, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 29th ult<sup>o</sup> in which you request that one of the members of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes sign and return to you six affidavits relative to the citizenship of Joe Nelson, Ben Loman, Clay Loman, Girtie Moore, Celia Loman and Isaac Gibson as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

The affidavits enclosed in your letter are returned to you herewith with the information that the Commission cannot issue any affidavits to the enrollment of any persons as citizens of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation.

It appears from our records relative to the parties concerning whom you make this inquiry that Clay Loman, 46 years of age, Sillen Loman 43 years of age and their son Wilken Loman 11 years of age and Joe Nelson, the son of Gabriel Nelson and Sillen Loman, were listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation May 11, 1899, having been identified by the Commission from the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation.

It does not appear from our records that any person by the name of Ben Loman has been listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation but the name of Wilken Loman above referred to appears upon the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation.

A R 2

as Ben Loman. The post office address of these persons as given at that time was Hampton, Indian Territory.

As to the Girtie Moore in whose favor you request the affidavit, you are informed that it does not appear that any person by this name has been listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. A Gertrude Moore, 10 years of age and the daughter of Andrew J. and Laura Moore, of Cartersville, Indian Territory, was on June 15, 1899 listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

As to Isaac Gibson, it appears from our records that the only person by this name who has been listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation is Isaac Gibson, the son of Willie and Siney Gibson and he was so listed on June 9, 1899. The post office address of the parents of this child was given at that time as Antlers, Indian Territory.

If these are not the persons concerning whom you desire this information it will be necessary that you furnish the Commission with more definite information as to the time and place such application was made, the names of other members of the family making application for enrollment at the same time and any other information that will enable the Commission to identify them as applicants for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

In view of the fact that there has been no completed roll of citizens of the Choctaw Nation and that such roll is now only in process of preparation it would be ~~impossible~~ for the Commission to issue any certificates or make any affidavit as to the enrollment of any persons as citizens of the Cheotaw Nation.

W. T. Rabon,

Bokoshe, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 9, in which you ask if it is necessary for you to appear before the Commission again for enrollment; that you are an intermarried citizen and was registered at Muskogee on June 27, 1902.

In reply to your letter you are advised that you have been listed among the doubtful claimants to enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation. The Commission is now preparing rolls of the citizens and freedmen of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations for submission to the Secretary of the Interior and it is necessary to secure the testimony of all intermarried citizens relative to their status as such intermarried citizens on September 25, 1902, the date of the final ratification of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902. For the purpose of securing this testimony the Commission will be at South McAlester, Indian Territory, from December 20, to December 24, 1902, inclusive.

Respectfully,

W. T. Rahon,

Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 14, stating that certain land which you have purchased for your allotment is now being claimed by another citizen.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission cannot at this time render any opinion relative to the rights of individuals to particular tracts of the Choctaw-Chickasaw country, nor take cognizance of controversies arising over the right of possession thereto. Matters of this character will receive its consideration upon the establishment of land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, which will probably be the first of April, when the citizens of these two tribes may appear at the land office for the nation in which their land is located and make formal application for their allotments.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 9, asking if you will be allowed to select allotment for your wife. You also request rules and regulations governing the allotments.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Ora Rabon, wife of W. T. Rabon, has been enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on January 17, 1903, her enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior. It further appears that you have been listed among the doubtful claimants to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and your final right to such enrollment has not yet been determined. As soon as a decision is reached in your case you will be notified of the action of the Commission.

In accordance with your request, there is inclosed you herewith a copy of the rules and regulations governing the selection of allotments and the designation of homesteads in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, and your attention is particularly invited to rules one and fifteen.

W. T. Rabon,

Bokoshe, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 4, describing the land you desire to select in allotment, and requesting to be advised if your enrollment has been approved.

In reply to your letter you are advised that on March 26, 1904, the Secretary of the Interior approved your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

The matter of the selection of your allotment has been made the subject of another communication.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 12, 1905, in which you state that you have enrolled your baby with the Commission appointed by the Council and you ask if this is not legal that there be forwarded blank for the enrollment of said child.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it does not appear from our records that application has been made to this Commission for a child born to you since September 25, 1902, and for your convenience there is inclosed herewith blank together with circular giving full information relative to the enrollment of an infant child.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 10, 1906, in which you ask if an infant child born November 22, 1905, can be enrolled and if so you request an application blank.

In reply to your letter you are advised that there is no application for the enrollment of children born to citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation subsequent to March 3, 1905.

The matter of the plats referred to in your letter will be made the subject of another communication.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 3, 1906, in which you state that you forwarded application for the enrollment of your child before the Curtis Bill became a law on an old blank and you ask if that will be sufficient.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the affidavits heretofore received in the matter of the enrollment of your child Vera Gertrude Rabon have been filed as an application for the enrollment of said child, but there is inclosed herewith new blank which you are requested to have executed and returned to this office as early as practicable. In having the same executed you should see that your wife's name appears in the affidavit as the same is given in her allotment certificate.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jane Folsom as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that Jane Folsom (formerly Jerrod), on February 4, 1883, was lawfully married to Walker Folsom, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8094, upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Jane Folsom should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 18th, in which you ask to be furnished a certificate to the effect that the name of Susana Marris appears on the Choctaw rolls. You state that she died in 1851 and her name would be found upon the Choctaw rolls prior to that date. You further request that in the event you cannot be furnished such a certificate, that the Commission forward certificates showing the enrollment of Duda Hicks, Mrs. Sam McCasen and Walker Folsom as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter, you are informed that the Commission has no tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation of date prior to 1885 in its possession and cannot, therefore, give you any information concerning the enrollment of Susana Marris in 1851.

You do not state the christian name of Mrs. Sam McCasen, and it is therefore impossible to furnish you a certificate to her enrollment.

It does not appear from our records that any person by the name of Duda Hicks is an applicant to this Commission for enrollment in the Choctaw Nation, under this name. If this person is an applicant, and if you will state when, where and under what name he made application to the Commission, the names of the other members of his family, and any other information you may possess which will enable the Commission to identify him from its records, the matter of his enrollment will receive further consideration.

There is enclosed you herewith a certificate showing the enrollment of Walker Folsom as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lou E. Poatright as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that Lou E. Poatright, on October 13, 1890, was married in the State of Arkansas to Joseph Poatright, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 8095 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903; that in 1890 both persons above mentioned removed to and became residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of their removal up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Lou E. Poatright should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

APPLICATION FOR ENROLLMENT.

The Choctaw Nation, Respondent.

To the Hon. U.S. Dawes Commission Sitting at Fort Gibson, Ind. Ter.

Comes now your petitioner Lu Elmer Boatwright and alleges and says that she is an intermarried white citizen of the Choctaw Nation and a resident thereof. That on the 13 day of October, 1890, the petitioner was legally and lawfully married to Joseph Boatwright a Choctaw Indian by blood, who is duly enrolled on the authenticated rolls of the Choctaw Nation and recognized by

That to the said marriage there has been children born viz., Ruth Isabell Boatwright, age 6 years; Viola May Boatwright, age 4 years; Eva Jane Boatwright, age 2 years; Robert Elmer Willis Boatwright, age 5 months. All of the above children are now living, and all of the above named children are enrolled on the authenticated rolls of the Choctaw Nation and all except the two last named, Eva Jane and Robt. Elmer Willis drew their part of the leased district money. And I hereunto attach our marriage certificate as evidence, and also the affidavit of W.W. Folsom and M.J. Folsom in support of same. Wherefore petitioner Lu Elmer Boatwright prays that her name be placed on the said rolls of the Choctaw Nation with all the right and privileges accorded other Choctaw Indians.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that Campbell Russell on November 28, 1895, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, to Mary A. Russell (nee Overstreet), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8101, upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Campbell Russell should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

August 20, 1906.

L R S

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

July 12, 1906, you transmitted the record in the matter of the true date of death of Clarissa James, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears opposite No. 8429 upon a schedule constituting a part of the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation approved by the Acting Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903, and also a report as to the selection of an allotment in her name on September 23, 1904, by L. P. Hudson as administrator of her estate under letters of administration issued by the United States Court for the Southern District of Indian Territory on September 21, 1904, showing the issuance of Chickasaw homestead certificates Nos. 9469 and 9470 and Chickasaw allotment certificates Nos. 12568 and 12569, for the following land:

Homestead:

SW/4 of the NE/4, S/2 of the SE/4 of the NE/4, and N/2 of the N/2 of the SE/4 of Section 27, T. 8 N.,
R. 2 E.; SE/4 of the SE/4 of the SE/4 of Section 13, T. 2 S., R. 7 E.

Exclusive of homestead:

SW/4 of the SE/4 of the SE/4 of Section 13, T. 2 S., R. 7 E.; N/2 of the NE/4, and N/2 of the SE/4 of the NE/4 of section 27, T. 5 N., R. 2 E.,

which you withheld from delivery to the administrator for the allottee for the reason of certain information furnished your office showing that said Clarissa James, an infant daughter of Harris James, a Choctaw Indian by blood, had died on March 10, 1902, instead of March 10, 1903, as alleged by the administrator in his petition for appointment as administrator of said Clarissa James, deceased, and in the affidavits of Harris James, father of said deceased child, and Louisa Terrell, upon which statements letters of administration were issued.

From the affidavits of Green McCurtain, Principal Chief of the Choctaw Nation, George W. Scott, and E. Johnson, M. D., the attending physician at the death of said Clarissa James, and from the testimony of Harris James, the father of said Clarissa James, deceased, taken January 21, 1906, and Louisa Terrell, a sister of said Clarissa James, it is clearly shown that said Clarissa James, deceased, died on March 10, 1902, and prior to September 25, 1902, and is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and that the allotment selections made in her name were without warrant or authority and should be canceled.

In view of the record, you are hereby authorized to cancel the name of Clarissa James, opposite No. 8429 upon a schedule constituting a part of the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation approved by the Acting Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903, and you are also authorized to cancel, set aside, and hold for naught the certificates of allotment selections made in the name of Clarissa James by L. P. Hudson as administrator of her estate at the Chickasaw Land Office on September 23, 1904.

You are advised that the Attorney-General of the United States has this day been requested to prosecute the persons responsible for this alleged fraudulent selection of land in the name of Clarissa James, deceased, unless in his opinion, such prosecution cannot be successfully maintained.

Respectfully,

(Signed). THOS. RYAN,

Acting Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Addell Harrison as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that Addell Harrison (nee Fenton) on March 31, 1895, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, to Henry Harrison, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll as H. C. Harrison, number 5160; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage until the death of the said Henry Harrison, which occurred about 1900, and that since that time up to and including September 25, 1902, the applicant herein has not re-married, and has resided continuously in the Choctaw Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Addell Harrison should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Q Of what county? A Skullyville.
Q How much did you pay for the license? A $25.
Q Who performed the marriage ceremony? A Preacher by the name of Culberson; he's dead now.
Q Were you ever married previous to your marriage to Susan Lanier?
A No sir.
Q Was she ever married previous to her marriage to you? A Yes
sir.

Joseph J. Shropshire-----2

- Q How many times? A Twice I think.
- Q Do you know the names of her former husbands? A I think I do; let me see - - no, the first one I don't, but the next one was Samuel Cooper.
- Q Were both of these men dead at the time of your marriage to her?
- A I don't know. One was living. I don't know anything about the first one.
- Q Was she separated from him? A I reckon; I don't know much about that.
- Q What became of Cooper? Did he die before you married this woman?
- A No sir, they were divorced by a decree of the court.
- Q What court granted them this divorce? A Choctaw court.
- Q What county do you know? A I don't know; district court.
- Q Since your marriage to Susan Lanier have you lived together continuously as husband and wife up to the present time? A Yes sir.
- Q There has been no separation of any kind whatsoever? A Oh, a little bit once in a while, but not much; no divorce or nothing like that.
- Q Are you at present living together as husband and wife? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you been living that way continuously?
- A I don't know, a good many years.
- Q What did these separations amount to? A Nothing at all.
- Q Just a very short time? A Yes sir.
- Q You have always united again and lived as before? A Yes sir.
- Q You are at present an actual and bona fide resident of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Dear Sir,

Your letter to hand requesting of Joseph B. Shropshire regarding a copy of my Divorce from Auburn William
Williams, and in answer will say
I will give the facts let them be as they may. I married one Auburn Williams some time in February 1863. Only lived with him a few months, and on the 3d day of May 1863, said Williams abandoned me and I have never heard from him until this day. So in the Month of March 1868, at Shelbyville in the County of Shelbyville, Gaston Nation Ind., I obtained a divorce from the bonds of matrimony, from Auburn Williams. The Attorney who represented me in obtaining a divorce was Daniel Campbell Leflore. Since obtaining this divorce records have all been burnt and therefore I have no record of this divorce.

Samuel Fisher and I were lawfully married and lawfully divorced as you are in possession of facts and records showing this or at least that we were lawfully divorced. ~~married as is a disputed case~~ if we had not been lawfully married we could not have been lawfully divorced.

So you will see by the accompanying certificate that I and Miss Shopshire were lawfully married according to the Hoctaw law for marriage. The fact that Miss Shopshire has set on Grand Jurors and

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Joseph J. Shropshire as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Joseph J. Shropshire, on November 11, 1885, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Susan Shropshire (formerly Cooper), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 8105 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 23, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Joseph J. Shropshire should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of September 25, 1903, stating that some time since you requested information relative to the divorce between Susan and Samuel Cooper; also the date of the marriage between Susan Cooper and J. J. Shropshire, and if they were married more than once, the date of each marriage.

You are advised that under date of September 28, 1903, this office addressed a letter to you at Atoka, Indian Territory, advising you that it appeared from our records that a decree of divorce from Samuel Cooper was granted to Sue Cooper by the Circuit court of the Mosholatubbe District, January 15, 1885; that no marriage license and certificate of J. J. Shropshire appears to have been filed with our records in the matter of the application for enrollment of said J. J. Shropshire as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation; and further that it appears from our records that he was married to Susan Lanier in 1885.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 14th inst., requesting to be advised if the marriage license and certificate of Susan Lanier and J. J. Shropshire is on file with the application of said Shropshire for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation; and whether or not the application for his enrollment has been passed upon by the Commission.

You are informed that no marriage license and certificate of Susan Lanier and J. J. Shropshire has been filed with the records in the matter of the application for enrollment of J. J. Shropshire as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. Such evidence of marriage has been requested of Mr. Shropshire and you are advised that no further consideration can be given his application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation until the same has been supplied.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 28, 1903.

Jeff D. Ward,

Atoka, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 19th instant, requesting to be advised as to the date of the divorce proceedings between Susan and Sam Cooper, also the date of the marriage of Susan Cooper to J. J. Shropshire, as well as the date of their marriage license, if any appears.

You are informed it appears from our records that a decree of divorce from Samuel Cooper was granted to Sue E. Cooper by the Circuit Court of the Mosholatubbe District January 15th, 1885. No marriage license and certificate of J. J. Shropshire and Susan Cooper appears to have been filed with our records in the matter of the application for enrollment of said J. J. Shropshire as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. It is stated in his evidence, however, taken by the Commission at Wister, Indian Territory, December 17, 1902, that he was married to Susan Lanier, formerly Susan Cooper, in 1885.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

7-2766.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 12, 1903.

Joseph J. Shropshire,
Stigler, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, it appears from your testimony taken before the Commission at Wister, Indian Territory, December 17, 1902, that you claim your intermarried rights in the Choctaw Nation by virtue of your marriage to Susan Shropshire, nee Lanier. You also testified that your wife was married twice before her marriage with you, and that you do not know anything about her first husband.

You are informed that before further consideration can be given your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proof, either that your wife's first husband was dead, or that she had been divorced from him at the time of your marriage to her.

You are also advised that it will be necessary for you to forward to the Commission either the original or a certified copy of your marriage license and certificate of the marriage between you and your said wife, Susan Shropshire, or, failing that, the sworn statements of not less than two disinterested witnesses, who were actually present at the performance of the marriage ceremony between you and your said wife, Susan Shropshire.

J.J.8.--2.

These matters should receive your immediate attention.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Mustang, Indian Territory, November 9, 1903.

Susan Shropshire,

Stigler, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your affidavit relative to your marriage to and divorce from your former husband, Auburn Williams; also relative to your marriage to and divorce from Samuel Cooper, together with a certified copy of the marriage license and certificate between J. J. Shropshire and Susan Cooper; and the same have been duly filed with the records of the Commission in the matter of the application for enrollment of J. J. Shropshire as an inter-married citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw 1706

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 8, 1904.

J. J. Shropshire,

Stigler, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 27, in which you state that you are an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation who has complied with all tribal laws and usages, but your enrollment has not yet been approved and that a full blood Choctaw has filed on your home place, and you ask what course you should pursue.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission has not yet passed upon your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. As soon as a decision is reached you will be notified of the action taken therein.

You are further informed that if your land has been selected by another citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation, you will be permitted to institute contest therefor upon your personal appearance at the land office for the nation in which the land is located.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Dear Madam:

The Commission has received information of the death of your husband, James Burtles, since the time he was listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

For the purpose of making his death a matter of record, there is enclosed you herewith a blank for proof of death which you are kindly requested to have properly executed and your earliest convenience and return to this office in the enclosed envelope which requires no postage.

You will notice that there is an affidavit for an acquaintance and a relative. In having the same executed be careful to see that all names are written in full, and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures be attested by two disinterested parties witnesses thereto.

Dear Madam:

The Commission has received information of the death of your husband, James Burties, and of your son, Leonard Burties, since the time they were listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

For the purpose of making their deaths a matter of record there are enclosed you herewith blanks for proof of death which you are kindly requested to have properly executed at your earliest convenience and return to this office in the enclosed envelope which requires no postage.

You will notice that there is an affidavit for an acquaintance and a relative. affidavit.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of your son, Moses Harris, as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, it appears from his birth affidavit on file with the Commission that he was born on October 14, 1894, and his name is not found upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll.

You should therefore immediately supply the Commission with whatever explanation you may have as to the reason why his name does not appear on this census roll. This matter should receive you immediate attention as nothing further can be done in the matter of the enrollment of your son until this explanation is received.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 19th inst., enclosing the certificate of marriage between Israel Folsom and Rhoda Battiest.

You are advised that no person by the name of Rhoda Battiest appears to have ever been listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

It does appear from our records, however, that at the appointment of the Commission at Wister, Indian Territory, December 15 to 19, 1902 inclusive, information was received which enables the Commission to identify your wife as having been listed for enrollment under the name of Rhoda Burtles, formerly the wife of James Burtles, deceased; and it is presumed the certificate of marriage has been forwarded to this office for the purpose of having the name of Rhoda Burtles changed to Rhoda Folsom.

You are informed that under the authority vested by the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), the Commission on November 18, 1902, enrolled Rhoda Burties as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and her enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903. The approval of the enrollment of Rhoda Burties is final, and the Commission cannot now make any change in her name; and allotment of land and distribution of other tribal property will probably be made to her under the name of Rhoda Burties.

The certificate of marriage is therefore returned you herewith.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 16th instant in which you state that you were at Muskogee some two months ago relative to your claim to enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation and that you have not heard from the Commission since that time.

You state further in your letter that you base your rights as a Choctaw Indian under the Broglin and Vandergriff rights. That Sarah Broglin and Hase Ann Vandergriff are your aunts and you now desire to be informed whether or not you will have to come to Muskogee for the purpose of furthering your claim for citizenship and enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw tribe of Indians.

Replying to your letter you are informed that a careful search of the records of this Commission does not show that you have ever personally appeared before the Commission and made application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation and until such personal appearance the Commission cannot consider or in any way determine your rights to enrollment.

Concerning the parties who you state are your relatives, you are informed that the records of the Commission show that Sarah D. Brogden, 34 years of age and her four minor children, Wesley H., Jodie J., Allaminta and Riley Brogden were on June 15th, 1899 were listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation and on June 14th, 1899, Hasey A. F. Vandergriff, 49 years of age and her five minor children, James M., William P., Emma L., Annie C. and Dovey D. Vandergriff, were listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation. None of these parties had ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as citizens of the Choctaw Nation but were admitted to citizenship therein by judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, rendered at South McAlester, Indian Territory, September 11th, 1897 in court case No. 62.

The Commission has to inform you that if you were not a party to the original application for citizenship made in this case to the Commission in 1896 or your name was not included in the judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory admitting these parties to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, you would be entitled to no rights or recognition under such judgment.

You are informed that the power of the Commission in determining the rights of parties to enrollment as citizens of any of the Five Tribes in Indian Territory is governed by the act of May 31st, 1900, which is as follows:

"But it (the Commission) shall not receive, consider, or make any record of any application for any person for enrollment as a member of any tribe in Indian Territory who has not been a recognized citizen thereof, and duly and lawfully enrolled or admitted as such, and its refusal of such applications shall be final when approved by the Secretary of the Interior."

You will therefore understand that if your name is not upon any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation or you have not been admitted to citizenship in said Nation by the tribal authorities thereof or by the legally constituted authorities of the United States, this Commission is now without jurisdiction to consider or make any record of your application.

If, however, it is still your purpose to make such an application, the Commission will hear you at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory upon your personal appearance at any time prior to the submission of the final rolls of citizens of the Choctaw Nation to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

It is suggested however, that if it is your purpose and intention to make such application that you do so as early as practicable.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, provides as follows:

"and no motion to reopen or reconsider any citizenship case, in any of said tribes, shall be entertained unless filed with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes within sixty days after the date of the order or decision sought to be reconsidered except as to decisions made prior to the passage of this Act, in which cases such motion shall be made within sixty days after the passage of this Act."

Rattershell, for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Binney D. Smith, Toby Y. Smith and Lucy I. Rattershell, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Calvin, Indian Territory, on August 9, 1899, by Strus Thomas for the enrollment of herself and her minor daughter, Emma D. Thomas; that on January 9, 1902, written application was filed for the enrollment of Edna Lee Thomas, minor daughter of Strus Thomas and W. I. Thomas as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Wister, Indian Territory, on June 7, 1899, by Harvey E. McLarty for the enrollment of Sarah McLarty and her minor children, Elton E. McLarty and Burr McLarty as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on October 8, 1900, written application was filed for the enrollment of Ida Polin McLarty, minor child of Harvey E. McLarty and Sarah McLarty as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Spiro, Indian Territory, on June 15, 1899 by Amanda I. Brake for the enrollment of herself and her minor daughter, Mary Brake, as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on September 7, 1896, for the admission for certain of the applicants herein as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321) in 1896 Choctaw Citizenship case No. 916, said names appearing in the application as follows: Luther Bennight, Win Bennight, Dora Jeff Bennight, Richard S. Bennight, Annie Bennight, Sarah D. Brogdon, Billy Brogdon, Wally H. Brogdon, Jody J. Brogdon, Alameda Brogdon, Hazy Ann P. Vandergriff, James M. Vandergriff, William P. Vandergriff, Elmer L. Vandergriff, Annie G. Vandergriff and Mervie D. Vandergriff. The names of Susan G. Bennight, Jessie D. Bennight, Willard Bennight, Evy G. Bennight, Mandy I. Vandergriff, Sarah McLarty, Elton E. McLarty, Burr McLarty and Sam Snyder also appeared in said application.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on September 9, 1896, for the admission of certain of the applicants herein as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), in 1896 Choctaw Citizenship case No. 1026, the names of said applicants appearing in said application as follows: James Johnson, S. Ann Stonecipher, James P. Stonecipher, Essie May Stonecipher, Jessie Parthe Stonecipher, Roscoe Stonecipher, Dortus Parish, Nellie T. Parish, Wilbur Johnson, Alvin Johnson, William C. Johnson, Jesse P. Johnson, Addie May Johnson, Delila Johnson, Laura C. McKinley, Lena A. Williams, Samuel C. Williams, Samuel V. McKinley, Josephine O. McKinley and John Leo McKinley. The name of Atrun Johnson also appeared in said application.

On December 4, 1896, the Commission denied the applicants in case No. 916, and on December 5, 1896, said Commission denied the applicants in case No. 1026.

From these decisions of the Commission appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, said cases being consolidated on appeal, which court on September 11, 1897, rendered a judgment admitting all of said applicants to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation except Susan G. Bennight, Jessie D. Bennight, Willard Bennight and Evy G. Bennight, whose applications were denied by said judgment.

Said judgment was subsequently vacated, set aside and held for naught by a decree of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 17, 1902, in the test case of "Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of Tribes vs. J. T. Riddle, et al".

Said cause was subsequently certified to the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court, created under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), for a trial de nove, and April 16, 1904, in the case entitled "Sarah D. Brogdon, et al., vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations" (Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court case No. 65, south Western Docket), said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment therein, wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Sarah D. Brogdon, Wesley H. Brogdon, Jodie J. Brogdon, Allamante Brogdon, Mary Ann W. Vandergriff, Amanda I. Brake or Amanda I. Vandergriff, James W. Vandergriff, William P. Vandergriff, Emma I. Manly or Emma I. Vandergriff, Annie C. Vandergriff, James C. Johnson, S. Ann Stonecipher, James P. Stonecipher, see May Stonecipher or Esale May Stonecipher, Rosale Martha Stonecipher, poscoe Stonecipher, Darius Parrish or Darius Parish, Follie T. Parrish or Parrish, Vilus Johnson, Beatrice Thomas or Astrus Johnson, Addie May Johnson, Alvin Johnson, William C. Johnson, Jesse B. Johnson or Jesse B. Johnson, Haco Johnson or Haco Johnson, Laura C. Vander-alice or Laura C. McKinley, Josephine C. McKinley, John Lee McKinley, Lena A. Peggs or Lena A. Williams, Samuel C. Williams, William Johnson or Delila Johnson, Sarah McClarty, Elton McClarty and Burr McClarty be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom; and as to the petitioners, Riley Brogdon . . . . the court having no jurisdiction, their petition is dismissed".

On the same date, said citizenship court rendered a judgment in the case of "Susan S. Benhight, et al., vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations", wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Susan S. Benhight, Richard C. Benhight, Jesse D. Benhight or Jesse D. Benhight, Annie G. Benhight or Annie Benhight, James Luther Benhight or Luther Benhight, Winn Benhight, Nora Jeff Benhight, Willard Benhight, and Emy G. Benhight or Eva G. Benhight be denied, and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On May 9, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes refused the application for the enrollment of Oza Wingfield, Emily G. Wingfield, Samuel W. Wingfield and William G. Wingfield, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved May 31, 1900 (31 Stats., 221), and on June 9, 1902, this action of the Commission was approved by the Department.

On November 20, 1900, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes refused the application for the enrollment of Minerva A. Battershell, Binney D. Smith, Toby Y. Smith and Lucy I. Battershell, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved May 31, 1900, (31 Stats., 221), and on April 3, 1901, this action of the Commission was approved by the Department.

On May 27, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes issued orders dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Eldreth Vandergriff, Agnes Messersmith, Robert Jackson and Alice, Fannie L. Johnson, Eulalia Johnson, Fannie K. Parish, Ethel May Parish, L. C. Stonecipher, Otto Stonecipher, Terrell Benight, Emma D. Thomas, Emma Lee Thomas, Ida Helen McLarty and John Ben-ton Johnson, for the reason that the citizenship of the persons through whom said applicants claimed a right to enrollment had been adversely determined by the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

On May 27, 1904, the application for the enrollment of Alice Johnson as a citizen of her marriage of the Choctaw Nation was dismissed by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the reason that her husband, through whom she claimed her intermar-ried rights, had been denied by a decree of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

On February 1, 1905, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dismissed the application for the enrollment of Samuel W. McKinley in accordance with the opinion of the Acting Attorney General dated May 2, 1904 (I.T.D. 5244-1904), and the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General dated July 10, 1904 (I.T.D. 5246-1904).

By a general order of the Commission of March 31, 1905, the applications for the enrollment of Clark Messersmith, Mary Drake and Annie C. Vandergriff were dismissed, said applicants having died prior to September 25, 1902.

Under the regulations adopted by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes January 2, 1906, there was filed on June 28, 1906, by W. O. Pool and M. W. Lindly, attorneys at law, South McAlester, Indian Territory, a petition praying for the enrollment of Susan Benight, R. C. Benight, Jessie D. Benight, Willard Benight, Eva G. Benight, Hazy Ann Vandergriff, Sillar Elizabeth Sorrels, Sarah McClarty, Amanda I. Baker (nee Vandergriff), William P. Vandergriff, Emma L. Vandergriff, Annie C. Vandergriff, Dora D. Vandergriff, Lucinda Snyder, Samuel Snyder, Wilbert Shandy, John Shandy, Georgia A. Bottoms or Georgie Bottom, James Bottom, Minnie Bottom, Necca McLain or Rebecca McLain, Frankie Bryant (nee McLain), Manerva Smith, Benjamin Smith, Tobias Smith, L. Battershell, Lucy Battershell, Sarah Brogden, Westly E. Brogden, Allamenta Brogden, Joseph L. Brogden, Riley Brogden, James C. Johnson, Delilah Johnson, S. Ann Stonecipher, Darius Parish, Milas Johnson, Atrus Thomas, Alvin Johnson, William C. Johnson, Maude May Johnson, Esco Johnson, Laura C. Vanderslice or Laura C. McKinley, Samuel M. McKinley, Joseph C. McKinley, John Leo McKinley, Samuel C. Williams, Emma D. Thomas, Pannie Johnson, Eloyar Johnson, Earnest Johnson, Alice Johnson, Virgel Johnson, Samuel Sorrels, Maud C. Sorrels, Anna Benight, Luther Benight, Wena Benight, Dora Jeff Benight, Elton E. McClarty, Burr McClarty, James B. Stonecipher, Essie Stonecipher, Essie Stonecipher, Roscoe Stonecipher, Otto Stonecipher, Nellie T. Baggett (nee Parish), Oza Wingfield or Osa Wingfield or Ozie Windfield, Emily C. Windfield, Samuel Windfield, Mrs David W. Reeves and Lena A. Boggs or Lela Boggs as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

The petitioners, Luther Benight, Wena Benight, Dora Jeff Benight, R. C. Benight, Annie Benight, Sarah Brogden, Riley Brogden, Westly E. Brogden, Joseph L. Brogden, Pannie Johnson, Eloyar Johnson, Oza Wingfield, or Osa Wingfield or Ozie Windfield, Allamenta Brogden, Hazy Ann Vandergriff, William P. Vandergriff, Emma L. Vandergriff, Annie C. Vandergriff, Dora D. Vandergriff, James C. Johnson, S. Ann Stonecipher, James B. Stonecipher, Essie Stonecipher, Bessie Stonecipher, Roseoe Stonecipher, Emily C. Windfield, Samuel Windfield, Martus Parish Nellie T. Baggett (nee Parish), Wiles Johnson, Alvin Johnson, William C. Johnson, Maude May Johnson, Edoo Johnson, Delilah Johnson, Laura C. Vanderslice, Samuel C. Williams, Samuel M. McKinley, Joseph C. McKinley, John Leo McKinley, Harvra Smith, Benjamin Smith, Tobias Smith, Lucy Battershell, Alice Johnson, Virgil Johnson, Sarah McClarty, Amanda I. Brakes, (nee Vandergriff), Astrus Thomas, Elton E. McClarty, Murr McClarty and Emma D. Thomas, are identical with the persons for whose enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation applications were made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1906 (34 Stat., 495).

This office has no record of any application ever having been made for the enrollment of the petitioners, Susan Benight, Jessie D. Benight, Millard Benight, Eva C. Benight, Samuel Snyder, Sillar Elizabeth Sorrels, Lucinda Snyder, Wilbert Chandy, John Chandy, Georgia A. Bottoms or Georgie Bottom, James Bottom, Minnie Bottom, Becca McLain or Rebecca McLain, Frankie Bryant (nee McLain), Earnest Johnson, Samuel Sorrels, Manda C. Sorrels and Mrs. David W. Reeves at any time prior to December 1, 1905.

Applications were received for the enrollment of the following persons as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 137):

June 11, 1906, Rosena Vandergriff, born September 10, 1903, minor child of James M. Vandergriff and Cleo Vandergriff;
 June 1, 1906, Carl R. Vandergriff, born March 28, 1904, minor son of William P. Vandergriff and Belle Vandergriff;
 June 18, 1906, Annie Myrtle Manly, born September 13, 1903, minor daughter of James Manly and Emma L. Manly;
 June 11, 1906, Ury Eugene Boggs, born November 25, 1902, Samuel Leslie Boggs and John Lester Boggs, born September 12, 1905, minor children of Warren Boggs and Lena A. Boggs.

It is alleged in the petition filed June 25, 1906, that the Indian blood and residence, as well as the birth of the petitioners in the Choctaw Nation entitled them under all the laws and treaties, usages and customs and decisions of the Attorney General to be enrolled as members of the Choctaw tribe of Indians; that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, the United States Court and the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court had no jurisdiction over said petitioners.

It does not appear from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that the petitioners have ever been recognized or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation by the tribal authorities of said nation. The names of none of said petitioners appear upon any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of this office.

I am, therefore, of the opinion that the petitioners have never occupied such a status as would entitle them to enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation; that the action of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court of April 14, 1904, is final, and that the applications for the enrollment of Richard C. Bennight, Luther Bennight, Winn Bennight, Nora J. Bennight, Laura C. Vanderslice, Josephine C. (or Joseph C.) McKinley, John Leo McKinley, Maxey A. W. Vandergriff, James W. Vandergriff, William F. Vandergriff, Emma L. Vandergriff, Dewey D. Vandergriff, James C. Johnson, Alvin Johnson, William C. Johnson, Jesse B. Johnson, Esco Johnson, Addie May Johnson, Sarah D. Bragdon, Wesley W. Bragdon, Jodie J. (or Joseph J.) Bragdon, Allaminta Bragdon, Riley Bragdon, Lena A. Williams, Samuel C. Williams, Dortus Parish, Nellie J. Parish, Samantha Stoncipher, James B. Stoncipher, Essie W. Stoncipher, Bessie B. Stoncipher, Roscoe Stoncipher, Milus Johnson, Sarah McLarty, Elton E. McLarty, Burr McLarty, Amanda I. Brake and Artus Thomas as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and the petition herein in so far as same applies to said applicants, should be denied under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the application for the enrollment of Delilah Johnson and Anna Bennight as citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, and the petition herein in so far as same applies to said applicants, should be denied, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that following the ruling of the Department of May 25, 1906 (I.T.D. 9114-1906), in the case of Laura E. Akin, the application for the admission of Susan S. Benight, Willard Benight, Ely G. Benight, Sam Snyder and Jessie B. Benight as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), were not continuing applications, and inasmuch as no application was filed for their enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation prior to December 1, 1905, the petition herein in so far as it applies to said petitioners, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners, Samuel W. McKihley, Otto (or Oto) Stoncipher, Fannie (or Fannie L.) Johnson, Kloyer (or Eulalie) Johnson, Annie C. Vandergriff, Alice Johnson, Virgel (or Virgle Benton) Johnson and Emma D. Thomas, whose applications for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation have heretofore been dismissed, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners, Minerva Smith, Benjamin Smith, Tobias Smith, Lucy Battershell, Ozie Windfield, Emily C. Windfield and Samuel W. Windfield, whose applications for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation have heretofore been refused, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein, in so far as it applies to the petitioners, Sillar Elizabeth Serrrels, John Shandy, Georgia Bottom, Rebecca McLain, Mrs. David W. Reeves, E. Battershell, Frankie Bryant (nee McLain) and Dora D. Vandergriff, for whose enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation no application was made prior to December 1, 1905, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners, Lucinda Snyder, Wilbert 8.

Shandy, James Bottom, Minnie Bottom, Earnest Johnson, Samuel Sorrels and Manda C. Sorrels, should be considered as an application for the enrollment of said petitioners as citizens of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), that said application should be denied, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the applications filed June 1, 1906, June 11, 1906, and June 18, 1906, for the enrollment of Carl R. Vandergriff, Rosena Vandergriff, Ury Eugene Boggs, Samuel Lealie Boggs, John Lester Boggs and Annie Myrtle Manly as citizens of the Choctaw Nation should be denied, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 21, 1902.

Albert P. Folsom,

Milton, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 13th instant in which you state that you and your family have been heretofore enrolled and desire to be advised if it is necessary for you to again appear before the Commission.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Albert Folsom, his wife, Susie K. Folsom, and their children, Claude C., David W., Allie M., Ollie E., Joseph S. and Susie Irene Folsom, are listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

If there have been no births or deaths in your family since the time they were listed for enrollment, it is not considered necessary at this time for you to again appear before the Commission.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Chootaw 2720

Rebecca A. Cox,

Milton, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 6, asking the status of your enrollment as an intermarried citizen, and in reply you are advised that the Commission has not yet passed upon your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chootaw Nation, but it is probable that your case will be reached for consideration and determination in the near future, and when a decision is rendered you will be notified of the action taken therein.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

County.
Q How much did you pay for the license? A One Hundred dollars.
QX Who performed the marriage ceremony? A Willis Folsom, Choctaw minister.
Q What became of your license and certificate? A I was notified to send them to the Dawes Commission and sent them and received no receipt and wrote and asked them and they said they had never received them; that was in '97.
Q Did you actually send those yourself? A Yes sir, mailed them myself.
Q Did you ever try to get a copy of those? A Yes sir.

George E. Hartshorne-----2

- Q Did you get that? A No sir, the Clerk told me there was no record.
- Q Did you have that marriage recorded? A No sir, I sent it to have it record but it was returned to me, and the Clerk said it was never done; that's all I have is just his word for it.
- Q Who did you send that license by to be recorded? A By mail.
- Q Did you get your license yourself? A I sent a man after them.
- Q Who was that man? A Wilse Henderson.
- Q Were you ever married before your marriage to David Cornelia McCurtain? A Never.
- Q Was she ever married before her marriage to you? A No sir.
- Q Since that marriage have you lived together continuously as husband and wife up to the present time? A Yes sir.
- Q There has been no separation of any kind whatsoever? A No sir.
- Q Are you at present living together as actual and bona fide residents of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

There is offered in evidence, marked exhibits "A" and "B", affidavits of J. H. Bowman and Caroline Bowman, relative to the marriage of George E. Hartshorne and David Cornelia McCurtain.

Wilson L. Henderson being called as a witness and duly sworn, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Wilson L. Henderson.
- Q How old are you? A Forty years old.
- Q What is your post office address? A Shady Point, I. T.
- Q Are you acquainted with this applicant George E. Hartshorne? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you known him? A About twelve or fifteen years.
- Q Do you know his wife? A Yes sir.
- Q What is her name? A Her name was David McCurtain.
- Q Do you know anything regarding the marriage of these parties? A Yes sir.
- Q State what you know of their marriage? A I went after the license; Hartshorne gave me the application and one hundred dollars and I went to the county clerk and give it to the county clerk and got his license.
- Q From whom did you get that license? A A. Frank Ross I think was the man that issued the license. The clerk was Nelson.
- Q Clerk of what county? A Gaines county, at Hartshorne.
- Q You actually saw that license? A Yes sir, and paid One Hundred dollars and I carried that license to Hartshorne.
- Q You know it was issued in regular form? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you get other license at the same time? A Yes sir, and same date; James Cromwell.
- Q Was this marriage license procured for a remarriage of these parties? A Yes sir.

George E. Hartshorne-----2

- Q You knew them well at that time did you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you present at the marriage ceremony which was performed under that license? A No sir.
Q Do you know that there was one performed? A No sir, I couldn't say that there was, for I never seen it.
Q Was it generally understood that they remarried? A Well, I think they kinda celebrated his second marriage up there. They charivaried him on his second marriage.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George E. Hartshorne as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that George E. Hartshorne, on September 17, 1896, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to David C. Hartshorne (nee McCurtain), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 8123 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that George E. Hartshorne should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that the Choctaw Nation, through its attorneys, Messrs Cannon, Mansfield, McMurray, & Cornish, has filed with this Commission a notice of protest to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

The Commission, commencing December 3rd, 1900, will hold a session at Atoka, Indian Territory. At that time both you and the Choctaw Nation will be permitted to offer additional testimony and written arguments in this case, and this hearing will be final,

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Spiro, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

Since notifying you on August 18, 1900, of the protest filed by the Choctaw Nation to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, the Commission has been furnished by the Nation with the grounds upon which objection is made to your enrollment. The question raised is to your right to enrollment under your second marriage.

The Commission is in possession of a sufficient statement of facts upon which a decision may be rendered and in your case it will not be necessary for you to appear at the appointment at Atoka beginning December 3rd, 1900.

The Commission will accept and consider any written arguments on questions of law submitted on behalf of the Choctaw Nation at any time prior to February 1st, 1901, and on your behalf at any time prior to March 1st, 1901.

As soon thereafter as practicable the Commission will consider and finally determine your right to enrollment and the decision of the Commission, stating fully its reasons for any action that may be taken, will be mailed to you.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of an application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of James William Barbour, infant son of David P. and Hester Barbour. The records of this Commission do not show that any parties by the name of Barbour have ever been listed for enrollment in the Choctaw Nation. A Hester A. Barber, eighteen years of age, of Spiro, Indian Territory, was listed for enrollment, June 15th, 1899, as a Choctaw. If this is the party who is now your wife, you are requested to so inform the Commission, and also to furnish an affidavit as to the correct spelling of the name, Barbour, whether it Barbour or Barber. Upon the receipt of this information and the identification of the mother as being listed for enrollment by the Commission, the matter of the application for enrollment of your son will receive further consideration.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mattie Walker as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that Mattie Walker (nee Gill) on August 13, 1888, was lawfully married to Tandy K. Walker, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as K. Tandy Walker, number 8129, upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Mattie Walker should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Richard M. Allen as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

It appears from the census card record in this case that on June 15, 1899, Richard M. Allen appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on May 19, 1904.

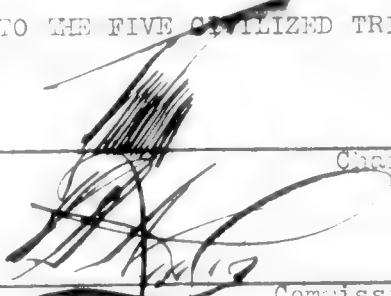

It appears from the record herein that on February 19, 1885, the applicant, Richard M. Allen, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Callie Allen (nee Simcoe) a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8131 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; that they lived together as husband and wife continuously from the date of said marriage until their separation in March 1901; that thereafter the said Callie Allen obtained a divorce from the applicant who was subsequently in the year 1902 married to Gertrude Allen, a white woman, having no rights of Choctaw citizenship by blood; that the applicant had been a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation from the date of his said marriage to Callie Allen up to and including September 25, 1902, excepting that the applicant in 1901 left the Choctaw Nation and was temporarily absent in Arizona, Old Mexico and Texas, prospecting therein; but having at no time a fixed abode in either place; and that he had always regarded the Choctaw Nation as his permanent home and intended to return thereto and reside therein.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission the applicant is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, page 380, number 14250 as R. M. Allen, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton D. Pearce (I.T.D. 4060-1904), relative to the question of forfeiture, Richard M. Allen should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

ADDRESS ONLY
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 15, 1904.

Richard M. Allen,
Rushing, Texas,

Dear Sir:

Enclosed herewith you will find a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, rendered, October 15, 1904, granting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been furnished a copy of this decision and have been allowed fifteen days from the date of this notice within which to file protest against the action of the Commission in enrolling you as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. If at the expiration of that time no protest has been filed, your name will be placed upon the final rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation to be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

Respectfully,

Muscogee, Indian Territory,

August 18th, 1900.

Allen M. Richard,

Starr, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that the Choctaw Nation, through its attorney, Messrs McTernon, Merrill, McTurray, & Cornish, has filed with this Commission a notice of protest to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

The Commission, commencing December 3rd, 1900, will hold a session at Atoka, Indian Territory. At that time both you and the Choctaw Nation will be permitted to offer additional testimony and written arguments in this case, and this hearing will be final.

Yours truly,

John H. Johnson.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 17, 1900.

R. M. Allen,

Starr, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 2nd instant, in which you state that you have been notified by this Commission that your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation has been protested by the attorneys of that Nation.

You ask that the Commission issue a summons for J. F. Farris of Tanaha, Indian Territory, to appear at the session of the Commission at Atoka, December next, for the purpose of testifying as to your rights to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that the Commission cannot issue subpoenas for the appearance of witnesses in behalf of any applicant for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

If you desire to have Mr. Farris testify in your behalf at the session of the Commission at Atoka next December it will be necessary for you to arrange with him for his appearance at that time.

Yours truly,

7-D-248

Acting Chairman.

7-D-248.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 26, 1903.

Richard M. Allen,

Starr, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations April 1, 1903. The act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at this place on one of the above dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

J. O. Poole,

Attorney at Law,

Nocona, Texas.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 6, asking the present status of the applications for enrollment of Nancy Folsom, Martha Brashiers, Dorcas Compton and her child and Mrs. Tom Collins.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Dorcas Compton has been listed among the doubtful claimants to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and her son Clarence C. McElish has been listed among the doubtful claimants to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, but their final rights to such enrollment have not yet been determined. As soon as a decision is reached in these cases the applicants will be notified of the action of the Commission.

It further appears from our records that Martha H. Brashiers and Nancy Folsom have been listed among the doubtful claimants to enrollment as intermarried citizens of the Choctaw Nation but their final rights to such enrollment have not yet been determined. As soon as decisions are reached in these cases the applicants will be notified of the action of the Commission.

You are informed that you do not state the christian name of Mrs. Tom Collins and it is therefore impracticable to give you any information relative to her enrollment.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw D 248

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 9, 1904.

Richard L. Allen,
Rushing, Texas,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 4, asking what steps it will be necessary for you to take in the matter of your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation before you appear at the land office.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission has not yet passed upon your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and before further consideration can be given the same it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commission at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, to testify relative to your status as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation on September 25, 1902, the date of the final ratification by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902.

Richard M. Allen,

Ryan, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 10, 1906, in which you state that you are an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and have two children by your last wife who is a white woman and you desire to be informed if these children will be enrolled.

In reply to your letter you are advised that under a recent opinion of the Attorney General white children of intermarried citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations are not entitled to enrollment and allotment in either nation.

Department of the Interior
Commission to the five civilized tribes
Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 13th, 1901.

In the matter of the application of James M. Daggs for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. Applicant being represented by Townsend N. Foster his attorney.

Attorney for applicant: I offer the following permits in evidence granted by the County Court of Skullyville County to the applicant for the employment of James Oliver in the year 1900. Made in the usual form and signed by John Taylor, county judge. Also the permit to employ John Acorn in the usual form and signed Jerry Fulsom County Clerk of Sansbois County. Also permit to employ Tom Pitchford in 1889. Also permit signed by Solomon McGilbry County Judge, Sansbois County to employ J. J. Wright in the year 1892. Also permit signed by Jerry Fulsom, County Judge of Sansbois County to employ D. C. Miers as a reuder. Also permit signed by W. G. Garland, County Judge, Sansbois County, in January 1895, authorizing the applicant to employ D. C. Miers, all of which permits recognize the applicant as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation and are introduced for the purpose of showing such recognition by the lawful authorities of the Choctaw Nation, to the end that it may appear that he is even now recognized by the authorities of the Choctaw Nation as a citizen, a permit for the year 1900 being the latest one issued.

The permits offered in evidence by the attorney for the applicant are accepted, filed and made a part of the application.

James M. Daggs, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A James M. Daggs .
Q How old are you? A I was born in '47. I will be fifty-four I believe its the 19th of this month.
Q You are a white man? A Yes sir.
Q Been married to a Choctaw woman? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A Amanda Merryman.
Q You married her on the 15th of January, 1874, did you not?
A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever obtain a license from the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation to marry this woman? A No sir, I did not.
Q Did you ever obtain any license? A No sir.
Q How were you married? A I was married by the circuit rider of Skullyville District.
Q There was never any marriage in conformity to the laws of the Choctaw Nation? A No sir.
Q At the time you were married to Amanda Merryman there was in force in the Choctaw Nation an act of the Choctaw Council of October, 1840, which is as follows:

" Be it enacted by the General Council of the Choctaw Nation assembled, that no white man shall be allowed to marry in this Nation, unless he has been a citizen (evidently meaning a resident (, of this Nation for two years.

And be it further enacted that he shall be required to procure a license from some judge or district clerk and be lawfully married by a minister of the gospel, or some other authorized person, before he shall be entitled and admitted to the privileges of citizenship.

And be it further enacted, (That) should any officer or minister of the gospel who are authorized by law to marry in this Nation perform such marriage ceremony not a agreement to this act, (he) shall be made to pay a fine of one hundred dollars for each offense and the money shall be put into the district treasury in which such marriage ceremony may have taken place.

And be it further enacted, That no white man who shall marry a Choctaw woman shall have the disposal of her property without just provocation shall forfeit and pay over to this wife the such sum or sums as may be adjudged to her by the District Courts for said breach of marriage contract, and be deprived of citizenship."

Q Did you attempt at the time you married Amanda Merryman to obtain a Choctaw license from the tribal authorities? A I did not. It was a customary thing for people just to go to the preacher, the circuit rider, and get married. Didn't know anything about the marriage licenses.

By Townsend N. Foster, attorney for the applicant.

Q Now, Mr. Dagg, have you been recognized as a voter in the Choctaw elections? A I have voted ever since '74. I was married the first of the year. I voted for Tom Ainsworth when he first represented his county and I voted for everyone of the Mc Curtains. For the governors.

Q Did you vote at every election? A I might have missed one or two elections since I have been in the Territory but that was just because I didn't go.

Q You have resided in the Territory continuously since your marriage in 1874? A Yes sir.

Q And you voted at all elections or nearly all elections up to the time that you were refused enrollment by Captain McKennon?

A Yes sir.

Q Since that time have you offered your vote? A I never went.

Q Has your vote ever been refused by the Choctaw authorities?

A It never was.

Q Has your citizenship of the Choctaw Nation by intermarriage ever been denied you by the Choctaw authorities? A No sir.

Q Has there ever been any attempt on the part of the Choctaws to have you stricken from the roll? A Not that I know of.

Q Are you today recognized by the Choctaw authorities as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A They grant permits under me and men that are married at McAlester they grant the permits to their wives. That is the difference they make.

Q I understand you to say that white men who are married to Choctaw women under license issued by the United States Clerk at South McAlester and who apply for permits under them, that the permits are only granted to the wife?—A In the wife's name/.

But in your case the permits are and always have been granted to you? A Yes sir.

Q What is the first money that you drew in any, in the Choctaw payments? A The first money I ever drew was the Loyalty claim at Fort Smith. It was paid out at Fort Smith by McCurtain and Campbell Leflore, prosecuting attorney. That has been fifteen years ago I reckon.

James M. Daggs 3

Q This loyalty money was for claims made for property destroyed during the civil war was it not? A Yes sir.

Q Now in whose right was the money paid to you, who did you get it for? A For my wife. She was dead at the time and of course they paid the money to me for the children.

By the Commission.

Q Wasn't the Loyalty Payment a civil action that was instituted in the courts for the satisfaction of certain claims of property that had been destroyed irrespective of any rights to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation? A I don't understand that.

Q The Loyalty payment was paid by a judgment of the court for the destruction of certain property - it was not a percapita payment made to the citizens of the Choctaw Nation by the government? A Yes sir the government paid it.

Q The United States government paid it for property that had been destroyed at the time of the war? A Yes sir.

Attorney for applicant.

Q Just let the record show if you please that the money was paid out by McCurtain and Campbell Leflore.

By the Commission.

Q Did you receive this money yourself? A Yes sir.

Q How much was it? A $97.25, I believe.

Q Who did you receive it for? A For my children, I would suppose.

Q Was that their prorata part of a payment made to the citizens of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir, it was made to the citizens, I suppose.

Q Did every citizen of the Choctaw Nation who was recognized at that time, receive the same amount of money as your children?

A Oh, no.

Q Wasn't the payment made to certain citizens of the Choctaw Nation whose property had been destroyed by the United States government? A Yes sir.

Q Some families received certain sums and other families, other sums? A I think so.

Q There was no specific per capita payment of funds made to the citizens of the tribe? A Not that I know of.

Attorney for the applicant.

Q Now, did you draw any money from the Leased District fund? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you draw it? A I drew at Wilburton. I was registered at Hartshorne.

Q I don't care to go further than that. You have that record there and it shows the fact as he stated is.

By the Commission.

Q Did you draw the leased district fund for yourself? A No sir.

Q The Leased District payment of 1893 was to the citizens by blood? A Yes sir.

James M. Dadds 4

Q And you are a white man? A Yes sir.

Q And you drew as the husband of a Choctaw woman and the father of Choctaw children? A Yes sir.

Q No payment was made to you? A No sir. None of the white citizens.

Attorney for applicant.

I would like to have the record show the record of that payment show the fact as he states it.

The Commission.

It seems to me it would be immaterial as any white man was authorized by power of attorney to draw money for Choctaw Children. We can show that his children received the Leased District money but it seems to me that it is immaterial.

Attorney for applicant.

Q Did you have any power of attorney or any papers from these children authorizing you to draw that money? A No sir.

The Commission.

Q The children at the time of this payment were all minors were they not? A Yes sir.

Q And their Choctaw mother was dead? A Yes sir.

Q And you were their natural guardian and protector? A Yes sir.

Attorney for applicant.

Q When were you first placed upon a roll of citizenship of the Choctaw Nation so far as you know? A I have been on every roll. When they would come round and take the census. I was put on every roll.

Q You state that you have been on every roll of the Choctaw citizens as an intermarried citizen? A Yes sir.

The Commission.

Q On what special census roll? A I don't understand that.

Q You stated that you have been on every roll? A Every one that I know about.

Q Which ones do you know about? A Twenty-one years ago, I was living in Townson County north of the Kiamitia River; and I was put on the census roll in the Chickasaw country. I went over there and staid a year or two twelve years ago. That's Pontotoc County, Chickasaw Nation. I have set on the jury.

Attorney for applicant.

Q Stick to your rolls until you get through naming them. What was the next roll you were put on? A I don't remember just when it was.

Q Where were you living at the time? A I have been put on the roll since I have been living here in Sansbois County but I don't remember just what time.

Q Is that the last roll that you know of made by the Choctaw Nation? A I was put on the roll of '96.

Q Where were you living at that time? A Living on the

James M. Dugas 5

Arkansas River twelve miles below the mouth of the Canadian where in live now.

Q In what county? A Sanshois County.

Q That is the last roll? A Yes sir.

Q Now about you sitting on juries, how about that? A I have sat on the jury.

Q In what court? A Choctaw courts.

Q Where? A In Nowson County close to old Doaksville.

Q Did you make application in 1896 for enrollment as an inter-married citizen and if not, why did you not do it at that time?

A In 1896?

Q Yes sir, in 1896. A Before the Commission?

Q Yes sir, the Dawes Commission. A I went before the Commission and they claimed that I needed two witnesses that seen me married and that is the reason I took my sister with me and went to Tushkahomma. So I taken her there and went to Tushkahomma.

Q Do you mean that you went before the Commission as early as 1896? A No it wasn't that early.

Q That's what I asked you. Why you didn't make application in 1896. Was it because you were a recognized citizen or what? A They had always recognized me and I didn't know I had any right to go.

Q Then you didn't go at that time for the reason that you were a recognized citizen and didn't suppose it was necessary for you to make application for enrollment? A Yes sir.

Witness excused.

-----:-----

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of James M. Daggs as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-----:-----

D E C I S I O N.

-----:-----

It appears from the record in this case that James M. Daggs appeared before the Commission at Tuskahoma, Indian Territory, October 10, 1899, and made personal application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; that on November 13, 1901, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and on December 24, 1902, at South McAlester, Indian Territory, further proceedings were had in the matter of said application.

It appears from the evidence in this case that on the fifteenth day of January, 1874, the applicant, James M. Daggs, who is a white man and possessed of no Choctaw blood, was married in accordance with the customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation in force at that time, to Amanda Merryman, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears upon the 1885 Choctaw Census Roll, Sans Bois County, number 489; that said persons lived together as husband and wife until the death of the latter, about thirteen years later; and that the applicant herein had not remarried up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is further shown, by the evidence in this case and the records in the possession of the Commission, that the applicant, James M. Daggs, has, since his said marriage to Amanda Merryman, been recognized and enrolled by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation as a citizen of said Nation, being identified as "James Daggs" from the Choctaw Census Roll of 1885, number 488, and also from the Choctaw Census Roll of 1896, number 14452, as an intermarried citizen.

It further appears that this applicant was a bona fide resident of the Choctaw Nation on January 15, 1874, and remained a resident in good faith of said Nation up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of James M. Daggs as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation should be granted under the provisions of Section 21 of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

Department of the Interior
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 11, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Mollie Daggs for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Mollie Daggs being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Mollie Daggs.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-one.
Q What is your post-office address? A Ada.
Q Where is that? A In the Chickasaw Nation.
Q Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory? A Been living in the Chickasaw Nation since June.
Q Since June you have been living in the Chickasaw Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Where did you live before that? A In the Choctaw Nation.
Q How long did you live in the Choctaw Nation? A Six year.
Q Where did you live before that? A Texas.
Q Were you born in Texas? A No sir.
Q Where were you born? A In the Cherokee Nation.
Q How long did you live in the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know how long I lived there.
Q How old were you when you left the Cherokee Nation? A I couldn't tell you.
Q About how old? A About a year old.
Q What is your father's name? A Baity Simpson.
Q Is your father living? A No sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A Betty Simpson.
Q Is your mother living? A No sir.
Q How long have your father and mother been dead? A Mother's been dead eleven years and father been dead twelve years.
Q Were your father or mother either of them citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.
Q They were both white people? A Yes sir.
Q Did they ever make any claim to citizenship in any of the Five Tribes in the Indian Territory? A No sir.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship by blood in any of the Five Tribes in the Indian Territory? A No sir.
Q You are a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q You are making application for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A Wallace Daggs.
Q Is that the only name he has? A Wallace William Daggs, I guess.
Q How old is he? A Twenty-five.
Q Where does he live? A In the Chickasaw Nation at Ada.
Q How long has he been living in the Chickasaw Nation? A Three years.
Q Do you know his father's name? A Yes sir.
Q What is it? A James Daggs, I think.
Q Do you know his mother's name? A No sir.

It appears from the records of the Commission that William Wallace Daggs, 22 years of age, and the son of James M. Daggs, a non citizen white man and Amanda Daggs, a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, was listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Choctaw citizen on June 5, 1899 and his name appears upon Choctaw roll card, field No. 2776.

- Q When did you marry William Wallace Daggs? A The 16th of June.
- Q What year? A 1901.
- Q This present year? A Yes sir.
- Q Were you ever married before? A No sir.
- Q Was he ever married before he married you? A No sir.
- Q Where were you married? A In the Choctaw Nation.
- Q Where? A About five miles below Tamaha.
- Q Who married you? A Preacher Culver.
- Q Have you your marriage license and certificate? A Yes sir.

There is offered in evidence, marked exhibit "A" filed and made a part of the record in this application, marriage license issued by E. J. Fannin, Clerk United States Court, Central District, Indian Territory to W. W. Daggs of Ada, Indian Territory, to marry Miss Mollie Simpson of Tamaha, Indian Territory, the same being dated June 11, 1901. Attached thereto is the certificate of A. M. Culver as to the marriage of W. W. Daggs and Mollie Simpson of the 16th day of June, 1901.

Q Your husband obtained this license from the United States Court at South McAlester? A Yes sir.

Q Were you ever married in accordance with a license issued by the tribal authorities of the Chickasaw Nation. A I reckon so. I don't know.

Q Do you understand that question? A No sir.

Q This is the only license you were ever married under, is it not? A Yes sir.

Q Were you ever married under a license issued by the tribal authorities of the Chickasaw Nation? A No sir.

Q Was your husband at the time of his marriage to you a resident of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q How long before his marriage had he been living in the Chickasaw Nation? A About three years.

Q On December 18, 1899, the President of the United States approved an Act of the National Legislature of the Chickasaw Nation of November 3, 1899, as follows:

"That before a non-citizen can procure a license to marry a citizen of this Nation, he or she shall be of good moral character and industrious habits, and shall have resided in the county where such marriage license is sought to be procured, for a period of two years immediately preceding such application, and shall be recommended by ten good and responsible citizens by blood of this Nation; and such citizens shall certify that the applicant is of good moral character and industrious habits, and has resided in the county where such license are sought to be procured for a period of two years immediately preceding such application; and the county judge being satisfied with the petition shall grant the license to marry under the existing law, and the person so applying for such marriage license shall pay the sum of one thousand dollars, five of which shall be retained by the County Judge issuing such license, and nine hundred ninety-five dollars shall be placed in the national treasury of the Nation for national purposes; and that this act take effect from and after its passage and the approval by the President of the United States."

Q Did your husband ever attempt to obtain from the tribal authorities of the Chickasaw Nation for the county ~~ix~~ of which he was a resident, a license to marry you in accordance with the tribal laws of the Chickasaw Nation? A I don't understand you.

Q You stated that you had been married only under this license that had been issued by the Clerk of the United States Court at South McAlester. Now, did your husband ever attempt to obtain from the tribal authorities of the Chickasaw Nation for the county of which he was a resident, a license to marry you in accordance with the tribal laws of the Chickasaw Nation? A I couldn't say.

Q Are you still living with William Wallace Daggs? A Yes sir.

Q Never have separated from him since the marriage? A No sir.

Witness excused.

William Wallace Daggs being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A William Wallace Franklin Daggs is my full name.

Q How old are you? A Twenty-five.

Q What is your post-office address? A Ada, Chickasaw Nation.

Q Are you the husband of this applicant Mollie Daggs? A Yes sir.

Q You are now a resident of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q How long have you been such a resident? A I went there about three years ago.

Q You married this woman, Mollie Simpson, under a license issued by the clerk of the United States Court for the Central District at South McAlester, did you not? A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever attempt to secure from the tribal authorities of the Chickasaw Nation for the county of which you were a resident a license to marry her in accordance with the tribal authorities of the Chickasaw Nation? A I did not.

Q You are still living with this woman are you? A Yes sir.

Q Have you ever been married before? A No sir.

Q The only marriage that has ever been performed was the marriage ~~xxxxxx~~ under the United States license? A Yes sir.

Witness excused.

Applicant, Mollie Daggs, recalled.

The decision of the Commission as to your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation will be determined at the earliest possible date and you will be notified of such action as the Commission may take.

Myra Young, having been first duly sworn, upon her oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five civilized Tribes, she reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 11th day of November, 1901, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes of said proceedings on said date.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mollie Daggs as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-----

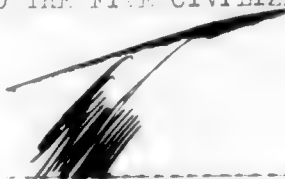

D E C I S I O N.

-----

It appears from the record herein that Mollie Daggs claims rights as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of her marriage on June 16, 1901 with William W. Daggs, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8137 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and the said William Daggs was a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; that they were married under a United States license, and have lived together continuously as husband and wife, as bona fide citizens of the Chickasaw Nation, from the date of their said marriage, on June 16, 1901, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones (I.T.D. 6818-1904), Wollie Daggs should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary Darneal as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that Mary Darneal (nee Long or Loran), on December 24, 1882, was lawfully married to Stephen Darneal, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8145, upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Mary Darneal should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Margaret Ainsworth as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record herein that Margaret Ainsworth, in 1881 was lawfully married to Jesse B. Ainsworth, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 8151 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Margaret Ainsworth should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Elijah W. Fannin as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that Elijah W. Fannin on January 10, 1877, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, to Johnanna Fannin (nee Ainsworth), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8155, upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Elijah W. Fannin should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Elijah W. Fannin,

Spiro, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 18th instant, requesting that you be supplied with three blank applications for the enrollment of infant children, and desiring to be informed as to the names of the members of your family as the same appear upon the roll.

In accordance with your request there is enclosed you herewith ~~three~~ blank applications for the enrollment of infant children. In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures be attested by two disinterested persons, witnesses thereto. The notary public taking the acknowledgments of the mother and the attending physician or nurse, must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

You are advised that it appears from the records of this office that on June 15, 1899, Elijah W. Fannin, 43 years of age, of Oak Lodge, Indian Territory, his wife Jehnanna and their children Henry, Pauline, Fredrick, Georgina, Myrtle I., Madeline F. and Jehanna F. Fannin, were listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

7-2780

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 8, 1902.

Henry Fannin,

Oaklodge, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 4th instant, enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw nation of Mella Belle Fannin, infant daughter of Henry T. and Florence Fannin, born March 18, 1902, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw nation.

Receipt is also acknowledged of the marriage certificate between Henry Fannin and Florence Moorney, and the same has been duly filed with the records of the Commission in the matter of the enrollment of the above named child.

Your request that your wife Florence be listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw nation cannot be complied with for the reason that the rules of the Commission require applicants for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw nation to present themselves in person before the Commission for the purpose of an examination under oath, that a sufficient record may be made upon which to base a decision as to the right of the applicant to enrollment.

If your wife desires to make application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, she will be heard upon her personal appearance before the Commission at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time prior to the closing of the final rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

It is suggested, however, that if she anticipates making such application she should do so with as little delay as possible.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

John W. Benedict,

Superintendent of Schools,

Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 2, asking relative to the enrollment as Choctaws by blood of the following named children:

Everett Crutchfield,
Ima Crutchfield,
Louvina Crutchfield,
William Crutchfield,
Loutieia Crutchfield.

Russell Simpson,
William Simpson,
Brandon Derryberry,
Frank Wilson,
Clayton Wilson,

Minnie Wilson,
Walter Wilson.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that on June 13, 1899, Everett, Ima, Louvina, William and Loutieia Crutchfield, children of Ida Crutchfield and G. W. Crutchfield, were listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, pursuant to a judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory, rendered August 26, 1897, in court case, citizenship docket, Number 132.

It also appear from our records that Edward R. Simpson, nine years old, and William M. Simpson, seven years old, children of Nettie R. Simpson, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and W. M. Simpson, a noncitizen, were, June 15, 1899, listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, being numbers 11,152 and 11,153 thereon.

J.D.N. 2

It further appears that Brandon B. Deryberry, son of Emma R. Deryberry, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and Garrison W. Deryberry, a noncitizen, was, June 15, 1899, listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1896 Census Roll of the Choctaw Nation, being number 3240 thereon.

It also appears that Frank Wilson, twelve years old, Clayton Wilson, ten years old, Winnie Wilson, eight years old and Walter Wilson, seven years old, children of J. D. Wilson and Alice McClary, were on June 14, 1899, listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, as numbers 12830, 12831, 12832, and 12833 thereon.

It is believed that these are the children concerning whom your inquiry is made.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Choctaw 2781.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 27, 1903.

Nettie R. Simpson,

Ward, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 21, asking if the old tribal law governs the selection of allotments at this time, and stating that you and a certain other citizen are having some trouble in establishing the boundary lines between the land on which each has improvements. You also inquire if it is necessary to have a certificate of your enrollment from the Secretary of the Interior before you can appear at the land office and make selection of your allotment.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the allotment of the lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations will be made under the provisions of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902.

You are further advised that it appears from our records that Nettie R. Simpson and her children, Edward R., William N. and Marion Simpson, have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and on January 17, 1903, their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

NR 32

You are further advised that if you desire to select the land described by you in allotment you should appear at the land office for the nation in which the same is located and make formal application therefor. The plat inclosed by you is herewith returned.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Florence A. Merryman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the census card record in this case that Florence A. Merryman appeared before the Commission at Spiro, Indian Territory, June 15, 1899, and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of this application were had at Wister, Indian Territory, December 17, 1902.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 5, 1896, in a case entitled "Allie Merryman vs. Choctaw Nation", (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, Case No. 622), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage with William B. Merryman, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on December 2, 1896, the said Florence A. Merryman was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation under the name of Allie Merryman, as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that her status as an intermarried citizen has remained unchanged from the date of her said admission up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Florence A. Merryman should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Mr. William B. Merryman,

Oak Lodge, Ind, Ter.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Ezra Ruben Merryman, the infant son of William B. and Florence A. Merryman, born June 9, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission, and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Yours truly,

7-2782

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 28, 1904.

Wm. R. Merryman,

Oaklodge, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the affidavits of Florence A. Merryman and N. J. Willkitt, relative to the birth of your infant daughter, Martha B. Merryman, November 12, 1903, which it is presumed have been forwarded to this Commission as an application for enrollment of said child as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, the Commission is now without authority to receive or consider the original application for enrollment of any person whomsoever as a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Gertrude LeFlore for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. The said Gertrude LeFlore having been first duly sworn by Acting Chairman Bixby, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q How old are you, Mrs. LeFlore? A Seventeen.
Q What is your postoffice address? A What is it?
Q What is your postoffice address? A Fort Smith.
Q Arkansas? A What is it.
Q Is that in Arkansas? A Yes sir.
Q Do you live in Arkansas? A No sir; I live in the Choctaw Nation?
Q How long have you lived in the Choctaw Nation? A Really, I don't know. As soon as my husband got the home fixed, we went right straight there.
Q About how long ago has that been? A About a week, I think; about that long - just about.
Q Prior to that time you lived in Arkansas, did you? A Yes sir. Just as soon as he got the house fixed we moved there after we were married.
Q Your husband lived in Arkansas up until the time you moved to the Indian Territory? A Really, I don't know. I think he has always lived, - made the Territory his home, but Fort Smith is his postoffice address?
Q Was his actual place of residence, where he lived and had his household furniture, in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Did he ever have a home in Fort Smith? A Why, his mother lived in Fort Smith, and he would go in there occasionally, but he lived in the Choctaw Nation.
Q Have you always lived in Arkansas up until the time you married Mr. LeFlore? A Yes sir.
Q The only residence you have had in the Choctaw Nation, actual residence, has been in the past week, is it? A Yes sir.
Q What is your father's name? A W.F. May.
Q William May? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father living? A Yes sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A M.J. May.
Q What is her full name? A Mary Jane May.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes sir.
Q Your parents are both white persons? A Yes sir.
Q Either of them ever made any claim to Indian citizenship by blood? A No sir.
Q Have you ever made any claim to Indian citizenship by blood? A No sir.
Q Have you ever, prior to this time, made application to the Choctaw tribal authorities or the authorities of the United States to be enrolled as an Indian by blood? A No sir.
Q Were you ever married prior to your marriage to Mr. LeFlore? A No sir.
Q Was he ever married? A Yes sir.
Q You are now making application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; what is the name of the person through whom you claim this right to Indian citizenship? A Frank T. LeFlore.

Gertrude LeFlore, $2.

Q Is he a Choctaw Indian? A Yes sir.

Q How old is he? A Twenty nine.

Q Do you know to what County in the Choctaw Nation he belongs?

A What county?

Q Yes? A No sir.

Q What is his father's name? A Campbell LeFlore is his father's name.

Q Is he living? A No sir.

Q What is his mother's name? A Ida L. Foucar.

The records of the Commission examined and the name of Frank T. LeFlore appears upon Choctaw roll card, field number 2783, who was listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw on June 15, 1899, as a resident of Skullyville County, Choctaw Nation.

Q When were you married to Mr. LeFlore? A The twenty-seventh of last December?

Q 1900? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you married to him? A At Bentonville, Arkansas.

Q Who married you? A Reverend Boggs of the Presbyterian Church.

Q Have you your marriage certificate? A Yes sir.

Q Have you it with you? A Yes sir.

There is offered in evidence, filed and made a part of the record in this application, the marriage license issued by I.C. Casey, Clerk of Benton County, State of Arkansas, to F. T. LeFlore to marry Miss Frances G. May, the marriage license being dated the 27th day of December, 1899. Also the certificate of D. C. Boggs as to the marriage of F.T. LeFlore and Miss Frances G. May, the 28th of December, 1900 said marriage license and certificate being recorded the 28th day of December, 1900, in the marriage records of Benton County, Arkansas, in Book F, page 63.

Q Mrs. LeFlore, the Frances G. May in this marriage license is the identical person as Gertrude LeFlore now? A Yes sir; my name is Frances Gertrude, but I am generally called Gertrude; that is my name.

Q This is the only marriage license under which you were ever married to Mr. LeFlore? A Yes sir.

Q Was Mr. LeFlore ever married prior to the time he married you? A Yes sir.

Q To whom was he married? A Miss Lillie Ballard.

Q Is she living? A Yes sir.

Q Has he ever been divorced from her? A Yes sir.

Q Was she a white woman? A No sir.

Q A Choctaw woman? A Yes sir.

Q Has she ever married since then? A No sir.

Q It will be necessary that the Commission be supplied with evidence of the divorce of Frank T. LeFlore from his first wife in the matter of the application of Gertrude LeFlore as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Q Mr. LeFlore's intention now is to make his place of residence permanently in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Gertrude LeFlore, #3.

Q Where were they divorced? A I don't know; he was divorced in the Choctaw Nation.

Q The decision of the Commission as to your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation will be mailed to you at your present postoffice address?

Charles G. Warner having been first duly sworn by Acting Chairman Bixby, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

(By Mr. Warner)

The residence of Mrs. Gertrude LeFlore is with Mrs. Ida L. Foucar, now situated in the Choctaw Nation just across the State line adjacent to the State of Arkansas, a strip of Territory which, by the Curtis Bill, was placed under the police jurisdiction of the City of Fort Smith, and her postoffice address is at the general delivery office at Fort Smith. They only live about one hundred yards from the Missouri-Pacific depot and about two hundred yards from the foot of Garrison Avenue, but on the Choctaw side of the line.

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn by Acting Chairman Bixby, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all the proceedings in the above case, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

GERTRUDE MAY, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION BY THE COMMISSION.

- Q. What is your name? A. Gertrude May. That was my maiden name.
- Q. How old are you? A. 21 years old.
- Q. Where do you live? A. At present I live in Rogers, with my mother and father. I have been in Springfield, Mo. as a stenographer for the past year.
- Q. Your present post office address is Rogers, Arkansas? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. You were formerly the wife of Frank T. LeFlore, were you not? A. Yes, sir, and when his mother is at home I live with her in the Nation nearly into Fort Smith.
- Q. When did you marry Frank LeFlore? A. December 27, 1900.
- Q. How long have you lived with him? A. Until about a year ago; I do not know exactly when it was.
- Q. You have been divorced from him? A. Yes, sir, I got a divorce from him a short time after we separated.
- Q. When were you divorced? A. About a year ago; my father attended to it for me.
- Q. How long did you and Frank LeFlore live together after you were married in December, 1900? A. We lived together all that year and part of the next year I guess. That was in 1901 and part of 1902; I think I got my divorce last year.
- Q. You mean in 1903 you got your divorce? A. Yes, sir, last year, my father got the divorce for me and I had very little to do with it myself because I was working.
- Q. Do you remember when the Choctaws and Chickasaws voted on the Supplemental Agreement? A. No, sir.
- Q. Were you living with your husband, Frank LeFlore, on the 25th of September, 1902, if you can fix that date? A. Yes, sir, we were in Rogers at their summer home in 1902.
- Q. When did the separation occur? A. It occurred about November I really do not know when-- it was in the fall there somewhere.
- Q. You lived with him from the time you married him in December 1900 up until--- A. Yes, sir, whenever he was at home.
- Q. You say your name is May? A. Yes, sir. That was my name before I was married and when I got my divorce my maiden name was restored.
- Q. When you married Mr. LeFlore where were you living? A. I lived in Rogers.
- Q. Have you ever resided in the Indian Territory? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Where? A. Right across the line in Fort Smith and in what is known as the old LeFlore House in Fort Smith.

- Q. Who did you live with? A. With my husband and his mother.
What is her name? A. Mrs. Ida L. Fouser.
Q. How long have you lived with Mrs. Fouser? A. Why, after we were married we went from Rogers down there and we stayed there until hot weather and then we went to Rogers and stayed a while and then came back to Fort Smith and stayed three or four months and then we went back to Rogers again and I have been with her off and on ever since.
Q. Did Frank ever have a home anywhere? A. I think he had a farm in the Choctaw Nation.
Q. Did he ever live there? A. Before we were married.
Q. Did you ever live on his farm in the Nation? A. No, sir.
Q. You have not married since you were divorced from Frank LeFlore?
A. No, sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

Mildred S. Cummings, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she correctly reported the proceedings and testimony in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Gertrude LeFlore as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record in this case that the applicant, Gertrude LeFlore (nee May), on December 27, 1900, was married, under the laws of the state of Arkansas, to F. T. LeFlore, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name (as Frank T. LeFlore) appears as number 8173 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage the applicant herein was a resident of the state of Arkansas, and the said F. T. LeFlore was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; that soon after their marriage, in the state of Arkansas, they removed to the Choctaw Nation and lived together continuously, in said Nation, as husband and wife from the date of their removal up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Gertrude LeFlore should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

J. C. Beegs Minister Presbyterian Church
Jackson

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 12, 1901.

Frank T. Le Flore,

Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 7th instant enclosing certified copy of decree of divorce between Millie Leflore and Frank Leflore and the same has been duly filed in the matter of the application of Gertrude Le Flore for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

7-D-622

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 21, 1902.

Mrs. Ida L. Foucar,

Postoffice Box No. 777,

Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 19th instant, in which you desire to be advised if a notice was forwarded from this office to Mrs. Gertrude Le Flore or Mrs. Frank Le Flore relative to her right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, stating that she appeared before the Commission at such applicant in March, 1901, but you are inclined to the opinion that Mrs. Frank Le Flore, the divorced wife of Frank Le Flore, has received the notice intended for the present Mrs. Frank Le Flore.

Replying to your inquiry you are advised that on March 5, 1902, the Commission addressed to Gertrude Leflore, at Fort Smith, Arkansas, the present wife of Frank Leflore, a notice advising her that the Commission would take up for final consideration her application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation on April 15, 1902.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 2, 1902.

W. C. Roberts,

Attorney at Law,

Rogers, Arkansas.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 31, 1902, in which you state that Mrs. Gertrude LeFlore filed her application some time ago for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of her marriage to F. T. LeFlore, a citizen of the Choctaw Nation and that since filing her application she has secured a divorce from him. You desire to be informed if this action bars her.

Replying to your letter you are advised that the Commission does not desire at this time to pass upon the rights of Mrs. Gertrude LeFlore to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, but in this connection your attention is invited to the following provision of the act of the National Council of the Choctaw Nation of November 9, 1875:

"Any person who shall lawfully marry, under the provisions of this act, and afterwards abandon his wife or her husband shall forfeit every right to citizenship, and shall be considered an intruder and removed from this Nation by order of the Principal Chief."

Yours truly,

Choctaw-D-622

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 27, 1903.

Gertrude LeFlore,
Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Dear Madam:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations April 1, 1903.

The Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at said place on one of the above dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

7-5-622.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 16, 1904.

Gertrude LeFlore,

Fort Smith, Arkansas,

Dear Madam:

You are hereby notified that before further consideration can be given your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear in person before the Commission to testify as to your intermarried status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose you are requested to appear at Muskogee, Indian Territory, as soon as possible, or at the Land Office at Atoka, Indian Territory, on September the 6th or 7th, 1904, or at the Land Office at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, on September the 8th or 9th, 1904.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw D 622

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 26, 1904.

Gertrude May,

Care International Harvester Company,
Springfield, Missouri,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 22, in which you state that in March 1901, you made application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation; that one year thereafter you secured a divorce from your husband, F. T. LeFlore and your maiden name was restored. You wish to be informed if there is any use in your appearing before the Commission in regard to your allotment as you have little time and money to spend in this matter.

In reply to your letter you are advised that before the Commission can pass upon your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation it will be necessary to have your testimony relative to your intermarried status on September 25, 1902. As to whether or not it will be any use for you to expend money in looking after the matter you are advised that the Commission cannot express any opinion upon this subject.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 2, 1905.

Frank T. LeFlore,

Featherston, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 27, 1905, in which you ask if a decision has been rendered in the case of Gertrude LeFlore as an applicant for intermarried citizenship in the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are informed that Gertrude LeFlore, formerly the wife of Frank T. LeFlore has been enrolled by the Commission as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and her name has been placed upon a schedule of intermarried citizens of the Choctaw Nation which has been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior, but the Commission has not yet, however, been advised of Departmental action thereon.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Q She applied for divorce shortly after your separation? A Yes sir.

Q You never lived with her after that time? A No sir.

Q Then the facts are as I understand them from you that you married this woman and lived with her about one month and separated, and that she applied for a divorce to the Choctaw Court, which divorce was granted? A Yes sir.

By Mr Rogers:

Q As I understood from you a few days ago you knew a reason why your wife was induced to leave you? --Now, tell the Commission how she was induced to leave you or why she left you---Did she leave of her own accord or was she induced to leave? A I think her sister and brother in law induced her to leave.

Q For what reason? A She had a place in Poteau Bottom and they got $500. a year rent and they got afraid that I would get her to sue for her part of the back rent; I don't know how long they had been getting that rent; they didn't want me to take her away from there at all.

Mr Cornish---The attorneys for the Choctaw Nation enter an objection to the preceding testimony.

Q Did you try to get your wife to live with you after she left you?

A I told her she had better come back home.

Q Did you ever try to get your wife to live with you after she abandoned you? A Yes sir.

Q Did anybody ever see or hear you try to get her to come back?

A Fred Almon was there.

Q Where was that? A I had overtaken her on the road.

Q Have you married again since that woman abandoned you? A Yes sir.

Q Whom did you marry the second time? A Susie McGilberry.

Q Is she a white woman or an Indian? A Half breed.

Q Of what nation? A Choctaw Nation.

Q How long have you been married to her? A I have been married to her about fourteen years.

Q Have you any children by her? A Yes sir.

Q How many? A Two.

Q You and she are living together now? A Yes sir.

Q Near Vireton, Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory? A Yes sir.

By Mr Cornish:

Q Did you procure a license from the Choctaw Nation to marry your second wife? A No sir, didn't take out any license.

By Mr Rogers:

Q You were already a citizen of the Choctaw Nation by your first marriage? A Yes sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lyons Woods as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

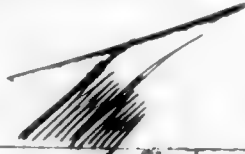

It appears from the records herein that the applicant, about the year 1886, was married under the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Maggie Parish, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name (as Maggie Ward) appears as number 7852 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903, but whose enrollment was cancelled by the Secretary of the Interior on July 8, 1904, she having died prior to September 25, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both the persons above named were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and they lived together in said Nation for about a month, when they separated, and were afterwards divorced; that thereafter and about the year 1890 the applicant was married to Susan McGilberry, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation whose name appears (as Susan Woods) as number 8174 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the said Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903.

It further appears that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation from the time of his marriage to said Maggie Parish, about the year 1886, up to and including September 25, 1902.

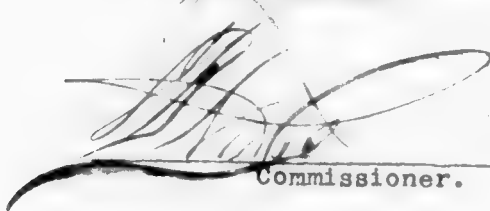

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton

D. Pearce (I.T.D. 4060-1904), relative to the question of forfeiture, Lyons Woods should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:--

In the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, it appears from your testimony given in 1899, that your former wife (Maggie Parish), through whom you claim, was then living. You are requested to at once advise the Commission by what name she was known at that time, and whether she is still living, and if so, her present name.

This information is needed in order that we may identify her as a recognized and enrolled Choctaw by blood.

You will please give this matter prompt attention as no further action can be taken in the matter of your application for enrollment until this information is furnished.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 5, 1901.

Gentlemen:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 2nd instant, in which you desire to be informed if the name of Lyon Woods has been listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations; and, if so, that you be furnished with the number of the card upon which his name appears, his post office address, and also, if it appears from our records that he has remarried since his separation from his Indian wife. You also desire to be furnished with the present post-office address of the woman from whom he has separated, whose name is either Maggie Parish or Maggie Woods.

We have to inform you that it appears from our records that on June 19, 1899, Lyon Woods, thirty-eight years of age, of Sans Bois, Indian Territory, appeared before the Commission and made application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. You have with the files of your office a copy of the testimony of Mr. Woods at Red Oak, Indian Territory, on June 19, 1899, and also a copy of the testimony of Joseph M. Forrest relative to this application. The statement upon the face of the card upon which Mr. Woods' name appears is as follows:

M.M. & C. #2.

"Married according to Choctaw law Maggie Parish a Choctaw citizen by blood. Lived with her about 2 months, they separated and she obtained a divorce in the Choctaw courts. As to marriage see testimony of himself and Judge Joseph S. Forrest. She is still living in Skullyville Co. Wife and children on Choctaw card No. 2784"

The record on Choctaw roll card 2784, above referred to, is as follows:

"Susan Wood, a half blood Choctaw Indian, and her two children, George and Louis Woods, her daughter, Albert Folsom, her daughter, Lavinia Winlock, and her niece, Charlotte Winlock."

The Susan Woods above listed for enrollment appears to be the present wife to Lyon Woods. We are unable to find the name of either Maggie Parish or Maggie Woods upon our index of applicants listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

If you will furnish us with more specific information as to this woman, we will endeavor to locate her and furnish you with the desired information.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 13th instant, stating that your former wife was married to a man by the name of Silas Ward and that she is dead. This letter appears to be in reply to our communication of recent date requesting information whereby your former wife Maggie Parish could be identified upon the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation. The information contained in your letter is not sufficient for that purpose.

You are kindly requested to state under what name she drew the 1893 leased district money and the County in which she then resided and if she was living in 1896, state the name she was known by at that time and with whom she was living.

You are further requested to give the names of her brother and sister referred to in your testimony of June 19, 1899, and again April 7, 1902, and also December 23, 1902. It is important that this information be furnished the Commission with as little delay as possible.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Kate McDaniel as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record herein that Kate McDaniel (formerly Folsom), on October 16, 1900, was lawfully married to Thomas McDaniel, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 13659 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Kate McDaniel should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

The Commission has received information of the death of your husband David Folsom, since the time he was listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

For the purpose of making his death a matter of record there is enclosed you herewith a blank for proof of death which you are kindly requested to have properly executed at your earliest convenience and return to this office in the enclosed envelope which requires no postage.

You will notice that there is an affidavit for an acquaintance and a relative. In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write and their signatures are by mark that such signatures be attested by two disinterested parties witnesses thereto.

The notary public before whom the affidavits are

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 14, 1902.

Mrs. Katie Folsom McDaniel,
Cowlington, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 11th instant in which you state that since the death of your former husband, David Folsom, you have married Thomas McDaniel, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and enclose the affidavits of Thomas E. McDaniel and Silas W. James as to the death of David Folsom on the 4th day of February, 1900.

These affidavits being in proper form have been accepted and filed with the records of the Commission as evidence of the death of your former husband, David Folsom.

The Commission has to note that on May 29, 1899, when Thomas McDaniel, your present husband, was listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, he was married and living with a woman named Melvina Folsom. If she is now dead, the Commission has to request that there be submitted proof of her death and for this purpose there is enclosed herewith a blank upon which may be stated all the information necessary in the matter of her death.

It will also be necessary that you supply either the original or certified copy of your marriage license and certificate to Thomas McDaniel as authority for the changing of your name upon our records from your former name of Folsom to your present name of McDaniel. This matter should receive your prompt attention.

Mrs. K. F. McD. 2

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 21st instant, in which you state that you have married Katie Folsom and desire to have her name changed upon the roll to her present name of Katie McDaniel.

Receipt is also acknowledged of letter of your wife, Mrs. Katie Folsom McDaniel, of February 21, 1902, in which she states that you have never been married previous to your marriage to her and enclosing a copy of the certificate of Jeff D. Ward as to the marriage of Thomas McDaniel and Katie Folsom on the 16th day of October, 1900.

In connection with this matter you are requested to state your age, the names of your parents and the time and place application was made to this Commission for your enrollment.

The copy of the marriage certificate between yourself and Katie Folsom is returned to you herewith, with the request that you forward either the original certificate or a certified copy thereof, as authority for the changing of the name of Katie Folsom

Thomas McDaniel,

Cowlington, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

On February 11, 1902, the Commission received a letter from Mrs. Katie Folsom McDaniel, in which it was stated that she had married Thomas McDaniel, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, presumably yourself.

It appears from the records of the Commission that on May 29, 1899, when you were listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, there was listed with you your wife Melvina McDaniel. You are requested to inform the Commission whether your wife, Melvina McDaniel, is dead and, if so, kindly fill out the blank for proof of death, enclosed herewith, and return with as little delay as possible. It is also necessary that the Commission be supplied with either the original or a certified copy of the marriage license and certificate between yourself and Mrs. Katie Folsom McDaniel. These matters should receive your immediate attention.

An envelope for your reply is enclosed herewith.

Kate McDaniel,

Durant, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

It appears from the records of the Commission that you are an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, by reason of your marriage with Thomas McDaniel, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears that in your testimony taken at South McAlester, Indian Territory, on December 24, 1902, you stated that you had been married twice before you were married to your present husband, Thomas McDaniel, but you gave the name of only one of your former husbands, viz.: David Polson.

You are requested to furnish the Commission with a sworn statement as to the name of your other husband, whether or not he was dead when you remarried, or if you were divorced from him. If you procured a divorce, then it will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with either the original or a certified copy of the decree of divorce. This matter should receive immediate attention.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sarah Berryman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--- D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the census card record of the Commission that on June 15, 1899 Sarah Berryman made application to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Wister, Indian Territory on December 18, 1902.

It appears from the record herein that on February 3, 1896 the applicant Sarah Berryman (nee Chautman) was lawfully married to Leonidas Berryman, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 4141 on the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1892 (52 Stat., 841), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife in said nation from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It appears from the records of the Commission that on September 5, 1896, in the case entitled "Sarah Berryman vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 345), the applicant Sarah Berryman made original application to the Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 301), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming the right thereto by virtue of her marriage with the said Leonidas Berryman, and on December 2, 1896 the said Sarah Berryman was by this Commission denied admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission the applicant (as Sally Berryman) is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census roll, Skullyville County, number 14889, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Arneline White (11137-1903) Sarah Berryman should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 26, 1898 (30 Stat. 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sarah Merryman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-----
D E C I S I O N .
-----

It appears from the record herein that Sarah Merryman, nee Chapman, or Chatman, appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage to Leonidas Merryman, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 8181 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903.

It further appears from the record herein that on February 3, 1895, the applicant herein was lawfully married to the said Leonidas Merryman, and from an examination of the tribal rolls it is found that the name of Sarah Merryman (as Sally Merryman) appears upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll of intermarried persons, Skullyville County, No. 14799.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 5, 1896, in the case entitled "Sarah Merryman vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, page 345), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage with the said Leonidas Merryman, and that on December 2, 1896, the applicant herein was by this Commission denied the right to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that at the time of the marriage of the said Sarah Merryman and Leonidas Merryman, both persons were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is the opinion of this Commission that its action upon the petition of said applicant herein for citizenship under the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, was without authority of law and of no force and effect upon the status of this applicant as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and also that Sarah Merryman is a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation and should be enrolled as such, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Leonidas K. Merryman,

Spiro, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Theodore Merryman, the infant son of Leonidas K. and Sarah Merryman born February 4, 1902, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Spiro, I. T.

Dec 20-1902.

To The Hon Dawes Commission,

Mustogee, Ind Terry

Honored Sirs;

I have just been informed by your clerks at Wister, I. T. That my wife right as a citizen by marriage has been denied

When your Honorable Body was here at Spiro enrolling I presented myself and wife and child children for enrollment and furnished you proof of our marriage by then filing with you our marriage Certificate, And I have been under the impression ever since that her name was on the rolls as citizen by Marriage.

Will you by enough too inform me on what ground her citizenship is denied.

Respectfully

Leonidas E. Merryman

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 3, 1903.

Leonidas Merryman,

Oaklodge, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of certified copy of marriage certificate between L. E. Merryman and Sally Chatman, of February 3, 1895, and the same has been filed with the record in the matter of the enrollment of Sarah Merryman as an intermarried citizen of the Chootaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Director 5787

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 27, 1904.

James L. Bowman,

Oak Lodge, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 27, 1904, to the Secretary of the Interior which has been by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs referred to the Commission for consideration and appropriate action. Therein you ask the status of the enrollment of Sallie Merryman, wife of Leonidas E. Merryman.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the commission has not yet passed upon the application of Sarah Merryman, wife of Leonidas Merryman, for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. As soon as a decision is reached in this case she will be notified of the action taken therein.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw 2787

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 22, 1904.

Leonidas E. Merryman,

Oaklodge, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Your letter of July 3, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, has been by him referred to the Commission for appropriate action. Therein you ask the status of the case of your wife, Sarah Merryman, as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission has not yet passed upon the application of Sarah Merryman for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. When a decision is reached she will be notified of the action taken.

You are informed that the Commission is passing upon applications for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations pending before it as rapidly as practicable, and it is probable that a decision will be reached in this case within the near future.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw 2787

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 3, 1905.

Leonidas Merryman,

Spiro,, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is heroby acknowledged of your letter without date, relative to the status of the application of your wife, Sarah Merryman, for enrollment as aintermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Sarah Merryman was an applicant to the Commission in 1896 for admission as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, which petition was denied, and that no appeal was taken from said decision to the United States Court in Indian Territory within the time provided by law.

You are further advised that the Commission has not yet passed upon her application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, but as soon as a decision is reached she will be notified of the action taken therein.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Choctaw 2787

Sarah Merryman,

Spiro, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that in accordance with an opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of February 19, 1907, the Secretary of the Interior on March 4, 1907, directed the cancellation of your enrollment upon the roll of citizens by marriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Your name has accordingly been stricken from the copy of said roll in the possession of this office.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

File-5-51.

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Sir:

November 30, 1908, the Supreme Court rendered decisions in what are known as the Goldsby and Allison cases. These suits were brought to obtain mandates against the Secretary of the Interior to correct the rolls as to said Goldsby and Allisons, on the ground that the Secretary of the Interior after placing their names upon approved rolls of citizenship had attempted to strike them from those rolls without notice and an opportunity to be heard. The decision of the Supreme Court is that mandate shall issued in those cases.

There are many suits of a similar nature pending against the Secretary of the Interior, and after careful conferences between this Department and the Department of Justice it was decided that judgment should be allowed in all pending mandamus actions in which the relators stand clearly in the same position as Goldsby and the Allison's. Pursuant to these conferences and to the judgments which may be entered on account of the above decisions of the Supreme Court, you are hereby directed to erase the interlineations and notations which purport to strike any of the following names from the rolls of citizens of the respective nations of the Five Civilized Tribes:

PERSONS WHO HAD PRIOR TO THE GOLDSBY DECISION INSTITUTED SUITS, THE PRINCIPLES OF WHICH ARE UNDOUBTEDLY SIMILAR TO THE OPINION OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THAT DECISION.

A careful investigation of those names concerning which no suits were brought, but which, after being upon an approved roll of citizens or freedmen of any of the Five Civilized Tribes, were stricken therefrom without notice and an opportunity to be heard, has thus far developed a list which undoubtedly falls within the principles expressed by the Supreme Court in the Goldsby decision. All these persons are in the same position as those named in the above list of those who had filed suits prior to that decision. It follows necessarily that, if suits were instituted in these cases, judgment must be allowed as was done in the case of the names on the above list. For this reason I have decided that it would be improper to delay the correction of the rolls as far as these persons are concerned. Such delay would continue the rolls in an incorrect condition according to the opinion of the Supreme Court, would bring hardship and expense upon the citizens and freedmen involved, and would delay completion of the work of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

The correction of the rolls in these cases does not add names to the rolls, but merely erases from the rolls interlineations and notations which the court says the Secretary of the Interior has not power to place there. For those reasons you are hereby directed to erase the interlineations and notations which purport to strike any of the following names from the rolls of citizens of the respective nations of the Five Civilized Tribes:

In order that the action of erasures may be uniform for all names and upon all rolls, you will make such erasures in the following manner: The lines drawn through and purporting to cancel the names from the rolls shall be lined out by drawing across them short transverse lines in red ink. The notations purporting to cancel the names from the rolls shall be lined out by drawing through each line of said notations red horizontal lines. In addition to lining out the interlineations and notations you will insert a note at the foot or side of each page containing any of these corrections, said note to be indicated by stars placed before the names involved. The note shall read as follows:

"Words and lines purporting cancellation erased by authority of departmental letter of January 19, 1909 (File 5-51)."

You will notify all persons, whose status on the rolls has been recognized as above, of the action taken, and that they have all the rights of allotment and payments enjoyed by other citizens, as though no attempt had ever been made to cancel their names from the rolls.

Except for the Allison's named in above lists, I am not ready to give you a list of the Cherokees and Creeks whose status upon the rolls will be corrected under the principles of the Goldsby decision. Direction concerning them will follow within a week.

There are other names which were upon approved rolls and were erased or stricken therefrom by the Secretary of the Interior without notice. Some of these are already the subject of injunction or mandamus actions against the Secretary of the Interior, and in other cases such action has not been instituted. There are reasons which make it doubtful whether those persons fall indubitably under the principles of the Goldsby decision. Careful consideration of the matter will be given at once, and, according to the decision reached in each case, the persons involved will be left to such court action as they deem wise or will have the rolls corrected by departmental action in the manner indicated for the two lists set forth above.

A sample page is inclosed, showing the method of erasure to be followed by all officers in the correction of the rolls.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) James Rudolph Garfield
Secretary.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, February 8, 1909.

Mrs. Sarah Merryman,
Spiro, Oklahoma.

Madam:

I am instructed by the Department of the Interior that your case falls within the principles of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of John E. Goldsby et al., seeking to have their names restored to the rolls of citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, and that the notations striking your name from the roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation shall be erased and that you have all the rights to allotment and payments enjoyed by other citizens as if no attempt had ever been made to cancel your name from this roll.

Said instructions have been carried out by this office, and you are now advised that the status of your name on the approved roll of citizens of the Choctaw Nation and of your allotment selection in said nation is the same as prior to March 4, 1907, when the Secretary of the Interior directed that your name be stricken from the roll.

Respectfully,

WHA(CM)

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Alice Folsom as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Alice Folsom (nee Gibson), on September 20, 1893, was lawfully married to Robert Folsom, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8185 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Alice Folsom should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Choctaw 2788

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 17, 1903.

Robert Folsom,

Garland, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 29, 1902, stating that your wife did not appear before the Commission at one of its recent appointments for the reason that her health would not permit, and you ask what steps you should take in order to have her enrolled.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Alice Folsom, wife of Robert Folsom, has been listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. The Commission is now preparing rolls of the citizens and freedmen of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations for submission to the Secretary of the Interior, in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, for submission to the Secretary of the Interior, and it is necessary to secure the testimony of all intermarried citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, relative to their status as such intermarried citizens on September 25, 1902, the date of the ratification by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of the act of Congress above referred to.

It would be advisable for Alice Folsom to appear before the Commission at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at the earliest date possible for the purpose of giving such testimony as no further consideration can be given her application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation until her testimony has been taken therein.

R F 2

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Chootaw-2788

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 27, 1903.

Alice Folsom,

Garland, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Chootaw and Chickasaw Nations April 1, 1903.

The Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Chootaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chootaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at said place on one of the above dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 17, 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

On November 18, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes had the honor to transmit, for Departmental action, a schedule constituting part of the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, Numbers 7996 to 8989, inclusive, copies of which have been heretofore returned approved by the Secretary of the Interior, January 17, 1903.

I now have the honor to report that the entry relative to the sex of the citizen who appears thereon opposite Number 8186 as Robbie Folsom is erroneous and should be corrected.

On December 8, 1903, Robert Folsom, approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, Number 8185, who is the father of Robbie Folsom, appeared at the Choctaw Land Office and from his testimony at that time it develops that this child is a girl. For the information of the Department there is inclosed herewith copy of the testimony of Robert Folsom of December 8, 1903.

I have, therefore, to recommend that the sex of the citizen who appears upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw

Cherokee Nation opposite Number 8186 as Robbie Polson be changed upon the schedules of citizens by blood of said nation in the possession of the Department and the Indian Office from "Male" to "Female" and that the Commission be authorized to make corresponding changes upon the schedules of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in its possession.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

of Indian Affairs.

Washington, October 24, 1904.

The Honorable,

Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Permit me to invite your attention to letter of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, of the 17th instant, reporting to the effect that on January 17, 1903, the Department approved a schedule constituting a part of the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, Nos. 7226-3989, inclusive.

It is now reported that the entry relative to the sex of the citizen who appears opposite No. 8186 as Robbie Folsom, is erroneous and should be corrected.

On December 8, 1903, Robert Folsom, approved roll of citizens by blood, Choctaw Nation, No. 8185, who is the father of Robbie Folsom, applied at the Choctaw Land Office and from his testimony at that time it develops that this child is a girl. For the information of the Department, there is enclosed copy of the testimony of Robert Folsom of December 8, 1903.

It is therefore recommended that the sex of the citizen who appears upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, opposite 8186, as Robbie Folsom, be changed upon the schedule of citizens by blood of that nation in the possession of the Department and of this office from "male" to "female" and that the Commission be authorized to make corresponding changes upon the schedules of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation in its possession.

I concur in the recommendation of the Commission.

Q How long did you live with him? A Fourteen years I believe; up to his death.
Q He was dead at the time of your marriage to Jesse Long? A Yes sir.
Q As far as you know was there any legal obstruction in the way of your marriage to Jesse Long? A No sir.
Q Since your marriage to this man have you lived with him as husband and wife up to the present time? A Between 6 and 7 months.
Q What happened at the end of that time? A My children didn't agree. I have children by my first husband.
Q Did he leave you? A Yes sir.
Q What was the cause of that separation? Was that the only cause? A Yes, he will tell you that himself; he left me the second time.
Q Was there been any divorce? A No sir.
Q During your married life where did you live? A One mile of Shady Point.
Q On his property? A No sir.
Q Did he contribute to your support during that time? A Yes; that was the only reason; he and my children didn't agree.
Q Has he ever attempted to come back to you and live with you? A Yes, he wouldn't I think, but we cannot agree and the children can't agree; it is useless.
Q Did you ever try to have him come back? A No sir; it is his place to do this coming back; he went away and I don't need to call him back.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Julia Long for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that the applicant, Julia Long, on January 2, 1902, was lawfully married to Jesse Long, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8196 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above named were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; that they lived together as husband and wife, in said Nation, for about six or seven months, when they separated, but were not divorced; that the applicant has been a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation since the date of her said marriage, on January 2, 1902, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton D. Pearce (I.T.D. 4060-1904), relative to the question of forfeiture, Julia Long should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Error in Choctaw citizenship roll.

Nov - 5 1914

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report of October 28, 1914, and other papers from Special Supervisor Dana H. Kelsey, relative to an error appearing on the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation in the matter of the designation of the sex of Lillith Greyton, whose name appears on said roll opposite No. 8204.

The enclosed papers show that an error was made in the designation of the sex of said Lillith Greyton. The Office therefore recommends that the final roll of citizens of the Choctaw Nation be corrected by the substitution of the letter "F" in lieu of the letter "M" in the sex column opposite the name of said Lillith Greyton, and that this Office and the Special Supervisor in Charge of the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar correction on the copies of the rolls in their possession.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 27th, requesting to be advised whether or not Julia Burgavin, infant child of John T. and Ella Burgavin, born in January 1899, is listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that our records show that Julia G. Burgevin, infant daughter of John T. and Ella Burgevin, born February 5, 1899, was listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation June 15, 1899.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 17, 1902.

Ella Burgevin,

Tucker, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Information has been received at this office that your husband, John T. Burgevin, has died since the time he was listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

If this information is correct, you are requested to have the enclosed blank for proof of death correctly executed, and return the same at your earliest convenience in the enclosed envelope.

You will note there is an affidavit for a relative and an acquaintance. In having the same executed, be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full, and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write, and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures are attested by two disinterested parties, witnesses thereto.

E D R

The notary public before whom the same are acknowledged must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 25th inst., enclosing the affidavits of Josephine E. Burgevin and John S. Berryman relative to the death of John T. Burgevin, a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, which occurred February 9, 1902; and that of his wife, Ella Burgevin, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, which occurred February 14, 1902; and the same being in proper form have been duly filed with the records of the Commission as evidence of death of the persons named therein.

Receipt is also acknowledged of the affidavits of Josephine G. Burgevin and E.D. McDaniel relative to the death of Basil Duke Burgevin, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, which occurred November 23, 1899; and the same being in proper form have been duly filed with the records of the Commission as evidence of death of the above named person.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 18th, in which you refer to four minor orphan children of your niece, and ask if you can be appointed their guardian. You state that their father's name was John Burgevan and their mother's was Ella Burgevan, that their father was a non-citizen and you understand that an uncle on their father's side has been appointed guardian for said children.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the matter of appointing guardians for minor citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations is one that does not come within the jurisdiction of this Commission and it is therefore impossible to give you any information on this subject. You are informed however that the Commission will recognize in the selection of allotment for such minor citizens duly appointed and qualified guardians, irrespective of whether they have been appointed by the United States Court in Indian Territory or the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribal courts.

You are further advised that it appears from our records that Frances H., Edmond A., Henry A. and Julia G. Burgevin, chil-

7-2801.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Spiro, Indian Territory.

In the enrollment of Wiley B. Morgan as intermarried Choctaw; being sworn and examined by Com'r McKennon he testifies:

Name is Wiley B. Morgan, seventy-three years old.

Q You are the identical person who was admitted by the United States Court , South McAlester, August 25th, 1897, in case number 127, as W. B. Morgan? A I reckon so.

Q Where have you been living?

A Here in the Territory about eighteen year.

Q All the while?

A Yes sir.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

I hereby certify, under my official oath as stenographer to the above Commission, that this transcript is a true and correct translation of my stenographic notes.

M. D. Green

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T. November 9, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Susan Morgan for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Susan Morgan being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A Susan Morgan.
Q What is your age? A 30 years old.
Q What is your post office address? A Ward is my post office.
Q Where is Ward? A It's in the Choctaw Nation.
Q How long have you resided in the Choctaw Nation? A Eight years.
Q You have maintained a continuous residence for eight years in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Your purpose in appearing before the Commission at this time is to make application for enrollment of yourself as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q To whom are you married? A Mr. Wiley B. Morgan.
Q Is he a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation? A No sir.
Q He is a white man is he? A Yes sir.
Q Is he recognized as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation?
Do you know? A Yes sir.
Q To what county does he belong? A Sans Bois County.
Q Was he admitted to citizenship by a judgment of the United States Court? A Yes sir.

The records of the Commission examined and the name of Wiley B. Morgan, 73 years of age, of Garland, Indian Territory is found upon Choctaw roll card field number 2801. The records show that he was admitted as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation by the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory at South McAlester, Indian Territory, August 25, 1897 in court case number 127.

The records further show that he was admitted as W. B. Morgan.

- Q When were you married to Wiley B. Morgan? A April 28th, in '96.
Q Where? A At Garland, Indian Territory.
Q By whom were you married? A Will Garland.
Q Was he an official of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What position did he occupy at that time? A He was county judge of Sans Bois County.
Q Were you married under a Choctaw license? A No sir I don't reckon;
we were just married by a Choctaw judge.
Q Have you your marriage license or certificate? A Yes I have a certificate.
Q Do you wish to offer it in evidence? A Yes sir.

There is offered in evidence, filed and made part of the records in this case and marked "Exhibit A" the following affidavit of W. G. Garland:

Susan Morgan--2.

AFFIDAVIT.

"I, W. G. Garland do Solemly Swear that I did Solemnize the right of matrimonic between W. B. Morgan and Susie Wallace on t the 28th of April 1896 then being duly commissioned as county Judge of Sans Bois county Choctaw Nation Indian Territory.
W.G.Garland.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 6th day of November 1901.

C. C. Jones.
Notary Public

(Seal) My Commission Expires February 8th, 1903."

There is also offered in evidence filed and made part of the records in this case and marked "Exhibit B" the affidavit of S. E. Wilson, a witness to the marriage of the applicant to W. B. Morgan, which is as follows:

"Affidavit -

I, S. E. Wilson

Do solemnly Swear that on the 28th day of April 1896 I was present when W. B. Morgan and Susie Wallace was Married. By W. G. Garland then county Judge of Sans Bois County Choctaw Nation Ind. Tery.

S. E. Wilson

Sworn to and Subscribed before me this 5th day of November 1901.

C. C. Jones
Notary Public.

(Seal) My Commission Expires February 8th 1903"

Q Have you a certified copy of the judgment admitting W. B. Morgan to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the United States Court? A Yes sir.

Q Do you desire to offer it in evidence? A Yes sir.

There is offered in evidence, filed and made part of the records in this case and marked "Exhibit C" a certified copy of the judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory admitting to citizenship as an inter-married citizen of the Choctaw Nation W. B. Morgan.

Q What is the name of your father? A W. G. Long

Q Is he living or dead? A He's living.

Q What is the name of your mother? A Lettie Long.

Q Is she living or dead? A She's dead.

Q Did either your father or mother ever claim citizenship in any of the tribes in Indian Territory? A Well my father claims Choctaw blood but he never tried to make application before the Commission.

Q Your father then claims to be a Choctaw Indian by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Has he ever made application for enrollment to this Commission?

A I dont think he ever has; I am not certain but I dont think that he ever has.

The records of the Commission examined and it does not appear that W. G. Long ever made application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

Q Do you know whether he ever made application for admission as a a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation to the legally constituted authorities of the Choctaw Nation? A He went to the council.

Q What time did he go to the Council? A It was in 94 I think.
Q Did he at that time make application for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by blood? A He did'nt go to the council I dont reckon; he went to the judge - not the judge but the chief of the Choctaw Nation. Thats where he went- Green McCurtain

The records of the Choctaw Nation now in the possession of the Commission examined and the name of W. G. Long is not found thereon.

Q He never made application to the Choctaw council that you know of? A No sir.
Q Do you know why he did not make application? A Because he could'nt make the proof that they desired him to make.
Q Was your father ever admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by a judgment of the United States Court? A No sir.

The court records in the possession of the Commission examined and it does not appear that W. G. Long was ever admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by a judgment of the United States Court.

Q Did your mother claim to be a Choctaw Indian? A No sir.
Q She was a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q You were married to Mr. Morgan in 1896? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know when he made application for enrollment before this Commission? A For himself?
Q Yes. A Well the first application he ever made was in '96., September '96.
Q Did he make any application for your enrollment? A No sir.
Q Do you know why he did' t make any application for your enrollment when he applied for his own admission? A Well he said that his attorney instructed him not to at that time.

The decision of the Commission as to your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation will be mailed to you at your present post office address as given in your testimony.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

June 8, 1904, you transmitted the papers in the matter of the application of Clay McCoy for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation.

It appears that McCoy was married in 1895 to a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, in accordance with the laws of that nation; that his wife's name is now borne upon the rolls of the Chickasaw Nation prepared by you and approved by the Department, and that they have resided continuously in said nation since their marriage. In 1896 McCoy was "admitted" as a citizen by intermarriage by your Commission. Your decision was affirmed, in 1898, by the United States Court for the Southern District of Indian Territory. The decision of the United States Court was vacated, however, by a decree of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court rendered December 19, 1902, in the test case of J. T. Riddle vs. the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

You express the opinion that your Commission is apparently without further jurisdiction or authority in any manner to determine McCoy's application. You request, however, inasmuch as the cases of a number of applicants occupy an analogous status with that of Clay McCoy, that your Commission be specifically instructed as to what disposition should be made of such cases.

Reporting in the matter June 24, 1904, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends "that the Commission be advised that they are without authority to take action of any character looking to the enrollment of Clay McCoy, or any person similarly situated."

In an opinion rendered July 30, 1904, approved by the Department the same day, relative to the question submitted by you, the Assistant Attorney General for this Department concurred in the views of the Indian Office. A copy of his opinion is inclosed herewith, for your guidance, together with a copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter.

Respectfully,

Thos Ryan
Acting Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of the Assistant Attorney-General,
Washington,

J.R.W.
S.V.P.

July 30, 1904.

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I received by reference of July 23, 1904, the papers in the application of Dr. Clay McCoy, for enrollment as a citizen, by intermarriage, of the Chickasaw Nation, transmitted by the Commission of the Five Civilized Tribes, with request for specific instructions for their guidance in similar cases. I am requested to render an opinion upon the case presented.

The record shows that McCoy, a white man, April 17, 1895, according to the usages and customs of the Chickasaw Nation, under a Chickasaw tribal license, married Sallie Goldsby, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation. She has been enrolled by the Commission, number 3905, of the rolls approved by the Secretary of the Interior, December 12, 1902. Since the marriage McCoy has lived continuously with her in the Chickasaw Nation.

Under the act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), McCoy, August 29, 1896, applied to the Commission to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage, which was allowed, November 23, 1896, and the Chickasaw Nation alone appealed to the United States

Court, Southern District, Indian Territory, and by that court the judgment of the Commission was affirmed, March 15, 1898. Under the act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), in a suit instituted by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations against J. T. Riddle and others, this judgment admitting McCoy to enrollment was vacated December 17, 1902. McCoy did not appeal or obtain certification of his case to the citizenship court under sections 31, 32, and 33 of the act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 646-8), but, at suggestion of counsel for the Chickasaw Nation, given him December 24, 1902, applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for enrollment. February 15, 1904, with reference to this and like cases, the Commission adopted a rule that:

Resolved, that the status of these applicants in whose cases appeals to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court have not been taken be considered by the Commission without reference to any action by the United States Court in Indian Territory or by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court and that the original judgment as entered by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in 1896 be held valid and in full force and effect.

The Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations objected, and such proceedings were taken that May 3, 1904, the Secretary of the Interior requested the opinion of the Attorney-General as to the effect of the decree of the citizenship court, who, May 9, 1904, rendered his opinion

That annulment of the United States Court judgments affirming a favorable decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes upon an application for citizenship so far deprives the applicant of a favorable judgment as to devolve upon him the duty of causing his cause to be transferred to the Citizenship Court.

I am further of opinion that annulment of the United States Court judgment did not revive and put into force and effect the judgment of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes admitting such person to citizenship and that enrollment by the Commission based upon such a theory would be a clear violation of the rights of the Indian nations.

The Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes expresses the opinion that:

In view of this recent opinion the Commission is apparently without further jurisdiction or authority in any manner to determine the application of Clay McCoy for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation. Seemingly his failure to appeal or have certified to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court the record in the case before the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory has so far deprived him of a favorable judgment as to prohibit his enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

The Indian Office recommends that:

It is therefore respectfully recommended that the Commission be advised that they are without authority to take action of any character looking to the enrollment of Clay McCoy, or any person similarly situated.

My attention is by the letter of reference specially directed to sections 27, 28, and 34 of the act of July 1, 1902, supra, which sections, so far as here material, are as follows:

27. The rolls of the Choctaw and Chickasaw citizens and Choctaw and Chickasaw freedmen shall be made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in strict compliance with the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and the act of Congress approved May 31, 1900 (31 Stats., 221), except as herein otherwise provided: Provided, That no person claiming right to enrollment and allotment and distribution of tribal property, by virtue of a judgment of the United States court in the Indian Territory under the act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), and which right is contested by legal proceedings instituted under the provisions of this agreement, shall be enrolled or receive allotment of lands or distribution of tribal property until his right thereto has been finally determined.

28. The names of all persons living on the date of the final ratification of this agreement entitled to be enrolled as provided in section 27 hereof shall be placed upon the rolls made by said Commission; . . . . .

34. During the ninety days first following the date of the final ratification of this agreement, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment only of persons whose names are on the tribal rolls, but who have not heretofore been enrolled by said Commission, commonly known as "delinquents," and such intermarried white persons as may have married recognized citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in accordance with the tribal laws, customs and usages on or before the date of the passage of this act by Congress, . . .

McCoy was clearly a person whose right was "contested" within the meaning of section 27. Whether he was or was not made party to the representative suit contemplated by section 31, 32, 33, he had right to be made a party on application, and the judgment in the action operated to annul the favorable judgment that he before had recovered.

It is not my province to question the opinion of the Attorney-General herein rendered, May 9, 1904, supra; that opinion is conclusive in the present case. I therefore concur in the view expressed by the Indian Office.

Very respectfully,

Frank L. Campbell,
Assistant Attorney-General.

Washington, June 24, 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose herewith a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated June 8, 1904, in which they say that Clay McCoy, a white man, who has resided in the Chickasaw Nation for 33 years last past, was married to Sallie Goldsby, a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, on April 17, 1895; that said marriage was performed in accordance with the laws of the Chickasaw Nation, and was solemnized on April 17, 1895, by Rev. J. S. Murrow; that the applicant's wife has been enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation; that her name appears on the approved partial roll apposite No. 3905; that McCoy has lived in the Chickasaw Nation continuously since his marriage, and that he and his wife have lived together as husband and wife since said marriage; that under provisions of the act of June 10, 1896, Clay McCoy applied to the Commission for admission to citizenship in the Chickasaw Nation as an intermarried citizen, claiming right by virtue of his marriage to Sallie McCoy, nee Goldsby; that on November 23, 1896, the Commission rendered a decision admitting Clay McCoy as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation; that an appeal was taken from the Commission's decision, and that on March 15, 1893, the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory affirmed the Commission's decision.

They then say that by the decision of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 17, 1902, in the test suit, that of the Choctaw--Chickasaw Nations vs. J. T. Riddle, et al., the judgment of the United States Court in the case mentioned was annulled and vacated; that after the rendition of the judgment mentioned Clay McCoy on December 22, 1902, addressed a communication to Mansfield, McMurray and Cornish, attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, relative to his status at that time as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and that on December 24, 1902, they advised him as follows:

"The decision of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court is that all 'court claimants' judgments are void. The effect of this would be of course to leave the judgments of the Dawes Commission as they were before they were appealed from.

As to whether or not the Commission would permit application in pursuance of this judgment we are unable to say but it might be well for you to make such an application along the line suggested in your letter."

It is shown by said report that Clay McCoy did not appeal from the decision of the United States Court, or have certified to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court within the time prescribed by the Act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats. 541); the record and proceedings in his case before the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory, and that the Commission, at a session held at the general office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on February 15, 1904, with reference to persons occupying an analogous status to that of Clay McCoy, adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved that the status of these applicants in whose cases appeals to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court have not been taken be considered by the Commission without reference to any action by the United States Court in Indian Territory or by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court and that the original judgment as entered by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in 1896 be held valid and in full force and effect."

To this action of the Commission the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations entered objections, and all of the papers received with the Commission's report of February 15, 1903, concerning this subject were transmitted to the Department with office report of March 12, 1904. This office did not agree with the position taken by the Commission, and the Acting Attorney General, in an opinion dated May 9, 1904, said:

"That annulment of the United States Court judgments affirming a favorable decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes upon an application for citizenship so far deprives the applicant of a favorable judgment as to devolve upon him the duty of causing his cause to be transferred to the Citizenship Court.

I am further of opinion that annulment of the United States Court judgment did not revive and put into force and effect the judgment of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes admitting such person to citizenship and that enrollment by the Commission based upon such theory would be a clear violation of the rights of the Indian nations."

The Commission say that in view of this opinion they are apparently without jurisdiction or authority in any manner to determine the application of Clay McCoy for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and ask for instructions in the premises.

The opinion of the Acting Attorney General is in plain and unmistakable language. He says that it was the duty of all persons who had favorable court judgments, which judgments were annulled by the decision in the test suit, to appeal to the Citizenship Court within the time prescribed by the supplemental agreement, and that the duty of causing the record and proceedings had in the United States Court to be transferred to the Citizenship Court was incumbent upon the applicant, and that by a failure to cause such transfer to be made within the time prescribed by law the applicant was not entitled to enrollment. Under this opinion it is evident that in cases of the character of the one under consideration the Commission has no power or authority in the premises, and that the Department has no duty to perform.

It is therefore respectfully recommended that the Commission be advised that they are without authority to take action of any character looking to the enrollment of Clay McCoy, or any person similarly situated.

Very respectfully,

GAY-11a

A. C. Tonner,
Acting Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Wiley B. Morgan as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-----:-----:-----

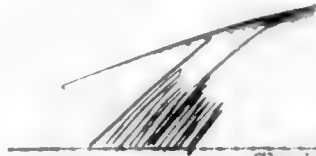

It appears from the records of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that on September 9, 1896, in the case entitled "W.B. Morgan vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 360), the applicant, Wiley B. Morgan, made original application to said Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, and on December 2, 1896, the said Wiley B. Morgan was by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage. From this decision of the Commission an appeal was taken by the Choctaw Nation to the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, which court, in the case entitled "W.B. Morgan vs. Choctaw Nation" (citizenship case number 127) affirmed the decision of the Commission admitting Wiley B. Morgan as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commission that on December 17, 1902, the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, created by the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), "set aside, annulled, vacated and held for naught" the aforesaid judgment of the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory. Said cause has not been appealed or certified to the said Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court for a trial de novo within the time prescribed by the provisions of said act of Congress approved July 1, 1902.

In accordance with the opinion of the Acting Attorney General dated May 9, 1904 (I.T.D. 3824-1904) and the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior dated July 30, 1904 (I.T.D. 5246-1904) the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes is without authority to take any action of any character looking to the enrollment of Wiley B. Morgan as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, and it is, therefore, hereby ordered that the application of Wiley B. Morgan for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation be dismissed.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on Monday, January 11, 1904, at nine o'clock A. M. at the office of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, oral argument will be heard by the Commission on the question of its jurisdiction to now enroll as citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations those persons admitted to citizenship in these two nations by the Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, and where an appeal was taken from such decisions to the United States Courts for the Southern and Central Districts of the Indian Territory.

These decisions of the Commission being subsequently affirmed by judgments of the United States Courts and such judgments vacated and held to be null and void by the decree of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 17, 1902: and such persons not having appealed or had certified to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court their cases for a trial de novo, it is contended by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations that by the nullification of the judgments of the United States Courts by the decree of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 17, 1908, the rights of such persons to citizenship in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations under the decisions of the Commission became extinguished.

W. B. M. — 2

Dear Sir:

In the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, you are hereby notified that, before further consideration can be given your application, it will be necessary for you to appear in person before the Commission at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, to testify as to your status as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation on September 25, 1902.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 9, 1904.

W. A. Holley,

Attorney at Law,

Stigler, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 2, 1904, in which you state that the letter of the Commission of September 20, 1904, dismissing the application of Wiley B. Morgan for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation was held in the office until a few days ago. You understand that the Commission dismissed his application on account of jurisdiction and request to be informed to whom appeal should be taken to establish the fact that Mr. Morgan complied with all the requirements in regard to intermarried citizens.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Wiley B. Morgan was admitted by the Commission as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, that on appeal the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory affirmed the decision of the Commission and admitted said Wiley B. Morgan as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

On December 17, 1902, the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, created under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 vacated and set aside all judgments of the United States Courts in Indian Territory, admitting persons to citizenship in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. It does not appear that appeal was taken by Wiley B. Morgan to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court within the time provided by the Act of Congress of July 1, 1902, above referred to.

On February 15, 1904, the Commission adopted the following rule:

"Resolved, that the status of these applicants in whose cases appeals to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court have not been taken be considered by the Commission without reference to any action by the United States Court in Indian Territory or by the Choctaw or Chickasaw Citizenship Court and that the original judgment as entered by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in 1896 be held valid and in full force and effect."

The Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations objected to this action of the Commission and the matter was submitted to the Attorney-General, who on May 9, 1904, rendered his opinion in which he states in part:

"That annulment of the United States Court judgments affirming a favorable decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes upon an application for citizenship so far deprives the applicant of a favorable judgment as to devolve upon him the duty of causing his cause to be transferred to the Citizenship Court."

I am further of opinion that annulment of the United States Court judgment did not revive and put into force and effect the judgment of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes admitting such person to citizenship and that enrollment by the Commission based upon such a theory would be a clear violation of the rights of the Indian nations."

Under the opinion of the Attorney-General above referred to the Commission is without jurisdiction to consider the applica-

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 14, 1905, asking the present status of the citizenship claim of W. B. Morgan of Garland, Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that on September 20, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dismissed the application of Wiley B. Morgan of Garland, Indian Territory, for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation under an opinion of the Acting Attorney General of the United States of May 9, 1904, and the assistant Attorney General of July 30, 1904, it appearing that the said Wiley B. Morgan was admitted as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation by this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, and on appeal the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory sustained this decision of the Commission; on December 17, 1902, the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, created by the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, vacated and set aside all judgments of the United States Courts in Indian Territory admitting persons as citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and Wiley B. Morgan did not appeal or have certified to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court for a trial denovo the papers in his case.

Respectfully,

Chairmen.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Walter McFerran as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that Walter McFerran, on December 18, 1901, was lawfully married to Isabelle McFerran, (nee Trahern) a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 8217 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Walter McFerran should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

The Commission wishes to be informed whether your son, Walter Trahern, is living or dead. If he is dead you will kindly have the enclosed blank for proof of death properly filled out, all names written in full.

You will notice that there is an affidavit for a relative and an acquaintance. In having the same executed be careful to see that the notary public before whom the affidavits are sworn to affixes his notarial jurat and seal to each affidavit, and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures be attested by two disinterested parties, witnesses thereto.

This matter should receive your immediate attention as nothing further can be done in the matter of the enrollment of your son until this information is received.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Gracie Collins as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that Gracie Collins (nee Jones), was lawfully married on August 16, 1898, to W. S. Collins, Jr., a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as Miles S. Collins, number 4321, upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 441), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1903.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Gracie Collins should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 22, 1898 (30 Stat., 498), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 441), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 1st instant, in which you desire to be advised the status of your application for enrollment .

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Miles S., Gracie, Stella, Mary A., Mamie A. and Miles Ricker Collins, are listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

You are further advised that on September 25, 1902, there was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, an agreement closing the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on that date.

The rolls as now being made by this Commission of the citizens of these two tribes will be as of September 25, 1902 and it is necessary that the Commission ascertain the status of all applicants for enrollment as intermarried citizens on the date of the final ratification of such agreement.

It will therefore, be necessary that your wife, Gracie

U S C Sr. 2

Collins, personally present herself before the Commission at one of the appointments specified in the circular enclosed you herewith, in order that her status as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation on September 25, 1902, may be determined.

Dear Madam:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations April 1, 1903.

The Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 20, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at said place on one of the above dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.
